Sausalito Schism On Walton Grows

By LARRY D. HATFIELD

Declaring that black educator Sidney F. Walton Jr. "cannot operate . . . with the cloud of accusation over his head," the Sausalito School District board last night set a closed meeting for 5:30 p.m. Thursday to hear charges against him. (Other Sausalito School District stories, page 5. See also second in a series on school integration, page 17.)

The meeting was set in a 45-minute closed session last night — held at Bayside School during which the board thrashed out a unanimous statement which included a "plea for rational thinking and behavior."

The decision was read to the packed meeting which also saw these developments in the controversy sparked by Walton's hiring as principal of Martin Luther King School:

Walton, who had been attending a conference in Atlanta, made a surprise appearance at the meeting and talked privately with board president Nathaniel Johnson and Supt. Phillip W. Schneider. He did not speak publicly or talk to reporters.

Board member James E. Muldoon said he might resign if the district cannot or will not move towards integration rather than "separatism."

Muldoon and trustee C. Gerald Clear were sharply criticized by black and white members of the audience for raising the issue of separatism.

There was an outpouring of support for Walton which included a strongly worded resolution passed by the Atlanta conference of the National Association for African American Education, a statement signed by 11 Martin Luther King teachers and several individual statements.

The news media were frequently put under fire for reporting on and, according to some, distorting Walton's past militant activities and association with the Black Panthers.

Johnson, whose life has been threatened five times since the controversy started, read the board statement twice, putting emphasis on the line, "He is still principal of Martin Luther King School."

The statement said Walton

Supervisors Ask Logging Site Cleanup

Board Attacks Mess On Righetti Ridge Property

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

An angry Marin County Board of Supervisors today demanded that loggers on the Righetti property above Bolinas immediately clear the mess they have left, and set a hearing on whether to shut down the entire operation as a public nuisance.

The hearing was set for 1:45 p.m. Sept. 16 in the Civic Center.

The Logger, Matthews, Humbert and Walker of North Bend, Ore., agreed to stop logging in the interis so the six-man crew there can start cleaning up the area.

Three of the supervisors reported they had inspected the logged area in the past week and strongly criticized what they found, including fire hazards, gouged hills, extensive filling of creek beds with debris.

PREDICTS FLOATING

Supervisor William A. Gnoss predicted that logs, slash and trimming, all will float into Bolinas Lagoon and Tomales Bay when heavy winter rains flow through the logged canyons.

"If a fire started there, it would burn the whole country up," he said.

Supervisor Louis H. Baar said "it was the worst desecration of land I have ever seen." The gouged hillsides, he said, will collapse under winter rains. "If this is logging in Marin, I don't want to see anymore of it," he declared. The loggers "literally raped the landscaped;" he said. "And I don't think any more logging should be allowed there until it is cleaned up."

LAND DESTRUCTION

Supervisor Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. said his inspection found "not just desecration but destruction of land, and it's all going to end up in Bolinas Lagoon."

After next winter, Arrigoni predicted, the county will have to pay a lot of money dredging the silt from the logging out of the lagoon.

The loggers' attorney, Albert Bianchi of San Rafael, insisted that the "real problem is none of us in this room knows the difference between logging and lunar landing."

Bianchi, who acknowledged he had not seen the results of the logging himself, said an inspector from the state Division of Forestry reported on Friday that no violation of the forest protection rules was observed.

"When the Taj Majal was half completed, it didn't look so good either," Bianchi added.

But Arrigoni retorted, "I don't

No Boost For Taxes In Fairfax

By JOANNE GRANT

Grueling hours of budget study paid off for the Fairfax City Council last night as it adopted a 1969-70 budget without increasing the tax rate. (Other Fairfax City Council stories, page 11).

After last minute changes, the adopted budget stood at $542,222 and the tax rate at $1.74 per $100 assessed valuation.

The council started the evening with a budget of $545,222 up $83,310 from last year and needing a tax rate increase of two cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Mayor Francis J. O'Connell promptly moved to cut $1,500 from a creek cleanup fund, suggesting the people along Manor Creek be responsible instead, and $1,500 from the contingency fund.

But Street Supt. Edgar Phillips protested, "We've tried for eight years and it hasn't worked."

He reported the creek has trees growing in it and is choked up with debris, causing floods in the winter.

City Atty. Wallace S. Myers noted there is an ordinance which provides for the city to clean the creek at the expense of adjoining property owners but allowed "it might be kind of difficult."

Councilman Adelaide P. Wilson suggested reviewing the project in the spring.

Councilman Frank J. Egger moved to amend O'Connell's motion, to cut $600 for a council secretary and only $1,000 from

Tricia Nixon Hospitalized For Possible Appendicitis

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Tricia Nixon, 23-year-old daughter of the President, was admitted to Walter Reed Army Medical Center today with abdominal pains. It was learned she may have appendicitis.

A spokesman at the hospital said Miss Nixon was admitted at about 10 a.m. (EDT). Her condition was not regarded as serious, it was learned, and doctors expected to make a determination by mid-afternoon on whether to remove her appendix.

Tricia returned to Washington Sunday evening after spending 10 days with her family at their west coast summer home.

There were no immediate plans for other members of the family to return to Washington.

The President and Mrs. Nixon waited word at the Western White House on results of the tests at Walter Reed.

The first lady's press secretary, Gerry Van der Heuvel, said Tricia was admitted to Ward 8 —believed to be the presidential suite —by Dr. Stanley Bear, assistant White House physician.

It was learned that a preliminary examination of Tricia indicated she might have appendicitis but doctors were making other checks.

Tricia was said to have felt ill yesterday, the day after returning from California, but told no one except a White House maid.

Mrs. Van der Heuvel said Tricia began to "feel worse" and called Dr. Walter Tkach, the President's physician, at 8:30 a.m. today at the Western White House in San Clemente.

Tkach then contacted Dr. Bear back in Washington. He examined Tricia "and found no fever and no increase in pulse," Mrs. Van der Heuvel said, although she had abdominal pains.

Tricia gave no reason for her return to Washington except to tell a reporter that she felt "rather useless" vacationing in the surf and sand at the Nixon estate overlooking the Pacific.

Tricia is the oldest of the President's two daughters. The other, Julie, 21, and her husband, David Eisenhower, remained in California and have been regular golfing partners of her father on frequent outings.

118 Arrested During Minority Job March

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Hundreds of persons demonstrating for more construction jobs for blacks marched on several major building projects today and scuffled with police on a bridge linking downtown with a new sports stadium being erected in the North Side.

Police said they took in custody 118 persons, including 20 juveniles and two Pittsburgh Press employees, photographer Anthony Kaminski and reporter Ann Carey. However, Kaminski and Miss Carey, 25, later were released and were not charged.

Two police officers were hospitalized with injuries received in a scuffle with about 200 of the demonstrators on the Manchester Bridge.

After the bridge scuffle the demonstrators, who included both blacks and whites, broke into several groups and marched to various building projects.

Miss Carey said she was "merely standing on a street corner" when police took her in custody. Kaminski said he was taken in custody when he asked the officers why they were taking in Miss Carey.

Sixteen of the arrests were made during the disturbance on the bridge.

A sergeant leading a squad of the police tactical unit said both police and demonstrators used a chemical disabling spray during the disturbance but the police "got the better of it because the wind was with us."

Austrians Killed By Bomb Tosser

VIENNA UPI)—A man burst into the Canadian Embassy today and hurled a Molotov cocktail at a member of the staff, touching off a fire which gutted the reception hall and killed two Austrian employees.

At least 32 other persons, including a number of firemen, were hospitalized for burns and other injuries. However, all but one were released after treatment.

A police spokesman said a Hungarian-born Canadian, identified only as Kolman L., 47, was arrested at the scene after telling police, "I did it." The man was held for questioning.

The embassy is located on the fifth floor of a modern eight-story building on the Danube Canal in downtown Vienna. Survivors stumbled down staircases or policemen's ladders to safety and employees of the Swedish Embassy, on the floor above, also escaped down ladders. The Swedish Embassy was not damaged.

$40,000 Awarded To Women Who Befriended Max Bootzin

By MARY LEYDECKER

Two young women who lived with a Mill Valley octogenarian for four-and-a-half years before he died were awarded a belated $40,000 yesterday for services they had performed.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court had earlier ruled after a 26-day trial that the woman could keep the house and property which Max Bootzin had given one of them.

Yesterday he decided that Charmaine Klenman, now 36, and Joan Saylor, 30, who still live in the house at 8 Robertson Terrace, are entitled to $21,011 and $18,313, respectively, for work and out-of-pocket expenses.

A suit to regain the property and cash Max Bootzin claimed he gave the women following a four-year campaign to gain his affections was filed in 1965.

Bootzin died in 1966 at the age of 83 after asking his attorney, Vincent Hallinan of Belvedere, to drop the suit. Hallinan did not do so, however, and later, as executor of the estate, continued the case on behalf of Bootzin's three children.

Judge Wilson said yesterday in his final decision on the case that, as he had stated at the conclusion of the trial in June, the heirs had failed to prove their case.

"Max pursuaded the defendants to move into the Mill Valley house with the understanding they would make a home together," the judge wrote.

"To provide additional security for the defendants in the event of the anticipated battle with his family, he placed the residence property in joint tenancy with Miss Klenman and later deeded adjoining lots to her outright," Judge Wilson said.

The women were intended to have the house, the judge declared, and furthermore, the old man intended to compensate them for the work they did in remodeling it as well as out-of-pocket expenses for household necessities.

Bootzin did not intend to pay the women for companionship

Tiburon Cuts Its Tax Rate By 2 Cents

A tax rate of 65 cents for $100 assessed valuation for fiscal 1969-70, down 2 cents from last year, was adopted last night by the Tiburon City Council on a 4-0 vote with Mayor Branwell D. Fanning absent. (Another Tiburon City Council story, page 3.)

The rate will finance the city's $566,643 budget, up $169,308 from last year. Increased property assessments and carryover funds from 1968-69 account for the lower tax rate, according to Asst. City Mgr. Russell L. Melquist.

The new levy is based on a property assessed valuation of $21.3 million, up 11.4 per cent from last year.

New Storm Gathers Off Atlantic Coast

MIAMI (UPI) — Tropical storm Eve moved northeastward across the Atlantic 340 miles off the United States coast today and weathermen predicted the blow would reach hurricane intensity by tomorrow.

The National Hurricane Center said the storm was disorganized but "its slow movement over warm waters and its central pressure of 29.38 inches are sufficient reasons to forecast that Eve should be a minimal hurricane by tomorrow. All interests along the middle Atlantic coast eastward to Bermuda should be alerted for future advices."

Mediterranean Games For Soviets

LONDON (UPI)—About 60 Soviet warships are maneuvering in the eastern Mediterranean, U.S. Navy spokesmen said today.

They said the Russian vessels, including the helicopter carrier Moskva, are conducting their war games in two areas, off the coast of Syria and south of the Greek island of Crete.

Talks Set On U.S. Pullout

BANGKOK (UPI)—Talks between the United States and Thailand on a proposal to pullout American troops from this country will begin Monday between Foreign Minister Thanat Khoman and U.S. Ambassador Leonard Unger, the two governments announced tonight.

The announcement was made in a joint communique issued by the two governments after a Thai cabinet meeting.

The communique was apparently worded so as to remove the appearance that the Thai government was trying to force a complete withdrawal of the 48,000 U.S. troops in this country.

This had seemed possible after the foreign office issued a statement last night in which it said the Americans had asked for a few days "delay" in starting negotiations in order to get instructions from Washington.

The communique said:

"The Royal Thai government and the United States government today announced the opening of talks to arrange for a gradual reduction of the level of United States forces in Thailand consistent with the assessment of both govern-

$22.9 Billion Postwar Surplus Disappears, Moynihan Declares

(UPI)—The Nixon administration has discovered that a $22.9 billion windfall expected to be available for federal domestic programs when the Vietnam War ends has evaporated.

Dr. Daniel P. Moynihan, President Nixon's assistant for urban affairs, said an economic forecast released last January is "not realistic" and new studies show the money "just won't be there."

Moynihan apparently referred to a report prepared by former President Lyndon B. Johnson's administration, but issued by the Nixon administration in early January.

The $22.9 billion figure was given as a "peace and growth dividend" on Jan. 23, 1969, by the Cabinet Coordinating Committee on Economic Planning for the end of Vietnam hostilities.

The windfall supposedly would be available to the economy by 1972 assuming the war ended early in 1969, the committee said.

Nixon met Monday with the Urban Affairs Council where he received the bad news. After an unusually lengthy meeting of the council, Moynihan told newsmen at the Western White House:

"There is not likely to be anything like the free resources that we have all hoped for," Moynihan said. "It is simply not there in the system. We are not going to have an easy time of making national priorities in the 1970s."

Mrs. Nixon did not play. She followed the President on foot in a green and white cotton print summer dress and a golf cap.

"The simple fact is," Moynihan said, "we are not going to go through a process where one day you simply stop a process of expenditure that has been going on and suddenly all the surplus comes pouring in to you."

Brother Blamed In Slaying Of Actor Ramon Novarro

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The elder of two Chicago brothers on trial for the murder of silent screen star Ramon Novarro blames his younger brother for the bludgeon-slaying.

Paul Robert Ferguson, 23, testified yesterday that he slept through the murder, and that he actually thought Novarro was a "nice guy" who told him he could become a "superstar" like Burt Lancaster.

TO HUSTLE

Paul testified that he and his brother, Tom, 18, went to Novarro's mansion in the Hollywood hills to "hustle" him, not to rob him of $5,000 as alleged by the prosecution.

Paul told the jury of seven men and five women he became drunk at the 69-year-old actor's home and passed out on a couch. Thomas awakened him after Navarro died.

"See, this guy is dead," he quoted his brother as saying.

"Are you sure?" the older brother said he asked.

"Yeah, he has turned blue," Thomas said.

The coroner's office said Novarro drowned in his own blood from a savage beating apparently inflicted with his own cane, a souvenier from one of his movies.

Paul said he wanted to call the police, but his brother convinced him that the killing should be made to appear as though it occurred during a robbery.

His attorney asked him why he acquiesced to the scheme. Paul thought for a moment, and then said, "stupidness."

Thomas, who has not yet testified, shook his head during his brother's testimony to indicate it was false.

SUPERSTAR

Paul said he and Novarro had "quite a bit to drink" during the evening—he himself consumed more than a fifth of vodka—and that his younger brother also was drinking.

At one point, Paul said the actor told him he might become a star. "He said I could be a young Burt Lancaster, a superstar...another Clint Eastwood."

Paul said Novarro called a man he identified as his publicity agent and quoted the actor as saying on the telephone, "I have a young man here. He could become a superstar and I want you to come over and meet him on Friday."

Ferguson said a "friendly mood" generally prevailed during the evening, at least until he fell asleep.

Gas Use Opposed

LONDON (AP) — The British government offered today to send a specialist to Northern Ireland to check on reports that many of those exposed to CS riot control gas during the religious rioting two weeks ago are still suffering from diarrhea, vomitingand abdominal pains. Babies particularly were reported affected.

London newspapers seized on the reports, and editorials suggested the police in Londonderry shouldn't have been authorized to use the gas.

Itwas the first time the gas had been used in the United Kingdom against rioters. Doctors in Londonderry complained that the authorities were not able to give them the composition of the gas and they were unable to treat victims of it properly.

'Top Secret' War Plans To Der Stern

HAMBURG, Germany (UPI) —The West German magazine Der Stern reported in its current issue it has received copies in the mail of top secret U.S. contingency plans for an "unconventional" war in Europe.

The plans, the magazine said, include preparations for nuclear, chemical or biological warfare in Western or Eastern Europe, and air and sea operations to be undertaken.

Der Stern did not publish the plans, which it said covered 33 pages, 20 of them stamped "top secret" and the others stamped "secret."

MAJOR BREACH

American authorities confirmed the authenticity of the plans, Der Stern said, and with West German intelligence officials launched an investigation into what appeared to be a major breach of Allied security.

(In San Francisco, Ramparts Magazine said it had copies of the same documents and would print them. There were indications the plans were at least six years old.)

Der Stern said the plans were prefaced by remarks that said their purpose "was to prepare the leadership and the layout of responsibilities for beginning and executing an unconventional war in the area of the U.S. European commander."

TROOP STRENGTH

The documents also listed U.S. troops strengths, weapons positions and logistics and electronics capabilities, the magazine said.

It quoted American officials that about 20 persons had access to the plans, most of them at the Pentagon in Washington or at U.S. European Command headquarters in Stuttgart, Germany.

Entitled "Plan 10-1," the documents arrived in a heavy envelope postmarked Rome, Der Stern said. It did not say whether they had been given to the American authorities.

Also inside the envelope was a typewritten letter in English that said the sender was carrying out the wish of Maj. Gen. Horst Wendland, deputy director of the West German Federal Intelligence Agency until he committed suicide last Oct. 8.

The signature on the letter was not legible and there was no return address, Der Stern said.

OTHER COPIES

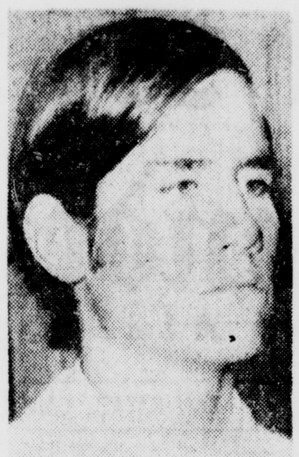
Photostatic copies also were sent to journals in Italy, France and England, the magazine said. In San Francisco, Ramparts editor Robert Scheer said Ramparts got copies several months ago.

The person who mailed copies to Der Stern said in his letter that Maj. Gen. Wendland, highest ranking military officer in West Germany's intelligence system, had urged him to release the plans "at an appropriate time."

Wendland committed suicide last Oct. 8 following what a government spokesman called an "incurable depressive illness." The spokesman said the suicide, the first in a series of 12 in the government, posed no security problem.



ERIK WHITEHORN
Judge reverses case

Protester Of Draft Wins His Freedom

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — After reversing his draft resister status under oath, Erik Whitehorn of Palo Alto has gained freedom from the same federal judge who sent him to prison last May.

U.S. District Court Judge Gus Solomon of Portland, acting on the letter of appeal the 18-year-old sent him Aug. 1, heard Whitehorn testified yesterday and then reduced his sentence to the time he has served since May 28.

The original sentence on a charge of failing to register for the draft had been indeterminate.

Whitehorn said nothing when he was released. He came down from the federal detention quarters on the top floor of the Hall of Justice, embraced his girlfriend and his mother, and they left for Palo Alto.

The judge criticized Erik's mother, Evelyn, a Palo Alto real estate agent, and his former attorney, Aubrey Grossman for their part in forming his attitude.

The court had turned down Mrs. Whitehead's request to be prosecuted instead of her son. She said she advised him against registering and that legally since he can't get married without parental permission he shouldn't be required to join the military without it.

Whitehorn also was put on three years probation on condition that he register for the draft and comply with the law.

The judge specified that he must not be deprived of his right to apply for conscientious objector status, and any appeal from the ruling of a Selective Service board would not be considered by the court a violation of probation.

Judge Solomon described Mrs. Whitehorn as a woman who enjoyed the limelight in her role as a tearful mother.

Youths Given Time In Jail

A Marin Superior Court judge yesterday did not follow the suggestion of the probation department that two 18-year-old Novato burglars be turned over to the California Youth Authority.

Instead, noting that the district attorney's office had earlier agreed to a jail sentence, he ordered Michael R. Rundle and Phillip R. McFarren to spend 90 days in jail. He also gave them credit for time already served.

The youths had earlier pleaded guilty to burglarizing the Lu Sutton School in Novato March 1.

False arrest case

Youth Asks $1.25 Million In Tate Case

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—William Garretson, 20, who was arrested, questioned about the Sharon Tate murders and then released for lack of evidence, has filed a $1,250,000 suit against the City of Los Angeles for false arrest.

Garretson was the caretaker at the estate where the actress and her four guests were murdered and he was the only person alive when police arrived Aug. 9.

Garretson was questioned for two days and then released. He told detectives he knew nothing of the murders until police forced their way into the guest house where he lived and arrested him.

The suit was filed by Mrs. Mary Garretson of Lancaster, Ohio, on behalf of her son. It charged Garretson was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned, and subjected to an invasion of privacy that exposed him to "unwarranted and notorious and undesired publicity."

Woman Beaten To Death; Also Husband Critical

LAKEVIEW TERRACE (UPI)—A woman was beaten to death and her husband was critically injured yesterday when they stopped on a canyon road to help two men in their stalled vehicle, sheriff's reported.

Homicide detectives said that Kathryn Murphy, 41, Sunland, Los Angeles County, and her husband, Sean, 41, were driving on Lopez Canyon Road when they saw the apparently stalled auto and stopped to offer assistance.

One of the men drew a revolver and ordered the Murphy's into the car and then told them to drive a short distance.

Detectives said the men forced the Murphys out of the car, beat Mrs. Murphy to death, then robbed and severely beat her husband.

The Boy Scout movement started in 1908.

San Franciscan Admits Burglary

Benny Jones Jr., 28, a San Francisco street sweeper, admitted yesterday in Marin Superior Court that he was the person who burglarized Smith's Clothing Store in Corte Madera Nov. 28, 1968.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson warned Jones that he faces either a prison or jail sentence and set sentencing for Oct. 1.

Jones was arrested after a high-speed chase when he abandoned his car near the Mill Valley exit on Highway 101.

BLAME THE BRAKES

Sunday's fishing trip was rather expensive for the William Jackson family of Cincinnati. While Jackson waited in their station wagon, his wife, Vivian, went to back their foreign car out of the garage. She backed up the 75-foot driveway, but the brakes didn't hold, sending it through the garage and out the rear, coming to rest against a tree. The tree saved Mrs. Jackson and the car from a 10-foot drop. (AP Wirephoto)

New Home Offered For Houseboats

A new home for 50 houseboats — a spanking new dock — won unanimous approval yesterday from the Marin County Planning Commission.

The dock was proposed for a two-block area part of a 12-block tract owned in Richardson Bay by Donlon J. Arques, who has fended off county efforts to force a cleanup of the houseboat community for months.

Arque's attorney, Hugh G. Lawrence, said the dock would offer a "certainity of a home for the residents of the area — if their houseboats meet county codes. I'm sure you're aware the county has not been too successful in getting compliance on its own," he said of the county's fruitless cleanup campaign.

The action yesterday was to approve the proposed use of the 4.5-acre parcel. The plan for the development will have to be approved by the commission separately, then will need approval by the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission in order to fill an 8,400-square-foot area.

The Marin County Planning Commission also:

BOLINAS LAGOON — Approved a resolution of intention to hold a hearing Sept. 29 on an ordinance requiring county review of all filling in Bolinas Lagoon, and said large fills should need approval of the commission instead of a proposed county natural resources committee.

HIPPIES — Set a discussion Sept. 15 on Commissioner Hugh Dougherty's suggestion that there be a limit on the number of unrelated persons allowed to live together as "family." Commissioner Walter F. Freitas objected that the suggestion was "moralizing — not a planning matter."

MILLER AVENUE — Set a hearing Sept. 15 on route plans to extend Miller Avenue from Mill Valley to Shoreline Highway.

LUCAS VALLEY — Substituted a walkway, costing $1,000 to $2,000, for a $15,000 pedestrian bridge to Dixie School required in the master plan for Lucas Valley, agreeing with the developer, Peninsula Master Builders, that the expense would be unjustified for 36 lots and about 25 children.

TENNESSEE — Postponed to Sept. 29 a hearing on rezoning 16 acres west of Tennessee Valley Road for 43 single-family homes.

Planning Group Goes Nowhere Again On Richardson Bay Plan

The apparently endless complexities of the county planning department's new plan for development of Richardson Bay were examined minutely for a fourth time yesterday by the Marin County Planning Commission, which after three hours sent it back for more staff revisions.

The next hearing on the plan, to which the commission gave tentative approval on Aug. 11, was set for Sept. 15.

County planner Raymond Smith suggested action be postponed to October, a suggestion which brought groans of "oh, no" from property owners in the audience, and a sharp demand from commissioners that the staff complete the revisions before the next meeting.

Among the revisions asked by commissioners were definite criteria for high-rise buildings, guarantees of public access, view and use, and a ban on all residential housing except hotels and houseboats.

The plan calls for swapping private holdings for underwater county rights-of-way in order to preserve as open water the area outboard of the proposed marina green opposite Marin City. It limits property owners to filling not more than 40 per cent of their acreage marked for development.

A crazy quilt of numerous private holdings in Richardson Bay has stymied development of the area for years, and the planning staff's plan was drawn to encourage orderly development there.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, asked by commissioners to discuss the plan, noted the county could not compel the property owners to join the trading with the county so each owner could consolidate his now-scattered property into parcels large enough for economic development.

Maloney also noted that the success of the plan probably depended on the cooperation of all of the property owners. He apparently had in mind the opposition of the plan by George Kappas, who owns 38.2 acres in the area covered by the plan.

But Maloney added that any opposition to the plan may just be a maneuver to get a bargaining position in the land swaps with the county.

Maloney also said there was a legal question of whether the county could buy land from one person for trade to another, a possible roadblock that led commission vice chairman Walter F. Freitas to comment "the whole plan is desirable, but I don't think we can enforce it."

Commissioner Hugh Dougherty strongly criticized the planning department for failing to come up with guidelines for high-rise buildings, a request made by commissioners on Aug. 11. "With all that staff and expertise, I'm really disappointed," he said.

Smith said he had tried, but "just couldn't figure out" how such guidelines could be drawn.

Dougherty insisted that he will vote against the plan unless it spells out "some specific criteria" for high-rise buildings.

Commissioner Margaret Azevedo suggested the staff consider a maximum height of 10 to 12 stories, and a maximum width of 80 feet. The plan also should require developers to provide a certain minumum ratio of open space to floor space.

Favoring the plan was Thomas E. Nowell Jr., one of the affected property owners. But he opposed any height limit on high-rise buildings, noting plans for development still would have to be approved by the commission.

Nowell, who recently tried unsuccessfully for approval of a $25 million high-rise development up to 16 stories, noted that private property owners in Richardson Bay had been delayed already for more than 15 years.

Also opposing any restriction in the plan on the height of buildings was attorney Hugh S. J. Allen, representing the Zaro holdings.

The only speaker who said the plan was too specific was Pierre Joske, head of the county parks and recreation department. He said the plan was too detailed on the type of marina park long proposed for the area, but Dougherty said he was "a little stupified at this — we are at a point where we must make a decision."

Commissioner Niels Schultz Jr. also suggested that staff revisions spell out precisely which property would be reserved for public access to the bay front, "rather than leave it to be promiscuously applied to every property."

Commissioner Jack G. Nixon was silent during most the long hearing, but commented at the end that "we're bogging down, it seems to me."

Chairman Michael Praszker was absent.

Judge Orders Restitution

Dennis Norman Clark, 26, of Larkspur, who admitted taking about $500 from his employer was ordered yesterday by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court to make restitution and to spend four weekends in jail.

He had earlier admitted taking the money from funds to be deposited in a bank sometimes between November and February. He was employed by Sportsland Corp., which has a concession in the Larkspur Disco store.

Forest Knolls Theft Plea Is Entered

James Roger Kraft, 23, of San Francisco pleaded innocent in Marin Superior Court yesterday to burglarizing a Forest Knolls home on May 28.

A jury trial was set for the week of Dec. 8.

Suspects In Opium Case Are Released

Three youths arrested Sunday on suspicion of armed robbery which was linked to a proposed purchase of opium were released yesterday when the district attorney 's office said charges would not be filed until the case had been investigated further.

Those arrested in Fairfax after two San Anselmo youths said they were robbed of $65 at knife point were John S. Iacono, 19, of Greenbrae; Stephen John Pappas, 19, of San Francisco, and Reade Collins Backer, 18, of Ross.

Police said that two youths who said they had been robbed of $65 had been told by Iacono that he and his friends would sell him $100 worth of opium.

Iacono, according to police, said that he and his friends planned to substitute incense for the opium but when the two boys were short $25, they took the $65, using a knife as a threat.

Deputy Dist. Attny. Gary T. Ragghianti said yesterday that members of that office plan to interview persons involved in the case further before issuing compaints.

Two juveniles who were with the arrested youths were taken to Juvenile Hall Sunday.

Retarded Children Are Guests Of Lions

About 125 children and their teachers from the Cedars School for Retarded Children in San Anselmo will be guests of the San Rafael Lions Club at the 5 p.m. performance of the John A. Strong Circus Thursday. Other performances are scheduled at 2:30 and 8 p.m.

The children's attendance at the Montecito Shopping Center show will be the second year the Lions Club has hosted the school at the circus.

Controversial Apartments Approved

Rezoning of Strawberry Cove for apartments and a marina won unanimous, but informal approval yesterday from the Marin County Planning Commission.

A vote to rezone the 20-acre parcel owned by Clipper Yacht Co. was postponed to Sept. 29 so commissioners can vote simultaneously on a master plan for the proposed development.

The plan will include a 160-boat marina, clubhouse, 312 parking spaces and 72 apartments, mostly on fill and piers, commissioners were told by the county planning department.

DENSITY

The department recommended a density of 2.5 units per acre, holding that with the marina the developer would make an adequate profit. But the commissioners said they would vote for a density of 3.6 units an acre.

Clifford Pedersen, an owner of Clipper Yacht Co., pushed for 90 units, but with no success. He noted he originally planned 142 units.

Objecting that the development would be "like paving (the bay) over," Mrs. Benjamin Dreyfus of Strawberry said it would "destroy an extraordinarily productive resource of the Bay Area." She also termed the development "like cutting out a part of the one of our lungs."

APARTMENTS FOREIGN

James K. Garner, a director of the Strawberry Recreation District, also objected that apartments "would be somewhat foreign to the Strawberry area."

But Commissioner Margaret Azevedo, while acknowledging keeping the cove in its natural state was desirable, said "we cannot dump altogether the rights of private property." The proposed development, she said, "is modest and generous" in its provisions of public access to the water.

Machines Looted

The Hideaway at 128 Kentucky Street, Petaluma, was burglarized Sunday night, police reported yerterday. Two juke boxes and a pinball machine were looted for a total of $250.

Tiburon Proceeding On Rail Land Buy

Taking another step toward condemning the Northwestern Pacific Railroad right-of-way along Tiburon Boulevard, the Tiburon City Council last night agreed to divide the property into three parcels for acquisition. (Another Tiburon City Council story, page 1)

That, according to Councilman William R. Bremer, will give the city added leeway in its condemnation procedures, particularly in allowing the city to condemn a portion of the right-of-way if the entire parcel proves to be too expensive.

Bremer said the city would proceed on the assumption that the entire parcel would be condemned and purchased by the city. "Only if the fair market value, as established by the courts, exceeds what we can afford to pay, would the city select one or more portions for first purchase," Bremer explained.

The three parcles are the section extending from Tiburon Boulevard and Trestle Glen Boulevard southeasterly to the intersection of Tiburon Boulevard and San Rafael Avenue; the northerly side of Tiburon Boulevard at Trestle Glen Boulevard extending to the southeasterly portion of the filled tunnel; and the intersection of San Rafael Avenue and Tiburon Boulevard southeasterly to the intersection of Tiburon Boulevard and Mar West Street.

Bremer said three separate law suits would be filed by San Rafael attorney Richard A. Clarke, retained to handle the condemnation.

In addition, the council agreed for the record that the right-of-way is being acquired for bicycle and pedestrian trails and parks.

The council agreed not to go ahead with abatement proceedings against the Richardson Bay Sanitary District over odor from the Trestle Glen sewage treatment plant pending results of a sanitation engineer's study of the odor problem, initiated by the district.

The Tiburon City Council Also:

MASTER PLAN — Adopted an ordinance establishing a master plan for development of Fred G. Zelinsky's downtown Tiburon property including, in a first stage, construction of 10,000 square feet of professional-administrative offices west of city hall and a 5,000-square-foot addition to Tiburon Vintners for additional commercial space.

HORSES — Referred for additional study an ordinance requiring a use permit for the keeping of horses and ponies within city limits.

APPEAL — Continued to Sept. 8 an appeal by Lawrence C. Olin for a variance from setbacks for various lots in Reedland Woods unit 1.

AYALA COVE — Endorsed the renaming of Hospital Cove on Angel Island to Ayala Cove.

REED SCHOOL PARK — Agreed to investigate the purchase of 2.5 acres adjacent to Reed School for a nature park.

LANDSCAPING — Authorized up to $500 for the landscaping of Trestle Glen and Tiburon Boulevard between Mercury Avenue and the Reedlands in cooperation with the Belveron Association.

Novato Creek Session Set

Billed as "save it or scratch it," a public informational meeting on Novato Creek and its future will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Novato Community House.

The purpose of the meeting is to organize a citizens committee to work with the Army Corps of Engineers and Marin County flood control officials in maintaining the beauty of the creek through Novato.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss will be the master of ceremonies. Brian W. Mattson, Novato planning director and Edward W. Adams, parks and recreation director, will each tell of plans for the creek, according to Elizabeth Moody and Joan Grosser, co-chairmen of the citizens who are organizing to save the creek.

Sausalito Schism On Walton Grows

was hired because the majority of the board believed he could run a strong integrated program at King. Since his hiring several weeks ago, he has begun developing a new discipline policy and strong educational objectives, the statement said.

It said the board would hold a series of closed meetings to air the charges against Walton and to review administrative policies and positions, the latter to include an evaluation of Schneiner's role in Walton's hiring. Muldoon and others have suggested Schneider withheld information about Walton's past in pushing him for the job.

Johnson later changed the board statement to eliminate the reference to administrative policies when Sausalito resident Michael Harris said it would violate the Ralph M. Brown Act.

Late in the meeting, when all but about 50 of the original 400 persons had left, Muldoon and Clear made separate statements.

Muldoon said he has received an "enormous amount of response" to the Walton controversy and "the overall theme has been moderation."

He said there was "surprising agreement on the need for integration rather than teaching of separatism," adding that if the district moved towards separatism, he might resign as "an ineffective representative of the moderate view."

Clear said, "I am committed to an integrated education. I am dead set against separatism." He and Muldoon were immediately challenged from the audience with speakers pointing out that the two trusees were the only ones who had mentioned separatism.

When Clear said it was his conviction that there has been a "strong trend towards separatism" at King, Johnson said he was "tired of nit-picking, tired of witch-hunting," adding: "It's about time Sausalito, Marin City and the forts realize that nobody is talking about separatism."

He said neither he nor Walton's special assistant, James T. Toliver, would be working in the district if it were aiming for separatismm Both men are black. Johnson said, and the theme was repeated by several members of the audience, that the district's "goal is quality education."

"We're going to make it here together or we ain't gonna make it," he said to applause.

Again challenged on what he meant by separatism, Clear, speaking in a trembling voice, said he had seen "an attitude of black kids drawing apart from white kids who had been their friends . . . I'm talking about a degree of feeling that resulted in less communication between black kids and white kids."

Muldoon did not respond to the audience's challenges.

Later, Johnson threatened to adjourn the meeting after Toliver and Collie B. Gaines of Marin City accused whites in the district of practicing separatism. Johnson a short time later again threatened to end the meeting when a white woman asked how many in the audience had read Walton's book "The Black Curriculum."

"This is not a kangaroo court of Mr. Sid Walton," Johnson said, admitting he was "about to lose his cool." He added, "I refuse to allow this public meeting to go that way. I will not have Mr. Sid Walton put on trial here tonight."

The argument was cut off a few minutes later after a black woman in the audience decried the "pettiness" of arguments among adults and said she hoped black and white children were not being prepared to "accept the type of thing we're seeing here tonight."

The statement from the teachers, black and white, praised Walton as "extremely qualified" and said they were particularly impressed with his plans for reorganizing the curriculum and his rapport with both black and white teachers.

The resolution from the Atlanta conference, read by William (Chaka) Bradley, another controversial black teacher at King, attacked Muldoon as "one white honky racist" and decried "white racism which is perpetuated by right-wing elements in our society such as Muldoon, a bigoted honky in Sausalito and misguided, ignorant, Uncle Tom niggers such as Rev. Fred Small of Marin City." The reference to Muldoon was jeered by some whites in the audience, the majority of which seemed to back Walton.

The resolution also condemned the Bay Area news media and, although Chaka did not read it after being admonished by Johnson, it condemned "the white racist attitudes expressed by Sausalito School District board member C. Gerald Clear."

It also called for an effort to force the resignation of State School Supt. Max Raffery and "all racist school administrators and politicians."

Although none of the members of the overflow crowd spoke against Walton, two white residents said they had lost confidence in Schneider and the board should consider replacing him.

Toliver, in a statement, attacked "irresponsible publicity" by the media, criticized Rafferty and asked whether Eldridge Cleaver's "Soul on Ice" and LeRoi Jones' "The Dutchman" would be used in the Sausalito district.

Johnson said consideration of use of the books, which Rafferty has labeled unfit for school curricula, would be taken up at a later meeting.

LOGGING

care what the state says, the state law stinks."

Bianchi, quipping "we don't want to be at loggerheads," promised "every possible cooperation."

Joining in the criticism was County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom, who said all the debris from the logging should be burned up after the fire season, and the area "cleaned up to my satisfaction, or the operation not be permitted to commence" next season.

He termed the logged area "a high fire hazard area," and noted that the dust was up to one foot deep.

Taking down the proceedings was a court reported hired by Bianchi.

Bianchi; repeatedly assuring the supervisors the problem would be cleaned up so that a ban on logging would not be necessary, said that "if they (his clients) haven't gotten the picture by now, they're in serious trouble."

Marin County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney noted that the supervisors previously empowered him to get a temporary restraining order against the logger if the operation violated the county permit. Maloney said he could take such a legal step if the loggers "were uncooperative" in their promise to halt operations pending the Sept. 16 hearing.

Pharmacy Looted Of Drugs, Cash

An unknown quantity of narcotics and $267 in cash were taken yesterday from the Marin Medical Pharmacy, San Rafael police reported today.

Officers said that someone first broke into offices shared by doctors Rafael G. Dufficy and Frederick Hass, took $17 and then forced their way sometime after midnight into the adjacent pharmacy, located at 750 Las Gallinas Avenue, and took $250 in cash and the narcotics.

San Rafael Meeting On Opening Land Set

San Rafael City Council, at a special session yesterday afternoon, set Oct. 6 for a public hearing on annexation of the Marin County Civic Center and open lands to the north and east, about 1,000 acres in all.

The hearing will be at 8 p.m. at city hall. The hearing was scheduled for Sept. 22 but had to be changed to meet legal requirements for publishing of notices, Mayor C. Paul Bettini explained.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

2:22 p.m., Larkspur — Engine fire caused by carburetor backfire caused $25 damage to McPhail's Appliances truck at 70 Cielo Drive.

3:21 p.m.; Marin City — Twenty square feet of grass was set afire near Highway 101 and the Marin City overpass; no damage.

ments of the security situation.

"The talks will be held in the first instance between the foreign minister of Thailand, Thanat Khoman, and the United States ambassador to Thailand, Leonard Unger, in Bangkok beginning on or about Sept. 1.

"More detailed conversations, in which Thai and United States representatives will participate, will follow to plan for any reduction it is considered desirable to make over a period of time, assuming there is no in the security situation in Southeast Asia."

The Thai version of the communique was signed by the information department of the ministry of foreign affairs.

U.S. officials confirmed that the Thai version was identical with one of the Americans had planned to issue apparently timed to coincide with a Thailand Radio news broadcast.

It marked the start of what U.S. and Thai officials hoped would be the beginning of a reasonable and measured series of conversations on the phaseout of American troops in this country. The U.S. troops have been mainly engaged in carrying on the air war against Communist forces in North and South Vietnam and Laos.

The decision to begin pulling the Americans out of this country stemmed from a major debate currently going on in Congress over the extent of the U.S. commitment to this country.

There have been allegations, mainly from Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., and other leaders of the dove faction in Congress that a secret 1965 contigency agreement between the two countries might commit American forces to defending Thailand without the consent of Congress.

There are six major air bases in Thailand, and forces at the base have been engaged mainly in conducting fighter bomber and B52 strikes against Communist positions.

The amendment passed, 3-2, after same confusion, with O'Connell and Councilman Cornelis Van Vliet on the losing end.

The votes on the budget and the tax rate were 4-1 with Van Vliet voting no on each.

He explained, "The county raises its tax rate by 12.5 cents and nobody complains about it." He indicated disgust with the amount of time spent on reducing the Fairfax budget by two cents and said he would have been willing to vote the increase.

The adopted budget was up from Mrs. Lestanguet's recommendations of $539,403 which time to require a 6 to 11-cent increase in the tax rate. Elimination of the tax rate increase was due to cuts by the council, errors in the original proposal and lower spending than anticipated.

and housekeeping services, the judge decided. They had asked $25,000 each for their friendship.

"As I view it, the defendants companionship and home making services were rendered in the mere expectation of the legacy or gift . . ." which they hoped to receive and was not legally recoverable, Judge Wilson ruled.

As to the amounts that Miss Klenman and Miss Saylor should receive for their labors and expenses, the judge said that the women "have kept careful records" and there was "no basis to disregard their figures."

He did, however, cut their gardening fees in half, ruling that half of the gardening came under the category of "outdoor housekeeping" and not improvements to the property.

The old man's estate was inherited by his daughter, Adeline Bootzin Rodriguez of San Francisco, and two sons, Robert and Morris Bootzin.

OBITUARIES

Maria L. Pacheco Dies At 81

Maria Loreta Pacheco, 81, a retired San Rafael school teacher and a descendant of a pioneer Marin County family that came to California from Mexico in 1776, died today at a local hospital after a short illness.

Miss Pacheco was the niece of the late Ygnacio Pacheco, for whom the present community of Ignacio was named.

Ygnacio Pacheco was the owner of a Spanish land grant, one of the largest ranches in Marin, in what is now the Ignacio — Hamilton Air Force Base area.

Miss Pacheco was born in San Rafael, her father having owned a ranch in what is now West End.

She was a teacher all her life, having taught first in high school, then in primary school. She was principal of West End and Sun Valley schools in San Rafael upon retirement about 16 years ago.

She last lived with her sister, Irene Pacheco, also a retired school teacher, at 161 Bayview Drive.

Miss Pacheco was a member of the Retired Teachers Association of Marin County and of the Marin Audubon Society.

Requiem High Mass will be celebrated for Miss Pacheco at 9:30 a.m. Thursday at St. Sylvester's Church, San Rafael. A Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Keaton Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

HENRY ANDERSEN

Funeral for Henry C. Andresen 77-year-old Penngrove rancher who died Sunday in a Santa Rosa hospital, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Sorensen Funeral Home, Petaluma. Burial will be at Cypress Hill Memorial Park.

A life-long resident of 6180 Redwood Highway, Andresen operated a poultry and dairy ranch. He was a member of the Sonoma County Farm Bureau.

He is survived by his wife, Bessie I. Andresen; a son, Robert C. Andresen of Petaluma; a sister, Jennie L. Reese of Petaluma, and three grandchildren.

AILSA MELLON BRUCE

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Ailsa Mellon Bruce, reputedly the richest woman in the United States, died yesterday in Roosevelt Hospital after a brief illness.

She was about 65 years old.

Mrs. Bruce's worth was placed at more than $500 million last year by Fortune magazine. She had devoted herself to charitable and philanthropic interests in recent years, working from her 121-acre estate at Syosset on Long Island.

Her father, Andrew W. Mellon, served as secretary of the treasury from 1921 to 1932 and was once United States Ambassador to London.

Mrs. Bruce married David K.E. Bruce in 1926. They were divorced in 1945, with Mrs. Bruce getting sole custody of their 11-year-old daughter. Bruce was named Ambassador to London in 1961.

ARTHUR GIFFORD

Private funeral for Arthur S. Gifford, 85, of San Rafael was held today at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

Gifford, a self-employed hardware manufacturers representative for about 45 years, died Sunday in a local hospital after a short illness.

Born in Asuchnet, Mass., he had lived in California 70 years and in Marin County for 25 years, last residing with his daughter, Elizabeth Nathan at 60 Locksly Lane.

He retired about 14 years ago.

Gifford is survived by another daughter, Cathryn Payton of Los Angeles as well as four grandchildren.

Inurnment will be private.

CHARLES W. GOODWIN JR.

Charles W. Goodwin Jr. of Hillsborough, father of Polly Seastrom of San Anselmo, died yesterday at a Burlingame hospital following a two-month illness.

Goodwin, 74, district manager with General Electric Supply Co., San Francisco, for 48 years, was born in San Francisco and had lived in Hillsborough for 12 years.

On retirement from the electric company, he became a registered representative with Paine, Webber, Jackson and Curtis, San Francisco stock brokers, and worker there until his illness.

Goodwin was a member of the California Golf Club, San Francisco Rotary Club and the Bohemian Club of San Francisco.

He is survived by his wife, Polly Goodwin; his daughter, Polly; four brothers, Lloyd, William and Percy, all of San Francisco, and Dr. Arthur Goodwin of Stockton; two sisters, Marion Marshall of Los Angeles and Laura Goodman of Berkeley. He is also survived by three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Colonial Mortuary of Crosby-N. Gray and Co., Burlingame. Inurnment is private.

HELMER GROTH

The age of Helmer Joseph Groth of 74 Mohawk Avenue, Corte Madera, who died Saturday, was 58, not 56 as reported yesterday in his obituary notice.

His family asked that contributions be made to the Marin Lutheran Church, Corte Madera, or a favorite charity. Funeral will be tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. at Marin Lutheran Church.

GEORGE J. HASMAN

George Joseph Hasman, a Marin County resident for 50 years and veteran of the Spanish-American War, died Sunday in a local hospital following a long illness.

Hasman, who lived at 1824 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael, was 92.

Born in Reno, Hasman came to California in 1899 and to Marin County in 1919. He worked as a Marin County deputy sheriff and was also a real estate broker.

He is survived by a brother, Charles of Sacramento.

He was a member of the Ashland, Ore., Elks Lodge 944 and of the Bay Counties Peace Officers Association.

Funeral will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael. Inurnment will be at the Mount Tamalpais Crematory.

Why Do You Have A Poor Memory?

A noted publisher in Chicago reports there is a simple technique for acquiring a powerful memory which can pay you real dividends in both business and social advancement and works like magic to give you added poise, necessary self-confidence and greater popularity.

According to this publisher, many people do not realize how much they could influence others simply by remembering accurately everything they see, hear, or read. Whether in business, at social functions or even in casual conversations with new acquaintances, there are ways in which you can dominate each situation by your ability to remember.

To acquaint the readers of this paper with the easy-to-follow rules for developing skill in remembering anything you choose to remember, the publishers have printed full details of their self-training method in a new booklet, "Adventures in Memory," which will be mailed free to anyone who requests it. No obligation. Simply enclose a dime to cover postage and handling. Send your name, address, and zip code to: Memory Studies, 835 Diversey, Dept. 310-618, Chicago, Ill. 60614.

Sausalito Absorbs School Breakfasts

The Sausalito School District board, after being told the Black Panthers would resume their breakfast program for schoolchildren if the district did not, last night agreed to spend about $8,500 in district funds to take over the program. (Another Sausalito School District story, page 1.)

The action came after a lengthy discussion during which Marin City Black Panther Melvin Randolph accused the board of vacillating, saying, "We're going to keep feeding these kids breakfast no matter what."

He was supported by several black and white members of the large audience, including Sausalito resident Michael Harris who told the board, "I don't think we should fight on whether kids in this district will be fed. . . . Let's fight about the things we're really mad about rather than whether to feed hungry children."

Randolph, Harris and others were backed by cheers of "Right on."

The board unanimously accepted a report from its "breakfast committee" which recommended the district match state funds available for the breakfasts, which were originated without district financial support last year by the Panthers.

The recommendations included hiring a coordinator for the program and trustee Martha Freebairn-Smith, head of the committee, said interviews for the position would be started immediately.

The motion to have the district take over the program was made by trustee David E. Freedheim who agreed with board member James E. Muldoon that the breakfast program should be reviewed at the end of the semester.

Much of the discussion of the breakfasts centered on whether the district should support a breakfast program, an expanded lunch program or both. Mrs. Freebairn-Smith and others contended the district already has an operating bag lunch program and the major need was for breakfasts.

A survey she presented showed that at least 50 youngsters would take advantage of the program.

A suggestion from one member of the committee that those children who could afford it might pay a nominal fee of 10 cents for the breakfasts was jeered down by the audience.

Arabs Fire Rockets Into Jerusalem

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Arab terrorists today launched their first rocket attack against Jerusalem since the 1967 Middle East War, firing three Soviet-made missiles that narrowly nissed a crowded hotel and a hospital. There were no casualties or damage.

Israeli authorities said two of the rockets exploded on a pile of gravel outside the 400-bed Judea Gardens Hotel, jammed with both tourists and Israelis. The third missile slammed into a field near the St. Simon Hospital for the Crippled.

AFTER MOSQUE FIRE

It came five days after fire partially gutted the El Aqsa Mosque, third most holy place in Islam, in Israeli-occupied Jerusalem. Arab nation foreign ministers, vowing vengeance for the blaze, were meeting in Cairo.

Israeli officials in Jerusalem said they had been unable to find the suspected rocket launching sites. The targets were about two miles from the center of the city and three miles from the El Aqsa Mosque.

Three Soviet-built rockets also slammed today into Beisan, a city of 12,500, four miles west of the Jordan River in the Beisan Valley, a military spokesman said. The rockets exploded in open areas and there were no casualties.

Arabs fired the rockets from positions across the Jordan River from launchers with a new type time device, military experts said.

TO BRING PRESSURE

Highly placed Israeli political sources at the same time said Israel will bring worldwide pressure to bear on the Arab states to arrange a "modern day Jewish exodus" from them.

They said Israel would respond to Iraq's execution Monday of two Jews among 15 convicted spies by employing political rather than military tactics.

"We are trying to bring world pressure to bear on Arab nations—mainly Iraq, Syria and Egypt—to allow a modern day Jewish exodus," one of the sources said.

In their view, Middle East tensions whipped by the burning of the El Aqsa Mosque and the almost daily guerrilla attacks and air raids are now at flashpoint.

The Israeli government said it would convene an emergency session of the Knesset (parliament) Thursday to discuss the plight of Iraq Jews. A government communique said Jews in Arab countries "are being oppressed and humiliated and held as hostages."

Israel's investigation into the El Aqsa Mosque fire appeared about to be postponed pending completion of preparations for the trial of Michael Dennis William Rohan, the Australian accused of having started the blaze.

Israeli Attorney General Meir Shamgar said he would probably file formal charges against Rohan by the end of the week and asked the five-man investigation panel, created by the government, to postpone its investigation until Aug. 31.

Oil Slick Polluting French Beach Strip

ERGUY, France (UPI) — A stinking oilslick polluting the Brittany coast sloshed ashore today, killing hopes that it could be dissipated with chemicals before piling up on more than two miles of beaches.

Two coastal minesweepers, the Betelgeuse and the Capricorne, were speeding here from Le Havre and Marseille with fresh stocks of Corexite, a chemical designed to break up and sink the oil, when an official announced that "there is no more oil floating offshore."

The cargo was to have supplemented the Corexite flown in earlier today. Chemicals from French Naval vessels during the last two days dispersed two thirds of the oil, but thousands of gallons still smeared the beaches.

Gendarmes, volunteers and more than 200 soldiers worked with detergents and shovels, trying to clear the oil. Some 300 more soldiers were to arrive later.

Previously, sawdust had been used to try and soak it up. Some local people felt its use was no more than a psychological gesture, and booed when they saw it being used.

The oil normally would have been swept out to sea by prevailing currents, but freak winds allowed it to come in on the morning tide.

The oil was believed to have come from the French tanker Gironde which collided with the Israeli freighter Harbashan in the English Channel last Tuesday.

Approval To 'Pyramid' Skyscraper

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The board of supervisors gave final approval for construction of an 853-foot, 55-story pyramid-shaped office building that one critic called a "pseudo-architectural stunt."

Speaking at the meeting that preceded the final approval Monday, architectural critic Allan Temko declared the $32 million structure "would even be wrong in Los Angeles ..or in Las Vegas, where it belongs, or in Dallas, where buildings vie for attention."

"It certainly doesn't belong in San Francisco, which is sensitive and easily hurt," he contended.

Before supervisors was only the question of whether they would vacate 183 feet of Merchant Street, an alley, to make room for the building which is planned by Transamerica Corp.

Ex-Insurance Executive Arraigned In Stock Fraud

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— The former president of an East Coast insurance company, discovered sailing to Vietnam with the seaman's papers of a dead man, was arraigned yesterday in connection with a $400,000 stock fraud.

Wallace Ralston, 44, North Abington, Mass., was arraigned on a Norfolk County, Mass., fugitive warrant at the Northern District Municipal Court of San Mateo County in South San Francisco.

In Massachusetts, Dist. Atty. George G. Burke said the case against Ralston, once president of the Life Insurance Co. of of Carolina, involves " the theft of securities put up as collateral for loans at several banks." Burke declined to give details.

Grove Cole, who now heads the Carolina firm headquartered in High Point, N.C. said, "as far as Life of Carolina is concerned, we do not know that he (Ralston) is charged with anything. All of our stock is cared for."

Ralston was turned over the police at San Francisco International Airport when he stepped off a flight from Saigon in the custody of U.S. Coast Guard officer.

Police said the former insurance company executive sailed July 30 from New York aboard the SS Beatrice Victory, a maritime administration cargo ship en route to Vietnam. He signed aboard as first mate with the papers of Capt. Ivan Beale, who the Coast Guard said is deceased.

The Maritime Administration discovered the fraud and notified the captain of the vessel who place Ralston in custody aboard ship, until it docked in Saigon Aug. 18.

Burke said Ralston had waived extradition. The district attorney said Massachusetts state police Lt. John Raegan was en route to San Francisco to return the suspect for a probable cause hearing in Quincy, probably next Monday.

Windows Broken

Five windows, valued at $150, were broken in the administration building at San Marin High School in Novato, between 5 p.m. Friday and 8 a.m. Saturday, Vice Principal Harry J. Moore, reported yesterday to Novato police.

Indian Malnutrition

NEW DELHI (UPI) — About 50 per cent of the children in India suffer from some form of malnutrition, according to the Indian Health Minister.

Petaluma To Improve Street Lights

The Petaluma City Council last night reviewed a proposal by Pacific Gas and Electric Co. to update street lights.

James Parks, of the utility company, suggested that 350 incandescent lights be replaced with mercury vapor lights. He said the east side of Petaluma with many new homes has excellent lights, but that the older sections of the city on the west side needed to be reviewed.

Parks said that poles will be replaced or relocated on five streets at no charge to the city, but said the replacement of all old lights would cost $2,513 per year.

LIGHT PORTION

City Engineer David A. Young reported that the street lighting budget now takes 10 per cent of the city property tax revenue.

Questioning the proportion, Young said he didn't know how much more the city should logically spend on the lighting program.

Streets suggested for new lights included Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Eleventh, F, I, Bassett, Dana, Webster, Western Avenue, Bodega Avenue, Keokuk Street, McNear Avenue and West El Rose Drive.

Parks also suggested the city consider lighting Sunnyslope and Western avenues in the county section that borders the city.

The council said it would consider the program at its 7:30 p.m. meeting Monday.

The council also heard a report from Gordon W. Miller of the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District on plans to collect fees for checking building plans.

REVIEW COST

Milller said that, should the city sign an agreement with the county, the water district would review building plans for $12 a subdivision lot, $12 per mobile home pad and $50 per acre on commercial and industrial development.

The chief engineer said that fees would merely cover the costs of plans checking for flood dangers which had been provided at no cost in the past.

City Engineer young said the fees would come out of the $75 per lot checking fee charged by the city and would not cost developers more money.

Suspect Freed In Petaluma Beating Death

Petaluma Police Chief Larry D. Higgins today reported that a suspect held for questioning in connection with the beating death of Robert F. Buhrer last week has been released pending further investigation.

Jimmy Sims, 18, of 332 Edith Street, Petaluma, was released in Southern Sonoma Municipal Court yesterday when no complaint was filed. He was ordered to appear again Sept. 8 at 1 p.m. for possible arraignment.

Sims had been held as a suspect in the death of Buhrer who died Saturday in a Santa Rosa hospital. Police originally believed that Buhrer may have died from injuries sustained in a fight with Sims Thursday night.

Higgins said the case may go to the grand jury.

Sonoma County Coroner Andrew Johansen reported the cause of death as shock due to loss of blood from a peptic ulcer and peritonitis caused by a ruptured bladder.

Sausalito School Tax Rises To $3.355

Sausalito School District's 1969-70 total tax rate will be $3.355 per $100 assessed valuation Asst. Supt. Joseph Amato told the district board last night.

The tax rate, based on figures from county Auditor Michael Mitchell, is up from $3.04 last year and is six cents higher than Amato had estimated it would be last month.

Amato told the board the difference in his figures and the county's were due to changes in law, the addition of some county wide taxes to the total and the fact that the county only figured 93 per cent of secured valuation while he figured 97 per cent.

The district's final 1969-70 budget was $1,469,959, down from $1,625,830 last fiscal year. The reason the tax rate went up despite the lower budget, Amato said, was due to funds for the San Francisco State College-sponsored Step Program and a state grant in the 1968-69 budget.

The Sausalito School District Board Also:

READING — Heard a lengthy discussion on a new reading program to be initiated at Central School to raise reading levels. A program for other schools in the district will be described at the next meeting.

MULTI-ETHNIC — Heard Mrs. Raye Richardson outline the district's multi-ethnic program for the coming school year which will feature studies of the "Americanization" of persons of various ehnic backgrounds.

PUBLIC — Adopted a policy covering public participation in board meetings, setting ground-rules for debate and comments.

EMPLOYMENT — Approved the hiring of Constance White as a Spanish teacher at $11,219, and Mataeus Freitas as a custodian at $544 a month.

CLOSED SESSION — Held a closed session to hear an appeal of the board's rejection of an interdistrict attendance request for the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Benhken who asked for permission to transfer their children to Mill Valley from Martin Luther King. The board upheld the rejection, pending a pychologist's recommendation on the child. Benhken told the board his daughter was having difficulty adjusting to King.

Plastics Plant Planned For Petaluma

Construction will start Sept. 15 on a plastics processing plant in Petaluma, Chamber of Commerce and city officials announced yesterday.

The business, operated by Lewis R. Schilling, will manufacture plastic containers and employ 50 persons on three shifts. The plant, on five acres, will be located on Lakeville Highway adjacent to the Highway 101 interchange and will be owned by Crocker-McDevitt Enterprises who will lease to Schilling.

The building will include 51,000 square feet of air conditioned manufacturing areas along with business offices and a warehouse. There will be a rail spur supplying the rear of the building and recessed truck docks serving the Lakeville Highway side.

The building is expected to be completed by January for more than $1 million. Plans call for doubling the size of the building in two years.

Petaluma Crowd Reacts Noisily To Park Ticket

A crowd of 20 unruly persons taunted Petaluma police last night as an officer attempted to give a citation for double parking.

Morris said youngsters and adults poured from nearby houses when Miss Bonnikson began loudly berating the officer. He said the crowd included many persons who had been drinking with some coming to the scene with beer cans in hand.

The neighbors said police should be out catching criminals rather than upsetting women drivers and began circulating a petition to arrest the officer for double parking his partol car during the arrest.

Four officers with shotguns were called in and dispersed the crowd within 15 minutes.

Rohnert Park Sets Plans For Founders Day

The Rohnert Park Recreation Commission last night approved plans for the recreation department's program for the Founder's Day celebration scheduled for Sept. 12, 13 and 14.

Chairman Ronald E. Rasmussen said there will be free swimming at both pools on Sept. 14 with a special program to be presented at Benecia Park pool by the synchronized swimming class.

Thomas West, recreation director, said he had plans for children's games and athletic events at Alicia Park on Sept. 14.

A commission committee studying new rules and regulations for the city pools set a special meeting at 7:30 p.m. today to review conduct rules with swim team members.

Woodacre Brunch

The annual back-to-school gin fizz brunch of the Woodacre Improvement Club will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sept. 14 at the clubhouse. The breakfast, including ham, eggs and pancakes at various prices, is open to the public.

Fairfax Meeting Confusion

Fairfax Congress for Community Progress organizers, eagerly awaiting return of questionnaires on which the October town meeting will be based, learned yesterday they may be waiting in vain.

Many residents, including two members of the city council, have not received the questionnaires which were supposedly mailed to every home in town last week.

Joseph Walla, chairman of the congress, said special checks had been made to insure every councilman would receive a questionnaire.

The post office told him last week all of the questionnaires had gone out by Wednesday, he said.

Some of them did and in the first three days almost 200 were returned, he reported. The deadline for returning questionnaires is next Sunday and persons who have not received one should write Post Office Box 1, Fairfax, Walla said.

Larkspur Is Denied Boat Dock Grant

I-J Special Report

SANTA BARBARA — The state Harbors and Watercraft Commission yesterday rejected a bid by the City of Larkspur for a $170,000 grant to construct boating facilities on Corte Madera Creek.

C. A. Curtis, head of the commission's development staff, said the commission turned down the request because Larkspur's proposal included charging a parking fee at the site.

The grant was to have covered the entire cost of developing boating facilities which are planned for the state highway right-of-way on the Corte Madera Creek below the Greenbrae interchange on Highway 101.

Planned are a two-lane launching ramp, loading floats, toilets and parking for 54 vehicles.

Curtis said the commission has a standing policy against granting money for facilities for which there will be a charge to the users. He said Larkspur city officials had indicated they wanted to charge for parking and use the money for maintenance of the facility.

The grants made by the commission are with Department of Motor Vehicle registration money, Curtis said.

College Board Cannot Hide From Responsibility

Let's talk about responsibility.

A YEAR OR SO ago, some students at the college — both regular and part-time students — were given permission to set up a student-run "experimental college." The idea was that this would permit some free discussion of topics which might be relevant to the students but could not be included in the regular curriculum.

When the board of trustees approved creation of the "experimental college," it promised the students would be given free rein to introduce whatever kind of courses they saw fit. However, the board did not and could not simply wash its hands of the experiment. Since it was set up by the college, the "experimental college" was — and remains — a part of the college.

THIS SUMMER, the "experimental college" offered a course in revolution, with a young man named Dennis Marnell, who calls himself an anarchist, as course leader. The Marin unit of the United Republicans of California and the Marin Property Owners Association, along with some others, became disturbed at reports the class was teaching tactics of armed revolution aimed at overthrow of the government. Marnell has denied that it does this.

The two organizations (and at least one other) petitioned the college board to refuse to allow the class to continue in a college classroom. They took the position that a tax-supported institution should not allow its facilities to be used for advocacy of overthrow of the system that supports it.

LAST THURSDAY night, the board decided the revolution course could continue. But in doing so, it executed a not-too-neat double dodge.

Louis H. Herkenhoff, acting president of the college, said that discontinuing the revolution course would be "backing away from our responsibility" of providing an open forum of ideas.

Trustee Theodore C. Wellman said the board must guard against doing anything "that would tend to repress or infringe upon expression of ideas in a college atmosphere."

BUT THEN THE BOARD chose to hide behind the so-called Civic Center Act.

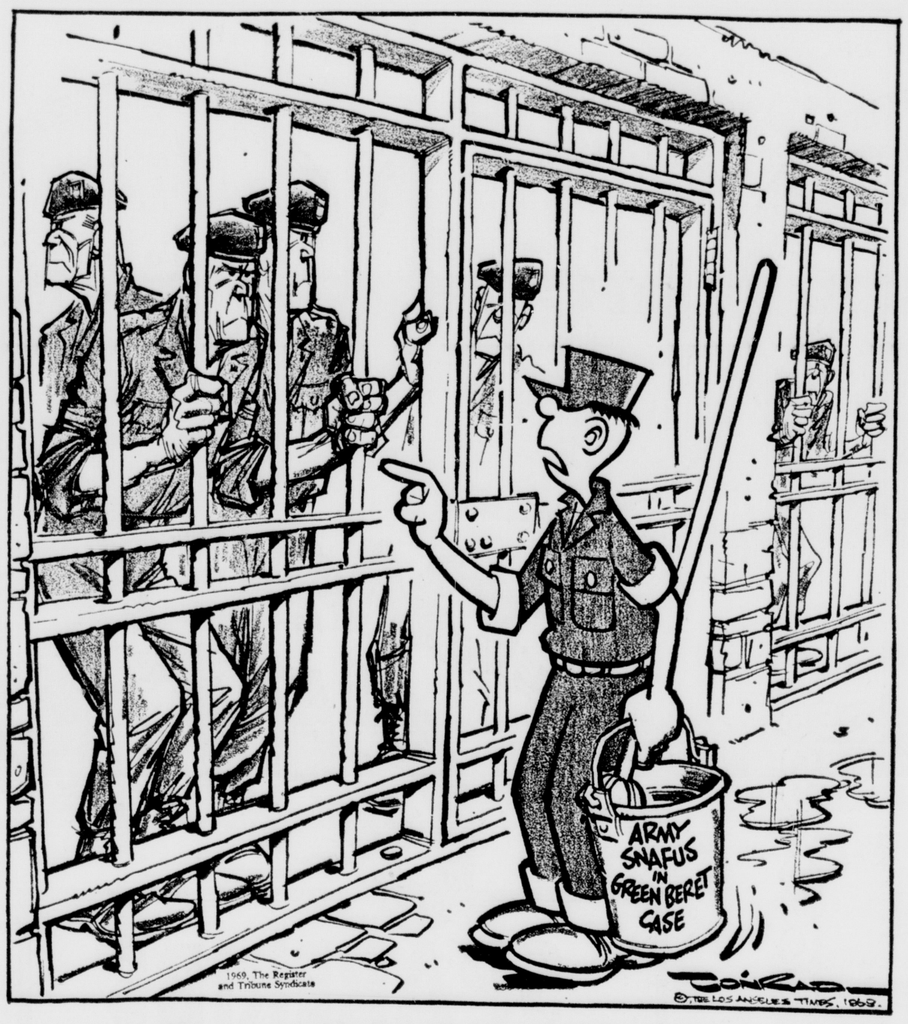
This is a section of the education code that provides that school facilities must be made available for non-school public uses. To help defray the added cost, a school district is permitted to levy a special override tax without asking the voters. Marin Junior College District levies a 5-cent tax for this purpose.

The Civic Center Act has not prevented the college board from refusing bona fide organizations the use of college facilities at some times in the past. Turndowns of a responsibly sponsored circus and a dog show come to mind, among others.

The Civic Center Act does not have anything to do with use of school facilities by an organization within the school itself. The experimental college is such an organization.

THE COLLEGE BOARD cannot abdicate its responsibility for the college it is elected to run — or for any part of that college.

We see no particular danger in the revolution class, which at its best is dull and at its worst rather juvenile. But if the college board wishes to permit the class, it should do so on its merits, and not try to hide behind a section of law that applies only to use of its facilities by outside organizations.



"You guys could give the Army a bad name!"

There's A Way And He Has Will To Attack Transportation Mess

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

California's potent highway lobby faces a tougher fight than ever to hold onto its $800 million golden egg.

The lobby always has guarded the sacred egg — the state's annual take in highway taxes — and insisted it be tapped only to build more concrete temples in honor of the motor vehicle.

But rude noises are being made about the sanctity of the egg by the new leader of the state Senate, Howard Way, R-Exeter.

The Legislature, he suggested in a recent press conference, has been in the pocket of the highway lobby — and he expects to change this. Specifically, he is working for legislation to permit gasoline tax money to be used to finance rapid transit.

"I don't think the people of California realize just how serious things are," he said of the transportation mess.

WAY STRESSED he felt no allegiance to the highway lobby. He conceded he will meet "powerful opposition, but I've faced it before in an election." He said that trucking firms and suppliers of highway construction materials financed the unsuccessful 1968 campaign against him by a former state director of public works.

Way also said he hopes to "restructure" the Senate Transportation Committee so it will "look at the total picture. This approach of more and more highways, covering the state with concrete, will just not work for the '70s," Way declared.

It's easy to see why Senator Way is not beloved by lobbyists.

ASSEMBLYMAN William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, enjoys prominent status in Gov. Ronald Reagan's demonology.

The governor, commenting on the prospect of getting his highly controversial tax reform package through the 1970 legislature, acknowledged he would "have the same cast of characters," but suggested, "I might put them on suspension; that's what they used to do to us in the studio when we wouldn't read the script."

Reagan predicted "many of their arguments will go away" when legislators studied his package carefully.

When a newsman asked if he included Bagley in his prediction, Reagan said "especially Bagley. I intend to sit down with him like a brother."

A big brother?

Bagley, as chairman of the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee, was responsible for trying to make sense out of the governor's tax package, but found it needed too much surgery to put in shape for passage during the 1969 session.

DIRTY AIR is cheaper than clean air — to the industrial polluter.

For every year an industry can defer spending $100,000 to install air pollution control equipment, it can usually keep $25,000 more in pocket before taxes, Benjamin Linsky, the first head of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District, said in a recent visit to the Bay Area.

He noted the air is getting dirtier. Haven't you?

WORTH SAYING AGAIN

Once committed to making war unthinkable to an enemy, you set yourself upon a course of developing even more thorough, even more expensive weaponry until, as at present, you reach a stage in which terror is a natural element of the environment and buying the machinery for not waging war drives you toward bankruptcy. — Russell Baker.

Use State Money To Restore Buses

We are quite upset by the San Rafael School Board's decision to discontinue the use of school buses for the Terra Linda High School students who live less than three miles from the school.

It is a long commute for these kids, especially in the rainy winter months, and for everyone to drive in car pools is unthinkable as this summer proved. You couldn't get your kids or car near the school and you couldn't park within blocks.

We understand there is money coming from the state, some 40 million more than the schools expected, due to record state surplus. I hope they will use this money to bring back the buses.

Mrs. NORMAN J. KEMP
San Rafael.

School Bus Cut 'Judgement Error'

The recently disclosed decision of the San Rafael School Board to discontinue school bus service to Terra Linda High School for students from the lower Lucas Valley-Marinwood area is, in my opinion, a grave error of judgement. Anyone at all familiar with the traffic situation around the school most certainly is aware of the next to impossible conditions that already exist during periods of inclement weather. If more parents are forced to drive their children to school the problem will really be compounded. Parking facilities are already overcrowded, not to mention the increased possibilities of accidents due to further congestion in the area. The construction work being carried on at Quail Hill will further add to the chaos and confusion.

I am aware of the critical financial conditions that exist but certainly the safety and welfare of our youth should be given priority over the relatively few dollars that will be saved by discontinuance of this much needed service . . .

EARL BOGARDUS
San Rafael

City Road Links Are Necessities

Indeed it was disconcerting to see the traffic bottleneck on Puerto Suello Hill as portrayed in the I-J. on Aug. 22. Anyone who drives this highway knows that this type of congestion is becoming more frequent and that actual "jams" do occur.

What crisis or disaster will make us realize that access roads between our cities are not a luxury but a necessity. Must we wait until there is a fire that fire trucks cannot reach; a murder, riot or other disturbance that police are prevented from arriving and performing their duty; an ambulance that arrives too late?

When will our county and community planning service adequately plan for more accessible roads?

DAVID J. COSTANZA, M.D.

Mass Transit Requires Special Fund Protection

(Reprinted from Milwaukee Journal)

President Richard Nixon's call for vastly increased federal support of mass transit in America's car clogged metropolitan areas is commnedable. Yet his strategy for achievement, as most mayors quickly assert seems fatally flawed.

Public transportation is starving for funds to modernize shabby old systems and introduce streamlined new ones. Meanwhile the federal government pours billions into urban freeways. It has helped sink mass transit into what Nixon rightly labels "the self-defeating cycle of fewer riders, higher fares, lower revenue, worse facilities, and still fewer riders."

TO SHATTER this cycle, the president proposes spending $10 billion on mass transit over the next 12 years — starting with about $300 million in fiscal 1970 and escalating to $1 billion hearly by 1975. The subsidies would be paid out of general revenues, with Washington assuming no more than two-thirds of the cost of any local project.

The $10 billion is fine, but it would be stretched over too long a time and lacks the generous, guaranteed funding features of the special trust fund that bankrolls highway construction. Transit planning is underway in virtually every big city. Some also are struggling to implement projects with the skimpy federal assistance already available. If a genuine breakthrough is to occur, these efforts must gain immediate access to a large, dependable pool of dollars.

FOR THIS reason, Transportation Secretary John Volpe advocated a mass transit fund, only to be overruled by the White House. For this reason, 101 members of congress are supporting a bill that would provide a $10 billion mass transit trust fund over the next four years, to be financed by diverting the 7 per cent auto excise tax revenue that now goes into the general treasury. the bill also would provide up to 90 per cent federal assistance, which is what highway builders enjoy.

There are reasons, of course, for opposing revenue earmarking. It can result in inflexibility, in separation of tax money from top priority needs. Yet unless mass transit spending is put on a par with highway funding, the enormous disparity in federal expenditures ($4.5 billion for highways this year, compared to $175 million for mass transit) will not be remedied. The protected highway fund will grow fatter, while mass transit falls victim to the session by session whims of congress.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

The catastrophic earthquake predicted for this season by some California fanatics failed to frighten 99 per cent of the populace. There was, however, a resultant flood of "humor" on the subject. One was to the effect that Howard Hughes was gobbling up all that Nevada real estate so that he'd end up with beachfront property. An alert realtor advertised, "Sell me your property quick, before the quake!" And bumper stickers appeared reading, "California deserves a fair shake."

It was so cold in the deep

U.S. In Perilous Position While Critics Have Field Day

WASHINGTON — The Nixon Administration is at last mounting a carefully concerted defense system against the ever-rising challenge of liberal new isolationists in the Senate to the constitutional and traditional powers of the presidency in foreign and military high policy.

Not a moment too soon the administration is bestirring itself to protect presidential rights and prerogatives which are now under an attack, from forces in both the Democratic and Republican parties, of a severity not seen since Franklin D. Roosevelt's prewar era. This state of affairs would be serious enough in any circumstances. It is profoundly and even desperately dangerous now, for it befalls while euphoria pervades a loud section of opinion among politicians and within public and press precisely at a time when this country's vital interests abroad are actually in rarely exceeded peril.

AS TO VIETNAM, the simple if unpopular truth is that the war is going badly and the peace negotiations in Paris have reached a point just short of the farcical. On and off the battlefield the Communists are reacting in increasingly hard-nosed arrogance and the President's policy of gradual troop withdrawal has become a visible embarrassment and may indeed have to be suspended or even reversed in the long run.

As to the Middle East, the Soviet Union, far from assisting in American efforts to dampen the chronic Israeli-Arab crisis, is in fact well along in a thrust of naked expansionism in Asia which already clearly threatens the anti-Communist position all over the basins of the Mediterranean and the Indian Ocean. That this is the way things are is widely recognized in both the Near and Far East, and it is in an astonishing paradox that the American public, along with the neo-pacifist senators, seems hardly to have heard of it at all.

Yet it is a fact of life so ominous that it is discussed here with an ironic concurrence of view for once between spokesmen for Israel on the one side and the more moderate of the Arab nations on the other. These two sets of ancient antagonists recognize that immense changes in the power balance in Asia are looming into plain sight — and also that whatever their own intramural enmities, Israel and the non-Communist Arab states have a world in common here to try to defend from Soviet encroachment.

A FORM of so-called "criticism" of the Pentagon and the military that has long since become outright vilification from the Senate new left has struck the most-wounding blow to military morale of this century. Morale in all the intelligence agencies has concurrently been deeply shaken by the Green Beret affair, which is seen by some men who have ably served this country to suggest that soldiers doing their plain duty in "black" intelligence work can be indicted as murderers in order to please pacifist opinion here at home.

To combat all this, the administration is evolving a mosaic of rebuttal, tactful on the outside but fully resolute on the inside, whose seemingly unrelated pieces all bear one purpose in the end. The visible centerpiece is the firm public refusal of Secretary of State William Rogers, speaking on the president's authority, to promise Senate critics that the White House will in any and every circumstance seek the prior consent of Congress for military measures necessary to the safety of the United States or to its honorable commitments. Rogers has promised all sorts of "consultation" — but with a vitally important qualification. It will be given only in "appropriate" circumstances.

A PART of the mosaic, too, is the President's deliberately spotlighted efforts to draw closer to the man who was his democratic predecessor, Lyndon B. Johnson. Mr. Nixon's invitation to the Johnsons to visit the California White House on Aug. 27 — Mr. Johnson's birthday — is far more than a small comradely gesture. President Nixon, it may be stated authoritatively, intends to have a most-basic discussion of world issues with Mr. Johnson, with White House Assistant Henry Kissinger providing briefings in depth.

This is intended to read a lesson to the country that, while politics is politics and fun is fun, the transcendental problems before the nation are neither Republican nor Democratic and cannot be approached with small partisan and ideological motives without inadmissible peril to the whole body.

Nixon Borrowed From Past In 'New Federalism' Proposals

President Nixon took great pains to separate himself from the past in his Aug. 8 televised address on domestic problems. With rhetorical flourishes he consigned to the ash heap of history 30 years of efforts to cope with the problems of poverty and unemployment. The only connection he permitted between himself and preceding administrations was his reference to the "Spirit of Apollo 11."

In reality, the President borrowed much more than the "Spirit of Apollo 11" from his predecessors. His "New Federalism," a phrase carefully inserted at three points in his speech, is an extension of the "Creative Federalism" of President Johnson. Revenue sharing with the states and local governments is the product of two New Frontier-Great Society economists, Joseph Pechman and Walter Heller. The President's "workfare" proposals are derived in part from combined manpower training and family support programs initiated under the Johnson administration. In short, these and other proposals did not spring full-blown from the executive wing of the White House after Jan. 20, 1969.

THE PRESIDENT should not be faulted for building on the programs and proposals of his predecessors. He should be commended for suggesting alternative ways of tackling the age-old question of poverty. We must not forget, however, that there is a continuity between what he has proposed and the groundwork laid and the changes made by past administrations.

There is a real need to end the extreme variations in family assistance from state to state, but there are serious questions as to whether President Nixon's proposals will actually eliminate those differences. There is a need for more adequate job training programs tied in with job placement and family assistance, but much more needs to be known about the Nixon job placement proposals, which have not suggested community development.

THERE ARE GRAVE doubts about the adequacy of the proposed federal level of family assistance, which President Nixon pegged at $1,600 per year — one-half the income level described as poverty for a family of four. The work incentive has considerable appeal, and offers much more promise for ending poverty cycles in families, but the benefits outlined by the President do not build much hope for more than subsistence income for those who work.

The President estimated a cost of $4 billion for the first year of his program. A number of experts say that figure is much too low. The issue is not so much the actual cost of the Nixon proposals as it is the commitment the President is willing to make to implement these and other proposals the Congress is considering for the improvement of our society.

Water Sampling Might Show What Pollutes Novato Creek

The Novato Sanitary District has come under an order from the Bay Regional Water Quality control board to stop polluting Novato Creek and thereby the waters of upper San Pablo Bay.

The district has worked out an acceptable timetable for the improvement of its facilities to meet with the water quality control board's order.

The original order in March was put out at a very political time. It came just when there was a merger election between the North Marin County Water District and the sanitary district. Since the failure of the voters to approve this merger, the question has become very quiet.

NOW THAT the heat of summer is on us and Novato Creek is drying up, we wonder what the Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board would find if it took samples of water from the creek at various places.

We suggest that it take samples of the water below where the treatment plant discharges into the creek; upstream about Novato Fair shopping center, where the smell of stagnant water pollutes the air; farther upstream beside Pioneer Memorial Park, where children will be playing next summer when the park is finished, below Stafford Dam, and maybe in the upper part of Stafford Lake where the drainage of dairy corrals empties into the lake.

It might prove interesting on the bacteria count at this time of year. The board might possibly find that the treatment plant is not the only source of impure water in Novato Creek.

Novato Creek and its tributaries in Novato will be the subject of a citizens' meeting Thursday at the Novato Community House. Residents of the area want to see what they can do to preserve the creek from its navigable end to the tree-lined banks which wind through the city.

THE SAME as other cities in Marin County, the Novato City Council passed the uniform dog control ordinance requested by the county. For nearly a year the city had its own ordinance with its own animal control officer, who issued many citations for dogs running at large.

Under the new law, which repeals Novato's strict law, the dogs, or their owners, realize that they are safer when roaming at large. More and more dogs are seen running around without any control. In less than an hour last week, five dogs were seen running up Grant Avenue in front of the Independent-Journal office. Just last Wednesday a big police dog was seen barking and snapping at the heels of two boys riding their bikes on Grant Avenue at Fourth Street.

The Novato City Council will probably take a long, hard look at going back to its former ordinance, unless these conditions are changed.

RESIDENTS of Shoreline Unified School District dedicated their new Tomales High School last Sunday. One would expect the usually conservative residents of a rural area to erect a staid, conventional high school.

Instead, the new school offers many innovations. These will be used in a new method of teaching whereby students set their own pace of learning with individualized instruction.

In the past, Tomales High School's students have taken many state and national honors. We will be eager to see how the new school keeps up with this record.

Science Museum Fall Program Is Announced

Nineteen classes are scheduled for the fall program of the Louise A. Boyd Marin Museum of Science, San Rafael.

The courses require museum membership and reservations, which will be accepted beginning next Monday. The program will begin Sept. 5 with classes held at various times through December.

Classes are fall nursery nature; art in nature; Terwilliger trips (nature walks with Elizabeth Terwilliger); bug hunt; advanced bug hunt; beginning archaeology; beginning ichthyology; marine ecology; puddle life; animal genetics; what's in a pond?

Introduction to Marin zoology; reptile management, astronomy, Indians of Northern California; microcritters of Marin, sailing, holiday decorations and beginning photography.

Fuel Line Contract

An $11,700 contract was awarded to W. K. McLellan Co. of San Anselmo to repair the underground fuel lines at the Hamilton Air Force Base service station by the base procurement office.

Work Furlough Inmate Sentenced

A 25-year-old San Quentin Prison inmate, who skipped from the prison's work furlough program nine weeks before he was due for parole, admitted the felony offense yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson sentenced William J. Arrowsmith to a sentence to run concurrently with the one he is now serving for a burglary conviction from Ventura County.

Arrowsmith was one of the first inmates to be assigned to the work furlough program and was working at a service station in San Rafael, when he failed to return to prison.

No Wonder Weather's Lousy —We Unbalanced The Moon

CAPE COD — Weatherwise, this has been a disastrous summer for large parts of the world. Everyone has his own theory as to the cause of it, but no one has been able to scientifically pinpoint what's happened until now.

Prof. Heinrich Applebaum, who is stationed at the Endless Summer Observatory, at Endless Summer, Mass., revealed that he had discovered the reason the weather had gone awry this year was because of the moon landings.

"THEY SHOULD NOT," said Professor Applebaum, "have taken the rocks off the moon."

"Why not?" I asked him.

"Because," said the professor, "it's made the moon unbalanced."

"You mean taking a few rocks off the moon could change its balance?"

"Eactly. The moon was in perfect conjunction to the earth. Each rock was placed just so, and even disturbing one could have a magnetic effect, causing just enough tilt to the moon to bring all the bad weather."

"IT'S HARD to believe," I said.

"Don't believe me. Here are my mathematical calculations. Every rock removed from the moon is responsible for one lousy day of weather on earth."

I studied the figures he showed me. "My gosh," I said, "these figures prove you're right."

"Of course, I'm right," said Applebaum, erasing his blackboard. "But what worries me is not only the rocks that the astronauts took off the moon, but the garbage they left up there in its place.

"Look, there's the laser machine, the bottom half of the lunar module, a television camera and heaven knows what else the astronauts threw out of their ship.

"With all this stuff lying in the sea of Tranquility, the weight of the moon has completely tilted causing unseasonal tide swells and variable shifts in the magnetic forces that control the solar system. I have named this the Earth-Moon Garbage Effect."

"You're too modest professor," I said. "It should be the Applebaum Earth-Moon Garbage Effect."

"That's up to the Academy of Sciences, the professor said.

"But did you know this before the astronauts went up?" I asked.

"I suspected it, but I was counting on the Russians landing on another part of the moon to balance the part we landed on. They kept saying they were going to do it. Presuming they would have removed as many rocks and left as muchc junk on their part of the moon as we did; the tilt would have evened out."

"THEN YOU WOULD say the Soviets are really responsible for the bad weather because they failed to land on the moon at the same time we did?"

"Right. I believe the Soviets have a lot of explaining to do."

"But what can we do to bring the moon back to its original center of gravity?"

"The crew of Apollo 12 have to take the moon rocks back and put them in the exact places Armstrong and Aldrin took them from. Then they have to clean up the mess left by Apollo 11 and bring all the garbage back to earth."

"BUT PROFESSOR, if the crew of Apollo 12 do all that, they won't have any time for their own experiments."

"Tough," said Applebaum. "Do you want to have scientific moon achievements or a rotten winter?"

Marin Cancer Group To Hold Meeting

The annual meeting of the Marin County Branch of the American Cancer Society will be held Sept. 11 at the Meadow Club, Fairfax.

Mrs. Robert L. Brown, a member of the board of the California division of the cancer society, will be the chief speaker and a new board of directors will be elected. Reservations may be made at the cancer society office, San Rafael.

For Marin, the world's fastest reporting

CONGOLAND, U.S.A.

Marinite Turning A Dream Into A Playland Project

By ANNE BARDWELL

A young Mill Valley businessman who believes in following his hunches in nine short years has brainstormed his way from organizing college ski tours to the presidency of Congoland, U.S.A., a venture which promises to do for San Jose what Disneyland did for Anaheim.

Dale Crase, who at 33 already has been the president of three successful companies, believes his ideas have paid off because "I'm willing to gamble that an idea will work where others have an unusual idea but assume it's too risky to try."

DALE CRASE
Congoland president

A good example of this is Congoland, a multimillion dollar project which, when it opens in 1971 in the foothills east of San Jose, according to Crase, will present a spectacle of African animals in a natural environment unequaled outside the Congo itself.

It all started, Crase says, with a casual idea and offhand comment during a visit to a Florida farm where the lions were confined by natural means — no bars, cages or artifical pits common to most zoos and other animal showplaces.

"Wouldn't it be great if there were a park where you could see all the African animals, not just lions?" he asked a friend. Associates agreed it was a great idea but too complicated to risk and promptly dismissed the whole scheme, Crase says.

But the idea of an African park in California kept bugging him, he says, particularly after he had watched closely the popularity and financial successes of Disneyland, Marineland, Marine World and other such ventures.

Obtaining backing from private investors, Crase opened offices in San Francisco last year and started plans rolling for the $20 million project.

Then, Crase met Jean-Pierre Hallet, Belgian explorer, sociologist, naturalist and animal trainer, a man whom Crase believes has the glamour and mystique, as well as the knowledge of Africa, to make Congoland more than just another stop on the tourist route.

"He's going to be the Walt Disney of Congoland, the man with the image," Crase says. He views himself as a Roy Disney, the man who makes it all work, financially.

Crase's background has been all business, starting in his college days at the University of San Francisco when he organized ski tours to Squaw Valley, through his recent presidency of International Group Travel Consultants which organized tours, group vacations and convention tours for large corporations.

Hallet, according to Crase, has spent the past few years campaigning for an African park outside of Africa to preserve the animals from extinction. When he met Crase he was looking for financial backing and Crase was seeking the image and so the two joined forces.

Crase says the park is "more than a money making venture; it's a conservation effort of the highest priority." More than 90 per cent of the Congo's wildlife has been killed off in the past 30 years, he says.

The park will be built on 1,500 acres in the foothills east of San Jose and will be surrounded by another 500 acre buffer zone to protect the animals from people and the park from the worst aspects of tourism.

The buffer zone will keep out the "revolving 50 foot neon signs, junky motels and restaurants," Crase says. Anything built within the perimiter of the park must undergo design review by Congoland, he noted.

The park itself will be divided into four African areas: a savannah, forest-jungle, crater and rolling hills where animals will roam, restricted only by environmental and natural means.

A safari trail, minibuses, tree houses and private cars will bring visitors to the animals and in some areas the animals will come to the visitors.

Crase's corporation will control the park, the buffer zone and most of the businesses Congoland will attract. In addition, he hopes to build a subdivision near the park overlooking the animal compound.

"Can you imagine sitting on your patio after a hard day watching wild African animals," Crase says. "It's bound to be successful, don't you think?"

Youth Wins Bail Right In Slaying

A Marin Superior Court judge yesterday reluctantly refused to dismiss a grand jury indictment of Ronald Rivas, 20, charged with murdering his father July 17 at their Novato home.

He did, however, consent to release the youth from jail on $5,000 bail.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson indicated that he agreed with Rivas's attorney, Robert D. Carrow, that the practice of having the grand jury indict persons already arraigned in Municipal Court is not desirable.

However, he said that under the law, the practice seemed to be legal.

GRAND JURY MAKEUP

Judge Wilson also agreed with Carrow that the 1969 grand jury does not include any young persons and that in that sense, is not representative.

He added, however, that he knew from his own experience of appointing grand jury members that considerable effort has been made to name people under 30 to the group and that it "has been impossible to get them to serve."

Carrow had wanted the indictment dismissed so that he could confront witnesses in a preliminary hearing in municipal court, which would have taken place if the indictment had not automatically put the case into Superior Court.

Judge Wilson told Carrow to take his motions to the District Court of Appeals if he wanted further legal ruling on them.

PLIGHT OF RIVAS

He also took note of the plight of young Rivas who has remained in jail without bail, and after hearing testimony by the youths mother and a friend, set $5,000 bail.

"After reading the transcript of the Grand Jury proceedings, I think this is probably a voluntary mansalughter case, not murdern" the judge said, and "therefore is bailable."

Yesterday a San Rafael woman for whom Rivas had worked, Alma Zang, a sister of former San Quentin Warden Clinton T. Duffy, said that she would post the bail for the slight, dark-haired young man.

THIS GREEN HORNET ON THE OTHER SIDE

That young man running around southern Marin in a green-and-yellow cape is not the Green Hornet, or even Son of Green Hornet, sheriff's deputies promised. Rather, he's probably a thief.

Deputies at the Marin City sheriff's substation today reported that a $150 leather green cape with a yellow lining was stolen yesterday in a hold-up at the Marin City underpass.

The victim was identified as Daniel R. Howard of 6 Bridge Court, Fairfax, who was walking from the Marin City bus stop to the Sausalito Art Gallery where he works. He was not carrying a wallet, deputies said.

The robber, who used a simulated gun, deputies said, was reported as an 18 to 20-year-old youth.

Novato Sanitary Unit Sets 31.5-Cent Rate

The Novato Sanitary District Board last night set a tax rate of 31.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation, a half-cent lower than the predicted 32 cents for the current fiscal year, according to Engineer-Manager Charles A. Joseph.

In addition, the Novato portion of the district will pay 5.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation for bond redemption.

The operating tax rate is 3 cents more than the 28.5 cents last year, Joseph reported.

The board passed a $257,783 budget for the current fiscal year; $28,745 more than last year's budget.

The board also accepted plan on improvement of effluent discharge and advised the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board that improvements would be completed by Dec. 20.

John Jenks of Jenks and Adamson, consulting sanitary engineers, reported that the quality of the effluent could be improved by the installation of more chlorination at each of the city's two treatment plants at a cost of $6,000 for the Novato plant and $15,000 for the Ignacio plant.

The board ordered the purchase of two injector water pumps at $275 each to start injecting chlorine into the fluent, Joseph said.

The Novato Sanitary District Board Also:

RETIREMENT — Approved a resolution to quit Social Security and switch to the state retirement program for the district's 13 employees.

BEL MARIN KEYS — Asked the district's attorney, James T. Morton, to study whether the district should sue the former owners for the back taxes for that portion of Bel Marin Keys which was connected to the sanitary sewers without annexing to the district. This portion of the development has avoided taxes for three years. The same action was applied to two lots at the end of Bret Court owned by Walter K. O'Brien and John Reinstad.

MOBILE HOME PARK — Told developer Jack D. Kinney that if he constructed a treatment plant at Enchanted Valley Mobile Home Park on the Marin-Sonoma county line, that the district would not charge a connection fee. The district would also help him study the acquistion of sewer right of way.

PURCHASES — Authorized the purchase of a $600 copy machine; $1,150 in system maps and a $2,100 pickup truck.

Realignment Of Property Lines Backed

A realignment of property lines for two lots at 101 Coronet Avenue, requested by Donald G. Dickey and William Gerung, was recommended for city council approval last night by the Mill Valley Planning Commission, Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon reported today.

Commissioners also approved a variance waiving front yard setback requirements and a revocable encroachment permit allowing a deck to extend into Coronet Avenue right-of-way for a single family residence to be constructed on one of the two lots, Bragdon said.

Rejection by the city's architectural advisory committee of plans for a Taco Bell take-out food restaurant at 497 Miller Avenue was endorsed by the commission, Bragdon said.

Two other items, a request for abandonment of a portion of Summit Avenue near Fern Canyon Road and dust control problems on the Cresta Del Norte subdivision on the North Ridge were posponed pending further staff information.

27 Charged In Lejeune Riot

CAMP LEJEUNE, N.C. (UPI) — Authorities today charged 26 Marines and one Navy man with rioting in a July 20 brawl which resulted in the death of a white corporal.

Five Marines previously were charged with murder in the death of Cpl. Edward Bankston, 20, of Picayune, Miss. Bankston died eight days after the fight outside a service club.

Marine authorities said the other 26 men charged had been returned to Camp Lejeune from duty in the Mediterranean. They were members of the 2nd division's 6th regiment. The brawl occurred after a farewell party for the regiment.

Marinite Killed In Mendocino Wreck

I-J Special Report

UKIAH — A Corte Madera man and two members of a Chico family died yesterday in an unexplained head-on collision in Mendocino County northeast of Ukiah.

William Lawton Sleight, 55, of 55 Lakeside Drive, died instantly, the California Highway Patrol said, when his eastbound car drifted into the westbound lane of Highway 20 and hit an oncoming car driven by Adeline D. Bay, 40, of Chico.

Mrs. Bay and her 8-year-old daughter, Jackie, also died at the scene, the highway patrol said. Another daughter, Robin Bay, 15, was reported in critical condition today at Ukiah General Hospital.

The highway patrol said there was no apparent reason for Sleight's car being in the wrong lane. The highway is a straight two-lane road where the accident occurred 15 miles from Ukiah, the patrol said. An autopsy was to be performed on Sleight's body today to determine if there was a physical cause, such as a heart attack, for the accident.

Funeral is pending at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mill Valley.

Lagoon Signed To County As Bolinas Chaos Grows

The bill to dissolve the Bolinas Harbor District and turn the lagoon over to the county was signed by Gov. Ronald Reagan yesterday as chaos surrounding the district heighened.

Developments included:

An announcement the county may have to pay off expenses above the $125,536 it has agreed to shoulder.

An attempt to call an illegal meeting of the district board to change the budget.

A report that the board of supervisors would be asked to levy the district tax for six months instead of a year.

The possibility of a special meeting of the board of supervisors for the district.

Earlier this month, confused about its finances and uncertain about its future, the harbor district board adopted a budget of $31,876 for the full 1969-70 fiscal year.

The budget would require a tax rate of 30 cents per $100 assessed valuation and was scheduled to be set by the board of supervisors at 4 p.m. today.

Late yesterday, Frances B. Stewart, a member of the district board, said she hoped to get board members together for a special meeting to reduce the budget and thus the tax rate.

She indicated it had been assumed until the last moment that the governor would veto the bill by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael.

However, the meeting would have been in violation of the Ralph M. Brown Act because of lack of 24 hours advance notice.

Since the meeting couldn't be held, she announced a member of the board would appear as an individual and ask the board of supervisors to levy the tax for six months only.

The alternative would be to hold a leagal meeting of the harbor district board to reduce the budget and ask the board of supervisors to hold a special meeting on or before the tax-setting deadline of Sept. 1 to set the harbor district tax rate.

Meanwhile, County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney appeared today before the board of supervisors to report the county may have to levy a property tax rate even next year to close out expenses other than those the county previously agreed to assume.

When voters of the harbor district approved dissolution last winter the county was to assume $125,536 in liabilities.

Maloney did not indiciate how much more the county may have to assume but the harbor district board is faced with at least $13,000 worth of additional debts.

Maloney also reported the bill requires the county to file a certificate with the state that the county will assume the outstanding debts of the district.

He said he foresaw no difficulty in having the certificate accepted but noted problems sometimes blossom unexpectedly when dealing with the state.

The bill, which was signed at 5:30 p.m. yesterday, will go into effect in mid-October, 61 days after the close of the legislative session Aug. 8.

In addition to the financial aspects, the bill requires the county to submit its plans for the lagoon to the State Lands Commission within three years. If the commission rejected the plan, the lagoon would revert to state jurisdiction.

Mexican Classrooms

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Mexico will spend $58.2 million on classroom construction this year, according to Agustin Yanez, Secretary of Education.

Saigon Pressure On Troop Cuts

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Richard M. Nixon's decision to delay announcement of further withdrawals of U.S. troops from Vietnam is understood to have been influenced partly by South Vietnam President Nguyen Van Thieu.

Informed sources said Thieu contended such an announcement would have had a bad effect on South Vietnamese morale because it would have come in the midst of a cabinet reshuffle in Saigon and at a time when enemy attacks have risen.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird, who participated in the Friday conference at which Nixon decided on the delay, were said by some sources not to have been greatly impressed by Thieu's argument. But they apparently saw no great harm in a delay.

The White House, in announcing Nixon would defer a decision until after he returns to Washington in September, said the President wanted more information on "the level of activity," Communist potential for further offensives and the infiltration rate from North Vietnam.

State Department officials who discussed the situation with Rogers after he returned from the Western White House at San Clemente, Calif., said the phased withdrawal was "still on the track" and there are no changes planned.

Nixon apparently wants to be sure the Communists are not preparing a big new offensive.

Plans are under consideration to create 20 or more new national parks.

Martin Remains In U.S. Marshal's Chair

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — Louis H. Martin of Martinez remains solidly attached to his seat as the U.S. marshal for the Northern California District and it apparently will take an executive order from President Richard M. Nixon to remove him.

And the schduled Sept. 2 induction of George E. Tobin of Mill Valley — appointed by Nixon to Martin's job — will apparently have to wait for the same order.

Judges of the U. S. District Court in San Francisco last week decided that until Nixon notifies Martin that he has been removed from office, Tobin cannot be inducted as the new marshal.

Martin was appointed to a four-year term by former President Lyndon B. Johnson and has three years remaining on his term. When Nixon took office, he appointed Tobin, a California Highway Patrol captain, to the marshal's post.

Martin, a Democrat, refuses to follow the traditional pattern and resign. And the judges now feel that even though Tobin's appointment has been confirmed by the Senate, no vacancy exists until Nixon removes Martin from office.

Martin said today that he is just "sitting tight" and waiting to see what happens. He said that he has had no contact with Tobin for several weeks and believes the heir-apparent to his job is off on a Lake Tahoe vacation.

Mormon Forger On Probation

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)— The former manager of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) Credit Union Office was placed on probation yesterday after pleading guilty to forgery charges.

Chris E. Case was charged in connection with the theft of an estimated $70,000 from the Credit Union offices.

He was sentenced to an indeterminate term at the Utah State Prison but given a stay until Feb. 23, 1970, by Third District Judge D. Frank Wilkins.

Case was arrested in Wildwood, Fla., last May and charged with the thefts which occurred between January 1966 and last March.

Wilkins said he would allow Case to return to Florida.

Ambulance Meeting

The next meeing of the volunteers for an ambulance service for Novato will be held at 8:30 p.m., Sept. 4 at the Marion School, according to John A. Trumbull of the Novato Ambulance Service Study Committee.

Prince Charles Will Economize

LONDON (UPI) — Prince Charles has decided to try to get along on half of his $528,000-a year salary and turn the rest over to the government. At least until he gets married or some emergency arises.

Charles, the eldest son of Queen Elizabeth II, turns 21 Nov. 14 and as Prince of Wales, he will automatically start getting the income from the Duchy of Cornwall. It is his only source of income.

Experts says the duchy, which has rich estates in Southwest England and London, brings in about $528,000 a year.

Buckingham Palace spokesmen gave no specific reason why the Prince decided to give $264,000 of it to the government. But the implications were he felt he could get along on half the salary.

Cooper Changes Plea On Contempt

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Grant B. Cooper, the prominent criminal lawyer who defended convicted assassin Sirhan B. Sirhan, will be sentenced Sept. 23 on his guilty plea to two counts of contempt of court in connection with another case.

Cooper, a past president of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, was indicted for "obtaining, posessing, disclosing and using" a grand jury transcript of secret testimony and of lying to a judge about it.

The grand jury investigation led to the indictments of five persons on charges of conspiring to cheat members of the exclusive Friars Club show business fraternity in rigged gin rummy games.

Cooper, who represented the defendants, was indicted with 10 others in connection with the illegal use of the transcript.

Cooper changed his innocent plea to one of guilty yesterday U.S. Dist. Court Judge Charles H. Carr asked him if he was aware of the possible penalty.

"I'm thoroughly familiar with the punishment, your honor," Cooper said. "I can be imprisoned as long as the court desires and fined with no limit."

Cooper's troubles began when the transcript was noticed on the table in front of him at the Friars Club trial by Assistant U.S. Atty. David R. Nissen.

The document included testimony given in secret to the grand jury by comedian Phil Silvers and others who were fleeced by the conspirators, all of whom were convicted on all counts.

GRANT B. COOPER
Faces sentencing

At first, Cooper told U.S. Dist. Court Judge William P. Gray in chambers that he simply found the document lying on the table. But he later admitted that was a lie, and said if he revealed where he had obtained the transcript it would be a breach of attorney-client privileged communication.

Cooper, 66, has served as vice president of the California State Bar, president of the American College of Trial Lawyers and as chief deputy to the Los Angeles County district attorney.

$47,293 Slide Repair In Fairfax

The Fairfax side of a $47,293 slide repair project that spills over into San Anselmo was approved last night by the Fairfax City Council.

Consulting engineers reported the Fairfax share would be $39,779 and the San Anselmo side $7,514 to repair a slide on Forrest Avenue which crosses the cities' common boundary line.

NO INDICATION

The San Anselmo City Council has never indicated it would go along with the project.

The Fairfax council called for bids on the project for 2 p.m. Sept. 18 at city hall and set a meeting for 8 p.m. Sept. 22 at the Women's Club to award a contract.

In other business, the council tabled an ordinance which would prohibit any business from operating from 11 a.m. to 7 a.m. without a special permit if it has off-street parking, sells food and drink and is within 300 feet of a residential area.

"We're discriminating against people who have parking lots," protested Mayor Francis J. O'Connell.

City Atty. Wallace S. Myers disagreed, pointing out it was the parking lots which the council believed created nuisances, as in the case of Short Stop Market.

AGAINST PLAN

"I don't like the whole thing," said Councilman Cornelis Van Vliet flatly.

"I really think its going to do more than the council is intending it to do," commented Councilman Frank J. Egger.

Councilman Adelaide P. Wilson however said, "There are potential trouble spots all over town."

On the motion to introduce, Egger, Van Vliet and O'Connell voted "no."

A public hearing on the Short Stop Market is scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday at the Fairfax Women's Club.

The Fairfax City Council also:

STREET — Changed the name of Meadow Court to Sherman Court because of confusion with the previously existing Meadow Way.

DOGS — Entered a joint powers agreement with the county for enforcement of the dog control ordinance, with the stipulation the agreement expire in one year.

PERSONNEL — Hired Michael Moriarity of Daly City as a policeman at $745 per month to replace John Johnson who resigned.

Fairfax Chief Abandons Stormy Rights Meeting

Fairfax Police Chief James R. Orr last night stormed out of a closed meeting being held to hear charges against him. (Another Fairfax City Council, page 1)

He was followed shortly by Bella H. Aaron, chairman of the police community relations committee of the county Human Rights Commission, who had requested the closed meeting to present results of her investigation of the charges.

The charges against Orr stem from a Memorial Day dance fracas at the Fairfax Pavilion in which 17-year-old David E. Pratt was arrested on charges of disturbing the peace, assault and resisting arrest.

Charges of brutality were filed against Orr with the district attorney and a complaint was filed with the police community relations committee.

The district attorney's investigation found Orr blameless. The results of the committee's investigation have not been revealed.

After a 72 minute session the council emerged and Mayor Francis J. O'Connell reported further consideration would be delayed until after the juvenile court hearing for Pratt scheduled for Sept. 4.

O'Connell said the council decided on the delay to get testimony under oath.

Juvenile court hearings are normally closed but there is a possibility this one may be open. If it is not, the council would not be able to obtain the testimony.

Lagunitas Teachers Due 5 Pct. Pay Hike

The 24 teachers in the Lagunitas School District will receive an approximately 5 per cent salary schedule hike for 1969-70 while the nine non-teaching employees will receive a flat 5 per cent increase, the district board decided last night.

The teachers' increases vary a bit with their placement on the new salary schedule of $6,200 to $12,000. The 1968-69 schedule was $5,750-$11,650.

A total of $231,700 will be spent this fiscal year for teachers' salaries which include $9,500 for the approximate 5 per cent hike.

Another $200 paid to teachers over and above their salary when they have tenure and longevity was increased to $300.

Cost of non-teaching employees salaries for 1969-70 will be $42,872 which includes the 5 per cent increase of $2,300, Supt. Marshall J. McCunniff reported.

The board raised the salary of Harry F. Roche, Lagunitas School principal, from $13,200 to $14,500 and McCunniff's from $15,500 to $16,275.

The Lagunitas School District Board Also:

BUS ROUTES — Agreed that bus routes will be the same as last year except for additional runs up Arroyo Road in Forest Knolls and to Samuel P. Taylor Park. These runs, on a trial basis, will be reviewed by the board at its 7:30 p.m. meeting, Sept. 22.

EMPLOYED — Hired June Studdert, primary teacher, San Geronimo School, $7,950; Regina Vigil, intermediate, Lagunitas, $7,350; Bonnie Huggins, reading specialist, San Geronimo, $9,000; Lois Ewalt, librarian serving San Geronimo and Lagunitas, $8,750 and Foss Sargent, half time bus driver, half time maintenance man, $538 monthly.

NEXT MEETING — Agreed to hold no meeting on Sept. 8 since Sept. 9 is Admission Day and to meet next at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 22.

Innocent Plea To Selling Of Drug

David Lee Worley, 21, of Novato pleaded innocent today in Marin Superior Court to charges of selling a dangerous drug (desoxephedrine), selling marijuana and possessing the weed.

A jury trial was set for the week of Dec. 15.

Worley is accused by drug agents of being responsible for sales of drugs to young persons in Novato.

$411 Cash Haul

Burglars took $411 from Chicken Delight at 389 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley, between 10 p.m. Sunday and 3:25 a.m. yesterday, police reported.

Disc Jockey To Have His Left Leg Amputated

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Disc jockey Dan Sorkin, whose left leg was severely damaged in a Marin County motorcycle accident, has elected to have the limb amputated.

"It was Dan's own choice," said a colleague of the radio personality at station KSFO. "He was told it would take another year or year and a half of treatment—and even then he would still have a bum leg.

"The doctors have told him he can be back at work in a matter of weeks with the amputation and an artificial limb."

The spokesman said the operation will be performed this week at Swedish Hospital in Seattle, Wash.

Sorkin, 42, was injured May 23 when his motorcycle ran off a Marin road and crashed through a barbed wire fence.

Sorkin was returning from Marshall to the Synanon residence in Oakland.

An Innocent Plea To Cocaine Charge

Karen Elaine Gowel, 23, of Mill Valley pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Superior Court to a charge of possessing cocaine. Her case was continued until Sept. 15 for setting of a trial date when her attorney said that the matter might not go to trial.

Miss Gowel is accused of having the drug with her when booked into Marin County Jail May 5 on traffic warrants.

Pigeon Winner

The blue bar hen of Ed Ahren of San Rafael won first place, flying 34 miles per hour, in the North Road Invitational Racing Pigeon Club's first young bird race of the season with a blue bar hen of H. B. Ostler of Corte Madera coming in second, Ostler reported today. The 110-mile race between Willows, Glenn County, and Corte Madera was held Saturday.

Marines Battle Hanoi Units In Heat Wave

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. Marines fought well-entrenched North Vietnamese troops in 120-degree temperatures today in close-quarters battle on the jungled floor of the Que Son Valley where more than 800 guerrillas died last week.

At least 137 North Vietnamese soldiers were reported killed in fighting that began yesterday with the Marines and the U.S. Army's Americal Division in the 10-mile long valley 340 miles northeast of Saigon.

American losses were more than 50 killed and nearly 300 wounded.

In another part of the valley, South Vietnamese troops west of Tam Ky and 60 miles from Da Nang came upon bodies of 100 North Vietnamese soldiers, most of them burned beyond recognition. Allied military spokesmen they were caught in a U.S. aerial napalm attack earlier.

The Marines, fighting the North Vietnamese from as close as 10 yards, had been in battle more than 24 hours in some 5,000 North Vietnamese troops are believed operating.

Field reports said at least 38 Marines were killed and 75 wounded against 11 North Vietnamese slain. Official reports in Saigon listed 11 Marines dead and 41 wounded with 11 North Vietnamese troops killed.

Marine Pfc. Allen Esteron, 19, of Honolulu, told of action last night.

"Our platoon was pinned down on a dike in a rice paddy," he said. "Bullets were coming in like rain. The NVA (North Vietnamese) were in a treeline and we had wounded we couldn't get to." He said the North Vietnamese used one wounded Marine as bait.

"Three guys got it trying to get to him," Esteron said.

The North Vietnamese fought from foxholes, firing heavy machineguns. Elements of the North Vietnamese 31st Regiment, Second Division, were involved, military sources said.

Camille Aid 'Encouraging'

Marin's response to the Red Cross call for donations to aid victims of Hurricane Camille "has been encouraging," Margaret Anderson, local executive director, reported yesterday.

However, the county's quota has been upped from $5,500 to $13,000, she reported. The national quota has gone from $6 million to $11 million.

So far, Marin contributions have totaled $2,075, Mrs. Anderson said. Non-cash contributions have been discouraged because of shipping problems and the amount of food and clothing already at the disaster area, she said.

Money is needed for the recovery period, she explained.

Paul M. Anderson, Willie Jo Watson and Jack Stocking, three Marin County disaster specialists, have been sent to the hurricane area.

The Corte Madera Board of Design Review last night recommended denial of an application by Fotomat Corp. to install a photography drive-in service at the Cooperative Shopping Center, 71 Tamal Vista Boulevard. The application will go to the planning commission Sept. 9.

The board's major objection, secretary Betty Long reported, was that the Fotomat building would take up too much parking space in the Co-op parking lot.

The board also objected to a roof sign on the building and to proposed roofing material.

Novato To Hike Its School Tax

Novato Unified School District's tax rate for 1969-70 is to be set at $5.345 per $100 assessed valuation, up 19 cents from last year's rate.

Trustees got the word last night from Donald M. Van Dyke of 53 Sotelo Way, who had a letter on the new rate from Marin County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell, who is scheduled to set school district tax rates today.

Deputy Supt. Ralph Giovanniello explained that a 5.1-cent hike in the general operating tax rate resulted from a law which permits the district to hike the operating rate 2 per cent. This, he explained, is to make up for revenue lost when the tax on household furnishings and personal belongings were eliminated.

The district's bond redemption rate is scheduled to be boosted six cents from 46 cents per $100 assessed valuation to 52 cents.

The district's budget for 1969-70 is $9,387,720, up $684,434 from last year.

Giovanniello estimated that Governor Ronald Reagan's signing of the school finance bill would bring the district an additional $55,000.

He termed this "not substantial" in relationship to the district's $9 million budget.

Novato Unified School District Board Also:

HIRED — Approved the hiring of the following teachers, Rosemary Donaldson, home economics, Novato High, $6,615 a year; Jeffrey Gough, English, San Marin High, $8,108; Maria Houghton, psychologist, $9,916; Simone MacKinnon, foreign language, Sinaloa Junior High, $8,108; Jean Mowry, elementary mentally retarded, $8,871; Ruth Spitler, home economics, Sinaloa Junior High, $10,022; David Tofanelli, elementary, $8,183, and Johannes Masare, secondary, $8,600.

SCHOOL TIMES — Approved the school day schedule for 1969-70 as follows: high school beginning at 8 a.m. and ending at 2:05; a junior high schools, 8:25 to 2:30; grades four through six, 9 to 3:25; grades one through three, early group, 8:30 to 1:45; and late group, 9:30 to 2:50.

FIELD BIDS — Authorized Eugene DeBrecht, assistant superintendent, business, to advertise for bids for a new athletic field at San Jose Junior High School as soon as documents are received from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. DeBrecht tentatively set the bid date at Sept. 25.

CHILDREN's CENTER — Approved an agreement with the Marin County Schools office permitting portable classrooms for a children's center at the Novato High School campus, at no cost to the district.

POLICY HANDBOOK — Adopted revisions to the district policy handbook, including inserting a policy on drug use, previously approved by the board.

SCHOOL HANDBOOKS — Received copies of teacher and student handbooks distributed at secondary schools, with Trustee Carolyn M. Crabtree suggesting that reference to the district's drug policy be made in the handbooks.

COURSE OF STUDY — Approved a course of study for grades seven through 12.

ADJOURNMENT — Adjourned until 8 p.m. Sept. 8 at the school administration building.

Ex-Principal Quits Novato Schools

District trustees last night accepted Wisgerhof's resignation without comment, with Deputy Supt. Ralph Giovanniello commenting that Wisgerhof was "moving to Southern California."

Wisgerhof served as principal at Novato High for four years until 1967 when he asked that he be reassigned to teaching.

The board also accepted the resignation of John Gardenhire, who was scheduled to teach black and minority studies at Novato High.

Gardenhire reportedly has moved to Oakland to teach in a special program at Merritt College. He had taught at San Jose Junior High School from 1962-67, and taught English and social studies during the past school year at Novato High School.

Tree Trimming Equipment Stolen

A thief has stolen treetrimming equipment valued at $746 from Sohner Tree Service of 35 Ross Avenue, San Anselmo police reported today.

The theft, which occurred during the weekend, was discovered by Sohner superintendent Robert Sletten at 8:30 a.m. yesterday. The thief climbed a fence and took from a truck a 28-inch chain saw, three 24-inch hand saws, two pairs of climbing hooks, three leather climbing saddles and two 120-foot ropes.

Probation In Needle Case

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court yesterday told a 31-year-old Sausalito man who had pleaded guilty to possessing a hypodermic needle March 2 that he would give him a six-month suspended jail sentence.

He warned Robert W. Holtz, however, that if he appeared in court again on a narcotics charge that he would get the six months in jail "and more."

He also ordered Holtz, against whom a methedrine possession charged had been dismissed, to refrain from the use of drugs while on probation.

Texas Tommy, His Dogs On The Road

Texas Tommy, whose real name is Thomas Updegrove, and his 17 dogs left Marin County yesterday afternoon, much happier than when he arrived and was stranded.

"I want to thank everybody who helped me," he said.

The help came from Novato women who furnished food, individuals and merchants of Pacheco Plaza who helped him with money and the Marin County Humane Society.

Tommy's trouble started when he was not allowed to put on his dog show at Pacheco Plaza and Northgate shopping centers. The Humane Society had objected to the size of the cages in which he kept his dogs in the bus he traveled in. Then the California Highway Patrol said that the tires on his truck were too old to be on the highway, so would not allow him to leave.

To compound his troubles, his van broke down and he had an $81 garage bill.

After the Independent-Journal article appeared Saturday, help in the form of food and money started arriving.

The Humane Society yesterday paid his garage bill and bought him new tires so he could move his bus on the highway.

"It was a little human, animal and mechanical rehabilitation," said Mel Morse, humane society director.

Morse said that he examined the animals and that "there was no problem with the animals." The objection came over the small cages for the large dogs. Morse admitted that he did not see the act.

Judge Sims To Sit On Supreme Court

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr., of Belvedere, has been assigned to sit with the California Supreme Court from Sept. 1 to Nov. 30, Chief Justice Roger J. Traynor announced today.

Sims, 58, of 30 Beach Road, is an associate justice on San Francisco's First Appellate District Court of Appeals. He was Marin County's district attorney from 1950 to 1953 and was a Marin County Superior Court Judge from 1960 to 1964.

Drug Sentence

I-J Special Report

LAKEPORT — Malcom S. Mayer, 25, of Sausalito, yesterday was fined $150 and placed on three years probation for possessing and furnishing marijuana in Kelseyville, Lake County, Aug. 5. Mayer pleaded guilty to the charges on Aug. 12.

School Lunch Price Hiked In Novato

Trustees agreed to the 10-cent hike after hearing a report that cafeteria operations, elementary and secondary, cost the district $30,000 during the past year.

They also agreed to a list of price hikes for various items sold at high schools, but asked for further information, since they didn't have former prices.

Trustees asked for figures showing how much the district can expect to gain in revenue.

Trustee Carolyn M. Crabtree said she didn't think the board had the obligation to "feed our affluent children" out of tax money.

Board President Marett B. Boissevain warned if the prices weren't increased the district's loss would grow because of rising costs.

New Ordinances

Two proposed ordinances — one regulating loud and unnecessary noises which disturb the peace and another regulating conduct on public property — will be discussed by the Corte Madera Park and Recreation Commission at a 7:30 p.m. meeting tomorrow in town hall.

Redwood Empire Sets Convention In Marin

The 49th annual Redwood Empire Association convention will be held Sept. 24 to 26 at the Holiday Inn, San Rafael.

Rep. William S. Mailliard, R-Sixth District, will speak at 9:30 a.m. Sept. 25, followed by a report on plans for future development of Redwood National Park by its superintendent, Nelson Murdock, and on Point Reyes National Seashore by its superintendent, Edward J. Kurtz.

Also featured will be Oregon State Sen. E. D. Potts of Grants Pass on the growth and development of visitor and recreation programs in Oregon.

Skinny Burglar Robs Home Market

A slim burglar broke a window in the second story office of the Home Market at 407 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, entered the store and stole $37 in cigarettes and liquor during the weekend, police reported yesterday.

Owner George R. Bianchini said entry was made between 9 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. yesterday and the burglar had to be small since the window opening is only eight inches wide.

Rec Center, School Windows Are Broken

Petaluma police reported windows broken by vandals in two locations during the weekend. At Walnut Park, rocks broke windows at the park and recreation department office at a loss of $225.

Four windows were reported broken by rocks at Petaluma Junior High School. Loss was estimated at $80.

The unusual whittle marks or indentations were made by blowing the glass into a cold mold or a hand-carved wooden mold. The jug is among the more than 1,000 bottles that she has been collecting in the past eight years. She says bottle collecting is a good family hobby. All one needs are a potato rake, trowel and gloves.

The Empties May Have Value

By DOROTHY NEWELL

"Bottle collecting is a good family hobby" says Mrs. Charles Minton of Novato, whose collection now numbers more than 1000 bottles.

"All you need are a potato rake, trowel and gloves and time for outings into mining town, ghost towns or dumps and excavation sites. It doesn't cost anything to dig, and the bottles are valuable and sell at a good premium," she said.

She and her husband are rockhounds, too, and a friend in Petaluma introduced them eight years ago to bottle collecting.

Thelma Minton began bottle hunting and searched in Santa Rosa creek before the storm drains were put in and also the banks of the Petaluma River.

Another spot where they collected was the site of the former Simmons Mattress Co. in San Francisco where apartment buildings now stand. Here she found soda bottles. The bottles had corks and in order to keep them from drying out and losing the carbonation in the soda when they were used as ballast for ships coming from England, the bottles were made with a round bottom.

SOME OF THE bottles she has collected are hand-blown as well as blown into a mold. The black glass bottles are from the middle 1800s and the color of the glass depends on the iron content of the sand, Mrs. Minton said.

Before World War I Germany was the source of magnesium used to give the glass a clear color. When the glass is found in the desert or in the sun it takes on a beautiful lavender to purple color. Therefore, any glass found with a lavender cast was made prior to 1914, Mrs. Minton said. Selinium is also used in the manufacture of glass and gives the glass a golden color.

HER COLLECTION of fruit jars include early days jars in an amber color, but they were soon discontinued as the housewife did not like the appearance of fruit and vegetables in the amber jars.

Prior to 1900 all jars were hand blown, Mrs. Minton said.

She also told of the interesting history of a "witches ball" that she has — a beautiful glass sphere in pink and white. A supposedly true story, Mrs. Minton said that in the early

MRS. MINTON'S bottle collection varies from the tiniest of Chinese containers to a large soya sauce container pictured at left in the background. These containers were brought to Petaluma when a large number of Chinese lived there. The containers were later used by the Americans for storing eggs. A number of figurals, baby bottles are also displayed and in the right foreground, small perfume bottles with sterling silver tops used as containers for smelling salts or perfume which women wore chained to their belts.

A "WITCHES BALL," a pink and white sphere, is displayed by Mrs. Charles Minton. She tells the supposedly true story of superstitious people in New England in the early 1800s who would hang the ball inside their front door at night. The ball fascinated the witches who would get so busy admiring and rubbing the ball with their hands that it would keep them from harming members of the family. Among the bottles in the window of the home are early day liquor containers. (Independent-Journal photos by Roger Bockrath)

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Town's Witch Hunters Have Case Of Hippie-Uptightness

DEAR HELEN:

Since a hippie settlement started in the hills above our little town, it's like Civil War. We even have a northern version of the Ku Klux Klan, except they're out after hippies and hippie-lovers.

Recently my girl friend and I were sitting in a building and a woman walked up and demanded, "Where are your shoes!" I politely said "We left them home — it's summer." She bawled me out and then went to my father and gave him a good dressing down. Seems going barefooted makes us pro-hippie.

Two days later I wore a peace emblem to a rummage sale, and got thrown out. Is it evil to believe in peace?

That afternoon, we were walking from the town pool where we teach swimming. We had covers over our suits, but again no shoes. Someone called the pool manager and told him to fire us as we were hippies.

Helen, we're just ordinary teens, who come from ordinary families. We don't hate the hippies, but we haven't joined them either. We believe everyone should do his own thing. This civic betterment committee is as bad as the old time vigilantes. They even destroy property and business houses of the people they accuse, and the accusations are like witch hunts. Must we even dress to suit the female busybodies, and boycott certain stores to suit the male bigots?

Maybe the hippies do create a sanitary problem and bring in drugs, but this is up to the law, not a bunch of wild civic leaders who are ruining our once happy little town.

What's wrong with these people anyway? — US

DEAR US:

These witch hunters have a bad case of hippie-uptightis, and the only cure is a dose of common sense, administered by the majority. The vigilante thing is happening in many areas where nearby hippie communes threaten property values and affront rigid moralists (who are usually the most blood thirsty).

Let's hope your parents and other wiser adults don't let bigotry become law in your town. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

My boyfriend thinks nothing of coming to my house with food, then eating it in front of my family, without offering any to us. I told him I didn't think this was right, but he said he bought it, so he doesn't have to share it. Yet he helps himself to anything in our refrigerator.

And get this: When he brings food and doesn't finish it, he expects us to store it so it will be waiting when he comes back. My little sister ate one of his candy bars, and wow! I said if that's the way he feels, stay out of our food. Was I right? — CONFUSED

DEAR CON:

You were right, though I'd make it a bit stronger. Like Stay out! — period! Who needs a chintzy, selfish boy friend? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

My problem is I can always see the other side of the question. Take the Vietnam War. I hate it, yet I know South Vietnam needs help. I never have an opinion I can't argue with. So I'm always debating but hardly ever winning. Is something wrong with me? — FROM ALL SIDES

DEAR FROM:

Something is very right with you. An open mind gives your brains room for exercise. You aren't afraid to think. When you see there is right and wrong in almost every situation, you're better equipped to help change the wrong to right. — H.

BOTTLES

1800s superstitious people in New England would hang the witches ball inside the front door. The witch would come, be so fascinated by the ball that she would turn it with her hands and would not harm any member of the family. Then in the morning, one member of the family would wipe the witch finger prints from the ball and the home would be kept from harm another day.

MRS. MINTON laughingly said she also uses a "silver pick," meaning that she buys an antique bottle now and then and also trades with club members. She is a member of the Petaluma Bottle and Antique Club.

Another group of bottles that have become popular collector items are figurals, with the bottles made the shape of animals, people or other items. Mrs. Minton said that any figure bottle will be worth something someday. She has figurals in the shape of violins, some antique, others fairly recent.

Mrs. Minton, a third grade teacher at McKinley elementary school in Petaluma and her husband, an employee with United Airlines in San Francisco, lived in Petaluma 13 years before moving to Novato two and one-half years ago.

They have three children. Mrs. Marilyn Armstrong of Stockton, Mrs. Ronald St. Jean of Petaluma and David Minton, who has recently returned from Vietnam and is just out of the service, and two grandchildren.

OTHER HOBBIES of Mrs. Minton are finishing antique furniture, collecting Indian artifacts which she uses in her class at school and beginning a doll collection.

Mrs. Minton will discuss her collection of bottles before the antique study group of the Novato Newcomers Club at her home in Novato at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Jewel Bike Clips Hold Bell Bottoms

LONDON (AP) — Now that the girls are wearing the trousers, a leading London costume jeweler has come up with an idea for keeping bell bottoms under control and adding a feminine touch to pants.

Jeweled bicycle clips to be worn over trouser bottoms were shown by Paris House, which makes belts for Queen Elizabeth II and the royal household.

Unisex crept in, too, with jeweled scarf rings for hippies of both sexes. A girl could almost go out in nothing but her pearls and still look decent if she wears the huge variety favored by Paris House for belts, necklaces and earrings.

Special lightweight pearls have been made for multi drop earrings that look heavy enough to stretch an earlobe down to the shoulder.

Those fancy bicycle clips can double as upper arm bracelets, another popular trend in costume jewelry. Chain belts, usually incorporating jeweled or pearl medallions, are still going strong, an indication that hippie styles are continuing. Tassels of chain and stones appear on nearly everything.

No Friends?

Mrs. Henry King Stanford, wife of Miami University's president, says the only people who should be university presidents are "the friendless, the orphaned and bachelors."

Christine Marie De Graf Recites Wedding Vows With John Anderson

Christine Marie DeGraf became the bride of John Moore Anderson Saturday in a ceremony at St. Rita's Church in Fairfax.

Christine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard R. DeGraf of San Anselmo, chose Laurene Pelleriti of Fairfax as her maid of honor and as bridesmaids, Patricia McGinty and Lucy Brugaletta, both of San Francisco.

Michael Domich of Sacramento was the best man. Ushers were Patrick Wick of Colton, and Richard DeGraf, the bride's brother of San Anselmo.

The couple went to Carmel on a wedding trip following the reception at Deer Park Villa in Fairfax.

The bride was graduated from Marin Catholic High School. She and John are seniors at the University of San Francisco. Her grandmother is Mrs. Owen McGinty of San Francisco.

John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester M. Anderson of Oakland, is a graduate of Sacramento High School in Sacramento.

Nuptials Announced During Dinner For Marin Visitors

By MOLLY MARIN

A small dinner given to honor Julie and Lynn Schwengber, who are visiting here from their home in Brazil, was the occasion for the announcement of the marriage of their uncle, Harry O. Schwengber, to Mrs. Salvatore Cieri of Larkspur.

Mrs. Cieri, widow of Dr. Cieri, formerly lived in Piedmont. She is the mother of Albert Cieri of Marin, Richard Cieri of San Jose and Joanne Cieri of Larkspur, who was a Marin Ball debutante last year. The new Mrs. Schwengber has been active in medical and music groups in the Bay Area and is a sustaining member of the Oakland Junior League. Her husband is a member of a southern Brazil family and he was graduated from the University of Chicago. He is now associated with Boise Cascade Properties, Inc.

The couple will make their home in Larkspur.

THE CHARLES W. Hendersons of Sausalito have as their houseguests his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Henderson and their four daughters of Granada Hills and Camp Nelson. Mr. Henderson's mother, Mrs. Margaret H. Stevens of Palm Desert, who has been staying with Charles and Kathie Henderson for several weeks, remained for a gala family reunion over the weekend with other Bay Area relatives.

Charles and Kathie plan a vacation in Carmel following the families' departure the first of the week.

MRS. LELIA Crouch of Mill Valley left Saturday to be director for the Nature Conservancy six-island Hawaiian tour. Highlight of the tour arranged for 85 people by Huey D. Johnson of Mill Valley, western regional director of the Nature Conservancy, will be a visit to Kipahulu Valley. The nature conservancy was instrumental in paying for $590,000 to purchase the valley, which will become a national park.

SPENDING six weeks at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jose Ernesto Arrieta in San Salvador are Jane Price of San Anselmo and her schoolmate, Kit Culver of San Francisco. The girls have attended San Ealvadore schools and have been sight-seeing through El Salvador. Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Price of San Anselmo.

THE GEORGE TURNBULLS of Mill Valley will be hosts on Sept. 12 at the rehearsal dinner for the wedding of their son, Robert Lane Turnbull of San Francisco, to Paula Stanley of San Francisco. It will be held at the Villa Taverna in San Francisco.

Old St. Mary's Church in San Francisco will be the setting for the 4 p.m. wedding on Sept. 13, followed by a reception at the St. Francis Yacht Club.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Adrienne Lindsey Stanley of San Francisco and Lorne R. Stanley of San Mateo.

A bachelor dinner for the future bridegroom will be given on Sept. 5 by Walter Scott Newhall of Belvedere at his summer home in Bolinas.

Medical Auxiliary Gives Nurse Scholarships To Marin Women

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Marin Medical Society has awarded scholarships to eight young women for the coming year, Mrs. Daniel Phillips, chairman of the nursing scholarship committee, announced.

Six of the girls are enrolled in schools of nursing, and two will enter the nursing field in September.

The Marin County high school graduates are Michelle Abraham, St. Joseph's School of Nursing; Ellen Bundshu, Janet Epedendio and Suzanne Quigg, University of San Francisco; Madeline Cordeiro, St. Luke's School of Nursing, San Francisco; Claudia Cronin, Highland School of Nursing, Oakland; Margaret Daly, San Francisco State College; and Victoria Fernancez, College of Marin.

THE ANNUAL Wisconsin picnic will be held at the city plaza in Sonoma beginning at noon on Monday.

Mrs. Alfred Schmidt, president, and Mrs. Wilkes Johnson, secretary, both of Novato, will furnish additional information to those wishing to attend. Former Wisconsin residents will bring a potluck dish and table service for the picnic.

Brian Champie Bestows Name Upon Susan Lilly

Susan Marie Lilly of Fairfax and Brian Paul Champie of San Anselmo were married Saturday at St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael.

Maid of honor was Katherine Lilly, Susan's sister. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard F. Lilly of La Mirada.

William Hunt of Novato was the best man for Paul, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan R. Champie of San Anselmo.

Susan was graduated from St. Paul's High School in La Mirada and is attending California College of Court Reporting in San Francisco. Timothy, Diane, Stephen and Nancy, all of La Mirada, are her brothers and sisters.

Brian was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is employed by King Coaters, Inc., in Oakland, where the couple will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Barker of San Anselmo are his grandparents.

Meredith Pike Becomes Bride Of James Hallett

Meredith Anne Pike became the bride of James Malcolm Hallett Sunday afternoon in a ceremony at St. John's Episcopal Church in Ross, where the bridegroom's father is rector.

A reception followed at the Ross home of the bridegroom's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Harold M. Hallett. The bride is the daughgter of Mrs. J. Parrish Pike of Kentfield and E. Bertram Pike of Sonora.

Judith Kell Pike was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Pam Myers and Carol Hinkley, both of Kentfield.

Best man for his brother was Harold E. Hallett Jr. of Rohnert Park. James' other brother, Douglas L. Hallett of Ross; the bride's brother, Edwin B. Pike of Kentfield; and Ira Silverstein of New York ushered.

The couple will live in Berkeley following a wedding trip camping in the Lake Tahoe and Mendocino areas.

Meredith is a graduate of Redwood High School and Pine Manor Junior College in Chestnut Hill, Mass. She is now a student at the University of California. Mr. and Mrs. George M. Parrish of Oakland are her grandparents.

James is a graduate of Thatcher School in Ojai and Yale University. He is a student at Boalt Hall School of Law.

Program For Mozart Event Set

Musicians who will perform and the program for the Ninth Annual Mozart Festival at Stolte Grove, Sunday at 1 p.m., have been announced by Mrs. Martin Goldschmidt, music chairman.

Works to be performed are the Concerto for Four Oboes and Two Bassoons, Handel; aria "Laudamus Te" (from the Mass in C) for soprano and orchestra; Concerto for Clarinet in A Major K 622, and minuet and presto from "Village Musician" K 5522 (musical joke) — all by Mozart.

Other works are the Beethoven Sextet, Opus 81B for two horns and strings and three songs for soprano and clarinet by Gordon Jacobs.

Soloists will be soprano Gwen Curatilo and clarinetist Frealon Bibbins.

Musicians in the augmented Bach-to-Mozart group will be Ruggiero Pelosi, Everett O'Bannon, Maxine Hineman, Gail Denny, Donna Salarpi, Michael Gerling and Harry Moulin, violins; Asbjorn Finess and Lucien Mitchell, violas; Jean Mitchell and Helen Stross, cellos; Michael Burr, bass; Jean Cunningham, flute; Raymond Duste, Eleanor Biondi, Donna Schideler and Kenneth Hammel, oboes; Robin Elliott and Marilyn Mayer, bassons, and Edward Haug and Stuart Gronningen, horns.

Convention Center Proposed For Alcatraz

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A proposal to raze grim Alacatraz prison and creat "an extension of San Francisco" on the island was presented to the board of supervisors yesterday.

Charles Trieschmann, a New York and San Francisco investor, suggested a development including a 500-room convention hotel, 600 units of residential housing, an international shopping center, a clutch of restaurants and a cultural unit with museums, art galleries, theaters and auditoriums.

Supervisors are negotiating with the federal government to acquire the island in San Francisco Bay that once housed maximum security prisoners.

Trieschman asked the supervisors for one year to come up with more specific designs and cost figures.

Under Trieschman's plan the old maximum security prison would be completely razed at a cost of $1.7 million.

Carberry's Jail Leadership 'Incompetent,' Panel Says

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— Sheriff Matt Carberry's administration of the San Francisco County Jail was described as "utterly incompetent" yesterday by a crime committee appointed by Mayor Joseph Alioto.

The committee said conditions in the jail were "schocking, disgraceful and appalling."

The group's executive director, Irving Riechert, said dental and medical care in the jails is inadequate, meals are of low quality, the prison security is so loose "the inmates could take over the jail and free all the other inmates within 20 minutes."

"We saw how youthful offenders and alcoholics are tossed in with the most degraded and corrupt; how they are abused and contaminated; how they are likely to emerge not only unrehabilitated, but perhaps more incorrigible than before," the committee report said.

The crime committee blamed Carberry for current jail conditions and said he has not fought agressively for improvements or for an increased budget. It added, however, that improvements could be made without additional funds.

The report recommended that "a proper authority, such as the grand jury," investigate Carberry's "personal drinking problem." The sheriff has admitted to being a heavy drinker, but said he has conquered the problem and his drinking has not affected his administration of the jails.

McCurdy's Carport

The San Anselmo Design Review Committee will consider a design review application from Robert McCurdy for his carport at 8 Brookside Court at a meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow. The San Anselmo Planning Commission referred the plan to the board saying the design lacked something in style.

Tam Pet Parade

A pet parade, sponsored by the Tamalpais Fire Protection District Ladies Auxiliary, will be held from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Sept. 6 in the lot next to the district's Fire Station No. 1.

Scholarship Auditions Set

Auditions for a $200 ballet scholarship to be given by the Marin Music Chest will be held Sept. 13 at Angelico Hall, Dominican Cellege of San Rafael.

A warmup period will be from 1 to 1:30 p.m. followed by a 15-minute rest period. Beginning at 1:45 p.m., students will perform routines which may not exceed two minutes, Mrs. Emmet Rixford, Music Chest president said. Contestants must furnish their own music, she said.

Marin students age 14 to 19 who have studied at least four years, are eligible. Applications, available from Marin Music Chest, Box 468, Ross, must be submitted by Sept. 10, Mrs. Rixford said.

Youth Gets Weekends In County Jail

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court yesterday ordered a 21-year-old Terra Linda man who admitted having marijuana with him when arrested after creating a ruckus at Northgate Shopping Center to spend five weekends in jail.

If work furlough had been available, the judge said he would have sentenced James Moore Alumbaugh to serve a straight 30 days.

Judge Wilson noted that the youth had shouted obscenities and broken a bottle of liquor at the Bourbon Shop when employees refused to sell him liquor they believed he was giving to minors at the shopping center on March 30.

"I can't understand why anyone who had as much marijuana with him as you did created such a scene," Judge Wilson said to Alumbaugh.

Alumbaugh replied that he had had 10 beers and wine earlier in the day. He had two plastic bags of marijuana with him.

Man Sent To Vacaville

A San Rafael man who had earlier admitted possessing a check believed stolen by a former mailman yesterday was ordered to the California Medical Facility at Vacaville for a 90-day evaluation before sentencing.

Bruce Alan Tucker, 21,objected in four-letter words to the order by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court, saying that he would rather start serving prison time if that was where he eventually was going.

Tucker, who gave police a variety of addresses when arrested, was living with the Litteral family at 9 Taylor Street in San Rafael at the time of his arrest.

Members of the family and others of the same address have also been accused of cashing checks stolen by a former mailman, Warren Sielsky, who lived at the same house.

Tucker pleaded guilty to possessing a check with intent to defraud and a second charge of forgery against him was dismissed.

'La Mancha' Has Emotional Power

By GARY TISCHLER

SAN FRANCISCO — It is good to run into a piece of theater that attacks the gut and the heart, that has the power to move the emotions.

"Man of La Mancha," which arrived at the Curran Theater as part of the Civic Light Opera season last night, did just that with a special kind of magic.

The musical comedy, if that's what it is, has been here once before, with the original Broadway cast, including Richard Kiley in the title role. This production starred Jose Ferrer, and not having seen Kiley's version or any version of the play for that matter, I can't draw comparisons. Last night's production is all I have and it was plenty good for me.

It is, in many ways, an amazing accomplishment. Running for well over two hours, it has no intermission. It is one of those things that seem to start out innocently and playfully enough, at first appearing to be nothing more than a play within a play about Miguel Cervantes and his creation Don Quixote, who gives all the tell-tale signs of a rowdy old nut.

But somewhere in the middle of the play, it thickens and comes together. The old fool turns into a triumphant and stubborn idealist, the slut becomes a person, the creator turns into his own creation. Changes dip below the almost burlesque-like comedy, grab hold of the audience and carry it to its strangely triumphant windup.

A very fat part of the credit goes to Ferrer as Cervantes-Quixote, the idealist trying to see the world as it ought to be. He skates on thin ice for the first part of the play, hovering on outright burlesque for what seem like a long time. But it all works, for all the foolishness, the seeming over-acting make a real someone out of Quixote. His voice quavers, his body stoops in mock heroics, the vowels stretch.

It is an altogether beautiful double performance, for Cervantes, who begins the play as somewhat afraid, word-quick and just a shade cynical, becomes Quixote, his own brave creation. His departure to face the inquisition is a moment of pure, moving theater.

The big surprise is Maura Wedge, as Aldonza, the tavern slut who becomes Don Quixote's Dulcinea, his lady fair. In a very physical performances that alternates between a kind of savage, knowing sexuality and bewilderment at being considered as something worthwhile, she dominates the stage with snarls, spit, black hair flying. After a brutal rape scene in which she is brought down to earth, she comes through with a genuine show-stopper in her "Aldonza" number, a bitter, tirade against Quixote and the dreams he offered up.

What makes the whole thing click is the almost total integration of book, music and dance. Not since "West Side Story" have all three components worked together so smoothly.

To hear Ferrer sing "The Impossible Dream," is to hear it again for the first time, minus crooners and the tail end of a television variety show. But it is by no means the only song in the play. "Dulcinea," "What Does He Want of Me" the simple avowal by Pancho Sanza, "I Really Like Him" the savage "It's All The Same," all display moving lyrics and music.

Of the other actors, Tony Martinez, who used to be Pepino on the "Real McCoys," comes through with a deft and underplayed comic touch as Pancho. The best singing in the play came from Dale Malone as the padre, displaying a clear tenor voice.

Novato Yearbook Party Next Week

The annual yearbook party at Novato High School will be held at 7:30 p.m., next Tuesday at the high school cafeteria, according to Asst. Principal Edward Kraft.

Novato High School gets its yearbooks at a cheaper rate by waiting for them to be printed in the summer. Then it holds an annual party at which the yearbooks are distributed, he said.

A Multi-Million-Dollar Plan For Marin-Sonoma Water

By BONNIE BARD

SANTA ROSA — A $33 million to $38 million plan to trasmit water to southern Sonoma and Marin from the planned Warm Springs Dam in Sonoma County was outlined yesterday before the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District.

Gordon W. Miller, chief engineer, also said the dam cost figures based upon projected construction rates for the 1970s could bring that part of the project cost to $80 million.

Miler said that if the transmission lines were to be built at present costs, the figure would be $33 million. Marin's share of the cost, based on need, would be $18.6 million with $14.4 million for Sonoma County.

To be included in projected costs at a later date will be pipelines to serve west Marin and the Tomales Bay area. The county supervisors, sitting as water district directors, yesterday received a letter from E. S. Churchill, general manager of the North Marin Water District, asking that plans include service to the east shore and head of Tomales Bay.

Miller said it would be logical to include the Tomales area in studies to determine where water from the Russian River can be diverted. He said a plan to divert water to Tomales by a pipeline from Sebastopol would be most feasible.

The engineer said county plans already had included proposed service to the Jenner and Bodega Bay areas of Sonoma County and that adding a pipeline to service the southern region of the coastal shelf would add nothing to the study cost.

Miller said the 72-inch pipeline from Warm Springs Dam, eight miles north of Healdsburg, would run past Santa Rosa to Sebastolpol, Cotati and Rohnert Park to connect with the Petaluma aqueduct for the first stage of development.

He estimated costs for the first-phase construction at $19.4 million with $10.4 million borne by Marin County and $9 million by Sonoma County. "This first stage must be in operation by 1974 or we'll be rationing water, Miller warned.

The second stage would involve constructing new collectors along the Russian River and extension of the pipeline south of Petaluma where it will serve the Novato area. Set for completion in 1978, cost was estimated at $10 million with $6.4 million as Marin's share and $3.7 million for Sonoma County.

The final stage in 1968 would include adding three collectors along the river for the increased consumption and the construction of pumping plants for a total cost of nearly $3.6 million. Marin's share would be $1.8 million and $1.7 for Sonoma.

Miller said he hoped financing for the entire project would be known by 1971, either through a mutual bond issue or through state and federal grants.

The engineer said the project operation presently includes a geological study of the river bed to determine its capacity for collectors and pumping plants.

The dam, being built by the Amry Corps of Engineers, has included only road relocation work so far.

Two Hurt In Novato Accident

Two people were injured in a three-vehicle accident at 8:30 a.m. today in front of the Independent-Journal office in Novato.

Treeated for neck, back and head bruises at Novato General Hospital were Eddie R. Hale, 27, and Ronald H. Canfield, 32, both of Santa Rosa.

Hale and passenger Canfield, stopped their pickup truck waiting for Mrs. Newell to make the left turn, Novato police reported.

The pickup truck was hit in the rear by a garbage truck belonging to the Novato Disposal Service, driven by George Azevedo, 46, of 1132 Simmons Lane, Novato, police reported. The pickup truck was knocked into the rear of Mrs. Newell's car.

Motorsit Kills Deer On Bridge

Two deer loomed out of the dawn on the Golden Gate Bridge today, to the amazement of a San Anselmo man who hit one of them.

James Rudden said he hit one of the deer, smashed in the front of his car but kept going to report the accident to a toll taker. He said it occurred at 6:11 a.m. at the north end of the bridge.

Bridge officials said a deer was killed this morning but did not know if it was on the bridge or at an approach.

SAUSALITO INTEGRATION

CRITERIA Assumes A Major Role

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON
(Second of five articles.)

On May 9, 1966, County Schools Supt. Virgil S. Hollis reported to the Sausalito School District board that the screening team he headed had sifted 86 applicants for the soon-to-be-vacant district superintendency down to six.

Two weeks later, trustee David E. Freedheim introduced to the board Philip W. Schneider, "who will succeed Mr. (Charles W.) Lavaroni as district superintendent on July 1." Not until the June 6 meeting did the board vote to hire Schneider, and by then it was short one member through resignation of Jessie Zimmer.

However, if the manner of his introduction seemed a little unusual, Schneider left no room for doubt that he would plunge immediately into his new duties.

Although officially still superintendent of Whisman School District in Santa Clara County until June 30, he was actively present at the June 27 Sausalito board meeting, and his hand was evident in the hiring of a new principal that night.

Superintendent Lavaroni introduced Robert Lea to the board as the new principal of Central School.

Lea had been a teacher in the San Jose School District in North Marin when Schneider was its superintendent. He had been named vice principal of a school there, but Supt. Ralph Giovanniello, who succeeded Schneider, revoked the appointment when it was pointed out to him that Lea did not then have an administrative credietial.

Lea was to play a major role in the Sausalito district, particularly in connection with a group called CRITERIA, an acronym of "Children Require Intelligent Teaching — Education Really Is Alive."

This group was set up as a representative council during a series of meetings of members of the district staff which began "rather spontaneously" at the end of May, 1968, according to a July 12 memorandum from Schneider to teachers.

In August, it produced a "Declaration of Education" which included a list of commitments to high goals. Among these were:

"It is essential for all members of the district staff to participate in confrontation groups to examine staff roles, school policies and problems, and staff-student interaction . . . .

"It is essential that all members of the district staff actively encourage teachers who are not agreeable to the district's integration policy to seek other employment . . ."

CRITERIA'S dedication to confrontation principles was evidenced on Oct. 21, 1968, when the board voted it $2,300 to send members to racial confrontation groups conducted by Dr. Price M. Cobbs of Pacific Psychotherapy Associates in San Francisco.

Armando Flores on behalf of the Sausalito Teachers Association, had asked two weeks earlier for $3,100 for teachers to attend similar sessions at San Francisco State College, but the board did not act on his request. It granted the $2,300 to CRITERIA promptly and without cavil.

On Dec. 2, 1968, Schneider presented the board a proposed multi-ethnic policy which he said was the work of CRITERIA, assisted by Sidney F. Walton Jr., who was then coordinator of a multi-ethnic program for Palo Alto Unified School District. (The Sausalito district paid Walton $100 for his share in this.)

The policy included a quota system for employment of black persons, a fulltime multi-ethnic coordinator, and recruitment of black teachers through advertising in such publications as the Berkeley Barb and Black Panther, as well as through colleges.

With this program accepted, CRITERIA moved into the hiring field. On Jan. 13 of this year, Schneider reported to the board that CRITERIA was interviewing Raye L. Richardson for the job of multi-ethnic coordinator. Two weeks later, she was hired.

On Jan. 27, Harvey Pearlman, one of two counselors who had attended Dr. Cobbs' encounter sessions, recommended on behalf of CRITERIA that encounter groups be made part of a district in-service workshop the following month and that money be budgeted for such training every four months. Again, the CRITERIA recommendations were accepted.

Playing a major role in CRITERIA since his hiring on July 10, 1968, has been James T. Toliver, who was hired to teach in the guidance center at Richardson Bay School (since renamed Martin Luther King School). Within a few months, he was designated assistant principal. He now styles himself assistant to the principal and staff.

Toliver is a widely traveled man. He was in Nigeria before coming to Sausalito, and lived in several countries of Europe following his graduation from McAlester College in St. Paul, Minn., in 1960.

He holds a secondary teaching credential from Sacramento State College but does not have an administrative credential. At one time he was a Los Angeles County probation officer.

On Feb. 3 of this year, the Sausalito board held one of its many closed sessions to discuss charges by and against Toliver and Orpha Barnes, a custodian. No action resulted.

Toliver figured largely in the district's protest against the "Marin City fence," and, with Lea, in defending teachers criticized for classroom display of materials referring to police as "pigs." He has also been a staunch defender of William Bradley (Chaka), and more recently, of Walton.

Bradley's hiring —and subsequent rumor he was to be dismissed — caused one of the three biggest uproars in the district this year, the others being over the Black Panther breakfasts and the employment of Walton as new principal of King School. It came about in an odd way.

Under its exchange program with Sausalito, the Mill Valley School District provides two teachers for Sausalito schools. One of them, teaching a mathematics class, was injured in the fall.

The teacher assigned as his replacement asked to be transferred back to Mill Valley at mid-year, and his replacement in turn asked a transfer "home" after only three weeks on the job. At that point, Schneider told Mill Valley Supt. A. Collins that he would find a replacement.

The man he chose was Bradley, who has adopted the name of Chaka for a Zulu king who is regarded as the greatest of native African military leaders.

He is a former chairman of a Committee of Racial Equality chapter in San Francisco and was a leader in the San Francisco Auto Row sit-ins five years ago.

Subsequently he operated the Afro-American Institute in San Francisco's Fillmore district. He is a San Francisco State College graduate but has no teaching credential.

Objections were raised about his lack of credential and about alleged teaching of black separatism instead of mathematics.

Schneider, saying "Chaka has done a wonderful job," declared he would try to get him a credential. "If we can't,' 'he said, "we will work out something on a consultant basis."

(Tomorrow: Declining enrollment, rising costs.)

Stereo, Wine Stolen

The theft of a stereo valued at $160 and 12 bottles of wine valued at $7 was reported to San Rafael police yesterday by Gunther Dinkus, of 360 Devon Drive, who told officers the items were taken from his gargage sometime between Aug. 16 and yesterday morning.

WHO MAILED IT?

A Mystery Postcard Arrives From Dead Man

Who mailed a postcard apparently written by a Mill Valley man on the day he took his own life but postmarked two days later?

Coroner's officials said they found a note on the kitchen table.

Saturday afternoon, a postcard addressed to President Richard M. Nixon but bearing the Independent-Journal's address arrived. It bore a Friday post mark.

Postal officials said there was no chance that a card mailed on Wednesday could have had a postmark as late as Friday.

The card seems to be in the same handwriting as the note found in the kitchen, according to sheriff's officers, but a handwriting expert will analyze it furthur.

They had no answer as to who might have mailed the card after Stover's death.

The text of Stover's message was:

"Mr. President,

"When you read this I will no longer be one of your earning slaves. O man of war and farce and playacting I revolt! You will not get me to pay for war, for trips to the moon while people need education and food and then show how much you waste on TV on a mockery. O spoiler of men and beautiful land I am beyond your reach!"

Day In Court Set For Teen

A 19-year-old San Rafael youth was told yesterday to return to Marin Municipal Court Tuesday to be arraigned on a charge that he possessed marijuana and a device for smoking it on the Court House lawn Friday.

Eugene Richard Rudnick of 103 Greenfield Avenue was arrested by a juvenile officer who was looking for a runaway girl on the lawn, often a gathering place for young people.

The officer said he noticed a plastic bag of what appeared to be marijuana and a pipe sticking out of Rudnick's pockets.

DIAMONDS

When this hand was played, West opened the ace of diamonds and continued with the queen of diamonds. East naturally won with the king.

The natural defensive play for East is to return the queen of hearts. If West happens to hold the ace of hearts instead of the ace of spades, the defenders will get two hearts and three diamonds, defeating the contract.

As the cards lie, this defense will not work. South wins the heart return with the ace and leads a trump. He loses three diamonds and one trump, but then he can regain the lead to draw trumps; and then he can claim the rest of the tricks.

OTHER ACE

East can put up a more effective defense if he knows that West has the ace of spades rather than the ace of hearts. You might enjoy looking for East's best return at the third trick, after he has taken the king of diamonds.

As the cards lie, East can defeat the contract by returning a club. Declarer wins and leads a trump, whereupon West takes the ace of spades and cashes the jack of diamonds. East discards his remaining club on the jack of diamonds, and West then leads a club. East's ruff is the setting trick.

NEED CRYSTAL BALL

Very pretty, of course, but how on earth does East know that West has the ace of spades rather than the ace of hearts? That's the sort of thing that makes bridge such a difficult game for experts. If you think deeply, or if you have the right kind of crystal ball, you may find the right answer consistently in hands of this nature.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ Q 10 8
♦ 9 7 5
♣ A Q J 9.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid 1 no-trump.

Since you have only nine points in high cards you cannot afford to bid two clubs. The hearts are too weak for a response of two hearts. By elimination you come to the only remaining response — one no-trump.

SAN RAFAEL

MINIATURE ESTATE

A large level piece of land, but is actually 2 lots, studded with trees, lovely landscaped grounds, a sturdy home built like a fortress, with w/w carpeting, paneled walls in living room, with fireplace. Beautiful rear patio, all the grounds are fenced, and a new 2 car garage that could be converted to a guest house, and a miniature bridge over a small creek. You will fall in love with the setting and the grounds. Possible lot split on this property. Only $27,500.

Bavarian Chalet-Styled

One of the most charming, sturdily built, modified "A"-frame homes that we have seen (3 bdrms., 2 baths plus den). From the quality carpeted living rm., a styled staircase rises with a flair to a railinged study-den & to a most generous sized master bdrm. w/adj. large walk-in closet & bath. The view windows are like picture frames encasing the beauty of natural wooded privacy accented by Yosemite-sized boulders and gay splashes of colorful fruit & flowers. The customized all-electric kitchen is unusual and warm with rdwd. paneling & surprise quality extras. About 12 min. to G.G. toll. Want charming living (?), then please phone now; you'll be glad you did!

★★COLDWELL, BANKER'S★★ SELECTION OF FINE HOMES

HARD TO BEAT! SAN ANSELMO
Nothing to match this at the price. Spacious 3 bedroom, 2 bath ranch house on a level site on a level street, but high on a hill to take advantage of a great view of the Bay and Mountains. Large paneled living room, spacious entry hall, great G.E. kitchen. Enormous deck and fully fenced side yard for play yard or dog run. $35,500. Eves. 435-1590.

HIDDEN VALLEY CORTE MADERA
End of Road, privacy and seclusion. 2 bedroom, 2 bath, music room plus paneled den/office. Spacious 2,000 sq. ft. Oversized 2-car garage. Patio living with huge pool site. $45,000. Eves. 924-4323.

PLENTY OF SPACE NOVATO
You won't feel cramped on the ⅓ acre of land with its several varieties of fruit and nut trees. A lovely home, very large, 11 rooms in all with 6 bedrooms and 3 baths. Grounds are completely fenced, quiet and private, backing on wooded area. There is a paved parking area for your boat, automatic sprinkler system. The family room inside is cozy, living room has fireplace. A home for the large family. $57,500. Eves. 435-1590.

BEST WEATHER AREA SAN RAFAEL
Located in the best weather area for swimming and sun, standing on a fenced, fully landscaped, all level lot with POOL, this is a ranch-style 4 bedroom, 2 bath home in a most desirable area. The family room has a wet bar and fireplace, and opens to the inviting aggregate patio near the pool —splendid for entertaining. Lots of privacy here in this area of stately trees and well-kept homes. $63,500. Eves. 453-5718.

COUNTRY CLUB HEIGHTS SAN RAFAEL

GRACIOUS HOME — SPACIOUS GROUNDS SAN RAFAEL
This attractive, airy home awaits only updating of its kitchen and master bath to be as functional as tomorrow. A large living room (over 30 ft. long), a 20 ft. dining room, powder room, five bedrooms, 2¼ baths, plus maids room and bath make it ideal for the family which cares how it lives and where it lives. Several patios and handsome specimen shrubs and trees. $79,500. Eves. 456-6037.

1, 2, 3 and MORE BEDROOMS!! KENT WOODLANDS
This is the last thing in flexibility! Take your pick! You can have either 1 bedroom, plus den and maid's room; or 2 bedrooms plus den; or three bedrooms; or by adding a window to the large store room, you can have 4 bedrooms. A very gracious home, set on ½ acre of land, with a serene view of the San Francisco Bay and wooded hills. There is a very spacious terrace for entertaining, connecting the house and the sparkling POOL. The garden is beautifully landscaped and sprinklered. Home also has 3 baths and formal dining space. This is a fine home with an understated elegance that will appeal to the discriminating buyer. $92,500. Eves. 456-6037.

ON THE GRAND SCALE KENTFIELD
A superlative home in every respect — magnificent appointments exhibiting quality and impeccable taste are used throughout. The 38-foot living room with cathedral ceiling is designed for entertaining on the grand scale, and offers a splendid view to the East Bay and Mount Tamalpais. There is a library for peace and quiet, a large elegant dining room for formal dinner parties. Beautifully landscaped of course, for the discriminating buyer. $115,000. Eves. 924-4323.

HOUSE OF PLUSSES! BRING THE FAMILY TO SEE THIS!

This is the big, big Atherton with 3 large bedrooms, and 2 baths, long beautiful step-down family room, with raised hearth fireplace wall and large separate dining area with iron railings! But it has many extra pluses:

- The big double garage is completely finished inside — tiled floor — built-in benches — fluorescent lights — great for children's activities.
- There is a peaceful close-in screened porch — great for relaxing.
- It's on a corner lot — with easy possible access for boats and trailers.
- You can walk to all schools.
- It is elegantly decorated and in immaculate condition.
- It has gorgeous grounds with trees, plants, patio and great pool site.
- It's too good to be true. You must see it! $41,500.

NOTICE OF DEFAULT AND ELECTION TO SELL UNDER DEED OF TRUST
Trust Order No. 23848 GH

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN: That CALIFORNIA LAND TITLE COMPANY, a corporation, is Trustee, or successor Trustee, or substituted Trustee under a deed of trust dated April 10, 1968, executed by THEODORE N. PREOVOLOS and EVANTHIA PREOVOLOS, his wife, as Trustor, to secure certain obligations in favor of SPERO P. SPILIOTIS and LORRAINE W. SPILIOTIS, his wife, as Joint Tenants, as Beneficiary, recorded April 11, 1968, in Book 2204, Page 100, of Official Records in the office of the Recorder of Marin County, California said obligations including a note for the sum of $131,000.00;

That the beneficial interest under such deed and the obligations secured thereby have been transferred to the undersigned;

That a breach of, and default in, the obligations for which such deed is security has occurred in that payment has not been made of:

Principal and interest. Section A (2) has been breached as there has been a failure to deliver to the Beneficiaries fire insurance as therein required.

That by reason thereof, the undersigned, present beneficiary under such deed, has executed and delivered to said Trustee, or successor Trustee, or substituted Trustee a written Declaration of Default and Demand for sale, and has deposited with said Trustee, or successor Trustee, or substituted Trustee such deed and all documents evidencing obligations secured thereby, and has declared and does hereby declare all sums secured thereby immediately due and payable and has elected and does hereby elect to cause the trust property to be sold to satisfy the obligations secured thereby.

PROJECT NO. 967

MARIN COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by, and shall be filed with, the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, Room 315, Marin County Civic Center, San Rafael, California, until 1:30 p.m., Sept. 15, 1969, for:

Correction of a slide including excavating and backfilling, permeable material, drain pipes, headwall, sewer pipe, sidewalk and other related facilities.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Requests for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

Plans, cross sections and Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications, or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) (cash or check made payable to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin) to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal Form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten per cent (10%) of the bid. Guaranties shall be in the form of a certified or Cashier's Check or a Bidder's Bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty.

The bid bonds of bidders, other than the successful bidder, may be retained by the Board of Supervisors for a period of thirty (30) days after award or until the successful bidder executes the contract and furnishes bonds, whichever occurs first. If a bidder to whom the contract is awarded fails, or refuses, to execute the contract within fifteen (15) days of notice of award, as herein provided, the Board of Supervisors may award to the next lowest responsible bidder and apply the bid bond of the bidder failing, or refusing, to execute contract, against the County's damages resulting from such failure. If a bidder to whom the contract is awarded executes the contract as herein required, the bid bonds of bidders to whom no award was made will be returned upon request.

Said proposals will be opened and read at 1:30 p.m. in Room No. 343, Marin County Civic Center, on the day specified above for receiving bids. Only the total amount bid will be read and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub-total and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Director of Public Works to which they will be removed for the purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors will award the bid at 1:30 p.m. Sept. 16, 1969, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

TIME LIMIT

The Contractor shall commence work on or before the tenth (10th) day following the date of written notification by the Director of Public Works that the contract has been awarded by the Board of Supervisors. During this ten (10) day interval, the necessary contract documents shall be executed by the Contractor and returned to the Department of Public Works. All work shall be completed on the project within forty (40) working days counting from and including the said tenth (10th) day.

ENGINEER'S ESTIMATE

Rev. 7/16/69

For positions not listed above, the minimum rate paid for skilled, intermediate or unskilled labor shall be not less than minimum wage per hour and shall conform to the particular craft or classification of workmen employed on the project.

The attention of bidders is directed to the provisions of the specifications r garding legal relations and responsibility.

Attention is directed to the correlation of the specifications with the Standard Specifications of the State of California, Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, dated January, 1969, as to materials, methods and workmanship.

The Contractor whose bid is accepted shall furnish the following bonds to the County (at no expense to the County), executed by a responsible surety acceptable to the County in the prescribed form:

a) Faithful Performance Bond
b) Labor and Materials Bond

The Faithful Performance Bond shall be in an amount equal to one-hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the Contractor in his proposal.

The Labor and Materials Bond shall be in an amount equal to one-hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the Contractor in this proposal.

EMPLOYEES AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

Contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color or national origin. This shall include employment, demotion or transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertisement, layoff or termination, rates of pay or other compensation, and selection for training and apprenticeship. Contractor shall post, in conspicuous places during period of contract and available to applicants for employment, notices setting for the provisions of this clause. Contractor shall insert the foregoing provision in all sub-contracts hereunder, except subcontracts for standard commercial supplies or raw materials. The hiring of all labor for work shall be in accordance with applicable directives of the Fair Employment Practices Commission of the State of California. The Contractor shall forfeit, as a penalty, in addition to any other penalty provided by law, to County, the sum of $25.00 or each calendar day, or portion thereof, during which the Contractor knowingly allows any conditions of discrimination to exist in connection with the work, provided, however, that such penalty shall not be imposed without a full investigation and determination by the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

Contractor shall cooperate fully with Marin County and affected Unions to promote and insure the maximum employment of Negroes and Spanish-speaking minorities, with particular emphasis on residents of Marin County, in all phases and at all levels of the work.

ALIEN LABOR

Section 7-1.01B of the Standard Specifications shall not apply to this contract.

APPRENTICESHIP

Attention is directed to the provisions in Sections 1777.5 (Chapter 1411, Statutes of 1968) and 17777.6 of the Labor Code concerning the employment of apprentices by the Contractor or any sub-contractor under him.

Section 17777.5, as amended, requires the Contractor or subcontractor employing tradesmen in any apprenticeable occupation to apply to the joint apprenticeship committee nearest the site of the public works project and which administers the apprenticeship program in that trade for a certificate of approval. The certificate will also fix the ratio of apprentices to journeymen that will be used in the performance of the contract. The ratio of apprentices to the journeymen in such cases shall not be less than one to five except:

A. When unemployment in the area of coverage by the joint apprenticeship committee has exceeded an average of 15 per cent in the 90 days prior to the request for certificate, or
B. When the number of apprentices in training in the area exceeds a ratio of one to five, or
C. When the trade can show that it is replacing at least 1/30th of its membership through apprenticeship training on an annual basis state-wide or locally, or
D. When the Contractor provides evidence that he employs registered apprentices on all of his contracts on an annual average of not less than one apprentice to eight journeymen.

The Contractor is required to make contributions to funds established for the administration of apprenticeship programs if he employs registered apprentices or journeymen in any apprenticeable trade on such contracts and if other contractors on the public works site are making such contributions.

The Contractor and any sub-contractor under him shall comply with the requirements of Sections 17777.5 and 17777.6 in the employment of apprentices.

Information relative to apprenticeship standards, wage schedules, and other requirements may be obtained from the Director of Industrial Relations, ex officio the Administrator of Apprenticeship, San Francisco, California, or from the Division of Apprenticeship Standards and its branch offices.

CHARTER ORDINANCE NO. 955

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL AMENDING TITLE 12 BY ADDING THERETO A NEW CHAPTER 12.34 ENTITLED "MOVING AND RELOCATION OF BUILDINGS OR STRUCTURES"

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

The San Rafael Municipal Code is hereby amended so as to add thereto a new chapter to-wit: 12.34 "Moving and Relocation of Buildings or Structures" which shall read as follows:

CHAPTER 12.34
"MOVING AND RELOCATION OF BUILDINGS OR STRUCTURES"

2.34.020. Purpose and Scope. the purpose and scope of this Ordinance is to provide minimum standards to safeguard life, health, property and public welfare by regulating the moving and relocation of buildings or structures within the City of San Rafael.

12.34.020. Permit Required. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to move or cause to be moved, any building or structure that exceeds eight feet in width, twenty-five feet in length and fifteen feet in height when loaded on moving dollies, into, out of, through or within the City of San Rafael without first having obtained a housemover's permit from the Chief Building Inspector.

A housemoving permit shall not be issued until such time as a relocation permit is obtained from the Chief Building Inspector unless the structure is being moved from a location outside the City of San Rafael to a location outside the City of San Rafael.

12.34.030. Application for Housemover's Permit. Application for a housemover's permit shall be made upon forms furnished by the Building Department and shall contain the following information:

1. Applicant's name, address and phone number
2. That the applicant is a holder of a valid State of California housemoving license.
3. That the applicant is a holder of a valid City of San Rafael business license.
4. That the applicant has on file with said city a bond as required by section 12.34.050.
5. That the applicant has on file with said city a certificate of insurance as required by Section 12.34.060.
6. That the route over which the building is to be moved is specified.
7. That the written approval be obtained from the Superintendent of Street, Fire Chief, Police Chief and utility companies of the route over which the building is to be moved.
8. The relocation permit number.
9. Other information which the Superintendent of Streets or the Chief Building Inspector may require.

12.34.040. Fee for housemover's permit. Every person to whom a permit is issued shall pay to the Chief Building Inspector, a permit fee in accordance with the following schedule.

1. To move a building or structure from a location outside the City of San Rafael to a location outside the City of San Rafael: Twenty-five dollars ($25.00).
2. To move a building or structure to a location within the City of San Rafael not involving the use of a public street: Twenty-five dollars, ($25.00).
3. To move a building from a location within the City of San Rafael or to move a building to a location within the City of San Rafael involving the use of a public street, way or alley within the City of San Rafael: Forty dollars ($40.00).

In addition, the permittee shall deposit, with the Superintendent of Streets, the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00), plus such additional sum as may be required by said Superintendent of Streets to cover the expense to said city for use of city personnel and/or removal and replacement of and repairs to any city property or equipment belonging to said city, occasioned by the moving of such building or structure.

12.34.050. Bond Required. Before a housemover's permit may be issued hereunder, the housemover shall have filed with the city clerk a bond approved by the city attorney in favor of the city in the sum of one thousand dollars, $1,000.00, executed by a responsible surety company conditioned that the principal will strictly comply with all requirements of this chapter and any ordinance hereafter in effect regulating the moving of buildings or structures in said city; that the principal sum will pay for any and all damages to any fence, tree, pavement, street or sidewalk, or any other property belonging to said city resulting from the moving of any house or structure by him, that the principal sum shall be forfeited to the city if the permittee fails to comply with all conditions and regulations of the granting of such permit by the Chief Building Inspector and that the principal will indemnify and keep harmless said city against any and all damages, judgments, costs and expense which may in any wise accrue against said city in consequence of the granting to him or exercise by him of any permit hereunder; which bond shall operate as a continuing bond for the purpose of this chapter for a term of two years from and after the date thereof.

12.34.060. Insurance Required. No permit to move a building authorized by the Chief Building Inspector shall be issued until the permittee has filed with the city clerk a policy of public liability and property damage, or approved certificate thereof, issued by a responsible insurance company authorized to do business in the State of California. Said policy shall provide liability insurance in an amount of at least two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00) each person and seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($750,000.00) each accident, and property damage insurance in an amount of at least one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) per accident, and insure the permittee and shall insure to the benefit of any and all persons suffering loss or damage either to persons or property by reason of wrongful or negligent acts in moving the building. Said policy shall also contain a clause or special endorsement indemnifying and saving harmless the City of San Rafael against any loss, damage, costs and expenses which may in any wise accrue against said city in consequence of the granting of the permit for moving any building or structure.

12.34.070. Obstructing Streets. No building or structure in process of moving shall be permitted to remain in any one location or any public street or way or projecting over a public sidewalk, street or way, for a period longer than two hours except by written permission first obtained from the Superintendent of Streets, Fire Chief and Police Chief, and no such building or structure shall be permitted to obstruct traffic on any railroad for a longer time than is necessary and the railroad company shall be notified at least twenty-four hours in advance by the housemover of the intention to move any building or structure across any said railroad.

No building or structure when removed from its foundation shall be permitted to remain at its original site, transitional site for a period longer than forty-eight (48) hours, without written approval from the Chief Building Inspector.

12.34.080. Safety Requirement.

(A) The moving of said structure or building shall be during the hours specified by the Chief of Police.

(B) During the period from a half hour after sunset to a half hour before sunrise, lighted lanterns shall be hung at least every five feet along each end or side of any building or structure while in a public street or way.

At all times while any building or structure is in a public street or way, the housemover shall maintain "street closed" warning barriers at both ends of the block, and during the period from a half hour after sunset to a half hour before sunrise, lighted lanterns shall be maintained not more than five feet apart on such barriers, but not less than three in all on each barrier. In lieu of the barriers the housemover may, with the approval of the Chief of Police, employ the use of emergency police vehicles. The fee for the use of such vehicles shall be as determined by the Chief of Police. The housemover shall keep the fire department advised at all times of the location of any building or structure on any public street or way.

12.34.090. Wires, Cables, Guys and Poles.

(A) "If the moving of any building hereunder requires any interference with any fire alarm, communication, or public utility structure, the applicant shall notify the public utility involved of the tentative time of such moving, the route of such moving, and the estimated loaded height of the building and moving equipment. Applicant shall bear the cost of any measures required to protect said structures from destruction or damage due to the moving of any building hereunder, and shall indemnify such public utility against any and all damages or claims of whatever kind or nature, direct or consequential, caused directly or indirectly by the relocation of any building hereunder or by any measures required to protect such structures. Applicant shall furnish the public utility involved with an advance cash deposit in the amount of the estimated cost of protecting such structures, subject to adjustment upon completion of moving to reflect the actual cost of such protective measures. No permit hereunder shall be issued by the Chief Building Inspector unless applicant furnished satisfactory proof that any requirements of the public utilities have been fulfilled."

12.34.100 Relocation Permit Required. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to move any structures from or onto any lot, piece or parcel of land located within the city of San Rafael until a relocation permit has been obtained as provided in this chapter.

12.34.110. Application for Relocation Permit. Every application for a relocation permit shall be:

(A) Made in writing upon a form furnished by the Chief Building Inspector and shall set forth such information as may reasonably be required.

(B) Fees: Each application shall be accompanied by a filing fee of $50.00.

12.34.120. Action on Application.

(A) No permit shall be issued to relocate any building or structure within the City of San Rafael, which is so constructed or in such condition as to be dangerous or which is infested with pets or unsanitary; or which, if it be a dwelling for inhabitation, is unfit for human habitation; or which is so dilapidated, defective, unsightly or in such a condition of deterioration or disrepair that its relocation at the proposed site would cause appreciable harm to or be materially detrimental to the property or improvements in the district within a radius of 1,000 feet from the proposed site, or if the structure is of a type prohibited at the proposed site, by any fire district ordinance, or by any other law or ordinance provided, however, that if the condition of the building or structure, in the judgment of the Chief Building Inspector, admits of practicable and effective repair, the permit may be issued upon condition as hereinafter provided. If the unlawful, dangerous or defective condition of the building or structure proposed to be relocated is such that remedy or correction cannot practically and effectively be made, the permit shall be denied.

(B) The Chief Building Inspector shall, in granting any relocation permit, shall consider among other conditions the following:

1. Conformance to the zoning, building, housing, electrical, plumbing and heating codes of the City of San Rafael. The Chief Building Inspector shall determine what repairs, alterations, or remodeling will be required to conform to all the requirements of the aforementioned code.
2. That public improvements, such as concrete, curb and gutters, sidewalks, retaining walls, drainage, driveways and street trees are required to conform to city codes, ordinances and regulations.
3. That the structure when completed and in place will have a finished appearance and be so constructed as to not unreasonable depreciate other properties in the vicinity.

(C) Where the building or structure is to be moved outside the city limits of the City of San Rafael, the Chief Building Inspector shall require the removal of foundations, walls, walks, debris, or other materials or structures remaining on the premises after the removal of the building. The repair of sidewalks, curbs and gutters, the removal of abandoned driveways and approaches, the filling in of basements, trenches and other excavations, or other work to return the premises to a state that will not be detrimental nor injurious to the public or either in the district as herein limited.

12.34.130. Relocation Permit Bond required.

(A) No relocation permit shall be issued unless the applicant shall first post with the City Clerk of the City of San Rafael a bond executed by the owner of the premises where the building or structure is to be removed from the city or the owner of the premises from which the building or structure is to be moved, as principal and by a surety company authorized to do business in this state as surety. The bond, which shall be in form joint and several and shall name the City of San Rafael as obligee and shall be in an amount equal to the cost, plus twenty-five per cent (25%) of the work required to be done in order to comply with all the conditions of such relocation permit, as estimated by the chief building inspector. In lieu of a surety bond, the applicant may post a bond executed by the said owner, as principal, and which is secured by a deposit of cash in the amount named above and conditioned as required in the case of a surety bond, such a bond as so secured is hereinafter called a "cash bond" for the purpose of this section.

(B) Conditions of relocation permit bond. Every bond posted pursuant to this section shall be conditioned as follows:

1. That each and all of the terms and conditions of relocation permit shall be complied with to the satisfaction of the chief building inspector.
2. That all of the work required to be done pursuant to the condition of the relocation permit shall be fully performed and completed within the time limit specified in the relocation permit; or, if no time limit is specified, within ninety (90) days after the date of the issuance by the building official of the housemover's permit elsewhere in this chapter provided for. The time limit herein specified, or the time limit specified in any permit, may be extended for good and sufficient cause by the building official. No such extension of time shall be valid unless written and no such extension shall release any surety upon any bond.

(C) Default in performance of conditions notice to be given.

1. Whenever the chief building inspector shall find that a default has occurred in the performance of any term or condition of any permit, written notice thereof shall be given to the principal and to the surety on the bond.
2. Such notice shall state the work to be done, the estimated cost thereof and the period of time deemed by the chief building inspector to be reasonably necessary for the completion of such work and shall be served upon the principal by certified mail, return receipt requested.

After receipt of such notice the surety or principal must, within the time specified, either cause the required work to be performed or failing therein, must pay over to the building department the estimated cost of doing the work, as set forth in the notice. Upon receipt of such monies the building department may proceed by such mode as it deems convenient to cause the required work to be performed and completed but no liability shall be incurred therein other than for the expenditure of the said sum in hand therefore.

(D) Cash bond manner of enforcement. If a cash bond has been posted, notice of default as provided above shall be given to the principal and if compliance is not had within the time specified, the building department may proceed without further notice of proceedings whatever, to use the cash deposit to cause the required work to be done, by contractor or otherwise, in the discretion of the department.

The balance, if any of such cash deposit shall, upon the completion of the work be returned to the depositor or to his successors or assigns.

(E) Period and termination of bond. The term of each bond posted pursuant to this section shall begin upon the date of the posting thereof and shall end upon the completion, to the satisfaction of the Chief Building Inspector of the performance of all the terms and conditions of the relocation permit. Such completion shall be evidenced by a statement thereof, signed by the Chief Building Inspector, a copy of which will be sent to any surety or principal upon request. When a cash bond has been posted, the cash shall be returned to the depositor, or to his successors or assigns, upon the termination of the bond, except any portion thereof that may have been used or deducted as elsewhere in this section premises.

(F) Entry Upon Premises.

1. The building department, or other department of the City of San Rafael, the surety and the duly authorized representatives of either shall have access to the premises discribed in the relocation permit for the prupose of inspecting the progress of the work.
2. In the event of any default in the performance of any term or condition of the relocation permit, the surety, or any person employed or engaged on its behalf, the building department, or any person employed or engaged on its behalf shall have the right to go upon the premises to complete the required work or to remove or demolish the building or structure.
3. It shall be unlawful for the owner, or his representatives, successors or assigns, or any other person to interfere with or obstruct the ingress or egress to or from any such premises of any authorized representative or agent of any surety, or the city engage in the work of completing, demolishing or removing any building or structure for which a relocation permit has been issued, after a default has occurred in the performance of the terms or conditions thereof.

12.34.140 Appeals.

(A) Any applicant for a house moving permit or for a relocation permit or any person aggrieved by any decision of the Chief Building Inspector, may appeal such decision to the City Council by filing with the City Clerk a written notice of appeal within ten days of such decision. The appeal shall state the grounds upon which it is made and the particular decision from which the appeal is to be made.

(B) At the next regular meeting following the filing of notice of appeal the City Council shall set a date for a public hearing and said public hearing shall be held not more than 45 days thereafter. The decision of the City Council shall be rendered within thirty (30) days after the public hearing. In the event a decision is not rendered within the time limit specified above, the notice of appeal is automatically rejected.

SECTION II. Penalty for Violation. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and each such person shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for each and every day or portion thereof during which any violations of any of the provisions of this ordinance is committed, continued or permitted, and upon conviction of any such violation such person shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500.00 or by imprisonment in the County Jail of Marin County for not more than three (3) months of by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION III. This ordinance shall be published once in full before its final passage in the Independent Journal a newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in said City and shall be in full force and effect thirty (30) days after its final passage.

C. PAUL BETTINI
Mayor of the City of San Rafael
ATTEST:
/s/ W. CLIFFORD CORNWELL
City Clerk of the City of San Rafael

The above and foregoing charter ordinance No. 955 was read and introduced at a regular meeting of the City Council of the City of San Rafael held on the 18th day of August, 1969, and ordered passed to print by the following vote, to wit:

AYES: COUNCILMEN Barbier, Jensen, Miskimen, Robbins, Jr., and Mayor Bettini
NOES: COUNCILMEN None
ABSENT: COUNCILMEN None

and will come up for adoption as an Ordinance of the City of San Rafael at a regular meeting of the Council to be held on the 2nd day of September, 1969.

Tentative Map For Subdivision

The Rohnert Park City Council last night in special session approved the tentative map for a 111-home subdivision planned by Young America Homes.

City Mgr. Peter M. Callinan said the vote came after a long discussion on the pros and cons of increasing density. The council said it would amend the planning district section of the city code to reduce the minimum 60-foot frontage to 45 feet as planned in the new subdivision.

Residents complained that the smaller lots sizes would reduce the value of older homes and charged that the added population would place a heavy burden on schools and cause an increase in school taxes.

In approving the tentative map, the council said it would like to see detailed plans for house sites, landscaping and fencing. The council also required that utilities be placed underground.

Callinan said that final maps should be completed in several weeks and that Young America hopes to have model homes completed before winter.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Lung Function Pollutes Air With Carbon Monoxide Poisons

VAN DELLEN

Man inhales oxygen and exhales carbon dioxide. He also produces carbon monoxide, the same toxic gas found in automobile exhausts, fuel combustion, wood fires, and cigarette smoke. In this respect, the body causes air polution, too. The carbon monoxide stems from the degradation of heme, the oxygen-carrying part of hemoglobin.

Carbon monoxide (CO) from this source is released into the blood and eliminated via the lungs. The CO concentration in the blood of a normal, healthy adult is 0.4 per cent. This is low compared with the safe limit value of 8 to 10 per cent that follows the inhalation of 50 ppm of carbon monoxide for 8 hours. A person who smokes 10 to 20 cigarettes and inhales will have a blood level of 6 per cent.

In special or extreme circumstances, our own carbon monoxide might become a health hazard. The possibility exists for infants in incubators and those who spend long periods of time in outer space or undersea explorations.

Elevated CO levels also have be found in babies suffering from blood disorders involving the hemoglobin. We assume that the same might occur when an individual develops a disease in which the red cells are being destroyed faster than they are manufactured.

To avoid a misunderstanding, the amount of CO involved is too small to be harmful. On the other hand, it may be a contributing factor when a person works in an environment where the air contains more than an average amount of carbon monoxide. We refer to tunnel engineers, garage mechanics, and policemen at busy intersections. The same can be said of heavy smokers. Smoke contains a high level of carbon monoxide but much of it is exhaled before it is absorbed.

(Questions on medical topics will be answered by mail if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal.)

FACIAL NEURALGIA

Mrs. B. K. writes: Is there a cure for tic douloureux?

REPLY

Yes. This is one of the most painful forms of neuralgia that plagues mankind. Surgery is recommended when it gets out of hand and if medicines and injections of alcohol or hot water have been tried with no results. The anticonvulsant drugs such as Dilantin and carbamazepine sometimes produce gratifying results. These, however, are prescription products.

SOUR MILK

T. S. writes: Does drinking milk that has turned slightly sour hurt the stomach?

REPLY

No. Food poisoning may develop if the milk is exposed to warm air and is contaminated with virulent organisms. On the other hand, sour cream makes a good dressing and many cheeses are made from cultured milk.

ACID SCARS

Miss L. C. writes: My friend's little girl survived swallowing some carbolic acid. Are there likely to be any after effects?

REPLY

Yes — scar tissue, if the membranes lining the esophagus (gullet) were burned sufficiently. If this occurred, the tube must be dilated to avoid obstruction.

KINDS OF PRESSURE

S. B. writes: Is there more than one kind of blood pressure?

REPLY

Yes — normal, low, and high. However, if you are inquiring about high blood pressure, send stamped, self-addressed envelope for our leaflet on hypertension.

DISEASED RABBITS

T. C. writes: Is tularemia confined to wild rabbits or can domestic rabbits harbor these germs?

REPLY

The disease attacks chiefly wild animals but there is no reason why domestic animals cannot develop it. The latest epidemic occurred in Vermont and was traced to muskrats.

BEST SHOWS FOR TONIGHT

Best bets on television tonight:

KPIX (5), 7:30 p.m.—The burgeoning urban problem of waste-material disposal is the subject of the hour-long "Spectrum 52" special, "Investigative Report: The Third Pollution." Rod MacLeish narrates.

KGO (7), KNTV (11), 8:30 p.m.—Angela Marten, Kerwin Marhews and Cal Bellini star in "In the Dead of Night," an aerie one-hour drama set in a haunted house.

KRON (4), KCRA (3), 9 p.m.—"NBC Tuesday Night at the Movies" presents the suspense picture, "Games," starring Simone Signoret, James Caan and Katharine Ross.

KQED (9), 9 p.m.—"NET Festival" offers "Leinsdorf Recreates." Erich Leinsdorf, music director of the Boston Symphony, rehearses the senior orchestra of the New England Conservatory of Music in the third movement of Gustav Mahler's "Symphony No. 3."

KPIX (5), 10 p.m.; KXTV (10), 10:30 p.m.—A comparison of the ancient Greek's scientific method with the modern technology that made it possible for man to land on the moon will be the subject of "The Heritage of Apollo," a telecast in the CBS series, "Who, What, When, Where, Why."

KQED (9), 10 p. m.—Lillian Gish reminisces about her life in the theater and Hollywood, and talks about her book, "The Movies, Mr. Griffith, and Me," on "Kaleidoscope."

KPIX (5), 10:30 p.m.—"KPIX Reports: Air Traffic—Crisis in the Sky," an examination of the problem of over-crowded airways, is narrated by Rod MacLeish.

Dixie Bus Service Cut Considered

Elimination of school bus service for pupils in the Lee Drive area to Don Timoteo School will be considered by Dixie School District trustees at 8 p.m. today in the administration office, 35 Trellis Drive, San Rafael.

The service was authorized by trustees several years ago pending completion of sidewalks between the school and the residential area, and the long-awaited work is to be completed early this fall.

Also on the agenda is consideration of forming two citizen study groups, one for instruction goals and one to assess the future building program.

Mailliard To Address Marin GOP Meeting

Rep. William S. Mailliard, R-Sixth District, will speak at the meeting of the Marin County Republican Central Committee at 8 p.m. today at the Civic Center.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, also will speak.

$1 Million Warehouse Fire

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—A waterfront warehouse burned early today with loss estimated at more than $1 million.

No injuries were reported.

Its only contents were plumbing supplies, including a large quantity of plastic pipe which sent billows of smoke pouring over the waterfront on the edge of Portland's downtown area.

Tam Valley Picnic Planned Labor Day

The Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club and the Tam Valley Fire Department will sponsor the annual Tam Valley Labor Day Picnic beginning at noon Monday at Ricketts Field.

The annual event will feature a watermelon eating contest, sack races, a tug of war and other events, sponsors said. The public is invited.

Attempt To Steal Police Car Shotgun

An unsuccessful attempt was made yesterday to steal a shotgun from an unlocked squad car while a patrolman was inside the police station, Sausalito police said.

Police said the patrol car was parked near the police station when the theft attempt was made. The would-be thief did $60 damage to the car, police said.

'Dead' Woman Fights To Live

SANTA MARIA (UPI)—A 61-year-old woman, who was pronounced dead but started gasping for air as she was carried away on a stretcher to the coroner's office, was in critical condition today.

Mrs. Constance F. Bell, a widow, was found yesterday lying face down on the floor of her bedroom by a housekeeper. She was pronounced dead by Dr. A.S. Missall.

But 40 minutes later, when she was carried out of the home on a stretcher, Mrs. Bell suddenly gasped for air. She was taken to the intensive care ward at Marian Hospital where she was listed in critical condition.

Frank Jr. To Be Star Of Special

By ROBERT MUSEL

NEW YORK (UPI)—"The world," said Frank Sinatra, Jr., "isn't exactly breaking down my door."

A wry smile went with the admission for the son of one of the greatest stars of them all knows he has chosen the hard way to the top.

In an age when young record buyers prefer their idols unshorn he sports a neat haircut. Even worse he wears a jacket and tie. And instead of extorting a few simple chords from a guitar he works with a band of good musicians.

So instead of armies of screaming teen-agers he plays to more sedate audiences at county fairs, in theaters, night clubs and hotel lounges. It is a hard life that has made him, at 25, an impressive young man secure in his own experience and convinced that he, too, will in his own time achieve his goals in the family business.

These are, first stardom as an entertainer and then a career as a director.

There are two high roads to the heights—a hit record (sister Nancy Sinatra's route) or a television special (Barbra Streisand's springboard). CBS-TV is just completing the final touches on a special, "Frank Sinatra, Jr., His Family and His Friends" which millions of people will be watching Oct. 19 to decide whether the magic will strike yet again.

"I couldn't believe it when I was offered the special," Frank said, savoring the moment once again. "I said 'What do you guys want me for?' You see, I knew it would happen some day but I couldn't believe it would happen so soon."

Buy Word

WHAT IS OKRA AND HOW IS IT USED? . . . asks Irene Pegnem of Oakland.

Okra is a seed pod from a large herbaceous plant cultivated in warm climates. The vegetable is often combined with stews where its bluey sap helps thicken the liquid. It can be stewed or sauteed and served with butter or various sauces. Like all vegetables it should be cooked until just tender, about 5 to 8 minutes depending on the size of the pieces. Leftover cooked okra can be used in salads and can be marinated in salad dressing prior to combining it with other salad ingredients.

WHICH YIELDS MORE MEAT PER POUND . . . CHICKEN OR TURKEY? That's the question from James Britell of Walnut Creek.

As a general rule the smaller the bird, the larger the proportion of bone to meat. The following percentage refuse figures indicate the increase in edible meat with the increase in weight of the bird:

| Ready to cook Poultry | Refuse |
|---|---|
| CHICKEN, 1¾-lbs. | 32% |
| ROASTERS, CAPONS, HENS | 27% |
| TURKEYS | 27% |

Marin Prep Gridders Open Practice

If you'll look up from those abnormally interesting baseball standings for a minute, you'll note that the local football scene is about ready to get underway.

Marin County fans got a taste of things to come last Thursday when the South topped the North, 19-14 in the annual Ross Valley Kiwanis All-Star Game.

Most area high school teams will be getting out their gear either this week or next and start knocking heads for serious in the third week of September.

Terra Linda, San Rafael and and Marin will start practicing tomorrow but the rest of the Marin County Athletic League schools will wait until next Monday to get down to active practice. So will the Sonoma County schools and Marin Catholic, Tomales and San Rafael Miltiary Academy.

It will be a strangely different Marin season, with fewer night games, and more fields.

OVERTAXED FIELD

All of the night games in the MCAL will be played either on the road or at San Rafael High School's overtaxed field.

That situation came about with the elimination of College of Marin's field, which went by the wayside to make room for a new science building. With it went its lights.

College of Marin will play all its home games at Marin Catholic in Kentfield, which also inherited the COM bleachers. Meanwhile, Tamalpais and Redwood will be playing on fields of their own, minus lights, and Drake switches its home games to San Rafael, already occupied as a home game field by San Rafael and Terra Linda.

Also new on the local scene will be San Marin as a varsity competitor. It will share Novato High School's field as home site.

JUMPS GUN

Most teams begin non-league action on either Sept. 19 or 20 although St. Vincent's of Petaluma jumps the gun on Sept. 13 with a game against Justin High School of Napa.

Sept. 19 openers find Drake at Petaluma, Terra Linda in Kezar Stadium against Riordan of San Francisco, Tamalpais hosting Salesian of Richmond, Rancho Cotate of Rohnert Park at Cloverdale, San Rafael Military Academy at Maxwell High School (Colusa County) and Marin Catholic hosting Albany.

On Sept. 20, College of Marin hosts San Jose City College, Sonoma State hopefully opens its initial season against Arizona Western, Novato visits Montgomery at Santa Rosa, Redwood will play Archibishop Mitty of San Jose at Buck Shaw Stadium in Santa Clara and San Marin of Novato hosts McClymonds of Oakland.

49er HOLDOUT McNEIL 'HOPEFUL' OF SIGNING

SANTA BARBARA (AP)—Holdout Clifton McNeil met with San Francisco 49er Coach Dick Nolan yesterday and was to meet today with General Manager Jack White.

"I'm very hopeful," the 28-year-old receiver said. "I have met the prerequisite set down by management — that I first talk with Coach Nolan. I feel very good after that meeting. Actually, there never were any differences between us. They were with management."

McNeil, the National Football League's leading receiver last year, seeks a reported $40,000 to $50,000 a year. He was obtained a year ago from Cleveland, where he never became a regular, and received $22,000 last year.

Wine Country Again Hits Boxing Headline

I see where Brian London of Blackpool, England has opened a training camp in Napa. Or, maybe it's Brian Blackpool of London, England.

Anyway, Great Britain's second ranked heavyweight fighter is up in the grape country preparing for his Sept. 3 10-round bout against Jerry Quarry in Oakland's Coliseum Arena.

If you'd like to see an internationally famous boxfighter in training, London is at Newsboy Joe Gavras' gymnasium located at 1728 Green Street, Napa. Since they don't get many visitors in that grape country community, your attendance would be greatly appreciated, I imagine. And besides, it's a refreshing change from the Little Old Winemaker.

Actually, that area is not new as a training camp for heavyweight fighters. Back in 1955, world champion Rocky Marciano used nearby Calistoga to prepare for his title bout against another Briton, Don Cockell.

What made that a juicy local angle was that Cockell trained here in San Rafael at Whitey Litchfield's Bermuda Palms Motel, which in those days was quite a training camp for the likes of Rocky Castellani, Joey Maxim, and Paddy DeMarco. The fact that all four lost their big fights while training here did not give Litchfield an inferiority complex. He's still the same old extrovert.

Not Much Of A Talker, Either

Anyway, we found out in those days that British heavyweights are difficult merchandise to sell. Cockell was not only an inept challenger to the great Marciano's throne, he was poor copy. Talking to him was like talking to a tree. You'd get more information out of a mute Russian spy.

But, the International Boxing Club brought in its high powered publicity men to push the bout and one of their training camp promotions was to stage "British Empire Day" at Bermuda Palms. Oh, they dolled up the place in a veddy Briddish motif, complete with queen-sized beds in the rooms, boiled mutton in the restaurant, warm beer at the bar and the flabby Cockell in the ring. Pip-pip.

A London paper hired a journalist named Pierre Salinger to cover this momentus occasion and I'm afraid the future press secretary to President John F. Kennedy had little encouragement to report to the folks back home.

Oops! 'Slipsies' Don't Count

You see, part of the British Empire Day schedule was for Cockell to spar three or four rounds with some pug. The idea was for Cockell to look sharp, but I'm afraid he failed miserably because do you know what Cockell did? He got decked by his sparring partner, that's what Cockell dood. Cockell-doodle-doo!

Oh, the embarrassment. I counted 11 monacles crashing to the floor. "Slipsies!" one of his cornermen shouted, but, we knew it was a legitimate knockdown. The I-J had a picture of it and published it the next day to the great consternation of the IBC publicists where were having enough trouble selling tickets without advertising their challenger as a gymnasium canvasback.

But, the IBC guys evened things out. A couple of days later the great Marciano obligingly was decked by his sparring partner. While Cockell's was slipsies, Marciano's was legit, the IBC boys insisted. Sure.

Anyway, their fight came off and everyone was amazed at Cockell's stamina. Marciano hit him with everything but Big Ben and the big challenger kept coming. Finally, Cockell went down and out in the ninth round. A crowd of 15,000 saw that fight at Kezar Stadium.

Pardon the reminiscing, but London's (or Blackpool's) presence in Napa brought back some fond memories. Pip-pip.

A WORD FROM BROADWAY JOE — New York Jet quarterback Joe Namath, lifted in the first quarter against the Oakland Raiders, has a few words through his new mustache with coach Weeb Ewbank during the fourth quarter of an AFL exhibition game at Oakland Coliseum.

Jets Use Subs In Oakland Tilt

OAKLAND — The last time Joe Namath and the New York Jets visited Oakland it took a last-minute knockout punch by Heidi and the Raiders to defeat them and some of their fans.

Last night the little Swiss girl stayed home. Broadway Joe spent most of it on the bench and, with some more last-minute heroics, the Raiders romped to an easy 24-6 American Football League exhibition victory.

The game was billed as a rematch of last season's two epic battles—the Raiders' come-from-behind 43-32 victory which some viewers missed when the National Broadcasting Co. cut off the final minutes to telecast Heidi, and New York's 27-23 victory over Oakland for the AFL championship.

52,927 CROWD

The viewers of a local television station in New York saw the whole game this time—and what they and 52,927 fans in the Oakland Coliseum saw was, for the most part, a dull scrimmage.

"I'm very satisfied with my progress," said Namath after coming out in the first quarter with five completions in seven attempts for 50 yards.

"We've been coordinating pretty well," said the Jets' quarterback. "Everybody's healthy, and we haven't been making many errors."

Packer Star Walks Out, Comes Back

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Boyd Dowler, veteran wide receiver, who walked out of the Green Bay Packers' training camp in an apparent salary dispute yesterday, was back in camp today.

"I wasn't feeling well," said the National Football League club's outstanding receiver, when asked by newsmen why he missed yesterday's drill and last night's team meeting.

"That's good enough, isn't it?"

Coach Phil Bengston said only that Dowler had been "excused," yesterday.

Dowler was asked if there had been a contract problem. He said there was "No contractural problem—just a lack of one."

Dowler is one of several Packer veterans who have not signed 1969 contracts. He has played in all three exhibition games this season, grabbing 10 passes for 127 yards.

Warrior Owner Puts Out Welcome Mat For Barry

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rick Barry seemingly doesn't want to follow the Oakland Oaks to the nation's capital but his coach apparently wouldn't mind moving to New Mexico with a new American Basketball Association team.

Barry, the Oaks' star forward, was quoted yesterday by the team's new owner as saying he didn't want to leave the San Francisco Bay Area and didn't believe he could be forced into such a move.

Earl Foreman -- who recently purchased the club and said he hopes to move it to Washington, D.C. -- made the statement to newsmen after meeting privately with the superstar.

Barry had no comment about the meeting in the office of his attorney, Robert Rubin. But Foreman, who was in and out of the six-hour session, said: "On behalf of the Washington Capitals, I've asked Rick Barry to honor his contract with Oakland Basketball, Inc., and play basketball for the Washington Caps.

"Rick has stated that he does not wish to leave the Bay Area and it is his belief that he is not required to do so."

RICK MUM

Neither Foreman nor Rubin would elaborate and Barry refused to meet with newsmen, remaining in Rubin's office.

It was rumored that Barry may re-sign with the San Francisco Warriors today.

"I have Rick's unform behind the door," Warrior president Franklin Mieuli said. "His contract in my drawer and a pen on my desk. If he gets close enough, I'm going to inflict all three upon him."

The 25-year-old star led the National Basketball Association with an average of 35.6 points a game, then jumped from the San Francisco Warriors to the Oaks.

After sitting out the 1967-68 season in compliance with a court order, Barry averaged 34 points a game for the Oaks until he was injured in midseason. The team, cellar-dwellers the year before, went on to win the ABA title.

He has two years remaining on a contract which gave him 15 per cent of the team and a reported $75,000 a year. There have been published reports his agreement with the Oaks' former majority owner, Ken Davidson, included a clause allowing Barry to negotiate as a free agent if the team moved or folded.

'GREAT AREA'

In Albuquerque, N.M., meanwhile, Oaks Coach Alex Hannum spent the weekend meeting with businessmen to discuss the possibility of establishing an ABA franchise in their city.

"I personally am very optimistic," Hannum said about the possibility of an Albuquerque club. "It has been confirmed to me what everybody has been telling me -- what a truly great basketball area this is."

Montreal Flops In Pitch For Pro Grid Franchise

By MIKE RATHET

MONTREAL (AP) — Thud!

The sound you just heard was Montreal dropping to the bottom in the expansion game standings.

A potentially strong candidate off the showing made by baseball's Montreal Expos in their first season of play on Canadian soil, this city of two languages fumbled its first test at showing support for pro football American-style.

In any language, French or English, last night's interleague exhibition game in which Detroit defeated Boston 22-9 could only be classed as a major disappointment when a sparse crowd of just 8,212 showed up at Jarry Park.

Why?

There were various answers for the record, but off the record a suspicion exists that the people may have intentionally resisted the game as a way of rejecting overtures being made by the city itself for an American franchise.

LITTLE INTEREST

The two English language papers did little to stir interest and the result was the worst attendance in inter-league exhibition history. The previous low was 11,500 for last year's Pittsburgh-Cincinnati game at Morgantown, W.Va.

The small crowd—part of which began to leave after an unexciting first half—was an obvious disappointment to all parties involved and represented a definite loss in prestige for the city in its bid for an expansion franchise in the future.

But Gerry Snyder, the man generally acknowledged as responsible for bringing major league baseball here and the prime mover in seeking an American football franchise for Montreal, did not view the experience as a rejection by the Canadians of the American game.

BETTER CROWD

"You start anything," he said, "you start at some point. Boston and Detroit are not the greatest draws as far as Montreal is concerned. I think you'll see a better crowd when the New York Giants play here."

The Giants, whose games are carried on television here, meet Pittsburgh Sept. 11.

Snyder has said frankly the two games represent a test of Montreal's desire for American pro football.

"This is where the people have to put it on the line and show they want American pro football," he said before the game.

"If these two games don't draw well the people will have answered in the most direct way possible."

That the answer may be similar for the Giants' game is a strong possibility with less than 10,000 tickets sold so far.

A's, Reds Tighten Races

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

While the other sardines in the National League's tightly-packed West Division rested, Cincinnati squeezed in a little more and, together with Washington, closed ranks in several other divisions.

The Reds slipped by the Chicago Cubs 9-8 yesterday in the National League's only game that jumped Cincinnati ahead of Atlanta into second place by percentage points in the N.L. West.

The loss also cut the Cubs' East lead over the idle New York Mets to 4½ games, two games on the loss side.

Washington had an easier time getting by Minnesota 7-3 last night in the only American League game, bringing idle Oakland 1½ games from the first place Twins in the A.L. West and putting them even in the all-important loss column.

FIELDING FINESSE

The Reds used their home run power to build a 9-4 lead, but needed some fielding finesse to stop the Cubs with only four runs in the ninth inning.

With the bases loaded and two out, Paul Popovich lined a 2-2 pitch off Pedro Ramos to right field where Bobby Tolan made a fine running catch to end the game.

Tony Perez had ripped a two-run homer in the first for Cincinnati and Lee Maye belted his 34th in the fourth, but the score was deadlocked 3-3 before Perez hit his second of the game and 32nd of the season in the sixth to put the Reds ahead to stay.

Cincinnati ran it up with two more in the seventh and three in the ninth, two on Johnny Bench's double, but found themselves in a ninth inning bind after Jim Hickman's 15th homer for the Cubs in the eighth.

Gary Nolan, 4-5, walked the first two batters in the bottom of the ninth and Wayne Granger relieved and retired the next two. But then Ron Santo doubled in two runs, Ernie Banks singled, Hickman doubled in another run and two walks forced in the fourth. That's when Ramos entered.

Unitas Will Get Another Shot As No. 1 Quarterback

COMBINED AP & UPI

WESTMINSTER, Md. — Former All-Pro star John Unitas will start at quarterback for the first time in a year for the Baltimore Colts Saturday night against the Miami Dolphins.

Earl Morrall, who led the Colts to an NFL title last season, in place of the injured Unitas, aggravated a pulled stomach muscle at Buffalo last Friday.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y.—The AFL Buffalo Bills cut seven-year veteran Ed Rutkewskil, a flanker who subbed at quarterback last season.

CLEVELAND — Cleveland Brown's cornerback Ben Davis, in his third NFL season, suffered a torn knee cartilage and will miss from six to eight weeks of play.

Namath Warms The Bench As Jets Bow To Raiders

Jets coach Weeb Ewbank, however, said Namath's legs were bothering him. "He's looked good up to now so why chance an injury?" Ewbank asked. "Besides, he's looked sharp all week."

The Jets seemed lost on the field without Namath. Neither veteran Babe Parilli nor rookie Al Woodall had much success in moving the club. Only two field goals by Jim Turner kept the 1968 pro champs from being shut out.

Well before the game Oakland coach John Madden said he had a set game plan and that was to go mostly with his regulars.

"Although the Jets used a lot of rookies, we didn't let that affect our game plan," Madden said. "I was pleased with our overall performance but we didn't take advantage of too many scoring opportunities in the first half."

After Daryle Lamonica guided Oakland 69 yards with the opening kickoff for a touchdown, the Raiders failed to muster any sort of drive until ageless George Blanda's belated appearance in the waning moments of the third period.

OUT OF REACH

With the score 7-6 in favor of Oakland, Blanda put the game out of reach with a 23-yard scoring pass to Larry Todd to culminate a 65-yard drive in just three plays.

Blanda's first two passes, for 18 and 24 yards, went to Warren Wells in the left flat. Then he pitched a perfect aerial to the speedy Larry Todd on the opposite side.

All told, the 41-year-old Blanda hit on six of seven passes for 107 yards.

The score came with 11 minutes left in the game and after that Oakland added 10 more points to turn it into a rout. Blanda booted a 16-yard field goal and Lamonica hit on his second scoring pass of the night, a six-yarder to rookie Drew Buie.

Lamonica's first TD pass was from 13 yards out to Wells.

Anchorage Team Wins National Semi-Pro Title

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Jack Brushert's three-run homer led Anchorage, Alaska, to a 5-1 victory over Liberal, Kan., and the championship of the 35th National Baseball Congress (Semi-pro) tournament last night.

Brushert's blow came in Anchorage's five-run outburst in the last of the eighth inning after Liberal took a 1-0 lead in the top of the eighth. Gene Salmon singled Pat Amos home for Liberal's run.

Lefthander Jim Crawford, who worked in seven of Anchorage's eight tourney games, was credited with his third victory. He gave up six hits.

Liberal won the championship last year. This was Anchorage's first trip to the national tourney.

Boulder, Colo. took third place by beating Fairbanks, Alaska,

A's Launch Busy Schedule With Two In Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Thankful for a full day of rest after playing 27 innings of baseball Sunday, the Oakland Athletics faced another doubleheader today, this time with the Detroit Tigers.

Lew Krausse, 7-5, and George Lauzerique, 3-1, of the A's were scheduled to hurl a twi-night doubleheader against Denny McLain, 20-6, and Earl Wilson, 10-8.

The A's were idle yesterday, but gained a half game on Minnesota in the American League West race as the Twins lost to Washington, 7-3. Oakland now trails by 1½ games.

Oakland, which beat Baltimore Sunday 9-0 and 9-8 in a second contest that ended in the 18th with Ted Kubiak's run-scoring single, must play 11 games in 10 days.

They have only one more day off, Sept. 29, before the end of the season.

Healdsburg Youth Near Golf Lead

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Jerry Jesmer of Phoenix Ariz., shot a one-under-par 71 to take the first-round lead yesterday in the 72-hole Junior Golf World Championships.

Jesmer, 16, had a two-stroke lead over Rick Matteoli of Healdsburg, as 550 youngsters teed off.

Tied for third place on the 6,727-yard Torrey Pines course were Aly Trompas of San Diego, American Junior champion and South Africa's Dale Hayes, the pre-tourney favorite. They had 74's.

Dolinsek Boosts Batting Average

John Dolinsek of Novato has added another hot week to his credit playing for the Houston Astros' Covington, Va., rookie team.

Last time out, he came through with a .353 week that included a homer, a triple, two doubles and two runs batted in.

That left Dolinsek with a .301 batting average on the season.

Former Redwood High School flash Ken Johnson did somewhat better than he has been doing, getting a hit in three at bats for the New York Yankee' Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., class A team. The hit was a three-run homer. He's now hitting .149 on the season.

Some Delicious Things To Do With Your Deer

THE QUESTION:

Today, I killed a buck. I've skinned the deer out, everything is neatly cleaned up, and I've got the four quarters cooling with all the blood-shot parts removed. I've got the horns nailed up on my gate with the tag attached, and I mailed in the report part of the tag to the Department of Fish and Game. I've got the heart, liver, kidneys and brains all soaked and cleaned, and in the refrigerator. Now what do I do?

THE ANSWER:

Well, if you've done all this you're on the right track, and you're set for some excellent meals.

You should let your deer hang for at least 10 days, and if it's a big buck, maybe a little longer. But in the meantime, try having a meal of brains and eggs for breakfast. Par-boil the brains, removing the membrane, and cook them, mixing with scrambled eggs, flavoring the eggs with bacon, onion bits, salt, pepper, etc., and frying all together. It's excellent.

VENISON LIVER also can provide an excellent meal. It can be as tender and as tasty as the best calves liver. Cooked with bacon and onions and fried just right, nothing beats it, especially in the mountains.

The heart: I like it diced, salted and peppered and braised in hot olive oil. Flowering gives it an added flavor, but don't cook it too long, and have it with scallopped or fried potatoes.

And the kidneys — they should be from a young buck. Skin and soak, dice, roll in flour and fry in butter with mushrooms. After they have browned add some chicken broth and simmer until tender. About 20 minutes thickens the gravy and serve over buttered toast or with steamed rice. Try this with a glass of wine and you'll know that you've got it made.

AND IF 10 DAYS have passed, try using all your chops and loins fresh. Don't freeze. The secret is to cook these in popping hot olive oil with a little salt added to the hot oil for better flavor.

Then put the chops and the ribs, flowered slightly and salted and peppered liberally, into the hot olive oil. Braise for 15 seconds and then turn and braise the other side. This retains the flavor, yet the salt removes any strong venison flavor. Keep turning the meat, even five or six times, and taste continually until it's cooked the way you like it; but don't cook longer than medium rare inside. Even stew meat cooks up using this method. Eat piping hot with buttered french bread, a good mixed salad and a cold beer.

If you like the stew meat cooked this way fine, but meat for stew and meats for spaghetti sauces are also excellent. If all the blood-shot meat and most of the fat has been removed, I have had good results in freezing these cuts for use at a later date.

Now this is a specialty that I learned from Dave Crivelli of Point Reyes over 20 years ago. Dave was really a good cook.

KEEP YOUR HAM intact. Just like a leg of lamb purchased from your butcher; it can be fresh or frozen. Start your barbecue with a set of coals larger than usually used for a dinner cookout. Have a salad, vegetable or bean dish ready, with french bread sliced thin and butter standing by. Put the entire ham on the barbecue, salting and peppering both sides, and basting occasionally using an olive oil, wine and herb. In about four minutes you can make the first cut using a razor-sharp long-handled knife. Give the cut to your first customer on his buttered french bread. (The later cuts are best).

Then salt and pepper and baste the cut side, and turning the ham over, cut the other side. Keep salting, peppering and basting, making a thin cut every three or four minutes on each side of the ham as it cooks. This way, you've sealed the flavor in the ham, it's served at its best — hot and juicy and the flavor is fit for the epicure. One ham serves about 12 people to the consternation of your guests.

You should arrive with uncooked ham and announce that dinner will be served in just four minutes. Serve high balls in the meantime.

Tam, Marin Girls Win Swim Firsts

The San Rafael Swim Club finished seventh among 74 teams in the five-day Far Western AA Age Group, Swimming Championships which wound up Sunday at Foothill College in Los Altos.

Some 800 swimmers competed in the meet, which saw teams entered from 12 different western states, including Hawaii.

Vicki Mitgood of the Tamalpais Swim Club won both the girls' 15-17 age group 100 and 200-meter breastroke events. The only other Marin swimmer to win a first place was Denise Ham of the Marin Swim Club, who won the 200-meter individual medley in girls 15-17, in addition to getting a second, a fifth and a sixth.

Tamie McDuffie and Jo Hislop led the way for the San Rafael club. Tamie had four seconds, a seventh and an eighth in girls' 11-12 while Jo was runner-up for high-point trophy in girls' 13-14 with three second places, a third and a fifth.

FOUR PLACES

Joan Morehouse placed four times in the girls 15-17 while Bobby Placak placed twice in boys' 10-under. Also placing twice was Kathi Hislop in girls' 15-17, Wendy Peterman in girls' 15-17, Jeff Kamler in boys' 11-12 and Scott Hislop in boys' 10-under.

Kimi Fox placed three times in girls' 13-14 and Peter Behr and Molly Cross placed once each.

For the Marin Swim Club, Kim Hughes placed four times in girls' 11-12. Spencer Eldred placed three times in boys' 11-12, Sue Secondo placed twice in girls' 13-14. Rich DeMont and Linda Gibbon placed once each as did Pixie Massey, Ginger Massey and Nancy Scruggs of the Tamalpais Swim Club.

Charlie Brown Cut

COVINGTON, La. (AP) — The New Orleans Saints trimmed three veterans from their roster yesterday, leaving 57 players in training camp.

Cut were running back Charlie Brown, center Dick Kasperek and linebacker Ernie Clark.

Giants' Mason Wins The Third Base Job

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Taking four straight games from a last place team enabled the San Francisco Giants to slip into first place. They hope to stay there by beating a next-to-last place team.

The Giants opposed Philadelphia today in the first of a three-game series.

The Giants, off yesterday, held the National League Western Division lead by a half a game over Cincinnati and Atlanta, who are tied for second.

Winners of five straight, the Giants were in third place, three games out last week before they took four from Montreal, the cellar team in the N.L. East.

The Phillies, rich in hitting but weak in pitching, are mired in fifth place, one notch above Montreal's expansion Expos.

Giants' manager Clyde King reported yesterday he is pleased with several lineup changes.

Don Mason, one of eight Giants to play third this season, has staked a permanent claim on the position with impressive hitting and fielding.

Willie McCovey, the N.L.'s leading home run producer with 39, is not being walked on purpose as much now because the Giants have a dangerous man hitting behind McCovey.

The No. 5 hitter now is Bobby Bonds, who has 25 homers and had been batting leadoff.

Marin Deputy Wins Softball MVP Honor

HEALDSBURG — Chuck Tyson, Marin County deputy sheriff, was named Most Valuable Player and three of his Sohner Tree Service teammates were named to the all-tournament team in last week's Windsor Softball Tournament of Champions, it was announced yesterday.

Catcher Nolan Wilson, first baseman Bill Archer and second sacker Ron McCamish were all-tourney selections as the an Anselmo club swept through the double-elimination affair without a loss.

Tyson hurled all four Sohner wins, collected six hits in 11 at-bats, and drove in the winning run in the championship game Friday against State titlist Storenetta's Dairy of Napa with a fence-rattling triple.

San Rafael Boat Wins In Oakland

Tony Ginomini of San Rafael won the blown gas hydro class of the National Drag Boat Association Championships at Oakland with a speed of 133.39 miles per hour aboard the "Tyrant" Sunday.

WOMEN'S GOLF CHAMPS

Nancy Gapinski Picks Mrs. Cann To Triumph

(Last in a six-part series)

Although Mrs. Lawrence Gapinski has the home course advantage for the second annual Marin County Women's Golf Tournament of Champions, she picks her tennis partner to win.

Her tennis partner on the San Anselmo Tennis Club team is Mrs. John E. Cann, women's golf champion of the Meadow Club in Fairfax. Nancy Gapinski is champ of San Geronimo National, where the tourney will be waged tomorrow.

THE LINEUP

Representatives of the four other participating women's golf clubs are defending T of C champion Mrs. William May of Indian Valley, Novato; Mrs. Don Roberts, Mill Valley; Mrs. Richard DeKay, Peacock Gap, San Rafael; and Charles Gondak, Marin County Club, Novato.

They'll tee off in two threesomes at 8:30 a.m. for the 18 holes of medal play without handicaps.

Mrs. Gapinski, a fine golfer with a seven handicap, has been club champ both years the San Geronimo group has been in existence. Prior to that, she was club champ at Sonoma National. "Lately, I haven't been playing there much, although I'm still a member," said Mrs Gapinski.

The 43-year-old shot-maker has been playing golf for "about 20 years." In addition, she plays guitar and teaches folk guitar.

She and her husband, a lab administrator for Marin Medical Labratories in San Rafael, have two children, Bruce, 15, sophomore at Drake High, and Laurie, 12, seventh grader at Redhill School. The family home is at 139 Laurel Avenue, San Anselmo.

Mrs. Gapinski said she averages about two rounds of golf a week, including some with her husband. "His handicap is not as low as mine but he seems to beat me," she said.

Stock Market Hit By Profit Takers

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks fell back along a broad front today in an extension of the profit taking which began yesterday after last week's big rise. Trading was light.

Among the most active issues were Benguet, the Philippine Gold Mining Company, American Cement, Jos. Schlitz Brewing, Wheeling Pittsburgh Steel, Natomas and Northern Indiana Public Service.

There were several point-plus losers in the electronics, with IBM and Fairchild Camera among the widest movers. The former fell 9¼ Monday following a sharp rise last week when it introduced a new, small computer which was expected to be competitive with others in the industry.

Weakness was noticeable in the oil group, with rails and conglomerates also on the soft side in many instances.

Steels, motors and chemicals generally traded in narrow ranges. So did most airlines, aircrafts and rails.

U.S. Board Simplifies Truth-In-Lending Law

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Reserve Board has simplified its truth-in-lending rules covering the granting of discounts for prompt payment of bills.

The new rule, effective immediately, eliminates the need to show single payment discount transaction in terms of annual percentage interest rates if the discount is less than 5 per cent. The mathematical formula for determing the rate above 5 per cent was simplified.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Disenchantment In Earnings Multiples

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q — My portfolio consists of round lots of American Telephone, Bethlehem Steel, Freeport Sulphur and Golf Oil. What is your opinion on these for present income and long-term growth? — D.C.

A — When combining goals such as income and growth an investor must be willing to compromise. A yield of 4.5 per cent is still consistent with long-term growth but when a yield rises much higher than this — at least in today's market — one can be fairly certain that investors have become disenchanted with near-term growth prospects.

Both Freeport Sulphur and Bethlehem Steel are prime examples of this. In Freeport's case, easing of sulphur prices begun in 1968 contributed to an earnings slowdown this year. Shares, which had sold at earnings multiples in the 30s, are now valued by investors at less than half this ratio.

In Bethlehem's case, investors began to lose interest back in the early 1960s and multiples have deteriorated steadily each year to well below 10 at present price.

I would replace these two issues with Kellogg Co. and Central & South West, each selling about 16 times expected 1969 earnings, yielding 4 per cent and 4.5 per cent respectively.

Q — I bought American Can some years ago. I am getting 6 per cent on my initial investment at 31¼ but only 3 percent on today's price. I always considered this a good investment but now wonder if I should sell and buy something yielding 6 per cent — R.R.

A — Your figures do not agree with mine, which show that the current dividend rate of $2.20, when divided by your purchase price, works out to 7 per cent and on recent quotes to 4.7 per cent. As to buying a high-yield issue, the answer to the above reader also applies to your question. American Can's 14 per cent gain an second-quarter sales was only partially carried down to earnings because of temporary operating problems. Diversification should supplement the company's leading position in metal containers. American Can is still a good long-pull investment.

Reclaiming Metals

DALLAS (UPI) — Electro Extraction, Inc., has begun operations to reclaim copper and aluminum from old cable by a new process in a plant at Wylie, Tex. The firm is a joint venture of Commercial Metals Co. of Dallas and the Capital Wire and Cable Corp. of Plano, Tex. In addition to the copper and aluminum, the new process reclaims the insulation materials instead of burning them away and adding to air pollution.

Bank Accounting To Add Stocks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Administrator of National Banks has ordered banks to change their accounting methods to include profits and losses on the sale of securities in net income figures.

Banks now report income from operations, exclusive of securities gains and losses. The rule apparently settles a long-standing dispute in the accounting profession concerning the proper way to evaluate bank income.

The effect of the rules will be to scale down the reported net profit of banks during times of rising interest rates. When interest rates increase, banks generally record paper losses on the sale of securities.

The new accounting system may save some banks political embarrassment. Many banks have reported record profits recently, adding to the criticism in Congress and elsewhere of record high interest rates.

New Holding Firm

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — South Jersey Gas Co. directors have tentatively approved creation of a holding company called South Jersey Industries, Inc., as a diversification move. It is proposed to exchange 1.5 share of the holding firm for each share of South Jersey Gas.

Monitor Contract

Hydrex Pest Control Opens Marin Franchise In San Rafael

Marin County headquarters of Hydrex Pest Control Co. have now been established on the San Rafael Miracle Mile.

Heretofore the company has maintained a Marin telephone listing but on an intercity exchange with service trucks coming from Fremont. Owner-manager of the Marin County franchise, Mrs. Louise Loibl, has leased space at 2048 Fourth Street for her office, through Herman Deitch, realtor. She is also vice president of the parent company, which is based in North Hollywood and has 22 franchised offices throughout the state.

Hydrex specializes in all phases of termite and general pest control. Service men in mobile units are equipped with gear and supplies to work in homes, apartments and industry.

Did I say men? In Marin it will be somewhat different. Hydrex will employ women to render general pest control service. But Thomas Murray, will head the termite department.

L. F. CZUFIN of Sleepy Hollow, public relations and advertising manager for Chevron Chemical Co. will be a panel member at a United Nations symposium on the problems and prospects of chemical industries in the less developed countries. The meeting will be held in New York on Sept. 8.

Czufin will speak particularly on export market development requirements for the Indian chemical industry. In the past he has been to India and other countries on specific assignments for both Chevron and the United Nations.

HELMUT K. SCHMID of Novato has been appointed assistant vice president and manager of Crocker-Citizens National Bank's Santa Rosa office. He joined the bank in 1963. Since then he has served both as assistant manager and manager and assistant vice president in San Anselmo. He has been assistant vice president and assistant manager at the San Rafael main office since early 1968.

Thomas D. Blackaller Jr. of Kentfield, formerly assistant to the president, has been named director of sales.

Howard Vincent of Terra Linda, formerly associated with General Dynamics Corp., has been appointed director of contract administration.

William H. Gainey of Daly City, formerly purchasing agent, has been promoted to director of manufacturing.

Daniel J. J. Pirhofer, formerly chief engineer of Sun Electric Co., San Leandro, has been appointed director of engineering.

Gainey

WILLIAM W. HILLER of Larkspur has been appointed assistant manager of the San Francisco office of Kindler, Laucci and Day. He has been in the insurance brokerage field for 23 years. Before his new association he was resident vice president in San Francisco for Sayre and Toso, where he had been seven years.

EDWARD W. TUESCHER of Mill Valley has been named underwriting manager of the San Francisco liability-property-surety branch office of CNA Financial Corp. with the firm since 1962, he was previously excess and surplus lines underwriting manager in San Francisco.

Sutro Predicts Growth For Underwriters

SAN FRANCISCO (BW) — Mortgage investment trusts will play a permanent and growing role in the field of real estate financing, Robert Sutro, chairman of Sutro Mortgage Investment Trust, has told members of the Security Analysts Society of San Francisco.

"You have not seen the last of underwritings of new real estate investment trusts," said Sutro.

He explained that the recent depressed state of the stock market has "tended to obscure the opportunities inherent in this investment vehicle."

"In a climate of intense competition for investment dollars, we believe the mortgage investment trust provides great opportunities for sound participation in real estate investments," said Sutro.

Sausalito Schism On Walton Grows

By LARRY D. HATFIELD

Declaring that black educator Sidney F. Walton Jr. "cannot operate . . . with the cloud of accusation over his head," the Sausalito School District board last night set a closed meeting for 5:30 p.m. Thursday to hear charges against him. (Other Sausalito School District stories, page 5. See also second in a series on school integration, page 17.)

The meeting was set in a 45-minute closed session last night — held at Bayside School during which the board thrashed out a unanimous statement which included a "plea for rational thinking and behavior."

The decision was read to the packed meeting which also saw these developments in the controversy sparked by Walton's hiring as principal of Martin Luther King School:

Walton, who had been attending a conference in Atlanta, made a surprise appearance at the meeting and talked privately with board president Nathaniel Johnson and Supt. Phillip W. Schneider. He did not speak publicly or talk to reporters.

Board member James E. Muldoon said he might resign if the district cannot or will not move towards integration rather than "separatism."

Muldoon and trustee C. Gerald Clear were sharply criticized by black and white members of the audience for raising the issue of separatism.

There was an outpouring of support for Walton which included a strongly worded resolution passed by the Atlanta conference of the National Association for African American Education, a statement signed by 11 Martin Luther King teachers and several individual statements.

The news media were frequently put under fire for reporting on and, according to some, distorting Walton's past militant activities and association with the Black Panthers.

Johnson, whose life has been threatened five times since the controversy started, read the board statement twice, putting emphasis on the line, "He is still principal of Martin Luther King School."

The statement said Walton

Supervisors Ask Logging Site Cleanup

Board Attacks Mess On Righetti Ridge Property

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

An angry Marin County Board of Supervisors today demanded that loggers on the Righetti property above Bolinas immediately clear the mess they have left, and set a hearing on whether to shut down the entire operation as a public nuisance.

The hearing was set for 1:45 p.m. Sept. 16 in the Civic Center.

The Logger, Matthews, Humbert and Walker of North Bend, Ore., agreed to stop logging in the interis so the six-man crew there can start cleaning up the area.

Three of the supervisors reported they had inspected the logged area in the past week and strongly criticized what they found, including fire hazards, gouged hills, extensive filling of creek beds with debris.

PREDICTS FLOATING

Supervisor William A. Gnoss predicted that logs, slash and trimming, all will float into Bolinas Lagoon and Tomales Bay when heavy winter rains flow through the logged canyons.

"If a fire started there, it would burn the whole country up," he said.

Supervisor Louis H. Baar said "it was the worst desecration of land I have ever seen." The gouged hillsides, he said, will collapse under winter rains. "If this is logging in Marin, I don't want to see anymore of it," he declared. The loggers "literally raped the landscaped;" he said, "And I don't think any more logging should be allowed there until it is cleaned up."

LAND DESTRUCTION

Supervisor Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. said his inspection found "not just desecration but destruction of land, and it's all going to end up in Bolinas Lagoon."

After next winter, Arrigoni predicted, the county will have to pay a lot of money dredging the silt from the logging out of the lagoon.

The loggers' attorney, Albert Bianchi of San Rafael, insisted that the "real problem is none of us in this room knows the difference between logging and lunar landing."

Bianchi, who acknowledged he had not seen the results of the logging himself, said an inspector from the state Division of Forestry reported on Friday that no violation of the forest protection rules was observed.

"When the Taj Majal was half completed, it didn't look so good either," Bianchi added.

But Arrigoni retorted, "I don't

No Boost For Taxes In Fairfax

By JOANNE GRANT

Grueling hours of budget study paid off for the Fairfax City Council last night as it adopted a 1969-70 budget without increasing the tax rate. (Other Fairfax City Council stories, page 11).

After last minute changes, the adopted budget stood at $542,222 and the tax rate at $1.74 per $100 assessed valuation.

The council started the evening with a budget of $545,222 up $83,310 from last year and needing a tax rate increase of two cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Mayor Francis J. O'Connell promptly moved to cut $1,500 from a creek cleanup fund, suggesting the people along Manor Creek be responsible instead, and $1,500 from the contingency fund.

But Street Supt. Edgar Phillips protested, "We've tried for eight years and it hasn't worked."

He reported the creek has trees growing in it and is choked up with debris, causing floods in the winter.

City Atty. Wallace S. Myers noted there is an ordinance which provides for the city to clean the creek at the expense of adjoining property owners but allowed "it might be kind of difficult."

Councilman Frank J. Egger moved to amend O'Connell's motion to cut $600 for a council secretary and only $1,000 from

Tricia Nixon Hospitalized For Possible Appendicitis

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Tricia Nixon, 23-year-old daughter of the President, was admitted to Walter Reed Army Medical Center today with abdominal pains. It was learned she may have appendicitis.

A spokesman at the hospital said Miss Nixon was admitted at about 10 a.m. (EDT). Her condition was not regarded as serious, it was learned, and doctors expected to make a determination by mid-afternoon on whether to remove her appendix.

Tricia returned to Washington Sunday evening after spending 10 days with her family at their west coast summer home.

There were no immediate plans for other members of the family to return to Washington.

The President and Mrs. Nixon waited word at the Western White House on results of the tests at Walter Reed.

The first lady's press secretary, Gerry Van der Heuvel, said Tricia was admitted to Ward 8 —believed to be the presidential suite —by Dr. Stanley Bear, assistant White House physician.

TRICIA NIXON
In Walter Reed Hospital

It was learned that a preliminary examination of Tricia indicated she might have appendicitis but doctors were making other checks.

Tricia was said to have felt ill yesterday, the day after returning from California, but told no one except a White House maid.

Mrs. Van der Heuvel said Tricia began to "feel worse" and called Dr. Walter Tkach, the President's physician, at 8:30 a.m. today at the Western White House in San Clemente.

Tkach then contacted Dr. Bear back in Washington. He examined Tricia "and found no fever and no increase in pulse," Mrs. Van der Heuvel said, although she had abdominal pains.

Tricia gave no reason for her return to Washington except to tell a reporter that she felt "rather useless" vacationing in the surf and sand at the Nixon estate overlooking the Pacific.

Tricia is the oldest of the President's two daughters. The other, Julie, 21, and her husband, David Eisenhower, remained in California and have been regular golfing partners of her father on frequent outings.

118 Arrested During Minority Job March

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Hundreds of persons demonstrating for more construction jobs for blacks marched on several major building projects today and scuffled with police on a bridge linking downtown with a new sports stadium being erected in the North Side.

Police said they took in custody 118 persons, including 20 juveniles and two Pittsburgh Press employees, photographer Anthony Kaminski and reporter Ann Carey. However, Kaminski and Miss Carey, 25, later were released and were not charged.

Two police officers were hospitalized with injuries received in a scuffle with about 200 of the demonstrators on the Manchester Bridge.

After the bridge scuffle the demonstrators, who included both blacks and whites, broke into several groups and marched to various building projects.

Miss Carey said she was "merely standing on a street corner" when police took her in custody. Kaminski said he was taken in custody when he asked the officers why they were taking in Miss Carey.

Sixteen of the arrests were made during the disturbance on the bridge.

A sergeant leading a squad of the police tactical unit said both police and demonstrators used a chemical disabling spray during the disturbance but the police "got the better of it because the wind was with us."

Austrians Killed By Bomb Tosser

VIENNA (UPI)—A man burst into the Canadian Embassy today and hurled a Molotov cocktail at a member of the staff, touching off a fire which gutted the reception hall and killed two Austrian employees.

At least 32 other persons, including a number of firemen, were hospitalized for burns and other injuries. However, all but one were released after treatment.

A police spokesman said a Hungarian-born Canadian, identified only as Kolman L., 47, was arrested at the scene after telling police, "I did it." The man was held for questioning.

The embassy is located on the fifth floor of a modern eight-story building on the Danube Canal in downtown Vienna. Survivors stumbled down staircases or policemen's ladders to safety and employees of the Swedish Embassy, on the floor above, also escaped down ladders. The Swedish Embassy was not damaged.

$40,000 Awarded To Women Who Befriended Max Bootzin

By MARY LEYDECKER

Two young women who lived with a Mill Valley octogenarian for four-and-a-half years before he died were awarded a belated $40,000 yesterday for services they had performed.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court had earlier ruled after a 26-day trial that the woman could keep the house and property which Max Bootzin had given one of them.

Yesterday he decided that Charmaine Klenman, now 36, and Joan Saylor, 30, who still live in the house at 8 Robertson Terrace, are entitled to $21,011 and $18,313, respectively, for work and out-of-pocket expenses.

A suit to regain the property and cash Max Bootzin claimed he gave the women following a four-year campaign to gain his affections was filed in 1965.

Bootzin died in 1966 at the age of 83 after asking his attorney, Vincent Hallinan of Belvedere, to drop the suit. Hallinan did not do so, however, and later, as executor of the estate, continued the case on behalf of Bootzin's three children.

Judge Wilson said yesterday in his final decision on the case that, as he had stated at the conclusion of the trial in June, the heirs had failed to prove their case.

"Max pursuaded the defendants to move into the Mill Valley house with the understanding they would make a home together," the judge wrote.

"To provide additional security for the defendants in the event of the anticipated battle with his family, he placed the residence property in joint tenancy with Miss Klenman and later deeded adjoining lots to her outright," Judge Wilson said.

The women were intended to have the house, the judge declared, and furthermore, the old man intended to compensate them for the work they did in remodeling it as well as out-of-pocket expenses for household necessities.

Bootzin did not intend to pay the women for companionship

Tiburon Cuts Its Tax Rate By 2 Cents

A tax rate of 65 cents for $100 assessed valuation for fiscal 1969-70, down 2 cents from last year, was adopted last night by the Tiburon City Council on a 4-0 vote with Mayor Branwell D. Fanning absent. (Another Tiburon City Council story, page 3.)

The rate will finance the city's $566,643 budget, up $169,308 from last year. Increased property assessments and carryover funds from 1968-69 account for the lower tax rate, according to Asst. City Mgr. Russell L. Melquist.

The new levy is based on a property assessed valuation of $21.3 million, up 11.4 per cent from last year.

New Storm Gathers Off Atlantic Coast

MIAMI (UPI) — Tropical storm Eve moved northeastward across the Atlantic 340 miles off the United States coast today and weathermen predicted the blow would reach hurricane intensity by tomorrow.

The National Hurricane Center said the storm was disorganized but "its slow movement over warm waters and its central pressure of 29.38 inches are sufficient reasons to forecast that Eve should be a minimal hurricane by tomorrow. All interests along the middle Atlantic coast eastward to Bermuda should be alerted for future advices."

Mediterranean Games For Soviets

LONDON (UPI)—About 60 Soviet warships are maneuvering in the eastern Mediterranean, U.S. Navy spokesmen said today.

They said the Russian vessels, including the helicopter carrier Moskva, are conducting their war games in two areas, off the coast of Syria and south of the Greek island of Crete.

Talks Set On U.S. Pullout

BANGKOK (UPI)—Talks between the United States and Thailand on a proposal to pullout American troops from this country will begin Monday between Foreign Minister Thanat Khoman and U.S. Ambassador Leonard Unger, the two governments announced tonight.

The announcement was made in a joint communique issued by the two governments after a Thai cabinet meeting.

The communique was apparently worded so as to remove the appearance that the Thai government was trying to force a complete withdrawal of the 48,000 U.S. troops in this country.

This had seemed possible after the foreign office issued a statement last night in which it said the Americans had asked for a few days "delay" in starting negotiations in order to get instructions from Washington.

The communique said:

"The Royal Thai government and the United States government today announced the opening of talks to arrange for a gradual reduction of the level of United States forces in Thailand consistent with the assessment of both govern-

$22.9 Billion Postwar Surplus Disappears, Moynihan Declares

(UPI)—The Nixon administration has discovered that a $22.9 billion windfall expected to be available for federal domestic programs when the Vietnam War ends has evaporated.

Dr. Daniel P. Moynihan, President Nixon's assistant for urban affairs, said an economic forecast released last January is "not realistic" and new studies show the money "just won't be there."

Moynihan apparently referred to a report prepared by former President Lyndon B. Johnson's administration, but issued by the Nixon administration in early January.

The $22.9 billion figure was given as a "peace and growth dividend" on Jan. 23, 1969, by the Cabinet Coordinating Committee on Economic Planning for the end of Vietnam hostilities.

The windfall supposedly would be available to the economy by 1972 assuming the war ended early in 1969, the committee said.

Nixon met Monday with the Urban Affairs Council where he received the bad news. After an unusually lengthy meeting of the council, Moynihan told newsmen at the Western White House:

"There is not likely to be anything like the free resources that we have all hoped for," Moynihan said. "It is simply not there in the system. We are not going to have an easy time of making national priorities in the 1970s."

After the Urban Affairs Council conference, the President, his wife, their daughter, Julie, and her husband, David Eisenhower, flew by helicopter to the nearby golf course at Camp Pendleton, an enormous U.S. Marine Base on the West Coast, for a late afternoon round of golf.

Mrs. Nixon did not play. She followed the President on foot in a green and white cotton print summer dress and a golf cap.

"The simple fact is," Moynihan said, "we are not going to go through a process where one day you simply stop a process of expenditure that has been going on and suddenly all the surplus comes pouring in to you."

Brother Blamed In Slaying Of Actor Ramon Novarro

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The elder of two Chicago brothers on trial for the murder of silent screen star Ramon Novarro blames his younger brother for the bludgeon-slaying.

Paul Robert Ferguson, 23, testified yesterday that he slept through the murder, and that he actually thought Novarro was a "nice guy" who told him he could become a "superstar" like Burt Lancaster.

TO HUSTLE

Paul testified that he and his brother, Tom, 18, went to Novarro's mansion in the Hollywood hills to "hustle" him, not to rob him of $5,000 as alleged by the prosecution.

Paul told the jury of seven men and five women he became drunk at the 69-year-old actor's home and passed out on a couch. Thomas awakened him after Navarro died.

"See, this guy is dead," he quoted his brother as saying.

"Are you sure?" the older brother said he asked.

"Yeah, he has turned blue," Thomas said.

"I touched him on the shoulder," Paul testified. "He felt starchy ...tight, like paper..."

The coroner's office said Novarro drowned in his own blood from a savage beating apparently inflicted with his own cane, a souvenier from one of his movies.

Paul said he wanted to call the police, but his brother convinced him that the killing should be made to appear as though it occurred during a robbery.

His attorney asked him why he acquiesced to the scheme. Paul thought for a moment, and then said, "stupidness."

Thomas, who has not yet testified, shook his head during his brother's testimony to indicate it was false.

SUPERSTAR

Paul said he and Novarro had "quite a bit to drink" during the evening—he himself consumed more than a fifth of vodka—and that his younger brother also was drinking.

At one point, Paul said the actor told him he might become a star. "He said I could be a young Burt Lancaster, a superstar...another Clint Eastwood."

Paul said Novarro called a man he identified as his publicity agent and quoted the actor as saying on the telephone, "I have a young man here. He could become a superstar and I want you to come over and meet him on Friday."

Ferguson said a "friendly mood" generally prevailed during the evening, at least until he fell asleep.

Gas Use Opposed

LONDON (AP) — The British government offered today to send a specialist to Northern Ireland to check on reports that many of those exposed to CS riot control gas during the religious rioting two weeks ago are still suffering from diarrhea, vomitingand abdominal pains. Babies particularly were reported affected.

London newspapers seized on the reports, and editorials suggested the police in Londonderry shouldn't have been authorized to use the gas.

Itwas the first time the gas had been used in the United Kingdom against rioters. Doctors in Londonderry complained that the authorities were not able to give them the composition of the gas and they were unable to treat victims of it properly.

'Top Secret' War Plans To Der Stern

HAMBURG, Germany (UPI) —The West German magazine Der Stern reported in its current issue it has received copies in the mail of top secret U.S. contingency plans for an "unconventional" war in Europe.

The plans, the magazine said, include preparations for nuclear, chemical or biological warfare in Western or Eastern Europe, and air and sea operations to be undertaken.

Der Stern did not publish the plans, which it said covered 33 pages, 20 of them stamped "top secret" and the others stamped "secret."

MAJOR BREACH

American authorities confirmed the authenticity of the plans, Der Stern said, and with West German intelligence officials launched an investigation into what appeared to be a major breach of Allied security.

(In San Francisco, Ramparts Magazine said it had copies of the same documents and would print them. There were indications the plans were at least six years old.)

Der Stern said the plans were prefaced by remarks that said their purpose "was to prepare the leadership and the layout of responsibilities for beginning and executing an unconventional war in the area of the U.S. European commander."

TROOP STRENGTH

The documents also listed U.S. troops strengths, weapons positions and logistics and electronics capabilities, the magazine said.

It quoted American officials that about 20 persons had access to the plans, most of them at the Pentagon in Washington or at U.S. European Command headquarters in Stuttgart, Germany.

Entitled "Plan 10-1," the documents arrived in a heavy envelope postmarked Rome, Der Stern said. It did not say whether they had been given to the American authorities.

Also inside the envelope was a typewritten letter in English that said the sender was carrying out the wish of Maj. Gen. Horst Wendland, deputy director of the West German Federal Intelligence Agency until he committed suicide last Oct. 8.

The signature on the letter was not legible and there was no return address, Der Stern said.

OTHER COPIES

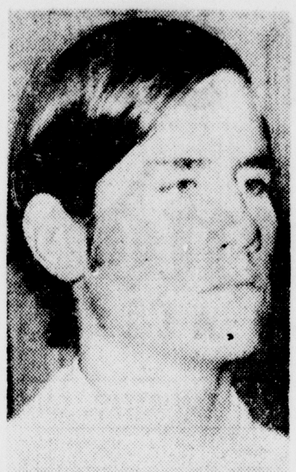
Photostatic copies also were sent to journals in Italy, France and England, the magazine said. In San Francisco, Ramparts editor Robert Scheer said Ramparts got copies several months ago.

The person who mailed copies to Der Stern said in his letter that Maj. Gen. Wendland, highest ranking military officer in West Germany's intelligence system, had urged him to release the plans "at an appropriate time."

Wendland committed suicide last Oct. 8 following what a government spokesman called an "incurable depressive illness." The spokesman said the suicide, the first in a series of 12 in the government, posed no security problem.



ERIK WHITEHORN
Judge reverses case

Protester Of Draft Wins His Freedom

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — After reversing his draft resister status under oath, Erik Whitehorn of Palo Alto has gained freedom from the same federal judge who sent him to prison last May.

U.S. District Court Judge Gus Solomon of Portland, acting on the letter of appeal the 18-year-old sent him Aug. 1, heard Whitehorn testified yesterday and then reduced his sentence to the time he has served since May 28.

The original sentence on a charge of failing to register for the draft had been indeterminate.

Whitehorn said nothing when he was released. He came down from the federal detention quarters on the top floor of the Hall of Justice, embraced his girlfriend and his mother, and they left for Palo Alto.

The judge criticized Erik's mother, Evelyn, a Palo Alto real estate agent, and his former attorney, Aubrey Grossman for their part in forming his attitude.

The court had turned down Mrs. Whitehead's request to be prosecuted instead of her son. She said she advised him against registering and that legally since he can't get married without parental permission he shouldn't be required to join the military without it.

Whitehorn also was put on three years probation on condition that he register for the draft and comply with the law.

The judge specified that he must not be deprived of his right to apply for conscientious objector status, and any appeal from the ruling of a Selective Service board would not be considered by the court a violation of probation.

Judge Solomon described Mrs. Whitehorn as a woman who enjoyed the limelight in her role as a tearful mother.

Dr. George is executive director of the Cleveland Job Corps center for women.

Youths Given Time In Jail

A Marin Superior Court judge yesterday did not follow the suggestion of the probation department that two 18-year-old Novato burglars be turned over to the California Youth Authority.

Instead, noting that the district attorney's office had earlier agreed to a jail sentence, he ordered Michael R. Rundle and Phillip R. McFarren to spend 90 days in jail. He also gave them credit for time already served.

The youths had earlier pleaded guilty to burglarizing the Lu Sutton School in Novato March 1.

WILLIAM GARRETSON

Youth Asks $1.25 Million In Tate Case

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—William Garretson, 20, who was arrested, questioned about the Sharon Tate murders and then released for lack of evidence, has filed a $1,250,000 suit against the City of Los Angeles for false arrest.

Garretson was the caretaker at the estate where the actress and her four guests were murdered and he was the only person alive when police arrived Aug. 9.

Garretson was questioned for two days and then released. He told detectives he knew nothing of the murders until police forced their way into the guest house where he lived and arrested him.

The suit was filed by Mrs. Mary Garretson of Lancaster, Ohio, on behalf of her son. It charged Garretson was falsely arrested, unlawfully imprisoned, and subjected to an invasion of privacy that exposed him to "unwarranted and notorious and undesired publicity."

Woman Beaten To Death; Also Husband Critical

LAKEVIEW TERRACE (UPI)—A woman was beaten to death and her husband was critically injured yesterday when they stopped on a canyon road to help two men in their stalled vehicle, sheriff's reported.

Homicide detectives said that Kathryn Murphy, 41, Sunland, Los Angeles County, and her husband, Sean, 41, were driving on Lopez Canyon Road when they saw the apparently stalled auto and stopped to offer assistance.

One of the men drew a revolver and ordered the Murphy's into the car and then told them to drive a short distance.

Detectives said the men forced the Murphys out of the car, beat Mrs. Murphy to death, then robbed and severely beat her husband.

The Boy Scout movement started in 1908.

San Franciscan Admits Burglary

Benny Jones Jr., 28, a San Francisco street sweeper, admitted yesterday in Marin Superior Court that he was the person who burglarized Smith's Clothing Store in Corte Madera Nov. 28, 1968.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson warned Jones that he faces either a prison or jail sentence and set sentencing for Oct. 1.

Jones was arrested after a high-speed chase when he abandoned his car near the Mill Valley exit on Highway 101.

BLAME THE BRAKES

Sunday's fishing trip was rather expensive for the William Jackson family of Cincinnati. While Jackson waited in their station wagon, his wife, Vivian, went to back their foreign car out of the garage. She backed up the 75-foot driveway, but the brakes didn't hold, sending it through the garage and out the rear, coming to rest against a tree. The tree saved Mrs. Jackson and the car from a 10-foot drop. (AP Wirephoto)

New Home Offered For Houseboats

A new home for 50 houseboats — a spanking new dock — won unanimous approval yesterday from the Marin County Planning Commission.

The dock was proposed for a two-block area part of a 12-block tract owned in Richardson Bay by Donlon J. Arques, who has fended off county efforts to force a cleanup of the houseboat community for months.

Arque's attorney, Hugh G. Lawrence, said the dock would offer a "certainity of a home for the residents of the area — if their houseboats meet county codes. I'm sure you're aware the county has not been too successful in getting compliance on its own," he said of the county's fruitless cleanup campaign.

The action yesterday was to approve the proposed use of the 4.5-acre parcel. The plan for the development will have to be approved by the commission separately, then will need approval by the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission in order to fill an 8,400-square-foot area.

The Marin County Planning Commission also:

BOLINAS LAGOON — Approved a resolution of intention to hold a hearing Sept. 29 on an ordinance requiring county review of all filling in Bolinas Lagoon, and said large fills should need approval of the commission instead of a proposed county natural resources committee.

HIPPIES — Set a discussion Sept. 15 on Commissioner Hugh Dougherty's suggestion that there be a limit on the number of unrelated persons allowed to live together as "family." Commissioner Walter F. Freitas objected that the suggestion was "moralizing — not a planning matter."

MILLER AVENUE — Set a hearing Sept. 15 on route plans to extend Miller Avenue from Mill Valley to Shoreline Highway.

LUCAS VALLEY — Substituted a walkway, costing $1,000 to $2,000, for a $15,000 pedestrian bridge to Dixie School required in the master plan for Lucas Valley, agreeing with the developer, Peninsula Master Builders, that the expense would be unjustified for 36 lots and about 25 children.

TENNESSEE — Postponed to Sept. 29 a hearing on rezoning 16 acres west of Tennessee Valley Road for 43 single-family homes.

Planning Group Goes Nowhere Again On Richardson Bay Plan

The apparently endless complexities of the county planning department's new plan for development of Richardson Bay were examined minutely for a fourth time yesterday by the Marin County Planning Commission, which after three hours sent it back for more staff revisions.

The next hearing on the plan, to which the commission gave tentative approval on Aug. 11, was set for Sept. 15.

County planner Raymond Smith suggested action be postponed to October, a suggestion which brought groans of "oh, no" from property owners in the audience, and a sharp demand from commissioners that the staff complete the revisions before the next meeting.

Among the revisions asked by commissioners were definite criteria for high-rise buildings, guarantees of public access, view and use, and a ban on all residential housing except hotels and houseboats.

The plan calls for swapping private holdings for underwater county rights-of-way in order to preserve as open water the area outboard of the proposed marina green opposite Marin City. It limits property owners to filling not more than 40 per cent of their acreage marked for development.

A crazy quilt of numerous private holdings in Richardson Bay has stymied development of the area for years, and the planning staff's plan was drawn to encourage orderly development there.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, asked by commissioners to discuss the plan, noted the county could not compel the property owners to join the trading with the county so each owner could consolidate his now-scattered property into parcels large enough for economic development.

Maloney also noted that the success of the plan probably depended on the cooperation of all of the property owners. He apparently had in mind the opposition of the plan by George Kappas, who owns 38.2 acres in the area covered by the plan.

But Maloney added that any opposition to the plan may just be a maneuver to get a bargaining position in the land swaps with the county.

Maloney also said there was a legal question of whether the county could buy land from one person for trade to another, a possible roadblock that led commission vice chairman Walter F. Freitas to comment "the whole plan is desirable, but I don't think we can enforce it."

Commissioner Hugh Dougherty strongly criticized the planning department for failing to come up with guidelines for high-rise buildings, a request made by commissioners on Aug. 11. "With all that staff and expertise, I'm really disappointed," he said.

Smith said he had tried, but "just couldn't figure out" how such guidelines could be drawn.

Dougherty insisted that he will vote against the plan unless it spells out "some specific criteria" for high-rise buildings.

Commissioner Margaret Azevedo suggested the staff consider a maximum height of 10 to 12 stories, and a maximum width of 80 feet. The plan also should require developers to provide a certain minumum ratio of open space to floor space.

Favoring the plan was Thomas E. Nowell Jr., one of the affected property owners. But he opposed any height limit on high-rise buildings, noting plans for development still would have to be approved by the commission.

Nowell, who recently tried unsuccessfully for approval of a $25 million high-rise development up to 16 stories, noted that private property owners in Richardson Bay had been delayed already for more than 15 years.

Also opposing any restriction in the plan on the height of buildings was attorney Hugh S. J. Allen, representing the Zaro holdings.

The only speaker who said the plan was too specific was Pierre Joske, head of the county parks and recreation department. He said the plan was too detailed on the type of marina park long proposed for the area, but Dougherty said he was "a little stupified at this — we are at a point where we must make a decision."

Commissioner Niels Schultz Jr. also suggested that staff revisions spell out precisely which property would be reserved for public access to the bay front, "rather than leave it to be promiscuously applied to every property."

Commissioner Jack G. Nixon was silent during most the long hearing, but commented at the end that "we're bogging down, it seems to me."

Chairman Michael Praszker was absent.

Judge Orders Restitution

Dennis Norman Clark, 26, of Larkspur, who admitted taking about $500 from his employer was ordered yesterday by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court to make restitution and to spend four weekends in jail.

He had earlier admitted taking the money from funds to be deposited in a bank sometimes between November and February. He was employed by Sportsland Corp., which has a concession in the Larkspur Disco store.

The judge placed Clark on one year probation.

Forest Knolls Theft Plea Is Entered

James Roger Kraft, 23, of San Francisco pleaded innocent in Marin Superior Court yesterday to burglarizing a Forest Knolls home on May 28.

A jury trial was set for the week of Dec. 8.

Suspects In Opium Case Are Released

Three youths arrested Sunday on suspicion of armed robbery which was linked to a proposed purchase of opium were released yesterday when the district attorney 's office said charges would not be filed until the case had been investigated further.

Those arrested in Fairfax after two San Anselmo youths said they were robbed of $65 at knife point were John S. Iacono, 19, of Greenbrae; Stephen John Pappas, 19, of San Francisco, and Reade Collins Backer, 18, of Ross.

Police said that two youths who said they had been robbed of $65 had been told by Iacono that he and his friends would sell him $100 worth of opium.

Iacono, according to police, said that he and his friends planned to substitute incense for the opium but when the two boys were short $25, they took the $65, using a knife as a threat.

Deputy Dist. Attny. Gary T. Ragghianti said yesterday that members of that office plan to interview persons involved in the case further before issuing compaints.

Two juveniles who were with the arrested youths were taken to Juvenile Hall Sunday.

Retarded Children Are Guests Of Lions

About 125 children and their teachers from the Cedars School for Retarded Children in San Anselmo will be guests of the San Rafael Lions Club at the 5 p.m. performance of the John A. Strong Circus Thursday. Other performances are scheduled at 2:30 and 8 p.m.

The children's attendance at the Montecito Shopping Center show will be the second year the Lions Club has hosted the school at the circus.

Controversial Apartments Approved

Rezoning of Strawberry Cove for apartments and a marina won unanimous, but informal approval yesterday from the Marin County Planning Commission.

A vote to rezone the 20-acre parcel owned by Clipper Yacht Co. was postponed to Sept. 29 so commissioners can vote simultaneously on a master plan for the proposed development.

The plan will include a 160-boat marina, clubhouse, 312 parking spaces and 72 apartments, mostly on fill and piers, commissioners were told by the county planning department.

DENSITY

The department recommended a density of 2.5 units per acre, holding that with the marina the developer would make an adequate profit. But the commissioners said they would vote for a density of 3.6 units an acre.

Clifford Pedersen, an owner of Clipper Yacht Co., pushed for 90 units, but with no success. He noted he originally planned 142 units.

Objecting that the development would be "like paving (the bay) over," Mrs. Benjamin Dreyfus of Strawberry said it would "destroy an extraordinarily productive resource of the Bay Area." She also termed the development "like cutting out a part of the one of our lungs."

APARTMENTS FOREIGN

James K. Garner, a director of the Strawberry Recreation District, also objected that apartments "would be somewhat foreign to the Strawberry area."

But Commissioner Margaret Azevedo, while acknowledging keeping the cove in its natural state was desirable, said "we cannot dump altogether the rights of private property." The proposed development, she said, "is modest and generous" in its provisions of public access to the water.

Machines Looted

The Hideaway at 128 Kentucky Street, Petaluma, was burglarized Sunday night, police reported yerterday. Two juke boxes and a pinball machine were looted for a total of $250.

Tiburon Proceeding On Rail Land Buy

Taking another step toward condemning the Northwestern Pacific Railroad right-of-way along Tiburon Boulevard, the Tiburon City Council last night agreed to divide the property into three parcels for acquisition. (Another Tiburon City Council story, page 1)

That, according to Councilman William R. Bremer, will give the city added leeway in its condemnation procedures, particularly in allowing the city to condemn a portion of the right-of-way if the entire parcel proves to be too expensive.

Bremer said the city would proceed on the assumption that the entire parcel would be condemned and purchased by the city. "Only if the fair market value, as established by the courts, exceeds what we can afford to pay, would the city select one or more portions for first purchase," Bremer explained.

The three parcles are the section extending from Tiburon Boulevard and Trestle Glen Boulevard southeasterly to the intersection of Tiburon Boulevard and San Rafael Avenue; the northerly side of Tiburon Boulevard at Trestle Glen Boulevard extending to the southeasterly portion of the filled tunnel; and the intersection of San Rafael Avenue and Tiburon Boulevard southeasterly to the intersection of Tiburon Boulevard and Mar West Street.

Bremer said three separate law suits would be filed by San Rafael attorney Richard A. Clarke, retained to handle the condemnation.

In addition, the council agreed for the record that the right-of-way is being acquired for bicycle and pedestrian trails and parks.

The council agreed not to go ahead with abatement proceedings against the Richardson Bay Sanitary District over odor from the Trestle Glen sewage treatment plant pending results of a sanitation engineer's study of the odor problem, initiated by the district.

The Tiburon City Council Also:

MASTER PLAN — Adopted an ordinance establishing a master plan for development of Fred G. Zelinsky's downtown Tiburon property including, in a first stage, construction of 10,000 square feet of professional-administrative offices west of city hall and a 5,000-square-foot addition to Tiburon Vintners for additional commercial space.

HORSES — Referred for additional study an ordinance requiring a use permit for the keeping of horses and ponies within city limits.

APPEAL — Continued to Sept. 8 an appeal by Lawrence C. Olin for a variance from setbacks for various lots in Reedland Woods unit 1.

AYALA COVE — Endorsed the renaming of Hospital Cove on Angel Island to Ayala Cove.

REED SCHOOL PARK — Agreed to investigate the purchase of 2.5 acres adjacent to Reed School for a nature park.

LANDSCAPING — Authorized up to $500 for the landscaping of Trestle Glen and Tiburon Boulevard between Mercury Avenue and the Reedlands in cooperation with the Belveron Association.

Novato Creek Session Set

Billed as "save it or scratch it," a public informational meeting on Novato Creek and its future will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Novato Community House.

The purpose of the meeting is to organize a citizens committee to work with the Army Corps of Engineers and Marin County flood control officials in maintaining the beauty of the creek through Novato.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss will be the master of ceremonies. Brian W. Mattson, Novato planning director and Edward W. Adams, parks and recreation director, will each tell of plans for the creek, according to Elizabeth Moody and Joan Grosser, co-chairmen of the citizens who are organizing to save the creek.

Sausalito Schism On Walton Grows

was hired because the majority of the board believed he could run a strong integrated program at King. Since his hiring several weeks ago, he has begun developing a new discipline policy and strong educational objectives, the statement said.

It said the board would hold a series of closed meetings to air the charges against Walton and to review administrative policies and positions, the latter to include an evaluation of Schneiner's role in Walton's hiring. Muldoon and others have suggested Schneider withheld information about Walton's past in pushing him for the job.

Johnson later changed the board statement to eliminate the reference to administrative policies when Sausalito resident Michael Harris said it would violate the Ralph M. Brown Act.

Late in the meeting, when all but about 50 of the original 400 persons had left, Muldoon and Clear made separate statements.

Muldoon said he has received an "enormous amount of response" to the Walton controversy and "the overall theme has been moderation."

He said there was "surprising agreement on the need for integration rather than teaching of separatism," adding that if the district moved towards separatism, he might resign as "an ineffective representative of the moderate view."

Clear said, "I am committed to an integrated education. I am dead set against separatism." He and Muldoon were immediately challenged from the audience with speakers pointing out that the two trusees were the only ones who had mentioned separatism.

When Clear said it was his conviction that there has been a "strong trend towards separatism" at King, Johnson said he was "tired of nit-picking, tired of witch-hunting," adding: "It's about time Sausalito, Marin City and the forts realize that nobody is talking about separatism."

He said neither he nor Walton's special assistant, James T. Toliver, would be working in the district if it were aiming for separatismm Both men are black, Johnson said, and the theme was repeated by several members of the audience, that the district's "goal is quality education."

"We're going to make it here together or we ain't gonna make it," he said to applause.

Again challenged on what he meant by separatism, Clear, speaking in a trembling voice, said he had seen "an attitude of black kids drawing apart from white kids who had been their friends . . . I'm talking about a degree of feeling that resulted in less communication between black kids and white kids."

Muldoon did not respond to the audience's challenges.

Later, Johnson threatened to adjourn the meeting after Toliver and Collie B. Gaines of Marin City accused whites in the district of practicing separatism. Johnson a short time later again threatened to end the meeting when a white woman asked how many in the audience had read Walton's book "The Black Curriculum."

"This is not a kangaroo court of Mr. Sid Walton," Johnson said, admitting he was "about to lose his cool." He added, "I refuse to allow this public meeting to go that way. I will not have Mr. Sid Walton put on trial here tonight."

The argument was cut off a few minutes later after a black woman in the audience decried the "pettiness" of arguments among adults and said she hoped black and white children were not being prepared to "accept the type of thing we're seeing here tonight."

The statement from the teachers, black and white, praised Walton as "extremely qualified" and said they were particularly impressed with his plans for reorganizing the curriculum and his rapport with both black and white teachers.

The resolution from the Atlanta conference, read by William (Chaka) Bradley, another controversial black teacher at King, attacked Muldoon as "one white honky racist" and decried "white racism which is perpetuated by right-wing elements in our society such as Muldoon, a bigoted honky in Sausalito and misguided, ignorant, Uncle Tom niggers such as Rev. Fred Small of Marin City." The reference to Muldoon was jeered by some whites in the audience, the majority of which seemed to back Walton.

The resolution also condemned the Bay Area news media and, although Chaka did not read it after being admonished by Johnson, it condemned "the white racist attitudes expressed by Sausalito School District board member C. Gerald Clear."

It also called for an effort to force the resignation of State School Supt. Max Raffery and "all racist school administrators and politicians."

Although none of the members of the overflow crowd spoke against Walton, two white residents said they had lost confidence in Schneider and the board should consider replacing him.

Toliver, in a statement, attacked "irresponsible publicity" by the media, criticized Rafferty and asked whether Eldridge Cleaver's "Soul on Ice" and LeRoi Jones' "The Dutchman" would be used in the Sausalito district.

Johnson said consideration of use of the books, which Rafferty has labeled unfit for school curricula, would be taken up at a later meeting.

care what the state says, the state law stinks."

Joining in the criticism was County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom, who said all the debris from the logging should be burned up after the fire season, and the area "cleaned up to my satisfaction, or the operation not be permitted to commence" next season.

He termed the logged area "a high fire hazard area," and noted that the dust was up to one foot deep.

Taking down the proceedings was a court reported hired by Bianchi.

Bianchi; repeatedly assuring the supervisors the problem would be cleaned up so that a ban on logging would not be necessary, said that "if they (his clients) haven't gotten the picture by now, they're in serious trouble."

Marin County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney noted that the supervisors previously empowered him to get a temporary restraining order against the logger if the operation violated the county permit. Maloney said he could take such a legal step if the loggers "were uncooperative" in their promise to halt operations pending the Sept. 16 hearing.

Pharmacy Looted Of Drugs, Cash

An unknown quantity of narcotics and $267 in cash were taken yesterday from the Marin Medical Pharmacy, San Rafael police reported today.

Officers said that someone first broke into offices shared by doctors Rafael G. Dufficy and Frederick Hass, took $17 and then forced their way sometime after midnight into the adjacent pharmacy, located at 750 Las Gallinas Avenue, and took $250 in cash and the narcotics.

San Rafael Meeting On Opening Land Set

San Rafael City Council, at a special session yesterday afternoon, set Oct. 6 for a public hearing on annexation of the Marin County Civic Center and open lands to the north and east, about 1,000 acres in all.

The hearing will be at 8 p.m. at city hall. The hearing was scheduled for Sept. 22 but had to be changed to meet legal requirements for publishing of notices, Mayor C. Paul Bettini explained.

ments of the security situation.

"The talks will be held in the first instance between the foreign minister of Thailand, Thanat Khoman, and the United States ambassador to Thailand, Leonard Unger, in Bangkok beginning on or about Sept. 1.

"More detailed conversations, in which Thai and United States representatives will participate, will follow to plan for any reduction it is considered desirable to make over a period of time, assuming there is no in the security situation in Southeast Asia."

The Thai version of the communique was signed by the information department of the ministry of foreign affairs.

U.S. officials confirmed that the Thai version was identical with one of the Americans had planned to issue apparently timed to coincide with a Thailand Radio news broadcast.

It marked the start of what U.S. and Thai officials hoped would be the beginning of a reasonable and measured series of conversations on the phaseout of American troops in this country. The U.S. troops have been mainly engaged in carrying on the air war against Communist forces in North and South Vietnam and Laos.

The decision to begin pulling the Americans out of this country stemmed from a major debate currently going on in Congress over the extent of the U.S. commitment to this country.

There have been allegations, mainly from Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., and other leaders of the dove faction in Congress that a secret 1965 contigency agreement between the two countries might commit American forces to defending Thailand without the consent of Congress.

There are six major air bases in Thailand, and forces at the base have been engaged mainly in conducting fighter bomber and B52 strikes against Communist positions.

The amendment passed, 3-2, after same confusion, with O'Connell and Councilman Cornelis Van Vliet on the losing end.

The votes on the budget and the tax rate were 4-1 with Van Vliet voting no on each.

He explained, "The county raises its tax rate by 12.5 cents and nobody complains about it." He indicated disgust with the amount of time spent on reducing the Fairfax budget by two cents and said he would have been willing to vote the increase.

The adopted budget was up from Mrs. Lestanguet's recommendations of $539,403 which time to require a 6 to 11-cent increase in the tax rate. Elimination of the tax rate increase was due to cuts by the council, errors in the original proposal and lower spending than anticipated.

and housekeeping services, the judge decided. They had asked $25,000 each for their friendship.

"As I view it, the defendants companionship and home making services were rendered in the mere expectation of the legacy or gift . . ." which they hoped to receive and was not legally recoverable, Judge Wilson ruled.

As to the amounts that Miss Klenman and Miss Saylor should receive for their labors and expenses, the judge said that the women "have kept careful records" and there was "no basis to disregard their figures."

He did, however, cut their gardening fees in half, ruling that half of the gardening came under the category of "outdoor housekeeping" and not improvements to the property.

The old man's estate was inherited by his daughter, Adeline Bootzin Rodriguez of San Francisco, and two sons, Robert and Morris Bootzin.

OBITUARIES

Maria L. Pacheco Dies At 81

Maria Loreta Pacheco, 81, a retired San Rafael school teacher and a descendant of a pioneer Marin County family that came to California from Mexico in 1776, died today at a local hospital after a short illness.

Miss Pacheco was the niece of the late Ygnacio Pacheco, for whom the present community of Ignacio was named.

Ygnacio Pacheco was the owner of a Spanish land grant, one of the largest ranches in Marin, in what is now the Ignacio — Hamilton Air Force Base area.

Miss Pacheco was born in San Rafael, her father having owned a ranch in what is now West End.

She was a teacher all her life, having taught first in high school, then in primary school. She was principal of West End and Sun Valley schools in San Rafael upon retirement about 16 years ago.

She last lived with her sister, Irene Pacheco, also a retired school teacher, at 161 Bayview Drive.

Miss Pacheco was a member of the Retired Teachers Association of Marin County and of the Marin Audubon Society.

Requiem High Mass will be celebrated for Miss Pacheco at 9:30 a.m. Thursday at St. Sylvester's Church, San Rafael. A Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Keaton Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael.

HENRY ANDERSEN

Funeral for Henry C. Andresen 77-year-old Penngrove rancher who died Sunday in a Santa Rosa hospital, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Sorensen Funeral Home, Petaluma. Burial will be at Cypress Hill Memorial Park.

A life-long resident of 6180 Redwood Highway, Andresen operated a poultry and dairy ranch. He was a member of the Sonoma County Farm Bureau.

He is survived by his wife, Bessie I. Andresen; a son, Robert C. Andresen of Petaluma; a sister, Jennie L. Reese of Petaluma, and three grandchildren.

AILSA MELLON BRUCE

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Ailsa Mellon Bruce, reputedly the richest woman in the United States, died yesterday in Roosevelt Hospital after a brief illness.

She was about 65 years old.

Mrs. Bruce's worth was placed at more than $500 million last year by Fortune magazine. She had devoted herself to charitable and philanthropic interests in recent years, working from her 121-acre estate at Syosset on Long Island.

Her father, Andrew W. Mellon, served as secretary of the treasury from 1921 to 1932 and was once United States Ambassador to London.

Mrs. Bruce married David K.E. Bruce in 1926. They were divorced in 1945, with Mrs. Bruce getting sole custody of their 11-year-old daughter. Bruce was named Ambassador to London in 1961.

ARTHUR GIFFORD

Private funeral for Arthur S. Gifford, 85, of San Rafael was held today at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

Gifford, a self-employed hardware manufacturers representative for about 45 years, died Sunday in a local hospital after a short illness.

Born in Asuchnet, Mass., he had lived in California 70 years and in Marin County for 25 years, last residing with his daughter, Elizabeth Nathan at 60 Locksly Lane.

He retired about 14 years ago.

Gifford is survived by another daughter, Cathryn Payton of Los Angeles as well as four grandchildren.

Inurnment will be private.

CHARLES W. GOODWIN JR.

Charles W. Goodwin Jr. of Hillsborough, father of Polly Seastrom of San Anselmo, died yesterday at a Burlingame hospital following a two-month illness.

Goodwin, 74, district manager with General Electric Supply Co., San Francisco, for 48 years, was born in San Francisco and had lived in Hillsborough for 12 years.

On retirement from the electric company, he became a registered representative with Paine, Webber, Jackson and Curtis, San Francisco stock brokers, and worker there until his illness.

Goodwin was a member of the California Golf Club, San Francisco Rotary Club and the Bohemian Club of San Francisco.

He is survived by his wife, Polly Goodwin; his daughter, Polly; four brothers, Lloyd, William and Percy, all of San Francisco, and Dr. Arthur Goodwin of Stockton; two sisters, Marion Marshall of Los Angeles and Laura Goodman of Berkeley. He is also survived by three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Colonial Mortuary of Crosby-N. Gray and Co., Burlingame. Inurnment is private.

HELMER GROTH

The age of Helmer Joseph Groth of 74 Mohawk Avenue, Corte Madera, who died Saturday, was 58, not 56 as reported yesterday in his obituary notice.

His family asked that contributions be made to the Marin Lutheran Church, Corte Madera, or a favorite charity. Funeral will be tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. at Marin Lutheran Church.

A native of Utah, King served in the Air Force for 26 years, retiring in 1966.

He was stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base for about three years prior to the Korean War and he and his wife, Ann Hing, whom he married in the base chapel, lived in Greenbrae.

During the Korean war he won the Distinguished Flying Cross and two air medals.

He had lived in Santa Clara County for the past two years and was a logistics analyst.

Survivors are his wife; his father, Orton L. King of Sacramento; three sisters, Arline Sommers and Joyce Ryan of Sacramento and Margie Shaum of Utah, and three brothers, Max T. King, Orton Lyle King and Ronald L. King, all of Sacramento.

GEORGE MIDDLETON

George E. Middleton, a longtime resident of San Rafael, died yesterday ina San Rafael hospital after a lengthy illness. He was in his early 80s.

Born in San Francisco, Middleton moved to San Rafael in his youth, residing at 1320 Grand Avenue in the latter part of his life. He was connected at one time with an early motion picture studio in the Sun Valley section of San Rafael.

Middleton was president of the Ocean Shore Railroad Co., San Francisco, at the time of his death. The railroad once ran trains along the coast as far south as Santa Cruz but in rencent years the firm had managed the former railroad right-of-way.

He is survived by his wife, Ruby Marie Gasberg Middleton.

Funeral will be Thursday at 1 p.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Entombment will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

ELLA TICHENOR

Ella May Tichenor, 83, of Petaluma, died yesterday at a local hospital after a long illness.

Born in Toronto, Canada, she moved to Petaluma 80 years ago and lived there for several years before moving to Oakland. Mrs. Michenor returned to Petaluma eight months ago to make her home with a sister, Gertrude Larsen at 9½ Sixth Street. Mrs. Michenor was a member of the Lutheran Church for the Deaf, Oakland.

She is also survived by a brother, Harry J. Anderton of Petaluma, and another sister, Mrs. Ed Frese of Petaluma.

Funeral will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Parent Funeral Chapel, Petaluma. Private burial will be at Cypress Hill Memorial Park.

Innocent Plea To Gun Possession

Neil Gordon Jamison, 31, of San Rafael pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to a charge of illegal possession of a submachine gun.

A preliminary hearing was set for Oct. 3.

Police said they also found two loaded clips for the gun, eight boxes of ammuniiton and other weapons when they arrested him at his home last Wednesday.

Homeowner Sends A Burglar Fleeing

The sudden appearance of a homeowner and a shotgun sent a burglar hurrying into the night, San Rafael police reported today.

Officers said that Glenn E. Muttersbach, of 123 Lochinvar Road, heard someone trying to force open his back door and went to investigate, shotgun in hand. The burglar spotted Muttersbach's approach and ran away, taking with him a pane of glass he had removed from the door he was forcing open, officers said.

Why Do You Have A Poor Memory?

A noted publisher in Chicago reports there is a simple technique for acquiring a powerful memory which can pay you real dividends in both business and social advancement and works like magic to give you added poise, necessary self-confidence and greater popularity.

According to this publisher, many people do not realize how much they could influence others simply by remembering accurately everything they see, hear, or read. Whether in business, at social functions or even in casual conversations with new acquaintances, there are ways in which you can dominate each situation by your ability to remember.

To acquaint the readers of this paper with the easy-to-follow rules for developing skill in remembering anything you choose to remember, the publishers have printed full details of their self-training method in a new booklet, "Adventures in Memory," which will be mailed free to anyone who requests it. No obligation. Simply enclose a dime to cover postage and handling. Send your name, address, and zip code to: Memory Studies, 835 Diversey, Dept. 310-618, Chicago, Ill. 60614.

Sausalito Absorbs School Breakfasts

The Sausalito School District board, after being told the Black Panthers would resume their breakfast program for schoolchildren if the district did not, last night agreed to spend about $8,500 in district funds to take over the program. (Another Sausalito School District story, page 1.)

The action came after a lengthy discussion during which Marin City Black Panther Melvin Randolph accused the board of vacillating, saying, "We're going to keep feeding these kids breakfast no matter what."

He was supported by several black and white members of the large audience, including Sausalito resident Michael Harris who told the board, "I don't think we should fight on whether kids in this district will be fed. . . . Let's fight about the things we're really mad about rather than whether to feed hungry children."

The board unanimously accepted a report from its "breakfast committee" which recommended the district match state funds available for the breakfasts, which were originated without district financial support last year by the Panthers.

The recommendations included hiring a coordinator for the program and trustee Martha Freebairn-Smith, head of the committee, said interviews for the position would be started immediately.

The motion to have the district take over the program was made by trustee David E. Freedheim who agreed with board member James E. Muldoon that the breakfast program should be reviewed at the end of the semester.

Much of the discussion of the breakfasts centered on whether the district should support a breakfast program, an expanded lunch program or both. Mrs. Freebairn-Smith and others contended the district already has an operating bag lunch program and the major need was for breakfasts.

A survey she presented showed that at least 50 youngsters would take advantage of the program.

A suggestion from one member of the committee that those children who could afford it might pay a nominal fee of 10 cents for the breakfasts was jeered down by the audience.

Arabs Fire Rockets Into Jerusalem

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Arab terrorists today launched their first rocket attack against Jerusalem since the 1967 Middle East War, firing three Soviet-made missiles that narrowly nissed a crowded hotel and a hospital. There were no casualties or damage.

Israeli authorities said two of the rockets exploded on a pile of gravel outside the 400-bed Judea Gardens Hotel, jammed with both tourists and Israelis. The third missile slammed into a field near the St. Simon Hospital for the Crippled.

AFTER MOSQUE FIRE

It came five days after fire partially gutted the El Aqsa Mosque, third most holy place in Islam, in Israeli-occupied Jerusalem. Arab nation foreign ministers, vowing vengeance for the blaze, were meeting in Cairo.

Israeli officials in Jerusalem said they had been unable to find the suspected rocket launching sites. The targets were about two miles from the center of the city and three miles from the El Aqsa Mosque.

Three Soviet-built rockets also slammed today into Beisan, a city of 12,500, four miles west of the Jordan River in the Beisan Valley, a military spokesman said. The rockets exploded in open areas and there were no casualties.

Arabs fired the rockets from positions across the Jordan River from launchers with a new type time device, military experts said.

TO BRING PRESSURE

Highly placed Israeli political sources at the same time said Israel will bring worldwide pressure to bear on the Arab states to arrange a "modern day Jewish exodus" from them.

They said Israel would respond to Iraq's execution Monday of two Jews among 15 convicted spies by employing political rather than military tactics.

"We are trying to bring world pressure to bear on Arab nations—mainly Iraq, Syria and Egypt—to allow a modern day Jewish exodus," one of the sources said.

In their view, Middle East tensions whipped by the burning of the El Aqsa Mosque and the almost daily guerrilla attacks and air raids are now at flashpoint.

The Israeli government said it would convene an emergency session of the Knesset (parliament) Thursday to discuss the plight of Iraq Jews. A government communique said Jews in Arab countries "are being oppressed and humiliated and held as hostages."

Israel's investigation into the El Aqsa Mosque fire appeared about to be postponed pending completion of preparations for the trial of Michael Dennis William Rohan, the Australian accused of having started the blaze.

Israeli Attorney General Meir Shamgar said he would probably file formal charges against Rohan by the end of the week and asked the five-man investigation panel, created by the government, to postpone its investigation until Aug. 31.

Oil Slick Polluting French Beach Strip

ERGUY, France (UPI) — A stinking oilslick polluting the Brittany coast sloshed ashore today, killing hopes that it could be dissipated with chemicals before piling up on more than two miles of beaches.

Two coastal minesweepers, the Betelgeuse and the Capricorne, were speeding here from Le Havre and Marseille with fresh stocks of Corexite, a chemical designed to break up and sink the oil, when an official announced that "there is no more oil floating offshore."

The cargo was to have supplemented the Corexite flown in earlier today. Chemicals from French Naval vessels during the last two days dispersed two thirds of the oil, but thousands of gallons still smeared the beaches.

Gendarmes, volunteers and more than 200 soldiers worked with detergents and shovels, trying to clear the oil. Some 300 more soldiers were to arrive later.

Previously, sawdust had been used to try and soak it up. Some local people felt its use was no more than a psychological gesture, and booed when they saw it being used.

The oil normally would have been swept out to sea by prevailing currents, but freak winds allowed it to come in on the morning tide.

The oil was believed to have come from the French tanker Gironde which collided with the Israeli freighter Harbashan in the English Channel last Tuesday.

Approval To 'Pyramid' Skyscraper

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The board of supervisors gave final approval for construction of an 853-foot, 55-story pyramid-shaped office building that one critic called a "pseudo-architectural stunt."

Speaking at the meeting that preceded the final approval Monday, architectural critic Allan Temko declared the $32 million structure "would even be wrong in Los Angeles...or in Las Vegas, where it belongs, or in Dallas, where buildings vie for attention."

"It certainly doesn't belong in San Francisco, which is sensitive and easily hurt," he contended.

Before supervisors was only the question of whether they would vacate 183 feet of Merchant Street, an alley, to make room for the building which is planned by Transamerica Corp.

Petaluma To Improve Street Lights

The Petaluma City Council last night reviewed a proposal by Pacific Gas and Electric Co. to update street lights.

James Parks, of the utility company, suggested that 350 incandescent lights be replaced with mercury vapor lights. He said the east side of Petaluma with many new homes has excellent lights, but that the older sections of the city on the west side needed to be reviewed.

Parks said that poles will be replaced or relocated on five streets at no charge to the city, but said the replacement of all old lights would cost $2,513 per year.

LIGHT PORTION

City Engineer David A. Young reported that the street lighting budget now takes 10 per cent of the city property tax revenue.

Questioning the proportion, Young said he didn't know how much more the city should logically spend on the lighting program.

Streets suggested for new lights included Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, Eleventh, F, I, Bassett, Dana, Webster, Western Avenue, Bodega Avenue, Keokuk Street, McNear Avenue and West El Rose Drive.

Parks also suggested the city consider lighting Sunnyslope and Western avenues in the county section that borders the city.

The council said it would consider the program at its 7:30 p.m. meeting Monday.

The council also heard a report from Gordon W. Miller of the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District on plans to collect fees for checking building plans.

REVIEW COST

Milller said that, should the city sign an agreement with the county, the water district would review building plans for $12 a subdivision lot, $12 per mobile home pad and $50 per acre on commercial and industrial development.

The chief engineer said that fees would merely cover the costs of plans checking for flood dangers which had been provided at no cost in the past.

City Engineer young said the fees would come out of the $75 per lot checking fee charged by the city and would not cost developers more money.

Suspect Freed In Petaluma Beating Death

Petaluma Police Chief Larry D. Higgins today reported that a suspect held for questioning in connection with the beating death of Robert P. Buhrer last week has been released pending further investigation.

Jimmy Sims, 18, of 332 Edith Street, Petaluma, was released in Southern Sonoma Municipal Court yesterday when no complaint was filed. He was ordered to appear again Sept. 8 at 1 p.m. for possible arraignment.

Sims had been held as a suspect in the death of Buhrer who died Saturday in a Santa Rosa hospital. Police originally believed that Buhrer may have died from injuries sustained in a fight with Sims Thursday night.

Higgins said the case may go to the grand jury.

Sonoma County Coroner Andrew Johansen reported the cause of death as shock due to loss of blood from a peptic ulcer and peritonitis caused by a ruptured bladder.

Sausalito School Tax Rises To $3.355

Sausalito School District's 1969-70 total tax rate will be $3.355 per $100 assessed valuation Asst. Supt. Joseph Amato told the district board last night.

The tax rate, based on figures from county Auditor Michael Mitchell, is up from $3.04 last year and is six cents higher than Amato had estimated it would be last month.

Amato told the board the difference in his figures and the county's were due to changes in law, the addition of some county wide taxes to the total and the fact that the county only figured 93 per cent of secured valuation while he figured 97 per cent.

The district's final 1969-70 budget was $1,469,959, down from $1,625,830 last fiscal year. The reason the tax rate went up despite the lower budget, Amato said, was due to funds for the San Francisco State College-sponsored Step Program and a state grant in the 1968-69 budget.

The Sausalito School District Board Also:

READING — Heard a lengthy discussion on a new reading program to be initiated at Central School to raise reading levels. A program for other schools in the district will be described at the next meeting.

MULTI-ETHNIC — Heard Mrs. Raye Richardson outline the district's multi-ethnic program for the coming school year which will feature studies of the "Americanization" of persons of various ehnic backgrounds.

PUBLIC — Adopted a policy covering public participation in board meetings, setting ground-rules for debate and comments.

EMPLOYMENT — Approved the hiring of Constance White as a Spanish teacher at $11,219, and Mataeus Freitas as a custodian at $544 a month.

CLOSED SESSION — Held a closed session to hear an appeal of the board's rejection of an interdistrict attendance request for the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Benhken who asked for permission to transfer their children to Mill Valley from Martin Luther King. The board upheld the rejection, pending a pychologist's recommendation on the child. Benhken told the board his daughter was having difficulty adjusting to King.

Plastics Plant Planned For Petaluma

Construction will start Sept. 15 on a plastics processing plant in Petaluma, Chamber of Commerce and city officials announced yesterday.

The business, operated by Lewis R. Schilling, will manufacture plastic containers and employ 50 persons on three shifts. The plant, on five acres, will be located on Lakeville Highway adjacent to the Highway 101 interchange and will be owned by Crocker-McDevitt Enterprises who will lease to Schilling.

The building will include 51,000 square feet of air conditioned manufacturing areas along with business offices and a warehouse. There will be a rail spur supplying the rear of the building and recessed truck docks serving the Lakeville Highway side.

The building is expected to be completed by January for more than $1 million. Plans call for doubling the size of the building in two years.

Petaluma Crowd Reacts Noisily To Park Ticket

A crowd of 20 unruly persons taunted Petaluma police last night as an officer attempted to give a citation for double parking.

Morris said youngsters and adults poured from nearby houses when Miss Bonnikson began loudly berating the officer. He said the crowd included many persons who had been drinking with some coming to the scene with beer cans in hand.

The neighbors said police should be out catching criminals rather than upsetting women drivers and began circulating a petition to arrest the officer for double parking his partol car during the arrest.

Four officers with shotguns were called in and dispersed the crowd within 15 minutes.

Rohnert Park Sets Plans For Founders Day

The Rohnert Park Recreation Commission last night approved plans for the recreation department's program for the Founder's Day celebration scheduled for Sept. 12, 13 and 14.

Chairman Ronald E. Rasmussen said there will be free swimming at both pools on Sept. 14 with a special program to be presented at Benecia Park pool by the synchronized swimming class.

Thomas West, recreation director, said he had plans for children's games and athletic events at Alicia Park on Sept. 14.

A commission committee studying new rules and regulations for the city pools set a special meeting at 7:30 p.m. today to review conduct rules with swim team members.

Woodacre Brunch

The annual back-to-school gin fizz brunch of the Woodacre Improvement Club will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sept. 14 at the clubhouse. The breakfast, including ham, eggs and pancakes at various prices, is open to the public.

Fairfax Meeting Confusion

Fairfax Congress for Community Progress organizers, eagerly awaiting return of questionnaires on which the October town meeting will be based, learned yesterday they may be waiting in vain.

Many residents, including two members of the city council, have not received the questionnaires which were supposedly mailed to every home in town last week.

Joseph Walla, chairman of the congress, said special checks had been made to insure every councilman would receive a questionnaire.

The post office told him last week all of the questionnaires had gone out by Wednesday, he said.

Some of them did and in the first three days almost 200 were returned, he reported. The deadline for returning questionnaires is next Sunday and persons who have not received one should write Post Office Box 1, Fairfax, Walla said.

Larkspur Is Denied Boat Dock Grant

I-J Special Report

SANTA BARBARA — The state Harbors and Watercraft Commission yesterday rejected a bid by the City of Larkspur for a $170,000 grant to construct boating facilities on Corte Madera Creek.

C. A. Curtis, head of the commission's development staff, said the commission turned down the request because Larkspur's proposal included charging a parking fee at the site.

The grant was to have covered the entire cost of developing boating facilities which are planned for the state highway right-of-way on the Corte Madera Creek below the Greenbrae interchange on Highway 101.

Planned are a two-lane launching ramp, loading floats, toilets and parking for 54 vehicles.

Curtis said the commission has a standing policy against granting money for facilities for which there will be a charge to the users. He said Larkspur city officials had indicated they wanted to charge for parking and use the money for maintenance of the facility.

The grants made by the commission are with Department of Motor Vehicle registration money, Curtis said.

Ex-Insurance Executive Arraigned In Stock Fraud

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— The former president of an East Coast insurance company, discovered sailing to Vietnam with the seaman's papers of a dead man, was arraigned yesterday in connection with a $400,000 stock fraud.

Wallace Ralston, 44, North Abington, Mass., was arraigned on a Norfolk County, Mass., fugitive warrant at the Northern District Municipal Court of San Mateo County in South San Francisco.

In Massachusetts, Dist. Atty. George G. Burke said the case against Ralston, once president of the Life Insurance Co. of of Carolina, involves " the theft of securities put up as collateral for loans at several banks." Burke declined to give details.

Grove Cole, who now heads the Carolina firm headquartered in High Point, N.C. said, "as far as Life of Carolina is concerned, we do not know that he (Ralston) is charged with anything. All of our stock is cared for."

Ralston was turned over the police at San Francisco International Airport when he stepped off a flight from Saigon in the custody of U.S. Coast Guard officer.

Police said the former insurance company executive sailed July 30 from New York aboard the SS Beatrice Victory, a maritime administration cargo ship en route to Vietnam. He signed aboard as first mate with the papers of Capt. Ivan Beale, who the Coast Guard said is deceased.

The Maritime Administration discovered the fraud and notified the captain of the vessel who place Ralston in custody aboard ship, until it docked in Saigon Aug. 18.

Burke said Ralston had waived extradition. The district attorney said Massachusetts state police Lt. John Raegan was en route to San Francisco to return the suspect for a probable cause hearing in Quincy, probably next Monday.

Indian Malnutrition

NEW DELHI (UPI) — About 50 per cent of the children in India suffer from some form of malnutrition, according to the Indian Health Minister.

Windows Broken

Five windows, valued at $150, were broken in the administration building at San Marin High School in Novato, between 5 p.m. Friday and 8 a.m. Saturday, Vice Principal Harry J. Moore, reported yesterday to Novato police.

Chateaubriand—Champignon

An eating experience that will be long remembered by your guests! Broil or barbecue to perfection! Have fat slashed on a medium size Chateaubriand. Cook at high temperature 4 inches from heat source. Brown well on first side before turning. Total cooking time approximately 35 minutes for medium. While Chateaubriand is cooking make this sauce: 4 Tblsp. butter, 1 medium onion, minced, ½ lb. fresh mushrooms, sliced, ¾ tsp. salt, 2 tblsp. flour, 2 cups condensed consommé, 1 tblsp. fresh lemon juice, ½ cup Madeira Wine. Melt butter in skillet, saute mushrooms and onion until golden brown. Shake and stir frequently. Sprinkle with salt and flour, add consomme and lemon juice, bring to a boil. Add Madeira Wine and simmer 5 to 6 minutes longer. Serve Chateaubriand sliced diagonally in ¼" slices on a preheated platter. Pour sauce over and serve. 4-6 servings.

College Board Cannot Hide From Responsibility

Let's talk about responsibility.

A YEAR OR SO ago, some students at the college — both regular and part-time students — were given permission to set up a student-run "experimental college." The idea was that this would permit some free discussion of topics which might be relevant to the students but could not be included in the regular curriculum.

When the board of trustees approved creation of the "experimental college," it promised the students would be given free rein to introduce whatever kind of courses they saw fit. However, the board did not and could not simply wash its hands of the experiment. Since it was set up by the college, the "experimental college" was — and remains — a part of the college.

THIS SUMMER, the "experimental college" offered a course in revolution, with a young man named Dennis Marnell, who calls himself an anarchist, as course leader. The Marin unit of the United Republicans of California and the Marin Property Owners Association, along with some others, became disturbed at reports the class was teaching tactics of armed revolution aimed at overthrow of the government. Marnell has denied that it does this.

The two organizations (and at least one other) petitioned the college board to refuse to allow the class to continue in a college classroom. They took the position that a tax-supported institution should not allow its facilities to be used for advocacy of overthrow of the system that supports it.

LAST THURSDAY night, the board decided the revolution course could continue. But in doing so, it executed a not-too-neat double dodge.

Louis H. Herkenhoff, acting president of the college, said that discontinuing the revolution course would be "backing away from our responsibility" of providing an open forum of ideas.

Trustee Theodore C. Wellman said the board must guard against doing anything "that would tend to repress or infringe upon expression of ideas in a college atmosphere."

BUT THEN THE BOARD chose to hide behind the so-called Civic Center Act.

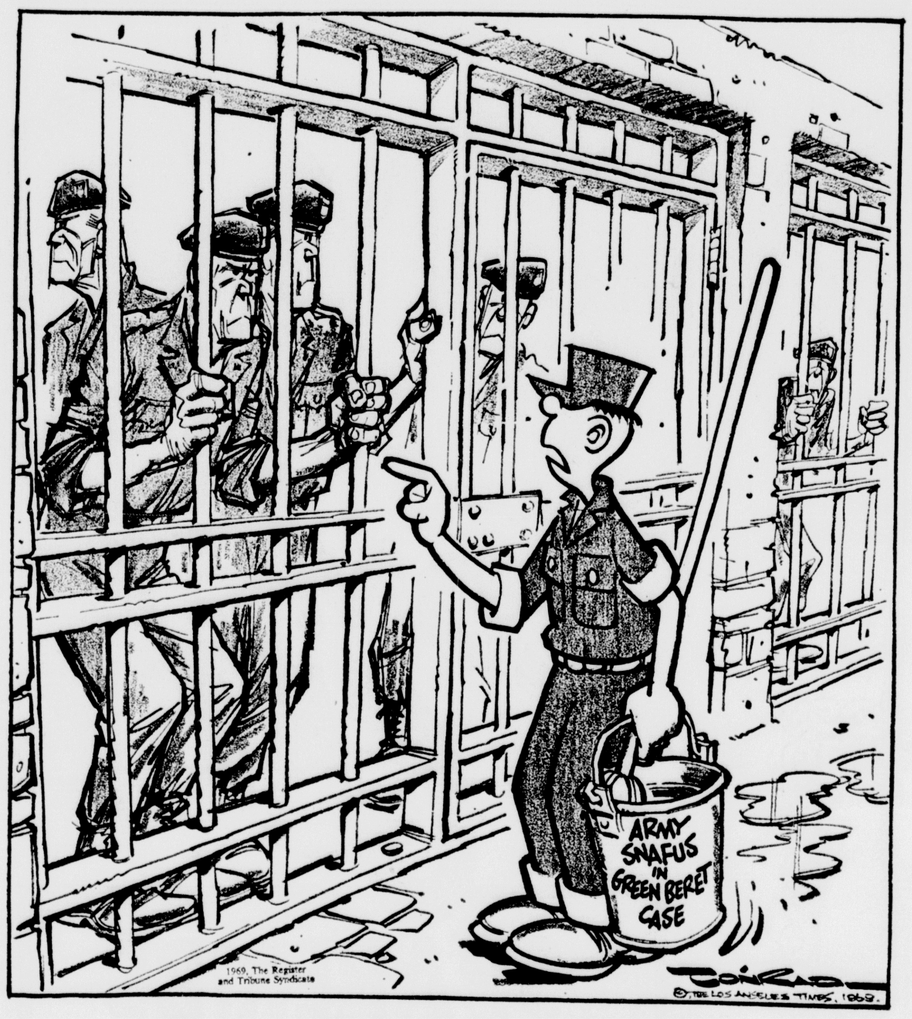
This is a section of the education code that provides that school facilities must be made available for non-school public uses. To help defray the added cost, a school district is permitted to levy a special override tax without asking the voters. Marin Junior College District levies a 5-cent tax for this purpose.

The Civic Center Act has not prevented the college board from refusing bona fide organizations the use of college facilities at some times in the past. Turndowns of a responsibly sponsored circus and a dog show come to mind, among others.

The Civic Center Act does not have anything to do with use of school facilities by an organization within the school itself. The experimental college is such an organization.

THE COLLEGE BOARD cannot abdicate its responsibility for the college it is elected to run — or for any part of that college.

We see no particular danger in the revolution class, which at its best is dull and at its worst rather juvenile. But if the college board wishes to permit the class, it should do so on its merits, and not try to hide behind a section of law that applies only to use of its facilities by outside organizations.



"You guys could give the Army a bad name!"

Use State Money To Restore Buses

We are quite upset by the San Rafael School Board's decision to discontinue the use of school buses for the Terra Linda High School students who live less than three miles from the school.

It is a long commute for these kids, especially in the rainy winter months, and for everyone to drive in car pools is unthinkable as this summer proved. You couldn't get your kids or car near the school and you couldn't park within blocks.

We understand there is money coming from the state, some 40 million more than the schools expected, due to record state surplus. I hope they will use this money to bring back the buses.

Mrs. NORMAN J. KEMP
San Rafael.

School Bus Cut 'Judgement Error'

The recently disclosed decision of the San Rafael School Board to discontinue school bus service to Terra Linda High School for students from the lower Lucas Valley-Marinwood area is, in my opinion, a grave error of judgement. Anyone at all familiar with the traffic situation around the school most certainly is aware of the next to impossible conditions that already exist during periods of inclement weather. If more parents are forced to drive their children to school the problem will really be compounded. Parking facilities are already overcrowded, not to mention the increased possibilities of accidents due to further congestion in the area. The construction work being carried on at Quail Hill will further add to the chaos and confusion.

I am aware of the critical financial conditions that exist but certainly the safety and welfare of our youth should be given priority over the relatively few dollars that will be saved by discontinuance of this much needed service . . .

EARL BOGARDUS
San Rafael

City Road Links Are Necessities

Indeed it was disconcerting to see the traffic bottleneck on Puerto Suello Hill as portrayed in the I-J. on Aug. 22. Anyone who drives this highway knows that this type of congestion is becoming more frequent and that actual "jams" do occur.

What crisis or disaster will make us realize that access roads between our cities are not a luxury but a necessity. Must we wait until there is a fire that fire trucks cannot reach; a murder, riot or other disturbance that police are prevented from arriving and performing their duty; an ambulance that arrives too late?

When will our county and community planning service adequately plan for more accessible roads?

Mass Transit Requires Special Fund Protection

(Reprinted from Milwaukee Journal)

President Richard Nixon's call for vastly increased federal support of mass transit in America's car clogged metropolitan areas is commnedable. Yet his strategy for achievement, as most mayors quickly assert seems fatally flawed.

Public transportation is starving for funds to modernize shabby old systems and introduce streamlined new ones. Meanwhile the federal government pours billions into urban freeways. It has helped sink mass transit into what Nixon rightly labels "the self-defeating cycle of fewer riders, higher fares, lower revenue, worse facilities, and still fewer riders."

TO SHATTER this cycle, the president proposes spending $10 billion on mass transit over the next 12 years — starting with about $300 million in fiscal 1970 and escalating to $1 billion hearly by 1975. The subsidies would be paid out of general revenues, with Washington assuming no more than two-thirds of the cost of any local project.

The $10 billion is fine, but it would be stretched over too long a time and lacks the generous, guaranteed funding features of the special trust fund that bankrolls highway construction. Transit planning is underway in virtually every big city. Some also are struggling to implement projects with the skimpy federal assistance already available. If a genuine breakthrough is to occur, these efforts must gain immediate access to a large, dependable pool of dollars.

FOR THIS reason, Transportation Secretary John Volpe advocated a mass transit fund, only to be overruled by the White House. For this reason, 101 members of congress are supporting a bill that would provide a $10 billion mass transit trust fund over the next four years, to be financed by diverting the 7 per cent auto excise tax revenue that now goes into the general treasury. the bill also would provide up to 90 per cent federal assistance, which is what highway builders enjoy.

There are reasons, of course, for opposing revenue earmarking. It can result in inflexibility, in separation of tax money from top priority needs. Yet unless mass transit spending is put on a par with highway funding, the enormous disparity in federal expenditures ($4.5 billion for highways this year, compared to $175 million for mass transit) will not be remedied. The protected highway fund will grow fatter, while mass transit falls victim to the session by session whims of congress.

GOLDEN GATE VIEW

There's A Way And He Has Will To Attack Transportation Mess

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

California's potent highway lobby faces a tougher fight than ever to hold onto its $800 million golden egg.

The lobby always has guarded the sacred egg — the state's annual take in highway taxes — and insisted it be tapped only to build more concrete temples in honor of the motor vehicle.

But rude noises are being made about the sanctity of the egg by the new leader of the state Senate, Howard Way, R-Exeter.

The Legislature, he suggested in a recent press conference, has been in the pocket of the highway lobby — and he expects to change this. Specifically, he is working for legislation to permit gasoline tax money to be used to finance rapid transit.

"I don't think the people of California realize just how serious things are," he said of the transportation mess.

WAY STRESSED he felt no allegiance to the highway lobby. He conceded he will meet "powerful opposition, but I've faced it before in an election." He said that trucking firms and suppliers of highway construction materials financed the unsuccessful 1968 campaign against him by a former state director of public works.

Way also said he hopes to "restructure" the Senate Transportation Committee so it will "look at the total picture. This approach of more and more highways, covering the state with concrete, will just not work for the '70s," Way declared.

It's easy to see why Senator Way is not beloved by lobbyists.

The governor, commenting on the prospect of getting his highly controversial tax reform package through the 1970 legislature, acknowledged he would "have the same cast of characters," but suggested, "I might put them on suspension; that's what they used to do to us in the studio when we wouldn't read the script."

Reagan predicted "many of their arguments will go away" when legislators studied his package carefully.

When a newsman asked if he included Bagley in his prediction, Reagan said "especially Bagley. I intend to sit down with him like a brother."

A big brother?

Bagley, as chairman of the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee, was responsible for trying to make sense out of the governor's tax package, but found it needed too much surgery to put in shape for passage during the 1969 session.

For every year an industry can defer spending $100,000 to install air pollution control equipment, it can usually keep $25,000 more in pocket before taxes, Benjamin Linsky, the first head of the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District, said in a recent visit to the Bay Area.

He noted the air is getting dirtier. Haven't you?

Once committed to making war unthinkable to an enemy, you set yourself upon a course of developing even more thorough, even more expensive weaponry until, as at present, you reach a stage in which terror is a natural element of the environment and buying the machinery for not waging war drives you toward bankruptcy. — Russell Baker.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

The catastrophic earthquake predicted for this season by some California fanatics failed to frighten 99 per cent of the populace. There was, however, a resultant flood of "humor" on the subject. One was to the effect that Howard Hughes was gobbling up all that Nevada real estate so that he'd end up with beachfront property. An alert realtor advertised, "Sell me your property quick, before the quake!" And bumper stickers appeared reading, "California deserves a fair shake."

It was so cold in the deep South last spring, grumbles Jerry Mitchell, that six enthusiasts went out to water-ski and came back for their ski poles.

U.S. In Perilous Position While Critics Have Field Day

WASHINGTON — The Nixon Administration is at last mounting a carefully concerted defense system against the ever-rising challenge of liberal new isolationists in the Senate to the constitutional and traditional powers of the presidency in foreign and military high policy.

Not a moment too soon the administration is bestirring itself to protect presidential rights and prerogatives which are now under an attack, from forces in both the Democratic and Republican parties, of a severity not seen since Franklin D. Roosevelt's prewar era. This state of affairs would be serious enough in any circumstances. It is profoundly and even desperately dangerous now, for it befalls while euphoria pervades a loud section of opinion among politicians and within public and press precisely at a time when this country's vital interests abroad are actually in rarely exceeded peril.

AS TO VIETNAM, the simple if unpopular truth is that the war is going badly and the peace negotiations in Paris have reached a point just short of the farcical. On and off the battlefield the Communists are reacting in increasingly hard-nosed arrogance and the President's policy of gradual troop withdrawal has become a visible embarrassment and may indeed have to be suspended or even reversed in the long run.

As to the Middle East, the Soviet Union, far from assisting in American efforts to dampen the chronic Israeli-Arab crisis, is in fact well along in a thrust of naked expansionism in Asia which already clearly threatens the anti-Communist position all over the basins of the Mediterranean and the Indian Ocean. That this is the way things are is widely recognized in both the Near and Far East, and it is in an astonishing paradox that the American public, along with the neo-pacifist senators, seems hardly to have heard of it at all.

Yet it is a fact of life so ominous that it is discussed here with an ironic concurrence of view for once between spokesmen for Israel on the one side and the more moderate of the Arab nations on the other. These two sets of ancient antagonists recognize that immense changes in the power balance in Asia are looming into plain sight — and also that whatever their own intramural enmities, Israel and the non-Communist Arab states have a world in common here to try to defend from Soviet encroachment.

A FORM of so-called "criticism" of the Pentagon and the military that has long since become outright vilification from the Senate new left has struck the most-wounding blow to military morale of this century. Morale in all the intelligence agencies has concurrently been deeply shaken by the Green Beret affair, which is seen by some men who have ably served this country to suggest that soldiers doing their plain duty in "black" intelligence work can be indicted as murderers in order to please pacifist opinion here at home.

To combat all this, the administration is evolving a mosaic of rebuttal, tactful on the outside but fully resolute on the inside, whose seemingly unrelated pieces all bear one purpose in the end. The visible centerpiece is the firm public refusal of Secretary of State William Rogers, speaking on the president's authority, to promise Senate critics that the White House will in any and every circumstance seek the prior consent of Congress for military measures necessary to the safety of the United States or to its honorable commitments. Rogers has promised all sorts of "consultation" — but with a vitally important qualification. It will be given only in "appropriate" circumstances.

A PART of the mosaic, too, is the President's deliberately spotlighted efforts to draw closer to the man who was his democratic predecessor, Lyndon B. Johnson. Mr. Nixon's invitation to the Johnsons to visit the California White House on Aug. 27 — Mr. Johnson's birthday — is far more than a small comradely gesture. President Nixon, it may be stated authoritatively, intends to have a most-basic discussion of world issues with Mr. Johnson, with White House Assistant Henry Kissinger providing briefings in depth.

This is intended to read a lesson to the country that, while politics is politics and fun is fun, the transcendental problems before the nation are neither Republican nor Democratic and cannot be approached with small partisan and ideological motives without inadmissible peril to the whole body.

Nixon Borrowed From Past In 'New Federalism' Proposals

President Nixon took great pains to separate himself from the past in his Aug. 8 televised address on domestic problems. With rhetorical flourishes he consigned to the ash heap of history 30 years of efforts to cope with the problems of poverty and unemployment. The only connection he permitted between himself and preceding administrations was his reference to the "Spirit of Apollo 11."

In reality, the President borrowed much more than the "Spirit of Apollo 11" from his predecessors. His "New Federalism," a phrase carefully inserted at three points in his speech, is an extension of the "Creative Federalism" of President Johnson. Revenue sharing with the states and local governments is the product of two New Frontier-Great Society economists, Joseph Pechman and Walter Heller. The President's "workfare" proposals are derived in part from combined manpower training and family support programs initiated under the Johnson administration. In short, these and other proposals did not spring full-blown from the executive wing of the White House after Jan. 20, 1969.

THE PRESIDENT should not be faulted for building on the programs and proposals of his predecessors. He should be commended for suggesting alternative ways of tackling the age-old question of poverty. We must not forget, however, that there is a continuity between what he has proposed and the groundwork laid and the changes made by past administrations.

There is a real need to end the extreme variations in family assistance from state to state, but there are serious questions as to whether President Nixon's proposals will actually eliminate those differences. There is a need for more adequate job training programs tied in with job placement and family assistance, but much more needs to be known about the Nixon job placement proposals, which have not suggested community development.

THERE ARE GRAVE doubts about the adequacy of the proposed federal level of family assistance, which President Nixon pegged at $1,600 per year — one-half the income level described as poverty for a family of four. The work incentive has considerable appeal, and offers much more promise for ending poverty cycles in families, but the benefits outlined by the President do not build much hope for more than subsistence income for those who work.

The President estimated a cost of $4 billion for the first year of his program. A number of experts say that figure is much too low. The issue is not so much the actual cost of the Nixon proposals as it is the commitment the President is willing to make to implement these and other proposals the Congress is considering for the improvement of our society.

Water Sampling Might Show What Pollutes Novato Creek

The Novato Sanitary District has come under an order from the Bay Regional Water Quality control board to stop polluting Novato Creek and thereby the waters of upper San Pablo Bay.

The district has worked out an acceptable timetable for the improvement of its facilities to meet with the water quality control board's order.

The original order in March was put out at a very political time. It came just when there was a merger election between the North Marin County Water District and the sanitary district. Since the failure of the voters to approve this merger, the question has become very quiet.

NOW THAT the heat of summer is on us and Novato Creek is drying up, we wonder what the Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board would find if it took samples of water from the creek at various places.

We suggest that it take samples of the water below where the treatment plant discharges into the creek; upstream about Novato Fair shopping center, where the smell of stagnant water pollutes the air; farther upstream beside Pioneer Memorial Park, where children will be playing next summer when the park is finished, below Stafford Dam, and maybe in the upper part of Stafford Lake where the drainage of dairy corrals empties into the lake.

It might prove interesting on the bacteria count at this time of year. The board might possibly find that the treatment plant is not the only source of impure water in Novato Creek.

Novato Creek and its tributaries in Novato will be the subject of a citizens' meeting Thursday at the Novato Community House. Residents of the area want to see what they can do to preserve the creek from its navigable end to the tree-lined banks which wind through the city.

THE SAME as other cities in Marin County, the Novato City Council passed the uniform dog control ordinance requested by the county. For nearly a year the city had its own ordinance with its own animal control officer, who issued many citations for dogs running at large.

Under the new law, which repeals Novato's strict law, the dogs, or their owners, realize that they are safer when roaming at large. More and more dogs are seen running around without any control. In less than an hour last week, five dogs were seen running up Grant Avenue in front of the Independent-Journal office. Just last Wednesday a big police dog was seen barking and snapping at the heels of two boys riding their bikes on Grant Avenue at Fourth Street.

The Novato City Council will probably take a long, hard look at going back to its former ordinance, unless these conditions are changed.

RESIDENTS of Shoreline Unified School District dedicated their new Tomales High School last Sunday. One would expect the usually conservative residents of a rural area to erect a staid, conventional high school.

Instead, the new school offers many innovations. These will be used in a new method of teaching whereby students set their own pace of learning with individualized instruction.

In the past, Tomales High School's students have taken many state and national honors. We will be eager to see how the new school keeps up with this record.

No Wonder Weather's Lousy —We Unbalanced The Moon

CAPE COD — Weatherwise, this has been a disastrous summer for large parts of the world. Everyone has his own theory as to the cause of it, but no one has been able to scientifically pinpoint what's happened until now.

Prof. Heinrich Applebaum, who is stationed at the Endless Summer Observatory, at Endless Summer, Mass., revealed that he had discovered the reason the weather had gone awry this year was because of the moon landings.

"THEY SHOULD NOT," said Professor Applebaum, "have taken the rocks off the moon."

"Why not?" I asked him.

"Because," said the professor, "it's made the moon unbalanced."

"You mean taking a few rocks off the moon could change its balance?"

"Eactly. The moon was in perfect conjunction to the earth. Each rock was placed just so, and even disturbing one could have a magnetic effect, causing just enough tilt to the moon to bring all the bad weather."

"IT'S HARD to believe," I said.

"Don't believe me. Here are my mathematical calculations. Every rock removed from the moon is responsible for one lousy day of weather on earth."

I studied the figures he showed me. "My gosh," I said, "these figures prove you're right."

"Of course, I'm right," said Applebaum, erasing his blackboard. "But what worries me is not only the rocks that the astronauts took off the moon, but the garbage they left up there in its place.

"Look, there's the laser machine, the bottom half of the lunar module, a television camera and heaven knows what else the astronauts threw out of their ship.

"With all this stuff lying in the sea of Tranquility, the weight of the moon has completely tilted causing unseasonal tide swells and variable shifts in the magnetic forces that control the solar system. I have named this the Earth-Moon Garbage Effect."

"You're too modest professor," I said. "It should be the Applebaum Earth-Moon Garbage Effect."

"That's up to the Academy of Sciences, the professor said.

"But did you know this before the astronauts went up?" I asked.

"I suspected it, but I was counting on the Russians landing on another part of the moon to balance the part we landed on. They kept saying they were going to do it. Presuming they would have removed as many rocks and left as muchc junk on their part of the moon as we did; the tilt would have evened out."

"THEN YOU WOULD say the Soviets are really responsible for the bad weather because they failed to land on the moon at the same time we did?"

"Right. I believe the Soviets have a lot of explaining to do."

"But what can we do to bring the moon back to its original center of gravity?"

"The crew of Apollo 12 have to take the moon rocks back and put them in the exact places Armstrong and Aldrin took them from. Then they have to clean up the mess left by Apollo 11 and bring all the garbage back to earth."

"BUT PROFESSOR, if the crew of Apollo 12 do all that, they won't have any time for their own experiments."

"Tough," said Applebaum. "Do you want to have scientific moon achievements or a rotten winter?"

Marin Cancer Group To Hold Meeting

The annual meeting of the Marin County Branch of the American Cancer Society will be held Sept. 11 at the Meadow Club, Fairfax.

Mrs. Robert L. Brown, a member of the board of the California division of the cancer society, will be the chief speaker and a new board of directors will be elected. Reservations may be made at the cancer society office, San Rafael.

Science Museum Fall Program Is Announced

The courses require museum membership and reservations, which will be accepted beginning next Monday. The program will begin Sept. 5 with classes held at various times through December.

Classes are fall nursery nature; art in nature; Terwilliger trips (nature walks with Elizabeth Terwilliger); bug hunt; advanced bug hunt; beginning archaeology; beginning ichthyology; marine ecology; puddle life; animal genetics; what's in a pond?

Introduction to Marin zoology; reptile management, astronomy, Indians of Northern California; microcritters of Marin, sailing, holiday decorations and beginning photography.

Fuel Line Contract

An $11,700 contract was awarded to W. K. McLellan Co. of San Anselmo to repair the underground fuel lines at the Hamilton Air Force Base service station by the base procurement office.

Work Furlough Inmate Sentenced

A 25-year-old San Quentin Prison inmate, who skipped from the prison's work furlough program nine weeks before he was due for parole, admitted the felony offense yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson sentenced William J. Arrowsmith to a sentence to run concurrently with the one he is now serving for a burglary conviction from Ventura County.

Arrowsmith was one of the first inmates to be assigned to the work furlough program and was working at a service station in San Rafael, when he failed to return to prison.

For Marin, the world's fastest reporting

We tied up the globe in the I-J's new electronic tape to show there's something new in the world of news reporting in your daily I-J.

For that tape "speaks" a new electronic language which we take directly from the Associated Press sports wire, rather than news in the form of teletyped copy.

We feed this tape into a battery of new Elektron linotypes which "read" the little perforations and change impulses into words, set in metal. All at speeds Buck Rogers never dreamed of.

Result: MORE NEWS in less time and LATER NEWS . . . giving you a sports section with more depth and complete world coverage.

These electronic speed demons also enable us to bring you the closing prices of our New York Stock List TODAY, instead of tomorrow. And to print the entire weekly range of ALL New York stocks in our Saturday edition.

Just another way of advancing the I-J to further your reading enjoyment.

CONGOLAND, U.S.A.

Marinite Turning A Dream Into A Playland Project

By ANNE BARDWELL

A young Mill Valley businessman who believes in following his hunches in nine short years has brainstormed his way from organizing college ski tours to the presidency of Congoland, U.S.A., a venture which promises to do for San Jose what Disneyland did for Anaheim.

Dale Crase, who at 33 already has been the president of three successful companies, believes his ideas have paid off because "I'm willing to gamble that an idea will work where others have an unusual idea but assume it's too risky to try."

A good example of this is Congoland, a multimillion dollar project which, when it opens in 1971 in the foothills east of San Jose, according to Crase, will present a spectacle of African animals in a natural environment unequaled outside the Congo itself.

It all started, Crase says, with a casual idea and offhand comment during a visit to a Florida farm where the lions were confined by natural means — no bars, cages or artifical pits common to most zoos and other animal showplaces.

"Wouldn't it be great if there were a park where you could see all the African animals, not just lions?" he asked a friend. Associates agreed it was a great idea but too complicated to risk and promptly dismissed the whole scheme, Crase says.

But the idea of an African park in California kept bugging him, he says, particularly after he had watched closely the popularity and financial successes of Disneyland, Marineland, Marine World and other such ventures.

Obtaining backing from private investors, Crase opened offices in San Francisco last year and started plans rolling for the $20 million project.

DALE CRASE
Congoland president

Then, Crase met Jean-Pierre Hallet, Belgian explorer, sociologist, naturalist and animal trainer, a man whom Crase believes has the glamour and mystique, as well as the knowledge of Africa, to make Congoland more than just another stop on the tourist route.

"He's going to be the Walt Disney of Congoland, the man with the image," Crase says. He views himself as a Roy Disney, the man who makes it all work, financially.

Crase's background has been all business, starting in his college days at the University of San Francisco when he organized ski tours to Squaw Valley, through his recent presidency of International Group Travel Consultants which organized tours, group vacations and convention tours for large corporations.

Hallet, according to Crase, has spent the past few years campaigning for an African park outside of Africa to preserve the animals from extinction. When he met Crase he was looking for financial backing and Crase was seeking the image and so the two joined forces.

Crase says the park is "more than a money making venture; it's a conservation effort of the highest priority." More than 90 per cent of the Congo's wildlife has been killed off in the past 30 years, he says.

The park will be built on 1,500 acres in the foothills east of San Jose and will be surrounded by another 500 acre buffer zone to protect the animals from people and the park from the worst aspects of tourism.

The buffer zone will keep out the "revolving 50 foot neon signs, junky motels and restaurants," Crase says. Anything built within the perimiter of the park must undergo design review by Congoland, he noted.

The park itself will be divided into four African areas: a savannah, forest-jungle, crater and rolling hills where animals will roam, restricted only by environmental and natural means.

A safari trail, minibuses, tree houses and private cars will bring visitors to the animals and in some areas the animals will come to the visitors.

Crase's corporation will control the park, the buffer zone and most of the businesses Congoland will attract. In addition, he hopes to build a subdivision near the park overlooking the animal compound.

"Dan you imagine sitting on your patio after a hard day watching wild African animals," Crase says. "It's bound to be successful, don't you think?"

Youth Wins Bail Right In Slaying

A Marin Superior Court judge yesterday reluctantly refused to dismiss a grand jury indictment of Ronald Rivas, 20, charged with murdering his father July 17 at their Novato home.

He did, however, consent to release the youth from jail on $5,000 bail.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson indicated that he agreed with Rivas's attorney, Robert D. Carrow, that the practice of having the grand jury indict persons already arraigned in Municipal Court is not desirable.

However, he said that under the law, the practice seemed to be legal.

GRAND JURY MAKEUP

Judge Wilson also agreed with Carrow that the 1969 grand jury does not include any young persons and that in that sense, is not representative.

He added, however, that he knew from his own experience of appointing grand jury members that considerable effort has been made to name people under 30 to the group and that it "has been impossible to get them to serve."

Carrow had wanted the indictment dismissed so that he could confront witnesses in a preliminary hearing in municipal court, which would have taken place if the indictment had not automatically put the case into Superior Court.

Judge Wilson told Carrow to take his motions to the District Court of Appeals if he wanted further legal ruling on them.

PLIGHT OF RIVAS

He also took note of the plight of young Rivas who has remained in jail without bail, and after hearing testimony by the youths mother and a friend, set $5,000 bail.

"After reading the transcript of the Grand Jury proceedings, I think this is probably a voluntary mansalughter case, not murdern" the judge said, and "therefore is bailable."

Yesterday a San Rafael woman for whom Rivas had worked, Alma Zang, a sister of former San Quentin Warden Clinton T. Duffy, said that she would post the bail for the slight, dark-haired young man.

The case was continued until next Monday for further proceedings.

THIS GREEN HORNET ON THE OTHER SIDE

That young man running around southern Marin in a green-and-yellow cape is not the Green Hornet, or even Son of Green Hornet, sheriff's deputies promised. Rather, he's probably a thief.

Deputies at the Marin City sheriff's substation today reported that a $150 leather green cape with a yellow lining was stolen yesterday in a hold-up at the Marin City underpass.

The victim was identified as Daniel R. Howard of 6 Bridge Court, Fairfax, who was walking from the Marin City bus stop to the Sausalito Art Gallery where he works. He was not carrying a wallet, deputies said.

The robber, who used a simulated gun, deputies said, was reported as an 18 to 20-year-old youth.

Novato Sanitary Unit Sets 31.5-Cent Rate

The Novato Sanitary District Board last night set a tax rate of 31.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation, a half-cent lower than the predicted 32 cents for the current fiscal year, according to Engineer-Manager Charles A. Joseph.

In addition, the Novato portion of the district will pay 5.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation for bond redemption.

The operating tax rate is 3 cents more than the 28.5 cents last year, Joseph reported.

The board passed a $257,783 budget for the current fiscal year; $28,745 more than last year's budget.

The board also accepted plan on improvement of effluent discharge and advised the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board that improvements would be completed by Dec. 20.

John Jenks of Jenks and Adamson, consulting sanitary engineers, reported that the quality of the effluent could be improved by the installation of more chlorination at each of the city's two treatment plants at a cost of $6,000 for the Novato plant and $15,000 for the Ignacio plant.

The board ordered the purchase of two injector water pumps at $275 each to start injecting chlorine into the fluent, Joseph said.

The Novato Sanitary District Board Also:

RETIREMENT — Approved a resolution to quit Social Security and switch to the state retirement program for the district's 13 employees.

BEL MARIN KEYS — Asked the district's attorney, James T. Morton, to study whether the district should sue the former owners for the back taxes for that portion of Bel Marin Keys which was connected to the sanitary sewers without annexing to the district. This portion of the development has avoided taxes for three years. The same action was applied to two lots at the end of Bret Court owned by Walter K. O'Brien and John Reinstad.

MOBILE HOME PARK — Told developer Jack D. Kinney that if he constructed a treatment plant at Enchanted Valley Mobile Home Park on the Marin-Sonoma county line, that the district would not charge a connection fee. The district would also help him study the acquistion of sewer right of way.

Marinite Killed In Mendocino Wreck

I-J Special Report

UKIAH — A Corte Madera man and two members of a Chico family died yesterday in an unexplained head-on collision in Mendocino County northeast of Ukiah.

William Lawton Sleight, 55, of 55 Lakeside Drive, died instantly, the California Highway Patrol said, when his eastbound car drifted into the westbound lane of Highway 20 and hit an oncoming car driven by Adeline D. Bay, 40, of Chico.

Mrs. Bay and her 8-year-old daughter, Jackie, also died at the scene, the highway patrol said. Another daughter, Robin Bay, 15, was reported in critical condition today at Ukiah General Hospital.

The highway patrol said there was no apparent reason for Sleight's car being in the wrong lane. The highway is a straight two-lane road where the accident occurred 15 miles from Ukiah, the patrol said. An autopsy was to be performed on Sleight's body today to determine if there was a physical cause, such as a heart attack, for the accident.

Lagoon Signed To County As Bolinas Chaos Grows

The bill to dissolve the Bolinas Harbor District and turn the lagoon over to the county was signed by Gov. Ronald Reagan yesterday as chaos surrounding the district heighened.

Developments included:

An announcement the county may have to pay off expenses above the $125,536 it has agreed to shoulder.

An attempt to call an illegal meeting of the district board to change the budget.

A report that the board of supervisors would be asked to levy the district tax for six months instead of a year.

The possibility of a special meeting of the board of supervisors for the district.

Earlier this month, confused about its finances and uncertain about its future, the harbor district board adopted a budget of $31,876 for the full 1969-70 fiscal year.

The budget would require a tax rate of 30 cents per $100 assessed valuation and was scheduled to be set by the board of supervisors at 4 p.m. today.

Late yesterday, Frances B. Stewart, a member of the district board, said she hoped to get board members together for a special meeting to reduce the budget and thus the tax rate.

She indicated it had been assumed until the last moment that the governor would veto the bill by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael.

However, the meeting would have been in violation of the Ralph M. Brown Act because of lack of 24 hours advance notice.

Since the meeting couldn't be held, she announced a member of the board would appear as an individual and ask the board of supervisors to levy the tax for six months only.

The alternative would be to hold a leagal meeting of the harbor district board to reduce the budget and ask the board of supervisors to hold a special meeting on or before the tax-setting deadline of Sept. 1 to set the harbor district tax rate.

Meanwhile, County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney appeared today before the board of supervisors to report the county may have to levy a property tax rate even next year to close out expenses other than those the county previously agreed to assume.

When voters of the harbor district approved dissolution last winter the county was to assume $125,536 in liabilities.

Maloney did not indiciate how much more the county may have to assume but the harbor district board is faced with at least $13,000 worth of additional debts.

Maloney also reported the bill requires the county to file a certificate with the state that the county will assume the outstanding debts of the district.

He said he foresaw no difficulty in having the certificate accepted but noted problems sometimes blossom unexpectedly when dealing with the state.

The bill, which was signed at 5:30 p.m. yesterday, will go into effect in mid-October, 61 days after the close of the legislative session Aug. 8.

In addition to the financial aspects, the bill requires the county to submit its plans for the lagoon to the State Lands Commission within three years. If the commission rejected the plan, the lagoon would revert to state jurisdiction.

Saigon Pressure On Troop Cuts

WASHINGTON (UPI) —President Richard M. Nixon's decision to delay announcement of further withdrawals of U.S. troops from Vietnam is understood to have been influenced partly by South Vietnam President Nguyen Van Thieu.

Informed sources said Thieu contended such an announcement would have had a bad effect on South Vietnamese morale because it would have come in the midst of a cabinet reshuffle in Saigon and at a time when enemy attacks have risen.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird, who participated in the Friday conference at which Nixon decided on the delay, were said by some sources not to have been greatly impressed by Thieu's argument. But they apparently saw no great harm in a delay.

The White House, in announcing Nixon would defer a decision until after he returns to Washington in September, said the President wanted more information on "the level of activity," Communist potential for further offensives and the infiltration rate from North Vietnam.

State Department officials who discussed the situation with Rogers after he returned from the Western White House at San Clemente, Calif., said the phased withdrawal was "still on the track" and there are no changes planned.

Nixon apparently wants to be sure the Communists are not preparing a big new offensive.

Plans are under consideration to create 20 or more new national parks.

Martin Remains In U.S. Marshal's Chair

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO — Louis H. Martin of Martinez remains solidly attached to his seat as the U.S. marshal for the Northern California District and it apparently will take an executive order from President Richard M. Nixon to remove him.

And the schduled Sept. 2 induction of George E. Tobin of Mill Valley — appointed by Nixon to Martin's job — will apparently have to wait for the same order.

Judges of the U. S. District Court in San Francisco last week decided that until Nixon notifies Martin that he has been removed from office, Tobin cannot be inducted as the new marshal.

Martin was appointed to a four-year term by former President Lyndon B. Johnson and has three years remaining on his term. When Nixon took office, he appointed Tobin, a California Highway Patrol captain, to the marshal's post.

Martin, a Democrat, refuses to follow the traditional pattern and resign. And the judges now feel that even though Tobin's appointment has been confirmed by the Senate, no vacancy exists until Nixon removes Martin from office.

Martin said today that he is just "sitting tight" and waiting to see what happens. He said that he has had no contact with Tobin for several weeks and believes the heir-apparent to his job is off on a Lake Tahoe vacation.

Mormon Forger On Probation

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI)— The former manager of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) Credit Union Office was placed on probation yesterday after pleading guilty to forgery charges.

Chris E. Case was charged in connection with the theft of an estimated $70,000 from the Credit Union offices.

He was sentenced to an indeterminate term at the Utah State Prison but given a stay until Feb. 23, 1970, by Third District Judge D. Frank Wilkins.

Case was arrested in Wildwood, Fla., last May and charged with the thefts which occurred between January 1966 and last March.

Wilkins said he would allow Case to return to Florida.

Ambulance Meeting

The next meeing of the volunteers for an ambulance service for Novato will be held at 8:30 p.m., Sept. 4 at the Marion School, according to John A. Trumbull of the Novato Ambulance Service Study Committee.

Prince Charles Will Economize

LONDON (UPI) — Prince Charles has decided to try to get along on half of his $528,000-a year salary and turn the rest over to the government. At least until he gets married or some emergency arises.

Charles, the eldest son of Queen Elizabeth II, turns 21 Nov. 14 and as Prince of Wales, he will automatically start getting the income from the Duchy of Cornwall. It is his only source of income.

Experts says the duchy, which has rich estates in Southwest England and London, brings in about $528,000 a year.

Buckingham Palace spokesmen gave no specific reason why the Prince decided to give $264,000 of it to the government. But the implications were he felt he could get along on half the salary.

Realignment Of Property Lines Backed

A realignment of property lines for two lots at 101 Coronet Avenue, requested by Donald G. Dickey and William Gerung, was recommended for city council approval last night by the Mill Valley Planning Commission, Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon reported today.

Commissioners also approved a variance waiving front yard setback requirements and a revocable encroachment permit allowing a deck to extend into Coronet Avenue right-of-way for a single family residence to be constructed on one of the two lots, Bragdon said.

Rejection by the city's architectural advisory committee of plans for a Taco Bell take-out food restaurant at 497 Miller Avenue was endorsed by the commission, Bragdon said.

Two other items, a request for abandonment of a portion of Summit Avenue near Fern Canyon Road and dust control problems on the Cresta Del Norte subdivision on the North Ridge were posponed pending further staff information.

27 Charged In Lejeune Riot

CAMP LEJEUNE, N.C. (UPI) — Authorities today charged 26 Marines and one Navy man with rioting in a July 20 brawl which resulted in the death of a white corporal.

Five Marines previously were charged with murder in the death of Cpl. Edward Bankston, 20, of Picayune, Miss. Bankston died eight days after the fight outside a service club.

Marine authorities said the other 26 men charged had been returned to Camp Lejeune from duty in the Mediterranean. They were members of the 2nd division's 6th regiment. The brawl occurred after a farewell party for the regiment.

Mexican Classrooms

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Mexico will spend $58.2 million on classroom construction this year, according to Agustin Yanez, Secretary of Education.

Cooper Changes Plea On Contempt

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Grant B. Cooper, the prominent criminal lawyer who defended convicted assassin Sirhan B. Sirhan, will be sentenced Sept. 23 on his guilty plea to two counts of contempt of court in connection with another case.

Cooper, a past president of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, was indicted for "obtaining, posessing, disclosing and using" a grand jury transcript of secret testimony and of lying to a judge about it.

The grand jury investigation led to the indictments of five persons on charges of conspiring to cheat members of the exclusive Friars Club show business fraternity in rigged gin rummy games.

Cooper, who represented the defendants, was indicted with 10 others in connection with the illegal use of the transcript.

Cooper changed his innocent plea to one of guilty yesterday U.S. Dist. Court Judge Charles H. Carr asked him if he was aware of the possible penalty.

"I'm thoroughly familiar with the punishment, your honor," Cooper said. "I can be imprisoned as long as the court desires and fined with no limit."

Cooper's troubles began when the transcript was noticed on the table in front of him at the Friars Club trial by Assistant U.S. Atty. David R. Nissen.

The document included testimony given in secret to the grand jury by comedian Phil Silvers and others who were fleeced by the conspirators, all of whom were convicted on all counts.

GRANT B. COOPER
Faces sentencing

At first, Cooper told U.S. Dist. Court Judge William P. Gray in chambers that he simply found the document lying on the table. But he later admitted that was a lie, and said if he revealed where he had obtained the transcript it would be a breach of attorney-client privileged communication.

Cooper, 66, has served as vice president of the California State Bar, president of the American College of Trial Lawyers and as chief deputy to the Los Angeles County district attorney.

$47,293 Slide Repair In Fairfax

The Fairfax side of a $47,293 slide repair project that spills over into San Anselmo was approved last night by the Fairfax City Council.

Consulting engineers reported the Fairfax share would be $39,779 and the San Anselmo side $7,514 to repair a slide on Forrest Avenue which crosses the cities' common boundary line.

NO INDICATION

The San Anselmo City Council has never indicated it would go along with the project.

The Fairfax council called for bids on the project for 2 p.m. Sept. 18 at city hall and set a meeting for 8 p.m. Sept. 22 at the Women's Club to award a contract.

In other business, the council tabled an ordinance which would prohibit any business from operating from 11 a.m. to 7 a.m. without a special permit if it has off-street parking, sells food and drink and is within 300 feet of a residential area.

"We're discriminating against people who have parking lots," protested Mayor Francis J. O'Connell.

City Atty. Wallace S. Myers disagreed, pointing out it was the parking lots which the council believed created nuisances, as in the case of Short Stop Market.

AGAINST PLAN

"I don't like the whole thing," said Councilman Cornelis Van Vliet flatly.

"I really think its going to do more than the council is intending it to do," commented Councilman Frank J. Egger.

Councilman Adelaide P. Wilson however said, "There are potential trouble spots all over town."

On the motion to introduce, Egger, Van Vliet and O'Connell voted "no."

A public hearing on the Short Stop Market is scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday at the Fairfax Women's Club.

The Fairfax City Council also:

STREET — Changed the name of Meadow Court to Sherman Court because of confusion with the previously existing Meadow Way.

DOGS — Entered a joint powers agreement with the county for enforcement of the dog control ordinance, with the stipulation the agreement expire in one year.

PERSONNEL — Hired Michael Moriarity of Daly City as a policeman at $745 per month to replace John Johnson who resigned.

Fairfax Chief Abandons Stormy Rights Meeting

Fairfax Police Chief James R. Orr last night stormed out of a closed meeting being held to hear charges against him. (Another Fairfax City Council, page 1)

He was followed shortly by Bella H. Aaron, chairman of the police community relations committee of the county Human Rights Commission, who had requested the closed meeting to present results of her investigation of the charges.

The charges against Orr stem from a Memorial Day dance fracas at the Fairfax Pavilion in which 17-year-old David E. Pratt was arrested on charges of disturbing the peace, assault and resisting arrest.

Charges of brutality were filed against Orr with the district attorney and a complaint was filed with the police community relations committee.

The district attorney's investigation found Orr blameless. The results of the committee's investigation have not been revealed.

After a 72 minute session the council emerged and Mayor Francis J. O'Connell reported further consideration would be delayed until after the juvenile court hearing for Pratt scheduled for Sept. 4.

O'Connell said the council decided on the delay to get testimony under oath.

Juvenile court hearings are normally closed but there is a possibility this one may be open. If it is not, the council would not be able to obtain the testimony.

Lagunitas Teachers Due 5 Pct. Pay Hike

The 24 teachers in the Lagunitas School District will receive an approximately 5 per cent salary schedule hike for 1969-70 while the nine non-teaching employees will receive a flat 5 per cent increase, the district board decided last night.

The teachers' increases vary a bit with their placement on the new salary schedule of $6,200 to $12,000. The 1968-69 schedule was $5,750-$11,650.

A total of $231,700 will be spent this fiscal year for teachers' salaries which include $9,500 for the approximate 5 per cent hike.

Another $200 paid to teachers over and above their salary when they have tenure and longevity was increased to $300.

Cost of non-teaching employees salaries for 1969-70 will be $42,872 which includes the 5 per cent increase of $2,300, Supt. Marshall J. McCunniff reported.

The board raised the salary of Harry F. Roche, Lagunitas School principal, from $13,200 to $14,500 and McCunniff's from $15,500 to $16,275.

The Lagunitas School District Board Also:

BUS ROUTES — Agreed that bus routes will be the same as last year except for additional runs up Arroyo Road in Forest Knolls and to Samuel P. Taylor Park. These runs, on a trial basis, will be reviewed by the board at its 7:30 p.m. meeting, Sept. 22.

EMPLOYED — Hired June Studdert, primary teacher, San Geronimo School, $7,950; Regina Vigil, intermediate, Lagunitas, $7,350; Bonnie Huggins, reading specialist, San Geronimo, $9,000; Lois Ewalt, librarian serving San Geronimo and Lagunitas, $8,750 and Foss Sargent, half time bus driver, half time maintenance man, $538 monthly.

NEXT MEETING — Agreed to hold no meeting on Sept. 8 since Sept. 9 is Admission Day and to meet next at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 22.

Innocent Plea To Selling Of Drug

David Lee Worley, 21, of Novato pleaded innocent today in Marin Superior Court to charges of selling a dangerous drug (desoxephedrine), selling marijuana and possessing the weed.

A jury trial was set for the week of Dec. 15.

Worley is accused by drug agents of being responsible for sales of drugs to young persons in Novato.

$411 Cash Haul

Burglars took $411 from Chicken Delight at 389 Miller Avenue, Mill Valley, between 10 p.m. Sunday and 3:25 a.m. yesterday, police reported.

Disc Jockey To Have His Left Leg Amputated

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Disc jockey Dan Sorkin, whose left leg was severely damaged in a Marin County motorcycle accident, has elected to have the limb amputated.

"It was Dan's own choice," said a colleague of the radio personality at station KSFO. "He was told it would take another year or year and a half of treatment—and even then he would still have a bum leg.

"The doctors have told him he can be back at work in a matter of weeks with the amputation and an artificial limb."

The spokesman said the operation will be performed this week at Swedish Hospital in Seattle, Wash.

Sorkin, 42, was injured May 23 when his motorcycle ran off a Marin road and crashed through a barbed wire fence.

Sorkin was returning from Marshall to the Synanon residence in Oakland.

An Innocent Plea To Cocaine Charge

Karen Elaine Gowel, 23, of Mill Valley pleaded innocent yesterday in Marin Superior Court to a charge of possessing cocaine. Her case was continued until Sept. 15 for setting of a trial date when her attorney said that the matter might not go to trial.

Miss Gowel is accused of having the drug with her when booked into Marin County Jail May 5 on traffic warrants.

Pigeon Winner

The blue bar hen of Ed Ahren of San Rafael won first place, flying 34 miles per hour, in the North Road Invitational Racing Pigeon Club's first young bird race of the season with a blue bar hen of H. B. Ostler of Corte Madera coming in second, Ostler reported today. The 110-mile race between Willows, Glenn County, and Corte Madera was held Saturday.

Marines Battle Hanoi Units In Heat Wave

SAIGON (UPI)—U.S. Marines fought well-entrenched North Vietnamese troops in 120-degree temperatures today in close-quarters battle on the jungled floor of the Que Son Valley where more than 800 guerrillas died last week.

At least 137 North Vietnamese soldiers were reported killed in fighting that began yesterday with the Marines and the U.S. Army's Americal Division in the 10-mile long valley 340 miles northeast of Saigon.

American losses were more than 50 killed and nearly 300 wounded.

In another part of the valley, South Vietnamese troops west of Tam Ky and 60 miles from Da Nang came upon bodies of 100 North Vietnamese soldiers, most of them burned beyond recognition. Allied military spokesmen they were caught in a U.S. aerial napalm attack earlier.

The Marines, fighting the North Vietnamese from as close as 10 yards, had been in battle more than 24 hours in some 5,000 North Vietnamese troops are believed operating.

Field reports said at least 38 Marines were killed and 75 wounded against 11 North Vietnamese slain. Official reports in Saigon listed 11 Marines dead and 41 wounded with 11 North Vietnamese troops killed.

Marine Pfc. Allen Esteron, 19, of Honolulu, told of action last night.

"Our platoon was pinned down on a dike in a rice paddy," he said. "Bullets were coming in like rain. The NVA (North Vietnamese) were in a treeline and we had wounded we couldn't get to." He said the North Vietnamese used one wounded Marine as bait.

"Three guys got it trying to get to him," Esteron said.

The North Vietnamese fought from foxholes, firing heavy machineguns. Elements of the North Vietnamese 31st Regiment, Second Division, were involved, military sources said.

Camille Aid 'Encouraging'

Marin's response to the Red Cross call for donations to aid victims of Hurricane Camille "has been encouraging," Margaret Anderson, local executive director, reported yesterday.

However, the county's quota has been upped from $5,500 to $13,000, she reported. The national quota has gone from $6 million to $11 million.

So far, Marin contributions have totaled $2,075, Mrs. Anderson said. Non-cash contributions have been discouraged because of shipping problems and the amount of food and clothing already at the disaster area, she said.

Money is needed for the recovery period, she explained.

Paul M. Anderson, Willie Jo Watson and Jack Stocking, three Marin County disaster specialists, have been sent to the hurricane area.

The Corte Madera Board of Design Review last night recommended denial of an application by Fotomat Corp. to install a photography drive-in service at the Cooperative Shopping Center, 71 Tamal Vista Boulevard. The application will go to the planning commission Sept. 9.

The board's major objection, secretary Betty Long reported, was that the Fotomat building would take up too much parking space in the Co-op parking lot.

The board also objected to a roof sign on the building and to proposed roofing material.

Novato To Hike Its School Tax

Novato Unified School District's tax rate for 1969-70 is to be set at $5.345 per $100 assessed valuation, up 19 cents from last year's rate.

Trustees got the word last night from Donald M. Van Dyke of 53 Sotelo Way, who had a letter on the new rate from Marin County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell, who is scheduled to set school district tax rates today.

Deputy Supt. Ralph Giovanniello explained that a 5.1-cent hike in the general operating tax rate resulted from a law which permits the district to hike the operating rate 2 per cent. This, he explained, is to make up for revenue lost when the tax on household furnishings and personal belongings were eliminated.

The district's bond redemption rate is scheduled to be boosted six cents from 46 cents per $100 assessed valuation to 52 cents.

The district's budget for 1969-70 is $9,387,720, up $684,434 from last year.

Giovanniello estimated that Governor Ronald Reagan's signing of the school finance bill would bring the district an additional $55,000.

He termed this "not substantial" in relationship to the district's $9 million budget.

Novato Unified School District Board Also:

HIRED — Approved the hiring of the following teachers, Rosemary Donaldson, home economics, Novato High, $6,615 a year; Jeffrey Gough, English, San Marin High, $8,108; Maria Houghton, psychologist, $9,916; Simone MacKinnon, foreign language, Sinaloa Junior High, $8,108; Jean Mowry, elementary mentally retarded, $8,871; Ruth Spitler, home economics, Sinaloa Junior High, $10,022; David Tofanelli, elementary, $8,183, and Johannes Masare, secondary, $8,600.

SCHOOL TIMES — Approved the school day schedule for 1969-70 as follows: high school beginning at 8 a.m. and ending at 2:05; a junior high schools, 8:25 to 2:30; grades four through six, 9 to 3:25; grades one through three, early group, 8:30 to 1:45; and late group, 9:30 to 2:50.

FIELD BIDS — Authorized Eugene DeBrecht, assistant superintendent, business, to advertise for bids for a new athletic field at San Jose Junior High School as soon as documents are received from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. DeBrecht tentatively set the bid date at Sept. 25.

POLICY HANDBOOK — Adopted revisions to the district policy handbook, including inserting a policy on drug use, previously approved by the board.

SCHOOL HANDBOOKS — Received copies of teacher and student handbooks distributed at secondary schools, with Trustee Carolyn M. Crabtree suggesting that reference to the district's drug policy be made in the handbooks.

COURSE OF STUDY — Approved a course of study for grades seven through 12.

ADJOURNMENT — Adjourned until 8 p.m. Sept. 8 at the school administration building.

Probation In Needle Case

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court yesterday told a 31-year-old Sausalito man who had pleaded guilty to possessing a hypodermic needle March 2 that he would give him a six-month suspended jail sentence.

He warned Robert W. Holtz, however, that if he appeared in court again on a narcotics charge that he would get the six months in jail "and more."

He also ordered Holtz, against whom a methedrine possession charged had been dismissed, to refrain from the use of drugs while on probation.

Ex-Principal Quits Novato Schools

Robert W. Wisgerhof, former principal at Novato High School, is leaving the Novato Unified School District.

District trustees last night accepted Wisgerhof's resignation without comment, with Deputy Supt. Ralph Giovanniello commenting that Wisgerhof was "moving to Southern California."

Wisgerhof served as principal at Novato High for four years until 1967 when he asked that he be reassigned to teaching.

The board also accepted the resignation of John Gardenhire, who was scheduled to teach black and minority studies at Novato High.

Gardenhire reportedly has moved to Oakland to teach in a special program at Merritt College. He had taught at San Jose Junior High School from 1962-67, and taught English and social studies during the past school year at Novato High School.

Tree Trimming Equipment Stolen

A thief has stolen treetrimming equipment valued at $746 from Sohner Tree Service of 35 Ross Avenue, San Anselmo police reported today.

The theft, which occurred during the weekend, was discovered by Sohner superintendent Robert Sletten at 8:30 a.m. yesterday. The thief climbed a fence and took from a truck a 28-inch chain saw, three 24-inch hand saws, two pairs of climbing hooks, three leather climbing saddles and two 120-foot ropes.

Texas Tommy, His Dogs On The Road

Texas Tommy, whose real name is Thomas Updegrove, and his 17 dogs left Marin County yesterday afternoon, much happier than when he arrived and was stranded.

"I want to thank everybody who helped me," he said.

The help came from Novato women who furnished food, individuals and merchants of Pacheco Plaza who helped him with money and the Marin County Humane Society.

Tommy's trouble started when he was not allowed to put on his dog show at Pacheco Plaza and Northgate shopping centers. The Humane Society had objected to the size of the cages in which he kept his dogs in the bus he traveled in. Then the California Highway Patrol said that the tires on his truck were too old to be on the highway, so would not allow him to leave.

To compound his troubles, his van broke down and he had an $81 garage bill.

After the Independent-Journal article appeared Saturday, help in the form of food and money started arriving.

The Humane Society yesterday paid his garage bill and bought him new tires so he could move his bus on the highway.

"It was a little human, animal and mechanical rehabilitation," said Mel Morse, humane society director.

Morse said that he examined the animals and that "there was no problem with the animals." The objection came over the small cages for the large dogs. Morse admitted that he did not see the act.

"I've never had anything like this happen before," said Tommy just before he left the plaza for Vallejo and Bakersfield.

Judge Sims To Sit On Supreme Court

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr., of Belvedere, has been assigned to sit with the California Supreme Court from Sept. 1 to Nov. 30, Chief Justice Roger J. Traynor announced today.

Sims, 58, of 30 Beach Road, is an associate justice on San Francisco's First Appellate District Court of Appeals. He was Marin County's district attorney from 1950 to 1953 and was a Marin County Superior Court Judge from 1960 to 1964.

Drug Sentence

I-J Special Report

LAKEPORT — Malcom S. Mayer, 25, of Sausalito, yesterday was fined $150 and placed on three years probation for possessing and furnishing marijuana in Kelseyville, Lake County, Aug. 5. Mayer pleaded guilty to the charges on Aug. 12.

School Lunch Price Hiked In Novato

Trustees agreed to the 10-cent hike after hearing a report that cafeteria operations, elementary and secondary, cost the district $30,000 during the past year.

They also agreed to a list of price hikes for various items sold at high schools, but asked for further information, since they didn't have former prices.

Trustees asked for figures showing how much the district can expect to gain in revenue.

Trustee Carolyn M. Crabtree said she didn't think the board had the obligation to "feed our affluent children" out of tax money.

Board President Marett B. Boissevain warned if the prices weren't increased the district's loss would grow because of rising costs.

New Ordinances

Two proposed ordinances — one regulating loud and unnecessary noises which disturb the peace and another regulating conduct on public property — will be discussed by the Corte Madera Park and Recreation Commission at a 7:30 p.m. meeting tomorrow in town hall.

Redwood Empire Sets Convention In Marin

The 49th annual Redwood Empire Association convention will be held Sept. 24 to 26 at the Holiday Inn, San Rafael.

Rep. William S. Mailliard, R-Sixth District, will speak at 9:30 a.m. Sept. 25, followed by a report on plans for future development of Redwood National Park by its superintendent, Nelson Murdock, and on Point Reyes National Seashore by its superintendent, Edward J. Kurtz.

Also featured will be Oregon State Sen. E. D. Potts of Grants Pass on the growth and development of visitor and recreation programs in Oregon.

Skinny Burglar Robs Home Market

A slim burglar broke a window in the second story office of the Home Market at 407 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, entered the store and stole $37 in cigarettes and liquor during the weekend, police reported yesterday.

Owner George R. Bianchini said entry was made between 9 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. yesterday and the burglar had to be small since the window opening is only eight inches wide.

Rec Center, School Windows Are Broken

Petaluma police reported windows broken by vandals in two locations during the weekend. At Walnut Park, rocks broke windows at the park and recreation department office at a loss of $225.

Four windows were reported broken by rocks at Petaluma Junior High School. Loss was estimated at $80.

PEERING THROUGH an antique demi-john or wine flask is Mrs. Charles Minto of Novato. The unusual whittle marks or indentations were made by blowing the glass into a cold mold or a hand-carved wooden mold. The jug is among the more than 1,000 bottles that she has been collecting in the past eight years. She says bottle collecting is a good family hobby. All one needs are a potato rake, trowel and gloves.

MRS. MINTON'S bottle collection varies from the tiniest of Chinese containers to a large soya sauce container pictured at left in the background. These containers were brought to Petaluma when a large number of Chinese lived there. The containers were later used by the Americans for storing eggs. A number of figurals, baby bottles are also displayed and in the right foreground, small perfume bottles with sterling silver tops used as containers for smelling salts or perfume which women wore chained to their belts.

The Empties May Have Value

By DOROTHY NEWELL

"Bottle collecting is a good family hobby" says Mrs. Charles Minton of Novato, whose collection now numbers more than 1000 bottles.

"All you need are a potato rake, trowel and gloves and time for outings into mining town, ghost towns or dumps and excavation sites. It doesn't cost anything to dig, and the bottles are valuable and sell at a good premium," she said.

She and her husband are rockhounds, too, and a friend in Petaluma introduced them eight years ago to bottle collecting.

Thelma Minton began bottle hunting and searched in Santa Rosa creek before the storm drains were put in and also the banks of the Petaluma River.

Another spot where they collected was the site of the former Simmons Mattress Co. in San Francisco where apartment buildings now stand. Here she found soda bottles. The bottles had corks and in order to keep them from drying out and losing the carbonation in the soda when they were used as ballast for ships coming from England, the bottles were made with a round bottom.

SOME OF THE bottles she has collected are hand-blown as well as blown into a mold. The black glass bottles are from the middle 1800s and the color of the glass depends on the iron content of the sand, Mrs. Minton said.

Before World War I Germany was the source of magnesium used to give the glass a clear color. When the glass is found in the desert or in the sun it takes on a beautiful lavender to purple color. Therefore, any glass found with a lavender cast was made prior to 1914, Mrs. Minton said. Selinium is also used in the manufacture of glass and gives the glass a golden color.

HER COLLECTION of fruit jars include early days jars in an amber color, but they were soon discontinued as the housewife did not like the appearance of fruit and vegetables in the amber jars.

Prior to 1900 all jars were hand blown, Mrs. Minton said.

She also told of the interesting history of a "witches ball" that she has — a beautiful glass sphere in pink and white. A supposedly true story, Mrs. Minton said that in the early

A "WITCHES BALL," a pink and white sphere, is displayed by Mrs. Charles Minton. She tells the supposedly true story of superstitious people in New England in the early 1800s who would hang the ball inside their front door at night. The ball fascinated the witches who would get so busy admiring and rubbing the ball with their hands that it would keep them from harming members of the family. Among the bottles in the window of the home are early day liquor containers. (Independent-Journal photos by Roger Bockrath)

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Town's Witch Hunters Have Case Of Hippie-Uptightness

DEAR HELEN:

Since a hippie settlement started in the hills above our little town, it's like Civil War. We even have a northern version of the Ku Klux Klan, except they're out after hippies and hippie-lovers.

Recently my girl friend and I were sitting in a building and a woman walked up and demanded, "Where are your shoes!" I politely said "We left them home — it's summer." She bawled me out and then went to my father and gave him a good dressing down. Seems going barefooted makes us pro-hippie.

Two days later I wore a peace emblem to a rummage sale, and got thrown out. Is it evil to believe in peace?

That afternoon, we were walking from the town pool where we teach swimming. We had covers over our suits, but again no shoes. Someone called the pool manager and told him to fire us as we were hippies.

Helen, we're just ordinary teens, who come from ordinary families. We don't hate the hippies, but we haven't joined them either. We believe everyone should do his own thing. This civic betterment committee is as bad as the old time vigilantes. They even destroy property and business houses of the people they accuse, and the accusations are like witch hunts. Must we even dress to suit the female busybodies, and boycott certain stores to suit the male bigots?

Maybe the hippies do create a sanitary problem and bring in drugs, but this is up to the law, not a bunch of wild civic leaders who are ruining our once happy little town.

What's wrong with these people anyway? — US

DEAR US:

These witch hunters have a bad case of hippie-uptightis, and the only cure is a dose of common sense, administered by the majority. The vigilante thing is happening in many areas where nearby hippie communes threaten property values and affront rigid moralists (who are usually the most blood thirsty).

Let's hope your parents and other wiser adults don't let bigotry become law in your town. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

My boyfriend thinks nothing of coming to my house with food, then eating it in front of my family, without offering any to us. I told him I didn't think this was right, but he said he bought it, so he doesn't have to share it. Yet he helps himself to anything in our refrigerator.

And get this: When he brings food and doesn't finish it, he expects us to store it so it will be waiting when he comes back. My little sister ate one of his candy bars, and wow! I said if that's the way he feels, stay out of our food. Was I right? — CONFUSED

DEAR CON:

You were right, though I'd make it a bit stronger. Like Stay out! — period! Who needs a chintzy, selfish boy friend? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

My problem is I can always see the other side of the question. Take the Vietnam War. I hate it, yet I know South Vietnam needs help. I never have an opinion I can't argue with. So I'm always debating but hardly ever winning. Is something wrong with me? — FROM ALL SIDES

DEAR FROM:

Something is very right with you. An open mind gives your brains room for exercise. You aren't afraid to think. When you see there is right and wrong in almost every situation, you're better equipped to help change the wrong to right. — H.

BOTTLES

1800s superstitious people in New England would hang the witches ball inside the front door. The witch would come, be so fascinated by the ball that she would turn it with her hands and would not harm any member of the family. Then in the morning, one member of the family would wipe the witch finger prints from the ball and the home would be kept from harm another day.

MRS. MINTON laughingly said she also uses a "silver pick," meaning that she buys an antique bottle now and then and also trades with club members. She is a member of the Petaluma Bottle and Antique Club.

Another group of bottles that have become popular collector items are figurals, with the bottles made the shape of animals, people or other items. Mrs. Minton said that any figure bottle will be worth something someday. She has figurals in the shape of violins, some antique, others fairly recent.

Mrs. Minton, a third grade teacher at McKinley elementary school in Petaluma and her husband, an employee with United Airlines in San Francisco, lived in Petaluma 13 years before moving to Novato two and one-half years ago.

They have three children. Mrs. Marilyn Armstrong of Stockton, Mrs. Ronald St. Jean of Petaluma and David Minton, who has recently returned from Vietnam and is just out of the service, and two grandchildren.

OTHER HOBBIES of Mrs. Minton are finishing antique furniture, collecting Indian artifacts which she uses in her class at school and beginning a doll collection.

Mrs. Minton will discuss her collection of bottles before the antique study group of the Novato Newcomers Club at her home in Novato at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Jewel Bike Clips Hold Bell Bottoms

LONDON (AP) — Now that the girls are wearing the trousers, a leading London costume jeweler has come up with an idea for keeping bell bottoms under control and adding a feminine touch to pants.

Jeweled bicycle clips to be worn over trouser bottoms were shown by Paris House, which makes belts for Queen Elizabeth II and the royal household.

Unisex crept in, too, with jeweled scarf rings for hippies of both sexes. A girl could almost go out in nothing but her pearls and still look decent if she wears the huge variety favored by Paris House for belts, necklaces and earrings.

Special lightweight pearls have been made for multi drop earrings that look heavy enough to stretch an earlobe down to the shoulder.

Those fancy bicycle clips can double as upper arm bracelets, another popular trend in costume jewelry. Chain belts, usually incorporating jeweled or pearl medallions, are still going strong, an indication that hippie styles are continuing. Tassels of chain and stones appear on nearly everything.

Nuptials Announced During Dinner For Marin Visitors

By MOLLY MARIN

A small dinner given to honor Julie and Lynn Schwengber, who are visiting here from their home in Brazil, was the occasion for the announcement of the marriage of their uncle, Harry O. Schwengber, to Mrs. Salvatore Cieri of Larkspur.

Mrs. Cieri, widow of Dr. Cieri, formerly lived in Piedmont. She is the mother of Albert Cieri of Marin, Richard Cieri of San Jose and Joanne Cieri of Larkspur, who was a Marin Ball debutante last year. The new Mrs. Schwengber has been active in medical and music groups in the Bay Area and is a sustaining member of the Oakland Junior League. Her husband is a member of a southern Brazil family and he was graduated from the University of Chicago. He is now associated with Boise Cascade Properties, Inc.

The couple will make their home in Larkspur.

THE CHARLES W. Hendersons of Sausalito have as their houseguests his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Henderson and their four daughters of Granada Hills and Camp Nelson. Mr. Henderson's mother, Mrs. Margaret H. Stevens of Palm Desert, who has been staying with Charles and Kathie Henderson for several weeks, remained for a gala family reunion over the weekend with other Bay Area relatives.

Charles and Kathie plan a vacation in Carmel following the families' departure the first of the week.

MRS. LELIA Crouch of Mill Valley left Saturday to be director for the Nature Conservancy six-island Hawaiian tour. Highlight of the tour arranged for 85 people by Huey D. Johnson of Mill Valley, western regional director of the Nature Conservancy, will be a visit to Kipahulu Valley. The nature conservancy was instrumental in paying for $590,000 to purchase the valley, which will become a national park.

SPENDING six weeks at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Jose Ernesto Arrieta in San Salvador are Jane Price of San Anselmo and her schoolmate, Kit Culver of San Francisco. The girls have attended San Ealvadore schools and have been sight-seeing through El Salvador. Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Price of San Anselmo.

THE GEORGE TURNBULLS of Mill Valley will be hosts on Sept. 12 at the rehearsal dinner for the wedding of their son, Robert Lane Turnbull of San Francisco, to Paula Stanley of San Francisco. It will be held at the Villa Taverna in San Francisco.

Old St. Mary's Church in San Francisco will be the setting for the 4 p.m. wedding on Sept. 13, followed by a reception at the St. Francis Yacht Club.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Adrienne Lindsey Stanley of San Francisco and Lorne R. Stanley of San Mateo.

A bachelor dinner for the future bridegroom will be given on Sept. 5 by Walter Scott Newhall of Belvedere at his summer home in Bolinas.

Medical Auxiliary Gives Nurse Scholarships To Marin Women

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Marin Medical Society has awarded scholarships to eight young women for the coming year, Mrs. Daniel Phillips, chairman of the nursing scholarship committee, announced.

Six of the girls are enrolled in schools of nursing, and two will enter the nursing field in September.

The Marin County high school graduates are Michelle Abraham, St. Joseph's School of Nursing; Ellen Bundshu, Janet Epedendio and Suzanne Quigg, University of San Francisco; Madeline Cordeiro, St. Luke's School of Nursing, San Francisco; Claudia Cronin, Highland School of Nursing, Oakland; Margaret Daly, San Francisco State College; and Victoria Fernancez, College of Marin.

THE ANNUAL Wisconsin picnic will be held at the city plaza in Sonoma beginning at noon on Monday.

Mrs. Alfred Schmidt, president, and Mrs. Wilkes Johnson, secretary, both of Novato, will furnish additional information to those wishing to attend. Former Wisconsin residents will bring a potluck dish and table service for the picnic.

Brian Champie Bestows Name Upon Susan Lilly

Susan Marie Lilly of Fairfax and Brian Paul Champie of San Anselmo were married Saturday at St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael.

Maid of honor was Katherine Lilly, Susan's sister. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard F. Lilly of La Mirada.

William Hunt of Novato was the best man for Paul, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan R. Champie of San Anselmo.

Susan was graduated from St. Paul's High School in La Mirada and is attending California College of Court Reporting in San Francisco. Timothy, Diane, Stephen and Nancy, all of La Mirada, are her brothers and sisters.

Brian was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is employed by King Coaters, Inc., in Oakland, where the couple will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Barker of San Anselmo are his grandparents.

Meredith Pike Becomes Bride Of James Hallett

Meredith Anne Pike became the bride of James Malcolm Hallett Sunday afternoon in a ceremony at St. John's Episcopal Church in Ross, where the bridegroom's father is rector.

A reception followed at the Ross home of the bridegroom's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Harold M. Hallett. The bride is the daughgter of Mrs. J. Parrish Pike of Kentfield and E. Bertram Pike of Sonora.

Youth Gets Weekends In County Jail

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court yesterday ordered a 21-year-old Terra Linda man who admitted having marijuana with him when arrested after creating a ruckus at Northgate Shopping Center to spend five weekends in jail.

If work furlough had been available, the judge said he would have sentenced James Moore Alumbaugh to serve a straight 30 days.

Judge Wilson noted that the youth had shouted obscenities and broken a bottle of liquor at the Bourbon Shop when employees refused to sell him liquor they believed he was giving to minors at the shopping center on March 30.

"I can't understand why anyone who had as much marijuana with him as you did created such a scene," Judge Wilson said to Alumbaugh.

Alumbaugh replied that he had had 10 beers and wine earlier in the day. He had two plastic bags of marijuana with him.

Man Sent To Vacaville

A San Rafael man who had earlier admitted possessing a check believed stolen by a former mailman yesterday was ordered to the California Medical Facility at Vacaville for a 90-day evaluation before sentencing.

Bruce Alan Tucker, 21, objected in four-letter words to the order by Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Superior Court, saying that he would rather start serving prison time if that was where he eventually was going.

Tucker, who gave police a variety of addresses when arrested, was living with the Litteral family at 9 Taylor Street in San Rafael at the time of his arrest.

Members of the family and others of the same address have also been accused of cashing checks stolen by a former mailman, Warren Sielsky, who lived at the same house.

Tucker pleaded guilty to possessing a check with intent to defraud and a second charge of forgery against him was dismissed.

To Study Parking

The San Anselmo City Council's streets and traffic committee will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the administration building of the San Francisco Theological Seminary to discuss hillside parking problems, chairman Donald A. Duerr reported.

'La Mancha' Has Emotional Power

By GARY TISCHLER

SAN FRANCISCO — It is good to run into a piece of theater that attacks the gut and the heart, that has the power to move the emotions.

"Man of La Mancha," which arrived at the Curran Theater as part of the Civic Light Opera season last night, did just that with a special kind of magic.

The musical comedy, if that's what it is, has been here once before, with the original Broadway cast, including Richard Kiley in the title role. This production starred Jose Ferrer, and not having seen Kiley's version or any version of the play for that matter, I can't draw comparisons. Last night's production is all I have and it was plenty good for me.

It is, in many ways, an amazing accomplishment. Running for well over two hours, it has no intermission. It is one of those things that seem to start out innocently and playfully enough, at first appearing to be nothing more than a play within a play about Miguel Cervantes and his creation Don Quixote, who gives all the tell-tale signs of a rowdy old nut.

But somewhere in the middle of the play, it thickens and comes together. The old fool turns into a triumphant and stubborn idealist, the slut becomes a person, the creator turns into his own creation. Changes dip below the almost burlesque-like comedy, grab hold of the audience and carry it to its strangely triumphant windup.

A very fat part of the credit goes to Ferrer as Cervantes-Quixote, the idealist trying to see the world as it ought to be. He skates on thin ice for the first part of the play, hovering on outright burlesque for what seem like a long time. But it all works, for all the foolishness, the seeming over-acting make a real someone out of Quixote. His voice quavers, his body stoops in mock heroics, the vowels stretch.

It is an altogether beautiful double performance, for Cervantes, who begins the play as somewhat afraid, word-quick and just a shade cynical, becomes Quixote, his own brave creation. His departure to face the inquisition is a moment of pure, moving theater.

The big surprise is Maura Wedge, as Aldonza, the tavern slut who becomes Don Quixote's Dulcinea, his lady fair. In a very physical performances that alternates between a kind of savage, knowing sexuality and bewilderment at being considered as something worthwhile, she dominates the stage with snarls, spit, black hair flying. After a brutal rape scene in which she is brought down to earth, she comes through with a genuine show-stopper in her "Aldonza" number, a bitter, tirade against Quixote and the dreams he offered up.

What makes the whole thing click is the almost total integration of book, music and dance. Not since "West Side Story" have all three components worked together so smoothly.

To hear Ferrer sing "The Impossible Dream," is to hear it again for the first time, minus crooners and the tail end of a television variety show. But it is by no means the only song in the play. "Dulcinea," "What Does He Want of Me" the simple avowal by Pancho Sanza, "I Really Like Him" the savage "It's All The Same," all display moving lyrics and music.

Of the other actors, Tony Martinez, who used to be Pepino on the "Real McCoys," comes through with a deft and underplayed comic touch as Pancho. The best singing in the play came from Dale Malone as the padre, displaying a clear tenor voice.

Novato Yearbook Party Next Week

The annual yearbook party at Novato High School will be held at 7:30 p.m., next Tuesday at the high school cafeteria, according to Asst. Principal Edward Kraft.

Novato High School gets its yearbooks at a cheaper rate by waiting for them to be printed in the summer. Then it holds an annual party at which the yearbooks are distributed, he said.

Program For Mozart Event Set

Musicians who will perform and the program for the Ninth Annual Mozart Festival at Stolte Grove, Sunday at 1 p.m., have been announced by Mrs. Martin Goldschmidt, music chairman.

Works to be performed are the Concerto for Four Oboes and Two Bassoons, Handel; aria "Laudamus Te" (from the Mass in C) for soprano and orchestra; Concerto for Clarinet in A Major K 622, and minuet and presto from "Village Musician" K 5522 (musical joke) — all by Mozart.

Other works are the Beethoven Sextet, Opus 81B for two horns and strings and three songs for soprano and clarinet by Gordon Jacobs.

Soloists will be soprano Gwen Curatilo and clarinetist Frealon Bibbins.

Musicians in the augmented Bach-to-Mozart group will be Ruggiero Pelosi, Everett O'Bannon, Maxine Hineman, Gail Denny, Donna Salarpi, Michael Gerling and Harry Moulin, violins; Asbjorn Finess and Lucien Mitchell, violas; Jean Mitchell and Helen Stross, cellos; Michael Burr, bass; Jean Cunningham, flute; Raymond Duste, Eleanor Biondi, Donna Schideler and Kenneth Hammel, oboes; Robin Elliott and Marilyn Mayer, bassons, and Edward Haug and Stuart Gronningen, horns.

McCurdy's Carport

The San Anselmo Design Review Committee will consider a design review application from Robert McCurdy for his carport at 8 Brookside Court at a meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow. The San Anselmo Planning Commission referred the plan to the board saying the design lacked something in style.

Convention Center Proposed For Alcatraz

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A proposal to raze grim Alacatraz prison and creat "an extension of San Francisco" on the island was presented to the board of supervisors yesterday.

Charles Trieschmann, a New York and San Francisco investor, suggested a development including a 500-room convention hotel, 600 units of residential housing, an international shopping center, a clutch of restaurants and a cultural unit with museums, art galleries, theaters and auditoriums.

Supervisors are negotiating with the federal government to acquire the island in San Francisco Bay that once housed maximum security prisoners.

Trieschman asked the supervisors for one year to come up with more specific designs and cost figures.

Under Trieschman's plan the old maximum security prison would be completely razed at a cost of $1.7 million.

Carberry's Jail Leadership 'Incompetent,' Panel Says

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— Sheriff Matt Carberry's administration of the San Francisco County Jail was described as "utterly incompetent" yesterday by a crime committee appointed by Mayor Joseph Alioto.

The committee said conditions in the jail were "schocking, disgraceful and appalling."

The group's executive director, Irving Riechert, said dental and medical care in the jails is inadequate, meals are of low quality, the prison security is so loose "the inmates could take over the jail and free all the other inmates within 20 minutes."

"We saw how youthful offenders and alcoholics are tossed in with the most degraded and corrupt; how they are abused and contaminated; how they are likely to emerge not only unrehabilitated, but perhaps more incorrigible than before," the committee report said.

The crime committee blamed Carberry for current jail conditions and said he has not fought agressively for improvements or for an increased budget. It added, however, that improvements could be made without additional funds.

The report recommended that "a proper authority, such as the grand jury," investigate Carberry's "personal drinking problem." The sheriff has admitted to being a heavy drinker, but said he has conquered the problem and his drinking has not affected his administration of the jails.

Tam Pet Parade

A pet parade, sponsored by the Tamalpais Fire Protection District Ladies Auxiliary, will be held from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Sept. 6 in the lot next to the district's Fire Station No. 1.

Scholarship Auditions Set

Auditions for a $200 ballet scholarship to be given by the Marin Music Chest will be held Sept. 13 at Angelico Hall, Dominican College of San Rafael.

A warmup period will be from 1 to 1:30 p.m. followed by a 15-minute rest period. Beginning at 1:45 p.m., students will perform routines which may not exceed two minutes, Mrs. Emmet Rixford, Music Chest president said. Contestants must furnish their own music, she said.

Marin students age 14 to 19 who have studied at least four years, are eligible. Applications, available from Marin Music Chest, Box 468, Ross, must be submitted by Sept. 10, Mrs. Rixford said.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

THIRD SECTION SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, AUGUST 26, 1969 17

NEW HOMES FOR SMALL CRAFT

Crane operator Robert Burns of Huntington Engineering Corporation lowers an 850-pound finger of Marin Yacht Club's new docks into place at the San Rafael marina. The finger, carrying a temporary flotation collar to keep it upright, consists of a concrete shell filled with plastic foam. The club is adding a clubhouse and doubling its docking space in the expansion project. At left is a barge used to drive 40-foot steel and concrete pilings for the new docks.

A Multi-Million-Dollar Plan For Marin-Sonoma Water

By BONNIE BARD

SANTA ROSA — A $33 million to $38 million plan to trasmit water to southern Sonoma and Marin from the planned Warm Springs Dam in Sonoma County was outlined yesterday before the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District.

Gordon W. Miller, chief engineer, also said the dam cost figures based upon projected construction rates for the 1970s could bring that part of the project cost to $80 million.

Miler said that if the transmission lines were to be built at present costs, the figure would be $33 million. Marin's share of the cost, based on need, would be $18.6 million with $14.4 million for Sonoma County.

To be included in projected costs at a later date will be pipelines to serve west Marin and the Tomales Bay area. The county supervisors, sitting as water district directors, yesterday received a letter from E. S. Churchill, general manager of the North Marin Water District, asking that plans include service to the east shore and head of Tomales Bay.

Miller said it would be logical to include the Tomales area in studies to determine where water from the Russian River can be diverted. He said a plan to divert water to Tomales by a pipeline from Sebastopol would be most feasible.

The engineer said county plans already had included proposed service to the Jenner and Bodega Bay areas of Sonoma County and that adding a pipeline to service the southern region of the coastal shelf would add nothing to the study cost.

Miller said the 72-inch pipeline from Warm Springs Dam, eight miles north of Healdsburg, would run past Santa Rosa to Sebastolpol, Cotati and Rohnert Park to connect with the Petaluma aqueduct for the first stage of development.

He estimated costs for the first-phase construction at $19.4 million with $10.4 million borne by Marin County and $9 million by Sonoma County. "This first stage must be in operation by 1974 or we'll be rationing water, Miller warned.

The second stage would involve constructing new collectors along the Russian River and extension of the pipeline south of Petaluma where it will serve the Novato area. Set for completion in 1978, cost was estimated at $10 million with $6.4 million as Marin's share and $3.7 million for Sonoma County.

The final stage in 1968 would include adding three collectors along the river for the increased consumption and the construction of pumping plants for a total cost of nearly $3.6 million. Marin's share would be $1.8 million and $1.7 for Sonoma.

Miller said he hoped financing for the entire project would be known by 1971, either through a mutual bond issue or through state and federal grants.

The engineer said the project operation presently includes a geological study of the river bed to determine its capacity for collectors and pumping plants.

The dam, being built by the Amry Corps of Engineers, has included only road relocation work so far.

WHO MAILED IT?

A Mystery Postcard Arrives From Dead Man

Who mailed a postcard apparently written by a Mill Valley man on the day he took his own life but postmarked two days later?

Coroner's officials said they found a note on the kitchen table.

Saturday afternoon, a postcard addressed to President Richard M. Nixon but bearing the Independent-Journal's address arrived. It bore a Friday post mark.

Postal officials said there was no chance that a card mailed on Wednesday could have had a postmark as late as Friday.

The card seems to be in the same handwriting as the note found in the kitchen, according to sheriff's officers, but a handwriting expert will analyze it furthur.

They had no answer as to who might have mailed the card after Stover's death.

The text of Stover's message was:

"Mr. President,

"When you read this I will no longer be one of your earning slaves. O man of war and farce and playacting I revolt! You will not get me to pay for war, for trips to the moon while people need education and food and then show how much you waste on TV on a mockery. O spoiler of men and beautiful land I am beyond your reach!"

Day In Court Set For Teen

A 19-year-old San Rafael youth was told yesterday to return to Marin Municipal Court Tuesday to be arraigned on a charge that he possessed marijuana and a device for smoking it on the Court House lawn Friday.

Eugene Richard Rudnick of 103 Greenfield Avenue was arrested by a juvenile officer who was looking for a runaway girl on the lawn, often a gathering place for young people.

The officer said he noticed a plastic bag of what appeared to be marijuana and a pipe sticking out of Rudnick's pockets.

Two Hurt In Novato Accident

Two people were injured in a three-vehicle accident at 8:30 a.m. today in front of the Independent-Journal office in Novato.

Treeated for neck, back and head bruises at Novato General Hospital were Eddie R. Hale, 27, and Ronald H. Canfield, 32, both of Santa Rosa.

Hale and passenger Canfield, stopped their pickup truck waiting for Mrs. Newell to make the left turn, Novato police reported.

The pickup truck was hit in the rear by a garbage truck belonging to the Novato Disposal Service, driven by George Azevedo, 46, of 1132 Simmons Lane, Novato, police reported. The pickup truck was knocked into the rear of Mrs. Newell's car.

Motorsit Kills Deer On Bridge

Two deer loomed out of the dawn on the Golden Gate Bridge today, to the amazement of a San Anselmo man who hit one of them.

James Rudden said he hit one of the deer, smashed in the front of his car but kept going to report the accident to a toll taker. He said it occurred at 6:11 a.m. at the north end of the bridge.

Bridge officials said a deer was killed this morning but did not know if it was on the bridge or at an approach.

SAUSALITO INTEGRATION

CRITERIA Assumes A Major Role

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON
(Second of five articles.)

On May 9, 1966, County Schools Supt. Virgil S. Hollis reported to the Sausalito School District board that the screening team he headed had sifted 86 applicants for the soon-to-be-vacant district superintendency down to six.

Two weeks later, trustee David E. Freedheim introduced to the board Philip W. Schneider, "who will succeed Mr. (Charles W.) Lavaroni as district superintendent on July 1." Not until the June 6 meeting did the board vote to hire Schneider, and by then it was short one member through resignation of Jessie Zimmer.

However, if the manner of his introduction seemed a little unusual, Schneider left no room for doubt that he would plunge immediately into his new duties.

Although officially still superintendent of Whisman School District in Santa Clara County until June 30, he was actively present at the June 27 Sausalito board meeting, and his hand was evident in the hiring of a new principal that night.

Superintendent Lavaroni introduced Robert Lea to the board as the new principal of Central School.

Lea had been a teacher in the San Jose School District in North Marin when Schneider was its superintendent. He had been named vice principal of a school there, but Supt. Ralph Giovanniello, who succeeded Schneider, revoked the appointment when it was pointed out to him that Lea did not then have an administrative credietial.

Lea was to play a major role in the Sausalito district, particularly in connection with a group called CRITERIA, an acronym of "Children Require Intelligent Teaching — Education Really Is Alive."

This group was set up as a representative council during a series of meetings of members of the district staff which began "rather spontaneously" at the end of May, 1968, according to a July 12 memorandum from Schneider to teachers.

In August, it produced a "Declaration of Education" which included a list of commitments to high goals. Among these were:

"It is essential for all members of the district staff to participate in confrontation groups to examine staff roles, school policies and problems, and staff-student interaction . . . .

"It is essential that all members of the district staff actively encourage teachers who are not agreeable to the district's integration policy to seek other employment . . ."

CRITERIA'S dedication to confrontation principles was evidenced on Oct. 21, 1968, when the board voted it $2,300 to send members to racial confrontation groups conducted by Dr. Price M. Cobbs of Pacific Psychotherapy Associates in San Francisco.

Armando Flores on behalf of the Sausalito Teachers Association, had asked two weeks earlier for $3,100 for teachers to attend similar sessions at San Francisco State College, but the board did not act on his request. It granted the $2,300 to CRITERIA promptly and without cavil.

On Dec. 2, 1968, Schneider presented the board a proposed multi-ethnic policy which he said was the work of CRITERIA, assisted by Sidney F. Walton Jr., who was then coordinator of a multi-ethnic program for Palo Alto Unified School District. (The Sausalito district paid Walton $100 for his share in this.)

The policy included a quota system for employment of black persons, a fulltime multi-ethnic coordinator, and recruitment of black teachers through advertising in such publications as the Berkeley Barb and Black Panther, as well as through colleges.

With this program accepted, CRITERIA moved into the hiring field. On Jan. 13 of this year, Schneider reported to the board that CRITERIA was interviewing Raye L. Richardson for the job of multi-ethnic coordinator. Two weeks later, she was hired.

On Jan. 27, Harvey Pearlman, one of two counselors who had attended Dr. Cobbs' encounter sessions, recommended on behalf of CRITERIA that encounter groups be made part of a district in-service workshop the following month and that money be budgeted for such training every four months. Again, the CRITERIA recommendations were accepted.

Playing a major role in CRITERIA since his hiring on July 10, 1968, has been James T. Toliver, who was hired to teach in the guidance center at Richardson Bay School (since renamed Martin Luther King School). Within a few months, he was designated assistant principal. He now styles himself assistant to the principal and staff.

Toliver is a widely traveled man. He was in Nigeria before coming to Sausalito, and lived in several countries of Europe following his graduation from McAlester College in St. Paul, Minn., in 1960.

He holds a secondary teaching credential from Sacramento State College but does not have an administrative credential. At one time he was a Los Angeles County probation officer.

On Feb. 3 of this year, the Sausalito board held one of its many closed sessions to discuss charges by and against Toliver and Orpha Barnes, a custodian. No action resulted.

Toliver figured largely in the district's protest against the "Marin City fence," and, with Lea, in defending teachers criticized for classroom display of materials referring to police as "pigs." He has also been a staunch defender of William Bradley (Chaka), and more recently, of Walton.

Bradley's hiring —and subsequent rumor he was to be dismissed — caused one of the three biggest uproars in the district this year, the others being over the Black Panther breakfasts and the employment of Walton as new principal of King School. It came about in an odd way.

Under its exchange program with Sausalito, the Mill Valley School District provides two teachers for Sausalito schools. One of them, teaching a mathematics class, was injured in the fall.

The teacher assigned as his replacement asked to be transferred back to Mill Valley at mid-year, and his replacement in turn asked a transfer "home" after only three weeks on the job. At that point, Schneider told Mill Valley Supt. A. Collins that he would find a replacement.

The man he chose was Bradley, who has adopted the name of Chaka for a Zulu king who is regarded as the greatest of native African military leaders.

He is a former chairman of a Committee of Racial Equality chapter in San Francisco and was a leader in the San Francisco Auto Row sit-ins five years ago.

Subsequently he operated the Afro-American Institute in San Francisco's Fillmore district. He is a San Francisco State College graduate but has no teaching credential.

Objections were raised about his lack of credential and about alleged teaching of black separatism instead of mathematics.

Schneider, saying "Chaka has done a wonderful job," declared he would try to get him a credential. "If we can't,' 'he said, "we will work out something on a consultant basis."

(Tomorrow: Declining enrollment, rising costs.)

Stereo, Wine Stolen

The theft of a stereo valued at $160 and 12 bottles of wine valued at $7 was reported to San Rafael police yesterday by Gunther Dinkus, of 360 Devon Drive, who told officers the items were taken from his garage sometime between Aug. 16 and yesterday morning.

The moon is approaching its full phase. The morning stars are Venus and Saturn. The evening stars are Mercury, Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1883 a total of 36,000 died when the great volcano at Krakatao in the Netherlands East Indies erupted.

In 1920 the 19th amendment to the U.S. Constitution gave women the right to vote.

In 1948 Mildred Elizabeth Gillars, known as "Axis Sally," was flown to the United States to face charges of espionage and treason for wartime radio broadcasting for Nazi Germany.

In 1964 President Lyndon B. Johnson and Senator Hubert Humphrey were nominated in Atlantic City to head the Democratic presidential ticket in November.

A thought for the day: Sir John Buchan said, "We can only pay our debt to the past by putting the future in debt to ourselves."

Finnish Police Solve More Burglary Cases

HELSINKI (UPI)—In burglary cases, Finnish police get their man more often than any other police in Europe, according to Police Chief Fjalar Jarva.

Jarva said statistics show Finland solves 52.6 per cent of its burglary cases. Austria was second, with 38.2 per cent. Holland, Italy, West Germany, England, France Sweden and Denmark solved less than 20 per cent.

DIAMONDS

When this hand was played, West opened the ace of diamonds and continued with the queen of diamonds. East naturally won with the king.

The natural defensive play for East is to return the queen of hearts. If West happens to hold the ace of hearts instead of the ace of spades, the defenders will get two hearts and three diamonds, defeating the contract.

As the cards lie, this defense will not work. South wins the heart return with the ace and leads a trump. He loses three diamonds and one trump, but then he can regain the lead to draw trumps; and then he can claim the rest of the tricks.

OTHER ACE

East can put up a more effective defense if he knows that West has the ace of spades rather than the ace of hearts. You might enjoy looking for East's best return at the third trick, after he has taken the king of diamonds.

As the cards lie, East can defeat the contract by returning a club. Declarer wins and leads a trump, whereupon West takes the ace of spades and cashes the jack of diamonds. East discards his remaining club on the jack of diamonds, and West then leads a club. East's ruff is the setting trick.

NEED CRYSTAL BALL

Very pretty, of course, but how on earth does East know that West has the ace of spades rather than the ace of hearts? That's the sort of thing that makes bridge such a difficult game for experts. If you think deeply, or if you have the right kind of crystal ball, you may find the right answer consistently in hands of this nature.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes. You hold:

♠ Q 10 8
♦ 9 7 5
♣ A Q J 9.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid 1 no-trump.

Since you have only nine points in high cards you cannot afford to bid two clubs. The hearts are too weak for a response of two hearts. By elimination you come to the only remaining response — one no-trump.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF DEFAULT AND ELECTION TO SELL UNDER DEED OF TRUST
Trust Order No. 23848 GH

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN: That CALIFORNIA LAND TITLE COMPANY, a corporation, is Trustee, or successor Trustee, or substituted Trustee under a deed of trust dated April 10, 1968, executed by THEODORE N. PREOVOLOS and EVANTHIA PREOVOLOS, his wife, as Trustor, to secure certain obligations in favor of SPERO P. SPILIOTIS and LORRAINE W. SPILIOTIS, his wife, as Joint Tenants, as Beneficiary, recorded April 11, 1968, in Book 2204, Page 100, of Official Records in the office of the Recorder of Marin County, California said obligations including a note for the sum of $131,000.00;

That the beneficial interest under such deed and the obligations secured thereby have been transferred to the undersigned;

That a breach of, and default in, the obligations for which such deed is security has occurred in that payment has not been made of:

Principal and interest. Section A (2) has been breached as there has been a failure to deliver to the Beneficiaries fire insurance as therein required.

That by reason thereof, the undersigned, present beneficiary under such deed, has executed and delivered to said Trustee, or successor Trustee, or substituted Trustee a written Declaration of Default and Demand for sale, and has deposited with said Trustee, or successor Trustee, or substituted Trustee such deed and all documents evidencing obligations secured thereby, and has declared and does hereby declare all sums secured thereby immediately due and payable and has elected and does hereby elect to cause the trust property to be sold to satisfy the obligations secured thereby.

PROJECT NO. 967
MARIN COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by, and shall be filed with, the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, Room 315, Marin County Civic Center, San Rafael, California, until 1:30 p.m., Sept. 15, 1969, for:

Correction of a slide including excavating and backfilling, permeable material, drain pipes, headwall, sewer pipe, sidewalk and other related facilities.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Requests for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

Plans, cross sections and Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications, or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) (cash or check made payable to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin) to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal Form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten per cent (10%) of the bid. Guaranties shall be in the form of a certified or Cashier's Check or a Bidder's Bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty.

The bid bonds of bidders, other than the successful bidder, may be retained by the Board of Supervisors for a period of thirty (30) days after award or until the successful bidder executes the contract and furnishes bonds, whichever occurs first. If a bidder to whom the contract is awarded fails, or refuses, to execute the contract within fifteen (15) days of notice of award, as herein provided, the Board of Supervisors may award to the next lowest responsible bidder and apply the bid bond of the bidder failing, or refusing, to execute contract, against the County's damages resulting from such failure. If a bidder to whom the contract is awarded executes the contract as herein required, the bid bonds of bidders to whom no award was made will be returned upon request.

Said proposals will be opened and read at 1:30 p.m. in Room No. 343, Marin County Civic Center, on the day specified above for receiving bids. Only the total amount bid will be read and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub-total and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Director of Public Works to which they will be removed for the purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors will award the bid at 1:30 p.m. Sept. 16, 1969, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

TIME LIMIT

The Contractor shall commence work on or before the tenth (10th) day following the date of written notification by the Director of Public Works that the contract has been awarded by the Board of Supervisors. During this ten (10) day interval, the necessary contract documents shall be executed by the Contractor and returned to the Department of Public Works. All work shall be completed on the project within forty (40) working days counting from and including the said tenth (10th) day.

| ITEM | QUANTITY |
|---|---|
| 1. Signs and Traffic Control | Lump Sum |
| 2. Excavation | 3,400 Cu. Yd. |
| 3. Permeable Material | 167 Cu. Yd. |
| 4. 6" Perforated Pipe | 110 L. F. |
| 5. 6" Pipe | 60 L. F. |
| 6. Sidewalk | 1,380 Sq. Ft. |
| 7. 4" V.C.P. Sewer Pipe | 55 L. F. |
| 8. Slope Seeding | 1,700 Sq. Yd. |

The foregoing quantities are approximate only, being given as a basis for comparing the bids, and the Board of Supervisors of Marin County does not, expressly or by implication, agree that the actual quantities will correspond therewith.

Rev. 7/16/69

For positions not listed above, the minimum rate paid for skilled, intermediate or unskilled labor shall be not less than minimum wage per hour and shall conform to the particular craft or classification of workmen employed on the project.

The attention of bidders is directed to the provisions of the specifications regarding legal relations and responsibility.

Attention is directed to the correlation of the specifications with the Standard Specifications of the State of California, Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, dated January, 1969, as to materials, methods and workmanship.

The Contractor whose bid is accepted shall furnish the following bonds to the County (at no expense to the County), executed by a responsible surety acceptable to the County in the prescribed form:

a) Faithful Performance Bond
b) Labor and Materials Bond

The Faithful Performance Bond shall be in an amount equal to one-hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the Contractor in his proposal.

The Labor and Materials Bond shall be in an amount equal to to one-hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the Contractor in this proposal.

EMPLOYEES AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

Contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color or national origin. This shall include employment, demotion or transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertisement, layoff or termination, rates of pay or other compensation, and selection for training and apprenticeship. Contractor shall post, in conspicuous places during period of contract and available to applicants for employment, notices setting for the provisions of this clause. Contractor shall insert the foregoing provision in all sub-contracts hereunder, except subcontracts for standard commercial supplies or raw materials. The hiring of all labor for work shall be in accordance with applicable directives of the Fair Employment Practices Commission of the State of California. The Contractor shall forfeit, as a penalty, in addition to any other penalty provided by law, to County, the sum of $25.00 or each calendar day, or portion thereof, during which the Contractor knowingly allows any conditions of discrimination to exist in connection with the work, provided, however, that such penalty shall not be imposed without a full investigation and determination by the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

Contractor shall cooperate fully with Marin County and affected Unions to promote and insure the maximum employment of Negroes and Spanish-speaking minorities, with particular emphasis on residents of Marin County, in all phases and at all levels of the work.

ALIEN LABOR

Section 7-1.01B of the Standard Specifications shall not apply to this contract.

APPRENTICESHIP

Attention is directed to the provisions in Sections 1777.5 (Chapter 1411, Statutes of 1968) and 17777.6 of the Labor Code concerning the employment of apprentices by the Contractor or any sub-contractor under him.

Section 17777.5, as amended, requires the Contractor or subcontractor employing tradesmen in any apprenticeable occupation to apply to the joint apprenticeship committee nearest the site of the public works project and which administers the apprenticeship program in that trade for a certificate of approval. The certificate will also fix the ratio of apprentices to journeymen that will be used in the performance of the contract. The ratio of apprentices to the journeymen in such cases shall not be less than one to five except:

A. When unemployment in the area of coverage by the joint apprenticeship committee has exceeded an average of 15 per cent in the 90 days prior to the request for certificate, or
B. When the number of apprentices in training in the area exceeds a ratio of one to five, or
C. When the trade can show that it is replacing at least 1/30th of its membership through apprenticeship training on an annual basis state-wide or locally, or
D. When the Contractor provides evidence that he employs registered apprentices on all of his contracts on an annual average of not less than one apprentice to eight journeymen.

The Contractor is required to make contributions to funds established for the administration of apprenticeship programs if he employs registered apprentices or journeymen in any apprenticeable trade on such contracts and if other contractors on the public works site are making such contributions.

The Contractor and any sub-contractor under him shall comply with the requirements of Sections 17777.5 and 17777.6 in the employment of apprentices.

Information relative to apprenticeship standards, wage schedules, and other requirements may be obtained from the Director of Industrial Relations, ex officio the Administrator of Apprenticeship, San Francisco, California, or from the Division of Apprenticeship Standards and its branch offices.

CHARTER ORDINANCE NO. 955

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL AMENDING TITLE 12 BY ADDING THERETO A NEW CHAPTER 12.34 ENTITLED "MOVING AND RELOCATION OF BUILDINGS OR STRUCTURES"

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SAN RAFAEL DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

The San Rafael Municipal Code is hereby amended so as to add thereto a new chapter to-wit: 12.34 "Moving and Relocation of Buildings or Structures" which shall read as follows:

CHAPTER 12.34
"MOVING AND RELOCATION OF BUILDINGS OR STRUCTURES"

2.34.020. Purpose and Scope. the purpose and scope of this Ordinance is to provide minimum standards to safeguard life, health, property and public welfare by regulating the moving and relocation of buildings or structures within the City of San Rafael.

12.34.020. Permit Required. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to move or cause to be moved, any building or structure that exceeds eight feet in width, twenty-five feet in length and fifteen feet in height when loaded on moving dollies, into, out of, through or within the City of San Rafael without first having obtained a housemover's permit from the Chief Building Inspector.

A housemoving permit shall not be issued until such time as a relocation permit is obtained from the Chief Building Inspector unless the structure is being moved from a location outside the City of San Rafael to a location outside the City of San Rafael.

12.34.030. Application for Housemover's Permit. Application for a housemover's permit shall be made upon forms furnished by the Building Department and shall contain the following information:

1. Applicant's name, address and phone number
2. That the applicant is a holder of a valid State of California housemoving license.
3. That the applicant is a holder of a valid City of San Rafael business license.
4. That the applicant has on file with said city a bond as required by section 12.34.050.
5. That the applicant has on file with said city a certificate of insurance as required by Section 12.34.060.
6. That the route over which the building is to be moved is specified.
7. That the written approval be obtained from the Superintendent of Street, Fire Chief, Police Chief and utility companies of the route over which the building is to be moved.
8. The relocation permit number.
9. Other information which the Superintendent of Streets or the Chief Building Inspector may require.

12.34.040. Fee for housemover's permit. Every person to whom a permit is issued shall pay to the Chief Building Inspector, a permit fee in accordance with the following schedule.

1. To move a building or structure from a location outside the City of San Rafael to a location outside the City of San Rafael: Twenty-five dollars ($25.00).
2. To move a building or structure to a location within the City of San Rafael not involving the use of a public street: Twenty-five dollars, ($25.00).
3. To move a building from a location within the City of San Rafael or to move a building to a location within the City of San Rafael involving the use of a public street, way or alley within the City of San Rafael: Forty dollars ($40.00).

In addition, the permittee shall deposit, with the Superintendent of Streets, the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00), plus such additional sum as may be required by said Superintendent of Streets to cover the expense to said city for use of city personnel and/or removal and replacement of and repairs to any city property or equipment belonging to said city, occasioned by the moving of such building or structure.

12.34.050. Bond Required. Before a housemover's permit may be issued hereunder, the housemover shall have filed with the city clerk a bond approved by the city attorney in favor of the city in the sum of one thousand dollars, $1,000.00, executed by a responsible surety company conditioned that the principal will strictly comply with all requirements of this chapter and any ordinance hereafter in effect regulating the moving of buildings or structures in said city; that the principal sum will pay for any and all damages to any fence, tree, pavement, street or sidewalk, or any other property belonging to said city resulting from the moving of any house or structure by him, that the principal sum shall be forfeited to the city if the permittee fails to comply with all conditions and regulations of the granting of such permit by the Chief Building Inspector and that the principal will indemnify and keep harmless said city against any and all damages, judgments, costs and expense which may in any wise accrue against said city in consequence of the granting to him or exercise by him of any permit hereunder; which bond shall operate as a continuing bond for the purpose of this chapter for a term of two years from and after the date thereof.

12.34.060. Insurance Required. No permit to move a building authorized by the Chief Building Inspector shall be issued until the permittee has filed with the city clerk a policy of public liability and property damage, or approved certificate thereof, issued by a responsible insurance company authorized to do business in the State of California. Said policy shall provide liability insurance in an amount of at least two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00) each person and seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($750,000.00) each accident, and property damage insurance in an amount of at least one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) per accident, and insure the permittee and shall insure to the benefit of any and all persons suffering loss or damage either to persons or property by reason of wrongful or negligent acts in moving the building. Said policy shall also contain a clause or special endorsement indemnifying and saving harmless the City of San Rafael against any loss, damage, costs and expenses which may in any wise accrue against said city in consequence of the granting of the permit for moving any building or structure.

12.34.070. Obstructing Streets. No building or structure in process of moving shall be permitted to remain in any one location or any public street or way or projecting over a public sidewalk, street or way, for a period longer than two hours except by written permission first obtained from the Superintendent of Streets, Fire Chief and Police Chief, and no such building or structure shall be permitted to obstruct traffic on any railroad for a longer time than is necessary and the railroad company shall be notified at least twenty-four hours in advance by the housemover of the intention to move any building or structure across any said railroad.

No building or structure when removed from its foundation shall be permitted to remain at its original site, transitional site for a period longer than forty-eight (48) hours, without written approval from the Chief Building Inspector.

12.34.080. Safety Requirement.

(A) The moving of said structure or building shall be during the hours specified by the Chief of Police.

(B) During the period from a half hour after sunset to a half hour before sunrise, lighted lanterns shall be hung at least every five feet along each end or side of any building or structure while in a public street or way.

At all times while any building or structure is in a public street or way, the housemover shall maintain "street closed" warning barriers at both ends of the block, and during the period from a half hour after sunset to a half hour before sunrise, lighted lanterns shall be maintained not more than five feet apart on such barriers, but not less than three in all on each barrier. In lieu of the barriers the housemover may, with the approval of the Chief of Police, employ the use of emergency police vehicles. The fee for the use of such vehicles shall be as determined by the Chief of Police. The housemover shall keep the fire department advised at all times of the location of any building or structure on any public street or way.

12.34.090. Wires, Cables, Guys and Poles.

(A) "If the moving of any building hereunder requires any interference with any fire alarm, communication, or public utility structure, the applicant shall notify the public utility involved of the tentative time of such moving, the route of such moving, and the estimated loaded height of the building and moving equipment. Applicant shall bear the cost of any measures required to protect said structures from destruction or damage due to the moving of any building hereunder, and shall indemnify such public utility against any and all damages or claims of whatever kind or nature, direct or consequential, caused directly or indirectly by the relocation of any building hereunder or by any measures required to protect such structures. Applicant shall furnish the public utility involved with an advance cash deposit in the amount of the estimated cost of protecting such structures, subject to adjustment upon completion of moving to reflect the actual cost of such protective measures. No permit hereunder shall be issued by the Chief Building Inspector unless applicant furnished satisfactory proof that any requirements of the public utilities have been fulfilled."

12.34.100 Relocation Permit Required. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to move any structures from or onto any lot, piece or parcel of land located within the city of San Rafael until a relocation permit has been obtained as provided in this chapter.

12.34.110. Application for Relocation Permit. Every application for a relocation permit shall be:

(A) Made in writing upon a form furnished by the Chief Building Inspector and shall set forth such information as may reasonably be required.

(B) Fees: Each application shall be accompanied by a filing fee of $50.00.

12.34.120. Action on Application.

(A) No permit shall be issued to relocate any building or structure within the City of San Rafael, which is so constructed or in such condition as to be dangerous or which is infested with pets or unsanitary; or which, if it be a dwelling for inhabitation, is unfit for human habitation; or which is so dilapidated, defective, unsightly or in such a condition of deterioration or disrepair that its relocation at the proposed site would cause appreciable harm to or be materially detrimental to the property or improvements in the district within a radius of 1,000 feet from the proposed site, or if the structure is of a type prohibited at the proposed site, by any fire district ordinance, or by any other law or ordinance provided, however, that if the condition of the building or structure, in the judgment of the Chief Building Inspector, admits of practicable and effective repair, the permit may be issued upon condition as hereinafter provided. If the unlawful, dangerous or defective condition of the building or structure proposed to be relocated is such that remedy or correction cannot practically and effectively be made, the permit shall be denied.

(B) The Chief Building Inspector shall, in granting any relocation permit, shall consider among other conditions the following:

1. Conformance to the zoning, building, housing, electrical, plumbing and heating codes of the City of San Rafael. The Chief Building Inspector shall determine what repairs, alterations, or remodeling will be required to conform to all the requirements of the aforementioned code.
2. That public improvements, such as concrete, curb and gutters, sidewalks, retaining walls, drainage, driveways and street trees are required to conform to city codes, ordinances and regulations.
3. That the structure when completed and in place will have a finished appearance and be so constructed as to not unreasonable depreciate other properties in the vicinity.

(C) Where the building or structure is to be moved outside the city limits of the City of San Rafael, the Chief Building Inspector shall require the removal of foundations, walls, walks, debris, or other materials or structures remaining on the premises after the removal of the building. The repair of sidewalks, curbs and gutters, the removal of abandoned driveways and approaches, the filling in of basements, trenches and other excavations, or other work to return the premises to a state that will not be detrimental nor injurious to the public or either in the district as herein limited.

12.34.130. Relocation Permit Bond required.

(A) No relocation permit shall be issued unless the applicant shall first post with the City Clerk of the City of San Rafael a bond executed by the owner of the premises where the building or structure is to be removed from the city or the owner of the premises from which the building or structure is to be moved, as principal and by a surety company authorized to do business in this state as surety. The bond, which shall be in form joint and several and shall name the City of San Rafael as obligee and shall be in an amount equal to the cost, plus twenty-five per cent (25%) of the work required to be done in order to comply with all the conditions of such relocation permit, as estimated by the chief building inspector. In lieu of a surety bond, the applicant may post a bond executed by the said owner, as principal, and which is secured by a deposit of cash in the amount and conditioned as required in the case of a surety bond, such a bond as so secured is hereinafter called a "cash bond" for the purpose of this section.

(B) Conditions of relocation permit bond. Every bond posted pursuant to this section shall be conditioned as follows:

1. That each and all of the terms and conditions of relocation permit shall be complied with to the satisfaction of the chief building inspector.
2. That all of the work required to be done pursuant to the condition of the relocation permit shall be fully performed and completed within the time limit specified in the relocation permit; or, if no time limit is specified, within ninety (90) days after the date of the issuance by the building official of the housemover's permit elsewhere in this chapter provided for. The time limit herein specified, or the time limit specified in any permit, may be extended for good and sufficient cause by the building official. No such extension of time shall be valid unless written and no such extension shall release any surety upon any bond.

(C) Default in performance of conditions notice to be given.

1. Whenever the chief building inspector shall find that a default has occurred in the performance of any term or condition of any permit, written notice thereof shall be given to the principal and to the surety on the bond.
2. Such notice shall state the work to be done, the estimated cost thereof and the period of time deemed by the chief building inspector to be reasonably necessary for the completion of such work and shall be served upon the principal by certified mail, return receipt requested.

After receipt of such notice the surety or principal must, within the time specified, either cause the required work to be performed or failing therein, must pay over to the building department the estimated cost of doing the work, as set forth in the notice. Upon receipt of such monies the building department may proceed by such mode as it deems convenient to cause the required work to be performed and completed but no liability shall be incurred therein other than for the expenditure of the said sum in hand therefore.

(D) Cash bond manner of enforcement. If a cash bond has been posted, notice of default as provided above shall be given to the principal and if compliance is not had within the time specified, the building department may proceed without further notice of proceedings whatever, to use the cash deposit to cause the required work to be done, by contractor or otherwise, in the discretion of the department.

The balance, if any of such cash deposit shall, upon the completion of the work be returned to the depositor or to his successors or assigns.

(E) Period and termination of bond. The term of each bond posted pursuant to this section shall begin upon the date of the posting thereof and shall end upon the completion, to the satisfaction of the Chief Building Inspector of the performance of all the terms and conditions of the relocation permit. Such completion shall be evidenced by a statement thereof, signed by the Chief Building Inspector, a copy of which will be sent to any surety or principal upon request. When a cash bond has been posted, the cash shall be returned to the depositor, or to his successors or assigns, upon the termination of the bond, except any portion thereof that may have been used or deducted as elsewhere in this section premises.

(F) Entry Upon Premises.

1. The building department, or other department of the City of San Rafael, the surety and the duly authorized representatives of either shall have access to the premises discribed in the relocation permit for the prupose of inspecting the progress of the work.
2. In the event of any default in the performance of any term or condition of the relocation permit, the surety, or any person employed or engaged on its behalf, the building department, or any person employed or engaged on its behalf shall have the right to go upon the premises to complete the required work or to remove or demolish the building or structure.
3. It shall be unlawful for the owner, or his representatives, successors or assigns, or any other person to interfere with or obstruct the ingress or egress to or from any such premises of any authorized representative or agent of any surety, or the city engage in the work of completing, demolishing or removing any building or structure for which a relocation permit has been issued, after a default has occurred in the performance of the terms or conditions thereof.

12.34.140 Appeals.

(A) Any applicant for a house moving permit or for a relocation permit or any person aggrieved by any decision of the Chief Building Inspector, may appeal such decision to the City Council by filing with the City Clerk a written notice of appeal within ten days of such decision. The appeal shall state the grounds upon which it is made and the particular decision from which the appeal is to be made.

(B) At the next regular meeting following the filing of notice of appeal the City Council shall set a date for a public hearing and said public hearing shall be held not more than 45 days thereafter. The decision of the City Council shall be rendered within thirty (30) days after the public hearing. In the event a decision is not rendered within the time limit specified above, the notice of appeal is automatically rejected.

SECTION II. Penalty for Violation. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and each such person shall be deemed guilty of a separate offense for each and every day or portion thereof during which any violations of any of the provisions of this ordinance is committed, continued or permitted, and upon conviction of any such violation such person shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500.00 or by imprisonment in the County Jail of Marin County for not more than three (3) months of by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION III. This ordinance shall be published once in full before its final passage in the Independent Journal a newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in said City and shall be in full force and effect thirty (30) days after its final passage.

C. PAUL BETTINI
Mayor of the City of San Rafael
ATTEST:
/s/ W. CLIFFORD CORNWELL
City Clerk of the City of San Rafael

The above and foregoing charter ordinance No. 955 was read and introduced at a regular meeting of the City Council of the City of San Rafael held on the 18th day of August, 1969, and ordered passed to print by the following vote, to wit:

AYES: COUNCILMEN Barbier, Jensen, Miskimen, Robbins, Jr., and Mayor Bettini
NOES: COUNCILMEN None
ABSENT: COUNCILMEN None

and will come up for adoption as an Ordinance of the City of San Rafael at a regular meeting of the Council to be held on the 2nd day of September, 1969.

/s/ W. CLIFFORD CORNWELL
City Clerk
No. 1047 Aug. 26, 1969

Tentative Map For Subdivision

The Rohnert Park City Council last night in special session approved the tentative map for a 111-home subdivision planned by Young America Homes.

City Mgr. Peter M. Callinan said the vote came after a long discussion on the pros and cons of increasing density. The council said it would amend the planning district section of the city code to reduce the minimum 60-foot frontage to 45 feet as planned in the new subdivision.

Residents complained that the smaller lots sizes would reduce the value of older homes and charged that the added population would place a heavy burden on schools and cause an increase in school taxes.

In approving the tentative map, the council said it would like to see detailed plans for house sites, landscaping and fencing. The council also required that utilities be placed underground.

Callinan said that final maps should be completed in several weeks and that Young America hopes to have model homes completed before winter.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

Lung Function Pollutes Air With Carbon Monoxide Poisons

VAN DELLEN

Man inhales oxygen and exhales carbon dioxide. He also produces carbon monoxide, the same toxic gas found in automobile exhausts, fuel combustion, wood fires, and cigarette smoke. In this respect, the body causes air polution, too. The carbon monoxide stems from the degradation of heme, the oxygen-carrying part of hemoglobin.

Carbon monoxide (CO) from this source is released into the blood and eliminated via the lungs. The CO concentration in the blood of a normal, healthy adult is 0.4 per cent. This is low compared with the safe limit value of 8 to 10 per cent that follows the inhalation of 50 ppm of carbon monoxide for 8 hours. A person who smokes 10 to 20 cigarettes and inhales will have a blood level of 6 per cent.

In special or extreme circumstances, our own carbon monoxide might become a health hazard. The possibility exists for infants in incubators and those who spend long periods of time in outer space or undersea explorations.

Elevated CO levels also have be found in babies suffering from blood disorders involving the hemoglobin. We assume that the same might occur when an individual develops a disease in which the red cells are being destroyed faster than they are manufactured.

To avoid a misunderstanding, the amount of CO involved is too small to be harmful. On the other hand, it may be a contributing factor when a person works in an environment where the air contains more than an average amount of carbon monoxide. We refer to tunnel engineers, garage mechanics, and policemen at busy intersections. The same can be said of heavy smokers. Smoke contains a high level of carbon monoxide but much of it is exhaled before it is absorbed.

(Questions on medical topics will be answered by mail if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the Independent-Journal.)

FACIAL NEURALGIA

Mrs. B. K. writes: Is there a cure for tic douloureux?

REPLY

Yes. This is one of the most painful forms of neuralgia that plagues mankind. Surgery is recommended when it gets out of hand and if medicines and injections of alcohol or hot water have been tried with no results. The anticonvulsant drugs such as Dilantin and carbamazepine sometimes produce gratifying results. These, however, are prescription products.

SOUR MILK

T. S. writes: Does drinking milk that has turned slightly sour hurt the stomach?

REPLY

No. Food poisoning may develop if the milk is exposed to warm air and is contaminated with virulent organisms. On the other hand, sour cream makes a good dressing and many cheeses are made from cultured milk.

ACID SCARS

Miss L. C. writes: My friend's little girl survived swallowing some carbolic acid. Are there likely to be any after effects?

REPLY

Yes — scar tissue, if the membranes lining the esophagus (gullet) were burned sufficiently. If this occurred, the tube must be dilated to avoid obstruction.

KINDS OF PRESSURE

S. B. writes: Is there more than one kind of blood pressure?

REPLY

Yes — normal, low, and high. However, if you are inquiring about high blood pressure, send stamped, self-addressed envelope for our leaflet on hypertension.

DISEASED RABBITS

T. C. writes: Is tularemia confined to wild rabbits or can domestic rabbits harbor these germs?

REPLY

The disease attacks chiefly wild animals but there is no reason why domestic animals cannot develop it. The latest epidemic occurred in Vermont and was traced to muskrats.

Dixie Bus Service Cut Considered

Elimination of school bus service for pupils in the Lee Drive area to Don Timoteo School will be considered by Dixie School District trustees at 8 p.m. today in the administration office, 35 Trellis Drive, San Rafael.

The service was authorized by trustees several years ago pending completion of sidewalks between the school and the residential area, and the long-awaited work is to be completed early this fall.

Also on the agenda is consideration of forming two citizen study groups, one for instruction goals and one to assess the future building program.

Mailliard To Address Marin GOP Meeting

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, also will speak.

BEST SHOWS FOR TONIGHT

Best bets on television tonight:

KPIX (5), 7:30 p.m.—The burgeoning urban problem of waste-material disposal is the subject of the hour-long "Spectrum 52" special, "Investigative Report: The Third Pollution." Rod MacLeish narrates.

KGO (7), KNTV (11), 8:30 p.m.—Angela Marten, Kerwin Marhews and Cal Bellini star in "In the Dead of Night," an aerie one-hour drama set in a haunted house.

KRON (4), KCRA (3), 9 p.m.—"NBC Tuesday Night at the Movies" presents the suspense picture, "Games," starring Simone Signoret, James Caan and Katharine Ross.

KQED (9), 9 p.m.—"NET Festival" offers "Leinsdorf Recreates." Erich Leinsdorf, music director of the Boston Symphony, rehearses the senior orchestra of the New England Conservatory of Music in the third movement of Gustav Mahler's "Symphony No. 3."

KPIX (5), 10 p.m.; KXTV (10), 10:30 p.m.—A comparison of the ancient Greek's scientific method with the modern technology that made it possible for man to land on the moon will be the subject of "The Heritage of Apollo," a telecast in the CBS series, "Who, What, When, Where, Why."

KQED (9), 10 p. m.—Lillian Gish reminisces about her life in the theater and Hollywood, and talks about her book, "The Movies, Mr. Griffith, and Me," on "Kaleidoscope."

KPIX (5), 10:30 p.m.—"KPIX Reports: Air Traffic—Crisis in the Sky," an examination of the problem of over-crowded airways, is narrated by Rod MacLeish.

$1 Million Warehouse Fire

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—A waterfront warehouse burned early today with loss estimated at more than $1 million.

No injuries were reported.

Its only contents were plumbing supplies, including a large quantity of plastic pipe which sent billows of smoke pouring over the waterfront on the edge of Portland's downtown area.

Tam Valley Picnic Planned Labor Day

The Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club and the Tam Valley Fire Department will sponsor the annual Tam Valley Labor Day Picnic beginning at noon Monday at Ricketts Field.

The annual event will feature a watermelon eating contest, sack races, a tug of war and other events, sponsors said. The public is invited.

Attempt To Steal Police Car Shotgun

An unsuccessful attempt was made yesterday to steal a shotgun from an unlocked squad car while a patrolman was inside the police station, Sausalito police said.

Police said the patrol car was parked near the police station when the theft attempt was made. The would-be thief did $60 damage to the car, police said.

'Dead' Woman Fights To Live

SANTA MARIA (UPI)—A 61-year-old woman, who was pronounced dead but started gasping for air as she was carried away on a stretcher to the coroner's office, was in critical condition today.

Mrs. Constance F. Bell, a widow, was found yesterday lying face down on the floor of her bedroom by a housekeeper. She was pronounced dead by Dr. A.S. Missall.

But 40 minutes later, when she was carried out of the home on a stretcher, Mrs. Bell suddenly gasped for air. She was taken to the intensive care ward at Marian Hospital where she was listed in critical condition.

Frank Jr. To Be Star Of Special

By ROBERT MUSEL

NEW YORK (UPI)—"The world," said Frank Sinatra, Jr., "isn't exactly breaking down my door."

A wry smile went with the admission for the son of one of the greatest stars of them all knows he has chosen the hard way to the top.

In an age when young record buyers prefer their idols unshorn he sports a neat haircut. Even worse he wears a jacket and tie. And instead of extorting a few simple chords from a guitar he works with a band of good musicians.

So instead of armies of screaming teen-agers he plays to more sedate audiences at county fairs, in theaters, night clubs and hotel lounges. It is a hard life that has made him, at 25, an impressive young man secure in his own experience and convinced that he, too, will in his own time achieve his goals in the family business.

These are, first stardom as an entertainer and then a career as a director.

There are two high roads to the heights—a hit record (sister Nancy Sinatra's route) or a television special (Barbra Streisand's springboard). CBS-TV is just completing the final touches on a special, "Frank Sinatra, Jr., His Family and His Friends" which millions of people will be watching Oct. 19 to decide whether the magic will strike yet again.

"I couldn't believe it when I was offered the special," Frank said, savoring the moment once again. "I said 'What do you guys want me for?' You see, I knew it would happen some day but I couldn't believe it would happen so soon."

Buy Word

WHAT IS OKRA AND HOW IS IT USED? . . . asks Irene Pegnem of Oakland.

Okra is a seed pod from a large herbaceous plant cultivated in warm climates. The vegetable is often combined with stews where its bluey sap helps thicken the liquid. It can be stewed or sauteed and served with butter or various sauces. Like all vegetables it should be cooked until just tender, about 5 to 8 minutes depending on the size of the pieces. Leftover cooked okra can be used in salads and can be marinated in salad dressing prior to combining it with other salad ingredients.

WHICH YIELDS MORE MEAT PER POUND . . . CHICKEN OR TURKEY? That's the question from James Britell of Walnut Creek.

As a general rule the smaller the bird, the larger the proportion of bone to meat. The following percentage refuse figures indicate the increase in edible meat with the increase in weight of the bird:

| Ready to cook Poultry | Refuse |
|---|---|
| CHICKEN, 1¾-lbs. | 32% |
| ROASTERS, CAPONS, HENS | 27% |
| TURKEYS | 27% |

Marin Prep Gridders Open Practice

If you'll look up from those abnormally interesting baseball standings for a minute, you'll note that the local football scene is about ready to get underway.

Marin County fans got a taste of things to come last Thursday when the South topped the North, 19-14 in the annual Ross Valley Kiwanis All-Star Game.

Most area high school teams will be getting out their gear either this week or next and start knocking heads for serious in the third week of September.

Terra Linda, San Rafael and and Marin will start practicing tomorrow but the rest of the Marin County Athletic League schools will wait until next Monday to get down to active practice. So will the Sonoma County schools and Marin Catholic, Tomales and San Rafael Miltiary Academy.

It will be a strangely different Marin season, with fewer night games, and more fields.

OVERTAXED FIELD

All of the night games in the MCAL will be played either on the road or at San Rafael High School's overtaxed field.

That situation came about with the elimination of College of Marin's field, which went by the wayside to make room for a new science building. With it went its lights.

College of Marin will play all its home games at Marin Catholic in Kentfield, which also inherited the COM bleachers. Meanwhile, Tamalpais and Redwood will be playing on fields of their own, minus lights, and Drake switches its home games to San Rafael, already occupied as a home game field by San Rafael and Terra Linda.

Also new on the local scene will be San Marin as a varsity competitor. It will share Novato High School's field as home site.

JUMPS GUN

Most teams begin non-league action on either Sept. 19 or 20 although St. Vincent's of Petaluma jumps the gun on Sept. 13 with a game against Justin High School of Napa.

Sept. 19 openers find Drake at Petaluma, Terra Linda in Kezar Stadium against Riordan of San Francisco, Tamalpais hosting Salesian of Richmond, Rancho Cotate of Rohnert Park at Cloverdale, San Rafael Military Academy at Maxwell High School (Colusa County) and Marin Catholic hosting Albany.

On Sept. 20, College of Marin hosts San Jose City College, Sonoma State hopefully opens its initial season against Arizona Western, Novato visits Montgomery at Santa Rosa, Redwood will play Archibishop Mitty of San Jose at Buck Shaw Stadium in Santa Clara and San Marin of Novato hosts McClymonds of Oakland.

49er HOLDOUT McNEIL 'HOPEFUL' OF SIGNING

SANTA BARBARA (AP)—Holdout Clifton McNeil met with San Francisco 49er Coach Dick Nolan yesterday and was to meet today with General Manager Jack White.

"I'm very hopeful," the 28-year-old receiver said. "I have met the prerequisite set down by management — that I first talk with Coach Nolan. I feel very good after that meeting. Actually, there never were any differences between us. They were with management."

McNeil, the National Football League's leading receiver last year, seeks a reported $40,000 to $50,000 a year. He was obtained a year ago from Cleveland, where he never became a regular, and received $22,000 last year.

Wine Country Again Hits Boxing Headline

I see where Brian London of Blackpool, England has opened a training camp in Napa. Or, maybe it's Brian Blackpool of London, England.

Anyway, Great Britain's second ranked heavyweight fighter is up in the grape country preparing for his Sept. 3 10-round bout against Jerry Quarry in Oakland's Coliseum Arena.

If you'd like to see an internationally famous boxfighter in training, London is at Newsboy Joe Gavras' gymnasium located at 1728 Green Street, Napa. Since they don't get many visitors in that grape country community, your attendance would be greatly appreciated, I imagine. And besides, it's a refreshing change from the Little Old Winemaker.

Actually, that area is not new as a training camp for heavyweight fighters. Back in 1955, world champion Rocky Marciano used nearby Calistoga to prepare for his title bout against another Briton, Don Cockell.

What made that a juicy local angle was that Cockell trained here in San Rafael at Whitey Litchfield's Bermuda Palms Motel, which in those days was quite a training camp for the likes of Rocky Castellani, Joey Maxim, and Paddy DeMarco. The fact that all four lost their big fights while training here did not give Litchfield an inferiority complex. He's still the same old extrovert.

Not Much Of A Talker, Either

Anyway, we found out in those days that British heavyweights are difficult merchandise to sell. Cockell was not only an inept challenger to the great Marciano's throne, he was poor copy. Talking to him was like talking to a tree. You'd get more information out of a mute Russian spy.

But, the International Boxing Club brought in its high powered publicity men to push the bout and one of their training camp promotions was to stage "British Empire Day" at Bermuda Palms. Oh, they dolled up the place in a veddy Briddish motif, complete with queen-sized beds in the rooms, boiled mutton in the restaurant, warm beer at the bar and the flabby Cockell in the ring. Pip-pip.

A London paper hired a journalist named Pierre Salinger to cover this momentus occasion and I'm afraid the future press secretary to President John F. Kennedy had little encouragement to report to the folks back home.

Oops! 'Slipsies' Don't Count

You see, part of the British Empire Day schedule was for Cockell to spar three or four rounds with some pug. The idea was for Cockell to look sharp, but I'm afraid he failed miserably because do you know what Cockell did? He got decked by his sparring partner, that's what Cockell dood. Cockell-doodle-doo!

Oh, the embarrassment. I counted 11 monacles crashing to the floor. "Slipsies!" one of his cornermen shouted, but, we knew it was a legitimate knockdown. The I-J had a picture of it and published it the next day to the great consternation of the IBC publicists where were having enough trouble selling tickets without advertising their challenger as a gymnasium canvasback.

But, the IBC guys evened things out. A couple of days later the great Marciano obligingly was decked by his sparring partner. While Cockell's was slipsies, Marciano's was legit, the IBC boys insisted. Sure.

Anyway, their fight came off and everyone was amazed at Cockell's stamina. Marciano hit him with everything but Big Ben and the big challenger kept coming. Finally, Cockell went down and out in the ninth round. A crowd of 15,000 saw that fight at Kezar Stadium.

Pardon the reminiscing, but London's (or Blackpool's) presence in Napa brought back some fond memories. Pip-pip.

A WORD FROM BROADWAY JOE — New York Jet quarterback Joe Namath, lifted in the first quarter against the Oakland Raiders, has a few words through his new mustache with coach Weeb Ewbank during the fourth quarter of an AFL exhibition game at Oakland Coliseum.

(AP wirephoto)

Jets Use Subs In Oakland Tilt

OAKLAND — The last time Joe Namath and the New York Jets visited Oakland it took a last-minute knockout punch by Heidi and the Raiders to defeat them and some of their fans.

Last night the little Swiss girl stayed home. Broadway Joe spent most of it on the bench and, with some more last-minute heroics, the Raiders romped to an easy 24-6 American Football League exhibition victory.

The game was billed as a rematch of last season's two epic battles—the Raiders' come-from-behind 43-32 victory which some viewers missed when the National Broadcasting Co. cut off the final minutes to telecast Heidi, and New York's 27-23 victory over Oakland for the AFL championship.

52,927 CROWD

The viewers of a local television station in New York saw the whole game this time—and what they and 52,927 fans in the Oakland Coliseum saw was, for the most part, a dull scrimmage.

"I'm very satisfied with my progress," said Namath after coming out in the first quarter with five completions in seven attempts for 50 yards.

"We've been coordinating pretty well," said the Jets' quarterback. "Everybody's healthy, and we haven't been making many errors."

Packer Star Walks Out, Comes Back

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Boyd Dowler, veteran wide receiver, who walked out of the Green Bay Packers' training camp in an apparent salary dispute yesterday, was back in camp today.

"I wasn't feeling well," said the National Football League club's outstanding receiver, when asked by newsmen why he missed yesterday's drill and last night's team meeting.

"That's good enough, isn't it?"

Coach Phil Bengston said only that Dowler had been "excused," yesterday.

Dowler was asked if there had been a contract problem. He said there was "No contractural problem—just a lack of one."

Dowler is one of several Packer veterans who have not signed 1969 contracts. He has played in all three exhibition games this season, grabbing 10 passes for 127 yards.

Warrior Owner Puts Out Welcome Mat For Barry

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rick Barry seemingly doesn't want to follow the Oakland Oaks to the nation's capital but his coach apparently wouldn't mind moving to New Mexico with a new American Basketball Association team.

Barry, the Oaks' star forward, was quoted yesterday by the team's new owner as saying he didn't want to leave the San Francisco Bay Area and didn't believe he could be forced into such a move.

Earl Foreman -- who recently purchased the club and said he hopes to move it to Washington, D.C. -- made the statement to newsmen after meeting privately with the superstar.

Barry had no comment about the meeting in the office of his attorney, Robert Rubin. But Foreman, who was in and out of the six-hour session, said: "On behalf of the Washington Capitals, I've asked Rick Barry to honor his contract with Oakland Basketball, Inc., and play basketball for the Washington Caps.

"Rick has stated that he does not wish to leave the Bay Area and it is his belief that he is not required to do so."

RICK MUM

Neither Foreman nor Rubin would elaborate and Barry refused to meet with newsmen, remaining in Rubin's office.

It was rumored that Barry may re-sign with the San Francisco Warriors today.

"I have Rick's unform behind the door," Warrior president Franklin Mieuli said. "His contract in my drawer and a pen on my desk. If he gets close enough, I'm going to inflict all three upon him."

The 25-year-old star led the National Basketball Association with an average of 35.6 points a game, then jumped from the San Francisco Warriors to the Oaks.

After sitting out the 1967-68 season in compliance with a court order, Barry averaged 34 points a game for the Oaks until he was injured in midseason. The team, cellar-dwellers the year before, went on to win the ABA title.

He has two years remaining on a contract which gave him 15 per cent of the team and a reported $75,000 a year. There have been published reports his agreement with the Oaks' former majority owner, Ken Davidson, included a clause allowing Barry to negotiate as a free agent if the team moved or folded.

'GREAT AREA'

In Albuquerque, N.M., meanwhile, Oaks Coach Alex Hannum spent the weekend meeting with businessmen to discuss the possibility of establishing an ABA franchise in their city.

"I personally am very optimistic," Hannum said about the possibility of an Albuquerque club. "It has been confirmed to me what everybody has been telling me -- what a truly great basketball area this is."

Pitchers Shelled In Slow Pitch

Pitchers had a rough time of it in slow pitch division action of the San Rafael Recreation Department's Adult Softball League at Albert Field yesterday.

Sam King turned in the only top-drawer effort, as he helped Salt's Fish and Chips down Foust Chevron, 4-1; on a three-hitter.

Native Sons outslugged the Gophers, 12-9 and Timmer Realtor whipped Hub City, 9-6 in the two hitting affairs of the night.

TWO VIEWS OF MARIN'S DIPSEA

The horse couldn't care less about the pack of runners cavorting along the trail, but Mike Mahoney of San Francisco found a fine vantage point at the finish line of the 59th running of the Mill Valley-to-Stinson Beach Dipsea Race. A throng of 775 men, woman and children entered (Sunday's) race and 733 finished the 6.8-mile run, led by 10-year-old Vance Eberly of San Jose. (Independent-Journal photos by Roger Bockrath)

Montreal Flops In Pitch For Pro Grid Franchise

By MIKE RATHET

MONTREAL (AP) — Thud!

The sound you just heard was Montreal dropping to the bottom in the expansion game standings.

A potentially strong candidate off the showing made by baseball's Montreal Expos in their first season of play on Canadian soil, this city of two languages fumbled its first test at showing support for pro football American-style.

In any language, French or English, last night's interleague exhibition game in which Detroit defeated Boston 22-9 could only be classed as a major disappointment when a sparse crowd of just 8,212 showed up at Jarry Park.

Why?

There were various answers for the record, but off the record a suspicion exists that the people may have intentionally resisted the game as a way of rejecting overtures being made by the city itself for an American franchise.

LITTLE INTEREST

The two English language papers did little to stir interest and the result was the worst attendance in inter-league exhibition history. The previous low was 11,500 for last year's Pittsburgh-Cincinnati game at Morgantown, W.Va.

The small crowd—part of which began to leave after an unexciting first half—was an obvious disappointment to all parties involved and represented a definite loss in prestige for the city in its bid for an expansion franchise in the future.

But Gerry Snyder, the man generally acknowledged as responsible for bringing major league baseball here and the prime mover in seeking an American football franchise for Montreal, did not view the experience as a rejection by the Canadians of the American game.

BETTER CROWD

"You start anything," he said, "you start at some point. Boston and Detroit are not the greatest draws as far as Montreal is concerned. I think you'll see a better crowd when the New York Giants play here."

The Giants, whose games are carried on television here, meet Pittsburgh Sept. 11.

Snyder has said frankly the two games represent a test of Montreal's desire for American pro football.

"This is where the people have to put it on the line and show they want American pro football," he said before the game.

"If these two games don't draw well the people will have answered in the most direct way possible."

That the answer may be similar for the Giants' game is a strong possibility with less than 10,000 tickets sold so far.

A's, Reds Tighten Races

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

While the other sardines in the National League's tightly-packed West Division rested, Cincinnati squeezed in a little more and, together with Washington, closed ranks in several other divisions.

The Reds slipped by the Chicago Cubs 9-8 yesterday in the National League's only game that jumped Cincinnati ahead of Atlanta into second place by percentage points in the N.L. West.

The loss also cut the Cubs' East lead over the idle New York Mets to 4½ games, two games on the loss side.

Washington had an easier time getting by Minnesota 7-3 last night in the only American League game, bringing idle Oakland 1½ games from the first place Twins in the A.L. West and putting them even in the all-important loss column.

FIELDING FINESSE

The Reds used their home run power to build a 9-4 lead, but needed some fielding finesse to stop the Cubs with only four runs in the ninth inning.

With the bases loaded and two out, Paul Popovich lined a 2-2 pitch off Pedro Ramos to right field where Bobby Tolan made a fine running catch to end the game.

Tony Perez had ripped a two-run homer in the first for Cincinnati and Lee Maye belted his 34th in the fourth, but the score was deadlocked 3-3 before Perez hit his second of the game and 32nd of the season in the sixth to put the Reds ahead to stay.

Cincinnati ran it up with two more in the seventh and three in the ninth, two on Johnny Bench's double, but found themselves in a ninth inning bind after Jim Hickman's 15th homer for the Cubs in the eighth.

Gary Nolan, 4-5, walked the first two batters in the bottom of the ninth and Wayne Granger relieved and retired the next two. But then Ron Santo doubled in two runs, Ernie Banks singled, Hickman doubled in another run and two walks forced in the fourth. That's when Ramos entered.

Unitas Will Get Another Shot As No. 1 Quarterback

COMBINED AP & UPI

WESTMINSTER, Md. — Former All-Pro star John Unitas will start at quarterback for the first time in a year for the Baltimore Colts Saturday night against the Miami Dolphins.

Earl Morrall, who led the Colts to an NFL title last season, in place of the injured Unitas, aggravated a pulled stomach muscle at Buffalo last Friday.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y.—The AFL Buffalo Bills cut seven-year veteran Ed Rutkewskil, a flanker who subbed at quarterback last season.

CLEVELAND — Cleveland Brown's cornerback Ben Davis, in his third NFL season, suffered a torn knee cartilage and will miss from six to eight weeks of play.

FULLERTON — The NFL Los Angeles Rams aquired four-year veteran quarterback Gary Lane on waivers from the Washington Redskins.

BASEBALL

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic — The finals tonight between the United States and Cuba for the World Amateur Baseball championship is more than just a baseball game. United States pride is at stake.

The Americans, playing on sensitive ground here, had been booed by anti-American groups during the series. Feelings toward the U.S. on this island have been strained since 1965 when U.S. Marines moved in during a revolution attempt.

BASEBALL

WASHINGTON, Pa. — Jeff Houle threw a five-hitter and catcher Jim McGuffin hit his fourth homer in the tournament as Arcadia swept past Caracas, Venezuela, in the Pony League World Series yesterday, giving the Californians a 5-0 win and a 3-1 record in the double-elimination tournament.

CHICAGO — Chicago Cubs outfielder Jim Qualls, unable to play since suffering a jammed shoulder Aug. 22, has been placed on the disabled list. Catcher John Hariston, hitting .469 in 25 games at Tacoma, Wash., will replace him on the roster.

TENNIS

FORREST HILLS, N.Y. — Ann Hayden Jones of Britain, the top seed in the U.S. Open Tennis Championships starting tomorrow, has withdrawn from the tournament because of a shoulder ailment.

There will be no change in the seedings but an alternate would be famed today to replace Mrs. Jones, the Wimbledon champion, in the draw.

RUMSON, N.J. — Pete Burwash, Canada, downed Dave Harmon, Salt Lake City, 75- 6-3 in a second-round qualifying match for tomorrow's U.S. Open Championships.

GOLF

DENVER — Arnold Palmer, once again testing his ailing hip, arrives here today for a benefit golf match which could determine how soon he gets back on the rich professional golf circuit.

Palmer, Doug Sanders, Dave Hill and Dale Douglass will play an exhibition match at the tough Columbine Country Club course, site of the PGA tournament two years ago.

CINNCINNATI — Carol Mann has replaced Kathy Whitworth atop the standings of the leading money winners on the IPGA tour. She's earned $35,547 so far, compared to Miss Whitworth's $33,504.

GENERAL

NEW YORK — Commissioner Walter Kennedy said that the National Basketball Association has broken off exploratory talks with the American Basketball Association over what the NBA termed a breach of good faith.

Namath Warms The Bench As Jets Bow To Raiders

Jets coach Weeb Ewbank, however, said Namath's legs were bothering him. "He's looked good up to now so why chance an injury?" Ewbank asked. "Besides, he's looked sharp all week."

The Jets seemed lost on the field without Namath. Neither veteran Babe Parilli nor rookie Al Woodall had much success in moving the club. Only two field goals by Jim Turner kept the 1968 pro champs from being shut out.

Well before the game Oakland coach John Madden said he had a set game plan and that was to go mostly with his regulars.

"Although the Jets used a lot of rookies, we didn't let that affect our game plan," Madden said. "I was pleased with our overall performance but we didn't take advantage of too many scoring opportunities in the first half."

After Daryle Lamonica guided Oakland 69 yards with the opening kickoff for a touchdown, the Raiders failed to muster any sort of drive until ageless George Blanda's belated appearance in the waning moments of the third period.

OUT OF REACH

With the score 7-6 in favor of Oakland, Blanda put the game out of reach with a 23-yard scoring pass to Larry Todd to culminate a 65-yard drive in just three plays.

Blanda's first two passes, for 18 and 24 yards, went to Warren Wells in the left flat. Then he pitched a perfect aerial to the speedy Larry Todd on the opposite side.

All told, the 41-year-old Blanda hit on six of seven passes for 107 yards.

The score came with 11 minutes left in the game and after that Oakland added 10 more points to turn it into a rout. Blanda booted a 16-yard field goal and Lamonica hit on his second scoring pass of the night, a six-yarder to rookie Drew Buie.

Lamonica's first TD pass was from 13 yards out to Wells.

THIS DAY IN SPORTS

Dolinsek Boosts Batting Average

John Dolinsek of Novato has added another hot week to his credit playing for the Houston Astros' Covington, Va., rookie team.

Last time out, he came through with a .353 week that included a homer, a triple, two doubles and two runs batted in.

That left Dolinsek with a .301 batting average on the season.

Former Redwood High School flash Ken Johnson did somewhat better than he has been doing, getting a hit in three at bats for the New York Yankee' Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., class A team. The hit was a three-run homer. He's now hitting .149 on the season.

Anchorage Team Wins National Semi-Pro Title

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Jack Brushert's three-run homer led Anchorage, Alaska, to a 5-1 victory over Liberal, Kan., and the championship of the 35th National Baseball Congress (Semi-pro) tournament last night.

Brushert's blow came in Anchorage's five-run outburst in the last of the eighth inning after Liberal took a 1-0 lead in the top of the eighth. Gene Salmon singled Pat Amos home for Liberal's run.

Lefthander Jim Crawford, who worked in seven of Anchorage's eight tourney games, was credited with his third victory. He gave up six hits.

Liberal won the championship last year. This was Anchorage's first trip to the national tourney.

Boulder, Colo. took third place by beating Fairbanks, Alaska,

A's Launch Busy Schedule With Two In Detroit

DETROIT (AP) — Thankful for a full day of rest after playing 27 innings of baseball Sunday, the Oakland Athletics faced another doubleheader today, this time with the Detroit Tigers.

Lew Krausse, 7-5, and George Lauzerique, 3-1, of the A's were scheduled to hurl a twi-night doubleheader against Denny McLain, 20-6, and Earl Wilson, 10-8.

The A's were idle yesterday, but gained a half game on Minnesota in the American League West race as the Twins lost to Washington, 7-3. Oakland now trails by 1½ games.

Oakland, which beat Baltimore Sunday 9-0 and 9-8 in a second contest that ended in the 18th with Ted Kubiak's run-scoring single, must play 11 games in 10 days.

They have only one more day off, Sept. 29, before the end of the season.

Healdsburg Youth Near Golf Lead

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Jerry Jesmer of Phoenix Ariz., shot a one-under-par 71 to take the first-round lead yesterday in the 72-hole Junior Golf World Championships.

Jesmer, 16, had a two-stroke lead over Rick Matteoli of Healdsburg, as 550 youngsters teed off.

Tied for third place on the 6,727-yard Torrey Pines course were Aly Trompas of San Diego, American Junior champion and South Africa's Dale Hayes, the pre-tourney favorite. They had 74's.

FISH AND GAME

By AL GIDDINGS

Some Delicious Things To Do With Your Deer

THE QUESTION:

Today, I killed a buck. I've skinned the deer out, everything is neatly cleaned up, and I've got the four quarters cooling with all the blood-shot parts removed. I've got the horns nailed up on my gate with the tag attached, and I mailed in the report part of the tag to the Department of Fish and Game. I've got the heart, liver, kidneys and brains all soaked and cleaned, and in the refrigerator. Now what do I do?

THE ANSWER:

Well, if you've done all this you're on the right track, and you're set for some excellent meals.

You should let your deer hang for at least 10 days, and if it's a big buck, maybe a little longer. But in the meantime, try having a meal of brains and eggs for breakfast. Par-boil the brains, removing the membrane, and cook them, mixing with scrambled eggs, flavoring the eggs with bacon, onion bits, salt, pepper, etc., and frying all together. It's excellent.

VENISON LIVER also can provide an excellent meal. It can be as tender and as tasty as the best calves liver. Cooked with bacon and onions and fried just right, nothing beats it, especially in the mountains.

The heart: I like it diced, salted and peppered and braised in hot olive oil. Flowering gives it an added flavor, but don't cook it too long, and have it with scallopped or fried potatoes.

And the kidneys — they should be from a young buck. Skin and soak, dice, roll in flour and fry in butter with mushrooms. After they have browned add some chicken broth and simmer until tender. About 20 minutes thickens the gravy and serve over buttered toast or with steamed rice. Try this with a glass of wine and you'll know that you've got it made.

AND IF 10 DAYS have passed, try using all your chops and loins fresh. Don't freeze. The secret is to cook these in popping hot olive oil with a little salt added to the hot oil for better flavor.

Then put the chops and the ribs, flowered slightly and salted and peppered liberally, into the hot olive oil. Braise for 15 seconds and then turn and braise the other side. This retains the flavor, yet the salt removes any strong venison flavor. Keep turning the meat, even five or six times, and taste continually until it's cooked the way you like it; but don't cook longer than medium rare inside. Even stew meat cooks up using this method. Eat piping hot with buttered french bread, a good mixed salad and a cold beer.

If you like the stew meat cooked this way fine, but meat for stew and meats for spaghetti sauces are also excellent. If all the blood-shot meat and most of the fat has been removed, I have had good results in freezing these cuts for use at a later date.

Now this is a specialty that I learned from Dave Crivelli of Point Reyes over 20 years ago. Dave was really a good cook.

KEEP YOUR HAM intact. Just like a leg of lamb purchased from your butcher; it can be fresh or frozen. Start your barbecue with a set of coals larger than usually used for a dinner cookout. Have a salad, vegetable or bean dish ready, with french bread sliced thin and butter standing by. Put the entire ham on the barbecue, salting and peppering both sides, and basting occasionally using an olive oil, wine and herb. In about four minutes you can make the first cut using a razor-sharp long-handled knife. Give the cut to your first customer on his buttered french bread. (The later cuts are best).

Then salt and pepper and baste the cut side, and turning the ham over, cut the other side. Keep salting, peppering and basting, making a thin cut every three or four minutes on each side of the ham as it cooks. This way, you've sealed the flavor in the ham, it's served at its best — hot and juicy and the flavor is fit for the epicure. One ham serves about 12 people to the consternation of your guests.

You should arrive with uncooked ham and announce that dinner will be served in just four minutes. Serve high balls in the meantime.

Tam, Marin Girls Win Swim Firsts

The San Rafael Swim Club finished seventh among 74 teams in the five-day Far Western AA Age Group, Swimming Championships which wound up Sunday at Foothill College in Los Altos.

Some 800 swimmers competed in the meet, which saw teams entered from 12 different western states, including Hawaii.

Vicki Mitgood of the Tamalpais Swim Club won both the girls' 15-17 age group 100 and 200-meter breastroke events. The only other Marin swimmer to win a first place was Denise Ham of the Marin Swim Club, who won the 200-meter individual medley in girls 15-17, in addition to getting a second, a fifth and a sixth.

Tamie McDuffie and Jo Hislop led the way for the San Rafael club. Tamie had four seconds, a seventh and an eighth in girls' 11-12 while Jo was runner-up for high-point trophy in girls' 13-14 with three second places, a third and a fifth.

FOUR PLACES

Joan Morehouse placed four times in the girls 15-17 while Bobby Placak placed twice in boys' 10-under. Also placing twice was Kathi Hislop in girls' 15-17, Wendy Peterman in girls' 15-17, Jeff Kamler in boys' 11-12 and Scott Hislop in boys' 10-under.

Kimi Fox placed three times in girls' 13-14 and Peter Behr and Molly Cross placed once each.

For the Marin Swim Club, Kim Hughes placed four times in girls' 11-12. Spencer Eldred placed three times in boys' 11-12, Sue Secondo placed twice in girls' 13-14. Rich DeMont and Linda Gibbon placed once each as did Pixie Massey, Ginger Massey and Nancy Scruggs of the Tamalpais Swim Club.

COVINGTON, La. (AP) — The New Orleans Saints trimmed three veterans from their roster yesterday, leaving 57 players in training camp.

Cut were running back Charlie Brown, center Dick Kasperek and linebacker Ernie Clark.

Giants' Mason Wins The Third Base Job

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Taking four straight games from a last place team enabled the San Francisco Giants to slip into first place. They hope to stay there by beating a next-to-last place team.

The Giants opposed Philadelphia today in the first of a three-game series.

The Giants, off yesterday, held the National League Western Division lead by a half a game over Cincinnati and Atlanta, who are tied for second.

Winners of five straight, the Giants were in third place, three games out last week before they took four from Montreal, the cellar team in the N.L. East.

The Phillies, rich in hitting but weak in pitching, are mired in fifth place, one notch above Montreal's expansion Expos.

Giants' manager Clyde King reported yesterday he is pleased with several lineup changes.

Don Mason, one of eight Giants to play third this season, has staked a permanent claim on the position with impressive hitting and fielding.

Willie McCovey, the N.L.'s leading home run producer with 39, is not being walked on purpose as much now because the Giants have a dangerous man hitting behind McCovey.

The No. 5 hitter now is Bobby Bonds, who has 25 homers and had been batting leadoff.

Marin Deputy Wins Softball MVP Honor

HEALDSBURG — Chuck Tyson, Marin County deputy sheriff, was named Most Valuable Player and three of his Sohner Tree Service teammates were named to the all-tournament team in last week's Windsor Softball Tournament of Champions, it was announced yesterday.

Catcher Nolan Wilson, first baseman Bill Archer and second sacker Ron McCamish were all-tourney selections as the an Anselmo club swept through the double-elimination affair without a loss.

Tyson hurled all four Sohner wins, collected six hits in 11 at-bats, and drove in the winning run in the championship game Friday against State titlist Storenetta's Dairy of Napa with a fence-rattling triple.

San Rafael Boat Wins In Oakland

Tony Ginomini of San Rafael won the blown gas hydro class of the National Drag Boat Association Championships at Oakland with a speed of 133.39 miles per hour aboard the "Tyrant" Sunday.

Nancy Gapinski Picks Mrs. Cann To Triumph

(Last in a six-part series)

Although Mrs. Lawrence Gapinski has the home course advantage for the second annual Marin County Women's Golf Tournament of Champions, she picks her tennis partner to win.

Her tennis partner on the San Anselmo Tennis Club team is Mrs. John E. Cann, women's golf champion of the Meadow Club in Fairfax. Nancy Gapinski is champ of San Geronimo National, where the tourney will be waged tomorrow.

THE LINEUP

Representatives of the four other participating women's golf clubs are defending T of C champion Mrs. William May of Indian Valley, Novato; Mrs. Don Roberts, Mill Valley; Mrs. Richard DeKay, Peacock Gap, San Rafael; and Charles Gondak, Marin County Club, Novato.

They'll tee off in two threesomes at 8:30 a.m. for the 18 holes of medal play without handicaps.

Mrs. Gapinski, a fine golfer with a seven handicap, has been club champ both years the San Geronimo group has been in existence. Prior to that, she was club champ at Sonoma National. "Lately, I haven't been playing there much, although I'm still a member," said Mrs Gapinski.

The 43-year-old shot-maker has been playing golf for "about 20 years." In addition, she plays guitar and teaches folk guitar.

She and her husband, a lab administrator for Marin Medical Labratories in San Rafael, have two children, Bruce, 15, sophomore at Drake High, and Laurie, 12, seventh grader at Redhill School. The family home is at 139 Laurel Avenue, San Anselmo.

Mrs. Gapinski said she averages about two rounds of golf a week, including some with her husband. "His handicap is not as low as mine but he seems to beat me," she said.

Stock Market Hit By Profit Takers

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks fell back along a broad front today in an extension of the profit taking which began yesterday after last week's big rise. Trading was light.

Among the most active issues were Benguet, the Philippine Gold Mining Company, American Cement, Jos. Schlitz Brewing, Wheeling Pittsburgh Steel, Natomas and Northern Indiana Public Service.

There were several point-plus losers in the electronics, with IBM and Fairchild Camera among the widest movers. The former fell 9¼ Monday following a sharp rise last week when it introduced a new, small computer which was expected to be competitive with others in the industry.

Weakness was noticeable in the oil group, with rails and conglomerates also on the soft side in many instances.

Steels, motors and chemicals generally traded in narrow ranges. So did most airlines, aircrafts and rails.

U.S. Board Simplifies Truth-In-Lending Law

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Reserve Board has simplified its truth-in-lending rules covering the granting of discounts for prompt payment of bills.

The new rule, effective immediately, eliminates the need to show single payment discount transaction in terms of annual percentage interest rates if the discount is less than 5 per cent. The mathematical formula for determing the rate above 5 per cent was simplified.

Disenchantment In Earnings Multiples

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q — My portfolio consists of round lots of American Telephone, Bethlehem Steel, Freeport Sulphur and Golf Oil. What is your opinion on these for present income and long-term growth? — D.C.

A — When combining goals such as income and growth an investor must be willing to compromise. A yield of 4.5 per cent is still consistent with long-term growth but when a yield rises much higher than this — at least in today's market — one can be fairly certain that investors have become disenchanted with near-term growth prospects.

Both Freeport Sulphur and Bethlehem Steel are prime examples of this. In Freeport's case, easing of sulphur prices begun in 1968 contributed to an earnings slowdown this year. Shares, which had sold at earnings multiples in the 30s, are now valued by investors at less than half this ratio.

In Bethlehem's case, investors began to lose interest back in the early 1960s and multiples have deteriorated steadily each year to well below 10 at present price.

I would replace these two issues with Kellogg Co. and Central & South West, each selling about 16 times expected 1969 earnings, yielding 4 per cent and 4.5 per cent respectively.

Q — I bought American Can some years ago. I am getting 6 per cent on my initial investment at 31¼ but only 3 percent on today's price. I always considered this a good investment but now wonder if I should sell and buy something yielding 6 per cent — R.R.

A — Your figures do not agree with mine, which show that the current dividend rate of $2.20, when divided by your purchase price, works out to 7 per cent and on recent quotes to 4.7 per cent. As to buying a high-yield issue, the answer to the above reader also applies to your question. American Can's 14 per cent gain an second-quarter sales was only partially carried down to earnings because of temporary operating problems. Diversification should supplement the company's leading position in metal containers. American Can is still a good long-pull investment.

Reclaiming Metals

DALLAS (UPI) — Electro Extraction, Inc., has begun operations to reclaim copper and aluminum from old cable by a new process in a plant at Wylie, Tex. The firm is a joint venture of Commercial Metals Co. of Dallas and the Capital Wire and Cable Corp. of Plano, Tex. In addition to the copper and aluminum, the new process reclaims the insulation materials instead of burning them away and adding to air pollution.

Bank Accounting To Add Stocks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Administrator of National Banks has ordered banks to change their accounting methods to include profits and losses on the sale of securities in net income figures.

Banks now report income from operations, exclusive of securities gains and losses. The rule apparently settles a long-standing dispute in the accounting profession concerning the proper way to evaluate bank income.

The effect of the rules will be to scale down the reported net profit of banks during times of rising interest rates. When interest rates increase, banks generally record paper losses on the sale of securities.

The new accounting system may save some banks political embarrassment. Many banks have reported record profits recently, adding to the criticism in Congress and elsewhere of record high interest rates.

New Holding Firm

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI) — South Jersey Gas Co. directors have tentatively approved creation of a holding company called South Jersey Industries, Inc., as a diversification move. It is proposed to exchange 1.5 share of the holding firm for each share of South Jersey Gas.

Monitor Contract

LONG BEACH (UPI) — McDonnell-Douglas Corp. has given Honeywell, Inc., a $10 million contract to build a performance monitor system for the DC10 super airliner.

Hydrex Pest Control Opens Marin Franchise In San Rafael

Marin County headquarters of Hydrex Pest Control Co. have now been established on the San Rafael Miracle Mile.

Heretofore the company has maintained a Marin telephone listing but on an intercity exchange with service trucks coming from Fremont. Owner-manager of the Marin County franchise, Mrs. Louise Loibl, has leased space at 2048 Fourth Street for her office, through Herman Deitch, realtor. She is also vice president of the parent company , which is based in North Hollywood and has 22 franchised offices throughout the state.

Hydrex specializes in all phases of termite and general pest control. Service men in mobile units are equipped with gear and supplies to work in homes, apartments and industry.

Did I say men? In Marin it will be somewhat different. Hydrex will employ women to render general pest control service. But Thomas Murray, will head the termite department .

L. F. CZUFIN of Sleepy Hollow, public relations and advertising manager for Chevron Chemical Co. will be a panel member at a United Nations symposium on the problems and prospects of chemical industries in the less developed countries. The meeting will be held in New York on Sept. 8.

Czufin will speak particularly on export market development requirements for the Indian chemical industry. In the past he has been to India and other countries on specific assignments for both Chevron and the United Nations.

HELMUT K. SCHMID of Novato has been appointed assistant vice president and manager of Crocker-Citizens National Bank's Santa Rosa office. He joined the bank in 1963. Since then he has served both as assistant manager and manager and assistant vice president in San Anselmo. He has been assistant vice president and assistant manager at the San Rafael main office since early 1968.

SEVERAL NEW APPOINTMENTS have been made at the A. G. Schoonmaker Co., Sausalito:

Thomas D. Blackaller Jr. of Kentfield, formerly assistant to the president, has been named director of sales.

Howard Vincent of Terra Linda, formerly associated with General Dynamics Corp., has been appointed director of contract administration.

William H. Gainey of Daly City, formerly purchasing agent, has been promoted to director of manufacturing.

Daniel J. J. Pirhofer, formerly chief engineer of Sun Electric Co., San Leandro, has been appointed director of engineering.

WILLIAM W. HILLER of Larkspur has been appointed assistant manager of the San Francisco office of Kindler, Laucci and Day. He has been in the insurance brokerage field for 23 years. Before his new association he was resident vice president in San Francisco for Sayre and Toso, where he had been seven years.

EDWARD W. TUESCHER of Mill Valley has been named underwriting manager of the San Francisco liability-property-surety branch office of CNA Financial Corp. with the firm since 1962, he was previously excess and surplus lines underwriting manager in San Francisco.

Sutro Predicts Growth For Underwriters

SAN FRANCISCO (BW) — Mortgage investment trusts will play a permanent and growing role in the field of real estate financing, Robert Sutro, chairman of Sutro Mortgage Investment Trust, has told members of the Security Analysts Society of San Francisco.

"You have not seen the last of underwritings of new real estate investment trusts," said Sutro.

He explained that the recent depressed state of the stock market has "tended to obscure the opportunities inherent in this investment vehicle."

"In a climate of intense competition for investment dollars, we believe the mortgage investment trust provides great opportunities for sound participation in real estate investments," said Sutro.

MONTGOMERY WARD

50% off

WARDS high-speed grabber that socks a wider tread to the road than others in its class. Built to let you go in confidence over open highways even at high speeds. Carries you during sustained driving with greater safety, better stability, and immediate steering response from a husky tread that's built over 4-ply extra-strong nylon cord construction. Digs in for traction. Stands up to road impact damage. How do we know? Because we track-tested our H.S.T. under conditions that you'll probably never see and at speeds you'll never reach. And it was still ready for more. Get it. And you'll be getting a 36-month guarantee against tread wearout and a life-time quality and road-hazard guarantee. Plus a 50% savings on the 2nd H.S.T. Surprising, isn't it? Not really! Where else can you get a deal like this!
